A MOTHER'S TROUBLES

A mother's unending work and devotion drains and strains her physical strength and leaves its mark in dimmed eyes and careworn expressions—she ages before her time.

Any mother who is weary and languid would start taking Scott's Emulsion of Norwegian Cod Liver Oil as a strengthening food and bracing tonic to add richness to her blood and build up her nerves before it is too late. Start Scott's Emulsion today—its fame is world-wide. It is free from alcohol.

MOVE TO KILL ASBURY PARK'S MILE-LIMIT LAW

Asbury Park, Mar. 26.—It has not been definitely established just who is responsible for the sending to several residents here for circulation petitions calling upon the city commissioners to "act as they see fit and proper," to have repealed or declared unconstitutional the one-mile limit law barring liquor licenses in this community. Ten copies of the petition it is said, are in the hands of high license advocates.

The petition sets forth that the law was projected on Asbury Park at the behest of the Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Association in 1896. "We believe," it goes on, "that Ocean Grove has the right to govern within its bounds. We feel the same right rests with us. We feel every principle of American independence and democracy is void by the above law."

The petition concludes with a plea that Asbury Park be permitted to "exercise the right of expression by vote on local option."

Traverse R. Steed, a Sunset avenue builder, received one of the petitions. If he participates in the movement at all, he said, it would be for the purpose of having the question submitted to the legal vote of the people.

MRS. FEICKERT TO ADDRESS SUFFRAGISTS

How the Presidential suffrage bill went to its death last week at the hands of the New Jersey legislature will be told tomorrow afternoon at Carteret Arms by the State president of the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association, Mrs. Edward F. Feickert, of this city. The address will be given in connection with the monthly meeting of the Elizabeth Equal Suffrage League, and all who are interested will be welcome, whether they are suffragists or not.

As readers of the newspapers already know, there was no attempt on the part of the Legislature to prove or disprove the wisdom of the bill, and Mrs. Feickert, who with a number of other prominent suffragists was present at the so-called hearing, will tell the story. The meeting will begin at 3:30 o'clock, Mrs. Feickert speaking at about 4.15.

The suffragists have secured as the speaker for the meeting April 30 Miss Janet Richards, the well-known lecturer on current events. Miss Richards is one of the best known suffragists in the East.

HELPS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

—VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

Letters with this department Miss Lee will gladly answer any inquiry relative to domestic science. A stamped envelope must accompany for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

In seeking to reduce the high cost of living, the proper utilization of both dried fruit and fish play an important part, and during the Lenten season, when meat is conspicuous by its absence, such dishes are particularly seasonable.

Few housekeepers know that there are seven varieties of dried fish that may be served as the principal course of the home luncheon or dinner. These include smoked salmon, finnan haddie, codfish, bloaters, herring, halibut and salt mackerel.

In spice they are decidedly less than the fresh varieties and they certainly "go farther," because they absorb some of the water in which they are soaked. In preparing these fish, salmon, finnan haddie and halibut are put on to cook in cold water and brought to the boiling point before using, while codfish and mackerel will require soaking over night. Herrings and bloaters must be scalded and dried thoroughly. In no case should fish of this description be allowed to soak too long, as this destroys the delicious smoked flavor.

Salmon can be used for either breakfast, luncheon or dinner. Creamed, scrambled with a few eggs, or formed into flat cakes with mashed potato, it makes an excellent breakfast relish. For dinner, it may be broiled about twelve minutes, then spread with Maitre d'Hotel butter and served on a hot platter with baked, stuffed potatoes.

Finnan haddie is delicious broiled and used with curried rice for dinner or supper, fricked like dried beef with a little butter, reheated in a cream sauce and served on halved baking powder biscuits and also grilled and served on a bed of mashed turnips and potatoes.

Codfish is so universally known that almost every housekeeper has her own favorite recipes, but the following is a very novel and appetizing way of preparing it: After soaking, bring to the boil and cook for a few minutes. Then drain, flake and dry thoroughly. Meanwhile, fry out several slices of salt pork until they are crisp, then remove them from the fat, add the fish and cook to a light brown. Pour off every particle of fat in the pan, cover with a seasoned cream sauce and serve very hot, accompanied by corn bread.

As bloaters are not dressed before curing, they should always be well-cleaned and scalded. Either broiled or baked in the oven, they are delicious. For broiled bloaters, split and clean them and then scald with boiling water. Drain, place a spoonful of well-seasoned bread dressing in each and lay them in a casserole containing some hot water and beef dripping. Bake about twenty-five minutes (covered) and baste frequently while cooking. Then remove the cover, sprinkle with dried bread crumbs, dot with bits of butter and return to a hot oven to brown over. Serve in the casserole.

Herring is especially good to give flavor to other foods. Cut in bits and mixed with potato salad (diced). Heated in tomato sauce and poured over toast, or served with egg sauce and hashed browned potatoes, they furnish the basis for many a savory luncheon.

Smoked halibut may be utilized in all the ways suggested for salmon and also in a loaf, which may be prepared in the morning for supper. To make this, use one cupful and a half of flaked smoked halibut, half a cupful of boiled rice, half a tablespoonful of sugar, one tablespoonful of flour, half a teaspoonful of mustard, a few grains of cayenne, one teaspoonful of onion juice, the yolk of one egg, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter or butterine, three-quarters of a cupful of milk, a quarter of a cupful of vinegar, two tablespoonfuls of cold water and one tablespoonful of gelatine. Mix the dry ingredients together and add the yolk of egg and the melted shortening. Mix well, turn in the milk and vinegar and stir constantly over hot water until it thickens (do not boil). In the meantime, soak the gelatine in cold water, and to the hot mixture, after it is dissolved and add the onion juice, the rice and the fish, that has been simmered until tender, drained and flaked. Pour into a mold that has been rinsed with cold water, chill and serve unmolded on a bed of crisp lettuce leaves.

THE KING'S SONS AND THE PRINCESS—Part I

Once upon a time there lived a King who had two sons named Tito and Nardo.

Tito loved his father very dearly and wanted him to live as long as he did, but Nardo loved his father only because he was a king and waited with longing for his death so that he could have his share of the wealth; and besides that he knew if he could be rid of his brother Tito he could be King.

So one day the wicked Nardo began to think of some plan by which he could be rid of Tito so that his lucky star and that it would guide father would make him King and me to you."

He pretended to be very kind to Tito, and they went hunting and riding together, but one day when they were in the forest Nardo fell upon Tito and took off his clothes and tied him to a tree.

He then tore his poor brother's clothes and also his own, so that he could tell the King a wild beast had attacked them and that poor Tito had been slain.

Nardo told the King he defended Tito, and was almost killed in doing so, and that just as the beast was carrying off his brother he made a last effort to save him, and that was the way he happened to save his poor brother's clothes to bring back.

Nardo pretended to grieve and feel very sad, indeed, over the sad fate of his brother, but all the time he was thinking, "Now I will be King as soon as my father is out of the way."

But the King did not die soon enough to suit the wicked, scheming Nardo and one night when the old King was in bed asleep he bribed a servant as wicked as himself to help him to bind the King and cast him into a dungeon under the castle.

Here the poor old King stayed for months, with only a little food and no light, excepting that which crept in through the narrow window bars.

After Tito was left tied to the tree by his bad brother he gave himself up for lost, for he knew that wild beasts roamed the forest, and that if one of those did not devour him he would starve, for he could not unfasten the cords which bound him.

But that night when he had given up all hope Tito heard a creeping noise near the tree where he stood, and it seemed to come nearer and nearer until it was close beside him.

Then he could make out words in a funny sing-song voice:

"I'll find the Prince tied to a tree,
But with this stick I'll make him free."

Tito turned his head and saw an old witch hobbling toward him, and when she reached the tree she stopped.

"Ah! there you are, my dear," she said. "Your wicked brother did not know that you were born under a

Then the witch touched Tito with her cane and he was dressed in a suit of black velvet with a long plume in his hat.

"You will need a horse, too," said the witch, and she struck a rock and before Tito there appeared a beautiful black horse with trappings of gold and velvet.

"Now, my Prince, ride away to your Princess; you will find her waiting for you in a tower on top of a mountain, which you will see when you leave the forest."

"But what can I do for you, my good woman? You have saved my life?" said Tito.

"You can rescue the Princess," said the witch. "And remember that all the witches are not bad; some of them are good. Just like you morals."

So Tito said good-by to the witch and rode away, wondering at all the strange things that had happened, and wondering what strange thing would happen now that he was to rescue a princess.

When he came to the edge of the forest he saw the mountain, and on its top the tower just as the witch had said.

Tito looked at the high mountain and wondered how he ever would be able to reach the top, for the trees and bushes grew thick and there were many rocks to climb over.

But Tito urged his horse up the rocky steep and, to his surprise, the rocks, trees and bushes seemed to part and a path was made for his horse right up to the tower.

Tomorrow I will tell you how he rescued the Princess.

BEN WELCH TONIGHT AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Ben Welch's Big Show comes to the Plainfield Theatre tonight. It will be found that Welch (himself), as usual contributes the most striking feature in addition to playing the chief comedy role. This clever comedian will be seen in a specialty again this season, but it is a trifle out of the ordinary offering, inasmuch as it is a dramatic specialty in which the serious element predominates. It proves conclusively that Ben Welch has the power of touching the human heart with pathos as easily as he can make the average person laugh.

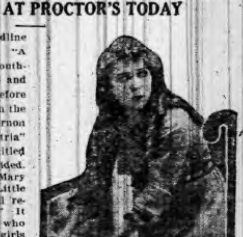
Sid Gold and Leona Earl, in an up-todate dancing number of the ballroom type bring a most pleasing number in the show, and other specialties are given by Pat Kearney, Frank P. Murphy, Florence Rother, Billy Wild, Vic Casmore and others. Welch never has a poor show, but he himself says, "My show this season comes the nearest of realizing my ideas of what a show should be of any one I ever had."

JUNE CAPRICE AT PROCTOR'S TODAY

June Caprice appears in the headline attraction at Proctor's today, in "A Child of the Wilds," as a little Southern girl who would rather romp and play than study. But that is before Frank Trent undertakes to teach in the wild Southern mountains. Mrs. Vernon Castle appears at Proctor's in "Patria" and a ludicrous Fox Comedy entitled "The Cloud Puncher" is also provided.

Tomorrow, by special request, Mary Pickford returns in "A Poor Little Rich Girl." William Farnum will reappear in "The Price of Silence." It tells of a United States Senator who endeavors to benefit the boys and girls who are forced to work in factories and mines to earn their daily bread. In addition to these two wonderful pictures and stars, Mrs. Vernon Castle appears in "Patria." Although this program has cost an enormous sum, a nominal admission will be charged.

On Wednesday William Farnum will be retained in "The Price of Silence," and Gail Kane will appear in a William A. Brady story of the West, entitled "The Red Woman."



At Proctor's Theatre tomorrow

"DAUGHTER OF THE GODS" HERE MARCH 29-30-31

At the Plainfield Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, matinee daily

"A Daughter of the Gods" appears at the Plainfield Theatre in film March 29, 30 and 31, as the ever-increasing demand for this scenic sensation.

To produce this scene was one of the most difficult things that Mr. Fox had to contend with, for it was no easy matter to produce children bright and attentive enough to follow the lessons given them as to what to do and how to do it. The parents of the children were fearful lest some harm come to their offspring, and, to satisfy them, it was found necessary to defray all the expenses of the parents during all the time that this fairyland-like scene was being enacted.

A special building was erected with trained nurses and physicians in constant attendance to care for the little ones and their parents. Due to the extreme heat of the tropical sun and the humidity, both doctors and nurses were kept on the alert lest some of the children succumb to the unusual weather conditions.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Attractions at the Plainfield Theatre tomorrow and Wednesday will include an all-star bill of five numbers, each one a feature.

An extra attraction will be offered each night in addition to the regular program. Tomorrow will be "Country Store" night, at which time $25 in gold pieces, potatoes, onions and other valuables will be given away. Wednesday will be "contest" night. This new feature has met with instant approval from patrons of the theatre, and is now a regular feature. It includes pie-eating contests, diving in flour for coins, and other equally funny antics.

WAR CALL FOR STATE TROOPS

Regiments Ordered Out For Guard Duty.

ARMY WORK IS SPEEDED UP

Two New Departments Created and General Wood Transferred From Governors Island to New Headquarters at Charleston, S. C.—President Signs Order Increasing Strength of Navy to 87,000 Men and Recruiting Will Be Rushed.

Washington, March 26.—Orders to make effectively ready all of the man power of the nation in the event of a declaration of war between the United States and Germany have been issued by the war department. Under the personal direction of President Wilson the military authorities cleared the way for the organization of an army of millions of men immediately upon action of congress when it meets in extraordinary war session a week from today.

A sweeping general order issued by Chief of Staff Major General Hugh L. Scott reorganized the entire departmental framework throughout the country to "facilitate the centralization of commands."

At the same time more than a dozen regiments of the national guard were called into the federal service under orders to guard and protect the vital interests of the nation's life from attack coming from without and possible disloyalty within.

Under the reorganization plan the war department will be able to speedily enlist and mobilize an army of millions through the extension of the skeleton organization now in the service. No move will be made toward augmenting the regular force, however, until congress has spoken. If congress declares the existence of a state of war the war department will be ready to start enlistment at once. A call for volunteers or legislation authorizing some form of compulsory military training would bring to the newly organized headquarters throughout the country the men needed.

Work For Guardsmen.

Meantime the administration will rely upon the national guard for home defense, and throughout the country the militia will be available for guarding bridges, waterways, arsenals and other government plants and munitions factories which will be essential to the army in time of war.

The army reorganization plan establishes six bureaus at four great military departments throughout the country, with a general officer in command in each. The order is effective May 1. The war department will move at once to make the necessary changes. Major General Leonard Wood will leave the department of the east and will take over the command of the new southeastern department, comprising the southern Atlantic and east gulf coast states, which the war department looks upon as probably the point of the greatest strategic importance at this time because of conditions in the Caribbean and because of the fact that these states lie nearest to Panama zone.

Major General Franklin Bell will take the new eastern department, and Brigadier General Clarence R. Edwards will resign the command of the Panama canal zone to Brigadier General Edward H. Plummer, General Edwards assuming command of the new northeastern department in New England. The order reorganizing the service reads:

To facilitate the centralization of commands the United States is divided into six military departments in place of the four now existing. The new organization becomes effective May 1, 1917, and comprises the following:

The Northwestern Department—To embrace the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut; headquarters at Boston.

The Eastern Department—To embrace the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, District of Columbia, canal zone and Porto Rico; headquarters at Governors Island, New York.

Two New Departments.

The Southeastern Department—To embrace the states of Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi, together with the coast defenses of New Orleans and the coast defenses of Galveston; headquarters at Charleston, S. C.

The Central Department—To embrace the states of Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado; headquarters at Chicago.

The Southern Department—To embrace the states of Louisiana except the coast defenses of New Orleans, Texas except the coast defenses of Galveston, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona; headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex.

The Western Department—To embrace the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, California, Nevada, Utah and the territory of Alaska; headquarters at San Francisco.

Major General Leonard Wood will command the southern department.

Major General Franklin Bell will command the eastern department.

Major General Hunter Liggett will command the western department.

Brigadier General W. Edward Plummer will command the troops in the Panama zone.

Other department commanders will remain as at present.

The militia organizations called into the federal service will be detailed to service in the neighborhood of their home cities, and their muster into the national service was ordered merely to centralize control of the forces. They will be assigned to guard all threatened points where crank violence or conspiracies by foreign sympathizers might become effective and will protect important points, supplies or means of communication.

Massachusetts, Second and Ninth regiments; Vermont, Company B, First regiment; Connecticut, First regiment; New York, Second and Seventy-first regiments; New Jersey, First and Fifth regiments; Pennsylvania, First and Third regiments.

The Thirteenth Pennsylvania regiment, new in the federal service, will not be mustered out.

19,000 More Men For Navy.

The need of men and more men to man the navy, which forms the nation's first line of defense, was emphasized when President Wilson by executive orders increased its authorized enlisted strength to 87,000 men. The executive order was made public by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, with a plea for patriotic aid in increasing navy enlistments.

The order, issued under authority of the naval appropriation act of the present year, would add 19,000 to the enlisted personnel. Every one of them will be needed to man the new ships being rushed to completion, the reserve fleet ordered into commission and the mosquito fleet of "submarine chasers" which has been ordered constructed in record time. It is probable that a further increase in the legal limit will be asked when congress convenes.

Under the legal authorization the naval strength was limited to 68,000 men, with an allowance of 8,000 men in training. The recent recruiting campaign, while it has materially increased enlistments, has brought the strength up to only about 62,000 men.

RAIDER IN CHINA SEA.

Big Cruiser Has Captured British Crew Aboard.

Tokyo, March 26.—Reports received by Japanese shipping companies from Singapore indicate that a German raider has passed from the Indian ocean into the China sea. The raider is a converted cruiser of 4,000 tons, with a crew of more than 350, including many Spaniards and Chinese.

A Chinese skipper who escaped the raider in the straits reports that the raider has a captured British crew on board.

How to stop dandruff and loss of hair with Resinol

Here is a simple, inexpensive treatment that will generally stop dandruff and scalp itching, and keep the hair thick, live and lustrous:

At night, spread the bare part and rub a little Resinol Ointment into the scalp gently, with the tip of the finger. Repeat this until the whole scalp has been treated. Next morning, shampoo thoroughly with Resinol Soap and hot water. Work the creamy Resinol lather well into the scalp. Rinse with gradually cooler water, the last water being cold. All druggists sell Resinol Soap and Ointment.

Two American engineers who have just arrived in Switzerland from Vienna say Ambassador Penfield, his staff and many American families have packed their belongings and are ready to leave the Austrian capital at any moment. The travelers say Austrians generally believe that war with America is inevitable.

Major General Hunter Liggett will command the western department.

Brigadier General W. Edward Plummer will command the troops in the Panama zone.

Other department commanders will remain as at present.

SEA GIRT CAMP IN SHAPE AGAIN

Ready For Troops at Mobilization Call.

CORDS OF FIREWOOD STACKED

Reservation and Buildings Are Put In Readiness For New Jersey's Soldiers. Mystery About Recent Purchase of Souvenir Cannon on Grounds Leads to Stories of German Spies Being Busy.

Sea Girt, March 26.—Activities around the state encampment reservation at this place indicate the probability of military occupation in the near future. Great stacks of cord wood have been sent here and the buildings and grounds put into shape for the reception of troops at any time.

Because of the investigation of several thousand soldiers this week or next have all been traced to employees of the reservation, but Superintendent William Cranmer of the reservation would not confirm the reports.

At the time the United States government severed diplomatic relations with Germany he was notified to be prepared for any move, and it is possible that the authorities regard this as sufficient to cover any newly planned activities.

In view of recent disclosures concerning the efforts of German agents to secure information concerning the military camps and fortified positions of the government the presence here some time ago of a German who said he was a manufacturer of novelties is causing considerable discussion.

The guns purchased from the state eventually by the big guns that have stood watch over the reservation from the beach front for many years. He gave the impression that he pelted the guns up and made souvenir novelties of some kind from them. The guns, however, have never been moved from their original positions. They were put here many years ago, and it was necessary to construct a temporary spur of the railroad to the beach front to transport the pieces to their present bases.

ATTACKS "FLIP" VERDICT.

Judge Ready to Set Aside Jersey City Jury Finding.

Jersey City, March 26.—Because a jury is alleged to have rendered a verdict on the flip of a coin in the Hudson county circuit court Judge Luther A. Campbell has indicated that he will issue a rule to show cause why the verdict should not be set aside if affidavits are presented.

Octavio Boc[illegible] brought suit [illegible]st Giannotti, also of Wes[illegible] recover $5,000 for injur[illegible] when the latter shot him[illegible]d. Giannotti put in a counter claim. The jury was unable to agree until finally one of them hit on the plan of reaching the "verdict" by the flip of a coin. The jury, abiding by the toss, brought in a verdict against both plaintiff and defendant in that neither was entitled to damages.

57 AMERICAN PRISONERS.

Moewe Took Home Tenders From a Sunken Prize.

Newport News, Va., March 26.—The sinking of the British steamer Esmeraldas by the German commerce raider Moewe, news of which was first received here by representatives of the British government and officially confirmed in a dispatch from Berlin, will furnish the American government a problem similar to that presented by the Yarrowdale case.

There were fifty-seven Americans on the Esmeraldas when she was captured and sunk, and these were taken to Germany aboard the Moewe. The men, all of whom were employed as firemen or boatiers, were signed on at Newport News.

SIMON C. LONG DEAD.

Pennsylvania Road Manager Stricken on Train.

Philadelphia, March 26.—Simon Camron Long, general manager of the Pennsylvania railroad lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie, became suddenly ill soon after a local train on which he was traveling to his home at Merion, Pa., had left the West Philadelphia station.

He was unconscious by the time the Fifty-second street station was reached and was taken from the train and carried into the waiting room. A physician, who was hurriedly summoned, said death had been almost instantaneous.

North Haven, Conn.—"When I was 45 I had the Change of Life which is a trouble all women have. At first it didn't bother me but after a while I got bearing down pains. I called in doctors who told me to try different things but they did not cure my pains. One day my husband came home and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash?' Well, I got them and took about 10 bottles of Vegetable Compound and could feel myself regaining my health. I also used Lydia E. BETTER THAN CALOMEL
Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. Years of efforts to find a right but these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logey" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

DEFENSE LEAGUE HOLDS ITS FIRST DRILL

The Home Defense League met on Saturday night at the Evergreen Avenue school, where a drill was held under the direction of A. W. Ransome.

Only a few members of the league were absent. They were directed to report at Police Headquarters on Monday night for pistol and rifle practice. The members of the league seem to be enthusiastic over the work they have been organized to perform in the event of an emergency, and they are making every effort to attain a degree of perfection in manoeuvring and the art of soldiery so that when the time comes for them to act they may do so with some degree of efficiency.

Mayor Calkins expressed himself as well pleased after the drill on Saturday night.

The Mayor will go to Montclair tomorrow night for the purpose of telling the people of that town just how Plainfield has prepared for defense.

PLATTSBURG CAMP IN MOVIES

Former Mayor P. H. Stewart will speak at the meeting in Newark on Friday night next in the interest of universal military training.

At the meeting will be shown a two thousand foot film of activities of the 1916 military training camp at Plattsburg, N. Y. It will be the first time this reel has been shown to the public.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL

Run-down, Weak and Nervous—Made Strong by Vinol.

For the benefit of Plainfield school girls who overwork and get into highly nervous, weak and run-down condition, we publish this letter from Dorris Copller, of Fort Worth, Tex.—"I go to the high school and take music lessons, and became run-down, weak and very nervous, so could not do anything. I would shake all over and could have screamed at times, and was really unfit to keep on with my studies. Mother purchased a bottle of Vinol for me and within a week I was better, and in two weeks I had gained five pounds and felt fine."

It is the curative, strengthening elements of beef and cod liver peptones, aided by the blood-making, revitalizing effect of iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, contained in Vinol, which made it so successful in building up health and strength and overcoming the nervous condition of Miss Copller, and we ask every school girl in Plainfield who is in a like condition to try Vinol, on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benefit.

THIS IS AWFUL!

Somebody with nothing better to do has invented Chinese shorthand. Chinese shorthand! Can you imagine it? And just look at the Chinese language already. Posterity should be considered before a thing like this is done. Look ahead ten or twelve centuries. Think of what an orgy the archaeologists will have with the shorthand inscriptions they find in the ruins of Hong Kong! Look at the shorthand mysteries that have been wished on this generation by the stone-chipping stenographers! Look at the hieroglyphics the Greeks and the Romans cooked up and left lying around! Chinese shorthand certainly will be ghastly for posterity.

P. H. S. GIRLS WIN OVER FLEMINGTON

Local Team Took the Long End of a 30 to 12 Victory Saturday

The Plainfield High School girls' basketball sextette defeated the girls of Flemington High School in the local school gymnasium Saturday afternoon by the score of 30 to 12. The victory gives the Red and Blue team a total of 14 games during the past season, two of which were lost.

The Plainfield team found the game easy to win and played steadily from start to finish, scoring 16 points in the first half and 14 in the second. The ball appeared to be in the locals' hands a greater part of the time, and the passing was excellent.

Miss Mullin and Miss Smith held the Red and Blue defensive positions and were able to keep their opponents to little shooting. Miss Hanson was Flemington's star player. She did all the scoring and played a fast game.

LOCAL ALL-STARS TAKE FAST GAME

Close Their Season by Defeating Triangles at New Brunswick Court

The All-Stars of this city played their last game Friday evening when they defeated the strong Triangles of New Brunswick on the Middlesex county seat court by the score of 32 to 28. The Triangles are claimants of the championship title of both the city of New Brunswick and of Middlesex county.

The Queen City boys started in with a lead of six points early in the game, but this lead was lost before the first half of the contest was over, the end of which saw the Triangles ahead by a score of 14 to 10. In the opening of the second half the Stars again secured a fresh start, forged ahead into the lead once again and held it through to the finish.

SOMETHING NEW IN THE GUN CLUB WORLD

It is surprising to note the hundreds of sportsmen in all parts of the country who are resorting to the hand trap to get their quota of the pleasure and thrills which this great American sport affords.

Time was when the shotgun enthusiast was dependent upon the trapshooting club for this recreation and was lucky indeed if he did not have to journey many miles to indulge in the sport.

Today, however, the problem is solved in the hand trap, a portable device which may be laid on the floor of an automobile beside the gunease, taken on the train, on the yacht or easily carried. It is always ready for business and never loses its energy. It is to be found on the country estate and on the farm. The clerk in the city office becomes an independent as his employer, for while the latter may do his shooting at the country club or over the traps of the gun club in the city the clerk with hand trap, gun, shells and fifty or more hundred targets, may board a street car with his companions and in a very short time be experiencing all of the delights that go with the sport.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL DIVIDES GAMES

Wins Over Westfield Easily, But Lost Tight Game to Hope Chapel

The Grammar School basketball team played two games over the week-end, winning the first over a Westfield aggregation by a score of 28 to 13 and dropping the second to the Hope Chapel Boys' Club by a single basket, 27 to 25.

The Westfields were outclassed in every department of the first game and never had so much as a look-in for the final result, the locals managing to secure an early lead in the game.

The second, with the Hopes, was a regular tussle from beginning to end, and a fight for the lead in the scoring line was the order of the evening.

The physical training department of the Y. M. C. A. is now completing plans for holding the annual indoor circus on the evenings of Friday and Saturday, April 21 and 22. Members of the various departments are in training for the affair, which should prove to be quite successful. A number of such attractions have been held in previous years with large numbers attending the performances.

BETZENBERGER ASSISTS IN SAINTS' VICTORY

The recent bowling match between the Ramblers and St. Joseph's Club of the borough on the Eagles' alleys resulted in a victory for the latter combination (thanks to Betzenberger), which won the second and third sessions.

The home boys captured the first by a 54-pin margin and lost the second by 68. Rambler Betzenberger arrived on the scene in time for the final game, but a glance at his score gives one the impression that he showed up altogether too soon. One of his seven missed spares and good "filling" would have sealed the verdict, as only 17 pins separated the two totals, while there was a difference of but 31 pins for the series.

HOPE GIRLS vs. SOCIAL GIRLS

The Hope Chapel girls and the team from the St. Mary's Social Club will clash for the last time this season at the chapel court this evening. With the old-time rivalry between these two organizations still existing there is no doubt but that a rattling good game will be put on the boards. Thursday evening of this week the Hope Chapels will line up against the Comrade Club on the Netherwood Reformed church court.

TRIANGLES vs. RECREATION

The Recreation Five basketball team, runner-up for the city championship, will play the fast Triangle team of New Brunswick next Friday evening in the Plainfield High School gymnasium.

AN ANSWER TO AN OPEN CHALLENGE

Inner-Triangles Dispute Y. M. C. A. Seconds' Claim to City Championship Title

Sporting Editor, Courier-News:

It was with a great deal of amusement that I noticed a small article in Saturday's Courier-News, in which the Y. M. C. A. seconds claim the junior championship of the city of Plainfield for the season of 1916-17.

The Inner-Triangle Club held the championship for the season of 1915-16 and so far this season has not been beaten in a series of games by any junior team of this city. Several times the management has tried to schedule a game or series of games with the Y. M. C. A. seconds, but for some unknown reason no definite dates could be arranged.

The manager of the Y. M. C. A. seconds may pride himself upon his sense of humor (for we cannot help but look upon his challenge as a joke), but in order that we may be known as true sports the Inner-Triangle Club is ready even at this late date to arrange a series of games to decide the question.

The Inner-Triangle Club is situated on the corner of Midway and Leland avenues, and we take exceptional pride in giving all visiting teams a square deal.

Yours in sport,
JAMES S. CARSON,
Mgr. Inner-Triangles,
1114 Midway Ave.,
Plainfield, N. J.

[The claim of the Y. M. C. A. seconds was transmitted to the writer by Manager Campbell and was printed as a "claim." If Manager Campbell is willing to accept this challenge to settle the matter, not through these columns, but upon the basketball court, let him get in touch with Manager Carson. The floor of action is the only place, where the matter can be satisfactory settled.—Sporting Editor.]

ANOTHER VETERAN TO DROP FROM LIMELIGHT

The news from Waxahachie, Tex., that Hughie Jennings, Detroit manager, has decided Sam Crawford no longer is fit to hold down right field for the Tigers, removed another of the veterans from baseball in favor of younger sinews.

Crawford had been playing major league baseball as a regular for 18 years. Previous to that time he had walloped the ball in the minors for a couple of seasons. Crawford first played major league baseball in Cincinnati as a member of the old National League team three before the American League was organized. Cincinnati basked in the rays of his brilliant smashes for four years before relinquishing rights to him in favor of Detroit. He was awarded to the Tigers in the peace agreement of 1903 when the American League was recognized as a part of organized baseball.

Crawford was one of the mightiest sluggers who ever faced a pitcher. His hits were always smashed. They were solid, clean blows, and many of them were of the extra-base variety. It has been said of Crawford that he could hit a ball harder and farther than any man who ever played major league baseball. His batting average for the 18 years he spent in the majors as a regular was over the .300 mark—.311, to be exact.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When Constipated or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

more martyrs in one month in the cause of humanity, in the recent past, than in all the nineteen hundred years before.

The Christian today has a clear view and a straight road for his profession of Christianity. There are no Voltaires, Tom Paines, nor Robert Ingersolls today, to confuse the Christian on his way, and nothing but the indifference of the Christian, and a lack of passionate love of God that hinders him, and that rests with himself.

INTERNMENT CAMPS READY FOR ALIENS

Secret Service Campaign on Against Spy Danger.

Washington, March 26.—Every channel of government activity is working under pressure to provide "war insurance" for the nation in the event of war with Germany. An army of secret service men and agents of the department of justice, spreading a dragnet from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Mexican border, has made surveillance thousands of "spy suspects" and German sympathizers. A declaration of war between the United States and Germany will be followed immediately by wholesale arrests and internments.

A map of the thousands under surveillance are a vast number of German reservists caught in the United States at the outbreak of the European war and unable to get back to their colors. Every reservist has been listed by the secret agents, and a war declaration would be the signal for their immediate apprehension and internment. Plans are under way for several great internment camps in various parts of the country.

In addition to these reservists, the secret service agents have under surveillance many naturalized Germans whose activities during the recent crisis have brought them under suspicion. Many are wealthy and influential men in their communities.

While plans have been one objective of the secret agents, and scores of so called "amateur" plants have been dismantled in the national capital itself. The president and his advisers have decided on a vigorous campaign to eliminate all disloyalty from the army, the navy and the executive branches of the government, and secret service agents have been ordered to investigate the sympathies of all responsible officials. Congress will probably be asked to enact legislation barring from the military and naval service all but real Americans. Representative Griffin of New York has already begun a movement looking toward this end.

YEAR PETROGRAD DRIVE.

Russian Government Hears Germans Are Massing For Attack.

Petrograd, March 26.—Appeals of the ministers of Russia's provisional government for the loyal support of all Russians in these days of trial met with hearty response today.

Tremendous attacks launched by the Germans at several points on the Russian front makes the position of the new born republic critical. One of the appeals issued by the ministers states the Germans are massing a great force to strike at Petrograd.

Premier Lvoff received a telegram from Grand Duke Alexander Michelevitch, in Kiev, pledging loyalty to the new government. The pledge was also made in behalf of Grand Duchess Xenia, a sister of the former empress.

INSPECT NEGRO TROOPS.

Fifteenth Regiment, N. G. N. Y., Ready For Federal Service.

New York, March 26.—The Fifteenth regiment, national guard, New York, the new organization of negroes, was inspected in Lafayette hall by Colonel William Hayward, Lieutenant Colonel Lorillard Spencer and Captain Hamilton Fish, officers of the regiment.

The state has accepted the regiment, but cannot muster it until the federal government has accepted it. Federal officers are to inspect the regiment this week preparatory to incorporating it into the militia of the United States. There are 950 men in the regiment, and Colonel Hayward expects to double that number in the next five weeks.

SEES CHURCH SUICIDE.

New York Pastor Causes Stir In Resignation Letter.

New York, March 26.—Members of Calvary Baptist church at 123 West Fifty-seventh street listened in amazement while the Rev. David Ross, assistant pastor, read a letter to the congregation from the Rev. Joseph W. Kemp, the pastor, asserting that the church was "committing suicide" and "drifting into ghastly deception."

The letter announced Dr. Kemp's final refusal to reconsider his resignation tendered Feb. 18 last. The Rev. Mr. Ross quits with Dr. Kemp, who is in Canada conducting a series of Bible lectures.

Live Wire Kills Two.

Greenfield, Mass., March 26.—Two men were killed and a third badly burned at the plant of the Greenfield Electric Light and Power company, Rollo B. Kinsman, chief engineer, slipped from a steel frame where he was repairing a lightning arrester and fell across a live wire carrying 13,000 volts. He was killed instantly. In rescuing his body another employee was electrocuted.

Gould's Estate to Father.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., March 26.—Edwin Gould of Arden on the Hudson will be appointed administrator of the estate of his son, Edwin Gould, Jr., who was killed while hunting on the game preserves of the Goulds at Brunswick, Ga. He will inherit the $250,000 worth of personal property left by the boy.

FRENCH ADVANCE; BRITISH HALTED

German Resistance Has Stiffened Against English.

ST. QUENTIN IS THREATENED.

Teuton Troops Raid Trenches at Ypres, Finding Them Evacuated and British Retirement From Salient to Stronger Positions In Rear, Is Intimated—Germans Lost Positions to French.

London, March 26.—On the whole front from St. Quentin to Soissons the French pressed their attack on the German positions, making progress everywhere. As a result the position of the Germans in St. Quentin is precarious.

"In the course of the day a desperate struggle followed a strong defense by the enemy," says the French official statement, "but our soldiers, aroused by the spectacle of the ravages committed by the Germans, everywhere drove back the adversary, who suffered serious losses."

General Nivelle widened toward the north the wedge he is driving into the German lines between St. Quentin and La Fere, so that the French now occupy higher ground than St. Quentin itself, in the Somme valley. These new French positions are directly south of the city and only two miles from it.

Must Wait For British.

An impetuous attack by the French infantry, assisted by the heavy guns which they have brought into action, drove the Germans from the position extending from Castres through Essigny to Hill 121, east of the St. Quentin-La Fere railroad and on the irregular ridge that protected St. Quentin from the south. A German counter attack was broken by French artillery fire.

The French have made much progress in an enveloping movement on St. Quentin. This can be completed only when the British make a corresponding advance. Their lines join the French west of the city, but their advance has not kept pace with the French.

South of the Oise French detachments penetrated the lower forest of Coucy, the southern part of the large forest of St. Gobain, and reached the outskirts of Folembray and Coucy-le-Chateau. These two towns are on the edge of the slope which reaches its apex in the center of the forest and makes it a difficult position for infantry to take.

British Are Halted.

South of St. Gobain forest, which is in the region directly north and northeast of Soissons between the Oise and the Aisne, the French made some progress in their effort to envelope the forest from the southeast. Two attacks the Germans made against the Vregny-Margival front, five miles from the forest, were repulsed.

Practically no progress by the British is announced except that their position west of Croisilles, fifteen miles west of Cambrai, was improved. Evidently the Germans on this part of the front have reached their prepared positions. The British expect that the German retirement will spread to the region north of the present line, as indicated by explosions beyond Arras, and are prepared to follow this up.

The German official statement admits retirements before the French and British. It asserts that British trenches southeast of Ypres had been evacuated when German raiding troops entered them after a bombardment. The Ypres salient is the weakest sector of the British line. Its evacuation for stronger positions to the rear has often been discussed.

RUMOR OF GOETHALS AS WAR SECRETARY

Report In Washington Baker May Be Attorney General.

Washington, March 26.—Rumors persist that cabinet changes are in prospect despite reported denials from the White House. Particular point is given to them at this time in view of the probability of war. The latest rumor revived concerns the possibility of Attorney General Gregory's retirement to resume the practice of law.

Coupled with the Gregory report is gossip that Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, will be appointed attorney general.

The presence here of Major General George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, has suggested he might be chosen for the war portfolio.

General Goethals is chairman of the commission appointed under the Adamson law to investigate the working of the eight hour day for railroad trainmen. It was said that, while nothing was known of any intention to give General Goethals any new office under the federal government, it was more probable in the event of his being relieved from the eight hour commission he would be sent back to the isthmus to make arrangements for safeguarding the canal from attack.

Another suggestion heard in Washington, but which lacks any authoritative confirmation, is that if there is a change in the war department Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, might be appointed to succeed Secretary Baker.

TRY NEWARK ALDERMEN.

Lee and Baker Bribery Cases In Court Today.

Newark, N. J., March 26.—Alderman Thomas J. Lee, Jr., Democrat, and George Baker, Republican, who recently pleaded not guilty to indictments charging them with bribery, went to trial this morning before Judge Osborne and a jury in the quarter sessions court.

A representative of an Orange beating concern which was seeking a contract, it is alleged, gave each of the two aldermen a marked $100 bill. Baker when arrested had the marked bill. He asserted that it was given to him in payment of a loan, which he said he made to the bonding contractor the day before. He further declared that the case was a "frame-up." Lee was arrested and searched, but the bill which it was said was given him at the same time was never found.

PADEREWSKI IN PLAINFIELD

World's Famous Pianist Delights Great Audience in High School Auditorium

Those residents of Plainfield who have not had a winter of delights in the matter of music need blame only themselves. Never have so many good concerts been given here as in this season of 1916-17. And the climax was reached last night when Paderewski, generally considered the greatest living pianist, played at the high school auditorium before a large and more than enthusiastic audience.

The program opened with an air of Haendel's, deliciously simple and melodious, with a series of brilliant variations upon this theme by Brahms, a master of intricate harmonies.

Both of these numbers were played with a beautiful and intelligent restraint. There was no attempt to read into them any of the strange chaos of ultra-modern music or anything but their own severe beauty.

It was in the second half of the program that the audience went wild with pleasure and excitement. This is natural enough. For even the greatest performers needs a little time to get into communion with his hearers. Then, too, the more romantic music of this latter part of the program is the kind best suited to the temperament of this intensely emotional Pole. Surely never was Schumann's "Carnival" more wonderfully played. Its passages of unearthly charm took on new meanings. (Perhaps the beauty of no composer depends so much upon the interpreter as in the case of Schumann.)

When it came to the Chopin group the great audience simply could not get enough. And indeed never has the immortal Polish composer been interpreted quite so perfectly as by this compatriot of his. Chopin's is highly emotional music, none more so; and no pianist is better adapted by nature to play him than Paderewski. It takes the keen intelligence of the great artist never to step over the thin line separating true feeling from sentimentality. But he never errs.

This program is exactly the same as that to be given by Paderewski at Carnegie Hall this coming Saturday.

As usual, Paderewski was generous with his encores. A murmur of delight passed through the hall when he struck the opening notes of his own Minuet.

The piano is Paderewski's second self. He speaks through it in music as fully as other people speak through the medium of words. And not only is his technique so perfect that he can do what he wants with his instrument in his interpretation of great works, but he has a personality well worth expressing. He makes the piano speak of beauty and memorable things.

This concert was especially interesting in that it proved a program can be composed entirely of the best music, and yet held the attention.

FATHER BOGAN GIVES LITERARY HOUR

In St. Mary's Social Hall last evening, the Rev. Father Bogan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, provided a literary treat for the members of the Holy Name Society and their friends. It was announced that Father Bogan would continue these educational meetings from time to time.

In addition to reading several of the more beautiful of the short poems of Fathers Livingstone and Tabb, the local priest gave one or two paragraphs from the lectures of Robert Taylor, "Wedding Bob," as he was called in one of these lectures. Mrs. Taylor gave great praise to the Irish valor and stated that he was proud to be able to trace his own Irish lineage. During the course of the literary hour, Father Bogan referred to the part played by the Irish race in the wars of the world, concluding his short talk on this subject by reciting "The Banner of America," one of the best of the recent patriotic poems. Blanche Wilmot's poem composing Night with Death was also read. "The Banner of America" was considered particularly apropos as the concluding offering of a splendid literary program.

This "Literary Hours," as it was called, was arranged under the auspices of the Holy Name Society, of which Paul H. Burns is the president.

FEDERATION OF MISSIONS ELECT

Mrs. F. W. Jones is Chosen Head of Societies and Reports Are Presented

Officers for the coming year were elected and reports of the past twelve months were presented at the annual meeting of the Federation of Women's Missionary Societies held at Trinity Reformed church yesterday afternoon. There were about forty women present representing the different churches of the city and borough.

One of the helpful features was a discussion of methods employed in each society and these suggestions will be made use of during the year. The report of the treasurer showed a balance of $40. Mrs. Reuben Knox gave a report on home mission activities and Miss Stella Vermeule reviewed the foreign missionary work.

Mrs. Grace Williams, the retiring president, conducted the meeting and was in charge until after the election of the new officers which are as follows:

President, Mrs. Frank W. Jones, First Baptist church; first vice president, Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman, Crescent Avenue church; second vice president, Mrs. A. M. Nelson, Congregational church; third vice president, Mrs. Edward Baker, Jr., Temple Baptist church; fourth vice president, Mrs. V. P. Heath, Grace Methodist church; secretary, Mrs. Walter Manning, Monroe Avenue Methodist church; assistant, Mrs. John Groendyke, Park Avenue Baptist church; treasurer, Miss Helen Woodruff, Trinity Reformed church; chairman home mission committee, Mrs. J. A. Goodwin. The chairman of the foreign mission committee will be named later.

BOARD EXTENDS EASTER VACATION

Borough Schools Will Close on March 30—Open April 9

The borough Board of Education last night granted the request of the Parent-Teacher Association of the borough schools for an extension of the Easter vacation. A committee of five mothers, headed by Mrs. M. H. Ewart, were present at the meeting and made this request. The borough schools will close next Friday and open April 9. The Easter vacation was previously shortened in the school calendar to make up for the days lost last fall during the infantile paralysis scare.

Business mostly of a routine nature was transacted last night, and it was the final meeting of the retiring board. The seven members with President Cooley in the chair, were present. In the absence of Clerk Frank Rowley, Supervising Principal D. F. Aungst was appointed clerk pro tem.

Warrants amounting to $5,260.42 were authorized drawn to meet outstanding accounts.

Mr. Aungst in his monthly report gave the average attendance of scholars 3,238. The report of the visiting nurse was also received.

The close of the meeting the board discussed in an informal way the proposed division of the higher grades and the high school into a junior and senior high school. This matter has been under consideration and may sooner or later be established in the borough schools.

The board will meet again Monday night to reorganize. The newly-elected members, E. P. Shepard and H. C. White and T. J. Currin, Jr., will be installed.

POLICEMAN KELLY A DEAD SHOT

Every man, woman and child in Plainfield knows John Kelly. He is the biggest and kindliest man on the police force. Yesterday he lined up with the other members of the force at headquarters for pistol practice and took the bull's eye at a distance of sixty feet four-four times in succession.

Chief Kiely became alarmed lest he put a hole in the barn back of the station house, and stopped him.

Kelly is a direct descendant of Owen, Roe O'Neill, one of Ireland's famous warriors. He is unpicturesque to shooting, having never engaged in pistol practice except when called upon to do so in the regular course of his police work, and while he has always shown great accuracy of aim, the score he made yesterday is undoubtedly one of the best for pistol shooting in this section of the country.

BELGIUM RELIEF TO BE CONTINUED

Sub-Committee Makes Urgent Appeal in Behalf of Supplementary Meals

With the knowledge that slow starvation will be the fate of the unfortunate children of Belgium unless immediate help is forthcoming, the Plainfield Belgian Relief Committee, through a sub-committee on "Supplementary Meals," of which Mrs. Richard Boardman is chairman, has begun a campaign to make known the situation to the people of Plainfield and to give everyone, men, women and children an opportunity to save the lives of these unoffending little ones.

When it is realized that approximately 1,000,000 children in Belgium are subsisting on one meal a day, consisting of soup and bread and that the supplementary meal of one biscuit, four inches square, made of flour, lard and a little sweetening, and a cup of cocoa may be provided for one child at a cost of $12.00 a year—that one dollar a month will save the health and life itself of a little child—it seems scarcely necessary to do more than make known the fact to have an immediate and generous response to the committee's appeal for funds.

In this connection it is necessary to call attention to the fact that although the American Commissioners leave Belgium, the relief work will be carried on without interruption by Dutch and other neutral agents under the direction of Mr. Hoover, that money and supplies are to be forwarded and distributed in exactly the same manner as heretofore.

Since October 31 all contributions to the American Commission for Relief in Belgium have been used to provide a supplementary meal for the children. The commission needs $1,250,000 a month for this purpose alone and the Plainfield Committee earnestly hopes that the response to their appeal for funds will enable Plainfield to undertake the maintenance of the children of some one Belgian city or town of an equal population.

These children must be saved and America must save them. Contributions may be sent to Cornelius Boardman Tyler, treasurer, 525 West Seventh street.

DUTCH ARMS BAND OFFERS ITS SERVICES

Church Musicians Will Serve Without Compensation at Patriotic Demonstrations

In view of the present crisis the Dutch Arms Band at a recent meeting passed resolutions agreeing to give its services gratis at any patriotic demonstrations held in the city. This latest move of Plainfield's only church band will undoubtedly be well received by the local patriotic organizations. The band is under the leadership of Edward Young, and has a membership of over forty musicians.

The following is the resolutions adopted:

"Whereas, We, the Dutch Arms Band, do hereby offer its services to the City of Plainfield and Borough or any body of its citizens without compensation.

"Resolved, If in the present crisis any patriotic demonstration be planned at which the presence of a band might be desirable, including the departure of any local militia, in answer to the call of the United States Government, request for such service shall receive immediate attention by communicating with George E. Volk, care City National Bank, corner Seventh and Watchung avenue. 'Phone 1094-M."

Copies of this resolution have been sent to the Mayor of the City of Plainfield and the Borough.

YOUNG GIRL KILLED WHILE CROSSING TRACKS

While crossing the track between Richmond and Washington streets yesterday afternoon, Louise Jeannout, a little girl of eleven years of age, was struck by a west-bound coal train and sustained such injuries that she was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital where she died last night. Death was caused by concussion of the brain.

The child was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jeannout, of Cottage place. She was at the time of the accident, taking a short cut across the tracks, on her way to see a girl friend.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the residence of her parents.

DEFENSE LEAGUE IN NEED OF FUNDS

All Contributions May be Sent to the Plainfield Trust Company

The Finance Committee of the Home Defense League is gratified and appreciative to those who have already contributed to this fund, but desires to remind the citizens of Plainfield that for this patriotic cause there should be a much larger list in the names of contributors.

Small amounts of $1 and upwards should be given by many hundreds of people. Contributions may be sent direct to the Plainfield Trust Company. The names of all contributors will be published, but not the amounts.

It is hoped that there will be a more generous response to this call by our citizens, who should understand that the Defense League is a benefit to them.

The men who have offered their services for this purpose are sacrificing a great deal of their time in drills and rifle practice.

They want to be in a position to serve the community in a creditable way should their services be needed.

There are expenses incident to the proper equipping and mustering in of this force of citizens, who in a way are emulating the fine example of the "minute men" of Colonial days.

The Home Defense League is an insurance against an unwelcome demonstration on the part of any element that may be swayed by sentiment unworthy of those who have enjoyed the hospitality of this nation.

There ought to be an appreciable number of citizens who realize the importance of this organization to our community's well being, and their interest in the matter can manifest itself in no better way than by making a liberal contribution.

Any amount will be accepted, however. Contributions should be made to the Plainfield Trust Company which has offered to receive all donations.

MANY CONTRIBUTE TO JEWISH RELIEF

Luncheon Will be Tendered Rabbi Wise When He Comes Here April 2

At a meeting of the Jewish War Relief Committee last night at the office of Judge Newcorn, a card index of the Jewish residents of the city and borough was completed, and teams organized to personally solicit the Jewish residents for contribution to the war relief fund.

It was also decided to tender a luncheon to Rabbi Wise, of New York, who will address a war relief meeting in Columbus Auditorium, on Tuesday evening, April 2, upon his arrival here at 9 o'clock that day.

Judge Newcorn this morning announced the receipt of contributions from Congressman John H. Capstick, former Mayor Percy H. Stewart and Councilman Charles S. Sminck, all of whom expressed themselves as pleased to be able to assist such a worthy cause.

On April 15, there will be held in Temple Emanuel, New York, a national conference of Hebrews for the purpose of determining what may be done in the future to relieve the suffering Jews in the war zone.

Judge Newcorn will attend this meeting, having been invited by Henry Morgenthau, National Chairman of Jewish relief work.

STOLEN JEWELS WERE VALUED AT $40,000

Jewels valued at $40,000, belonging to Mrs. William McNair, of 5 East Seventy-ninth street, New York, were stolen while the family was at dinner, Thursday night. The burglary, said to be one of the biggest in years, was reported to the police yesterday.

Mrs. McNair was formerly Miss Elvira Brokaw, daughter of Isaac Brokaw, who will be remembered by the older residents, and is related here. Her first marriage was to Carl Fisher Hansen, an attorney, from whom she secured a divorce. Three years ago she married William McNair at her country home at Locust Valley, L. I. She met Mr. McNair while making a trip on the ill-fated Lusitania. A reward of $2,500 has been offered for the return of the jewelry. The burglars gained an entrance to the McNair home through a window.

WILLIAMS RESCUED FROM THE LACONIA

Plainfielder Thought to Have Been Drowned Reported to be in Liverpool

Although it was reported and believed by some people that John Williams, formerly of Plainfield, whose family, with the exception of two children, perished with the sinking of the Lusitania in May, 1915, was drowned when the Laconia was torpedoed last month, it was learned today that the man is alive in Liverpool. This information reached here Wednesday in letters written to friends by Williams.

Ever since Williams deserted his two children, Edith and John E. Williams, the local and State authorities have been trying to learn his whereabouts and compel him to support them. Mrs. Williams has been and is at present in charge of the State Board of Guardians and are being cared for by a family in Jersey City.

For a time Williams was employed on the Cedric as a steward, but later secured a similar position on the Laconia. In the meantime all trace of the man was lost, and when the Laconia went down it was reported that he was drowned. On the contrary, he was picked up by a trawler and taken to Liverpool. A letter to friends Williams states that he has lost everything and at the time of writing did not even have a job. Efforts no doubt will be made to bring the man back to this country and compel him to support his wife and six children. No that country so that he could provide for them there. Passage was secured for the family on the Lusitania in May of that year.

The Laconia was torpedoed and Mrs. Williams and four of her children were drowned. They were George, aged 6 years; Ethel, aged 5; Florence, aged 3, and David, aged 2 months. Edith who is now eleven years old and John E., who is 12 years, were rescued and eventually brought back to this country.

GERMAN SOLDIERS INVADE HOLLAND SEEKING FOOD

By United Press:

The Hague, March 27.—Four thousand German soldiers have crossed the line into Holland, seeking food, according to frontier reports. They have been interned at Zwolle.

TIME FOR U. S. TO VINDICATE HER RIGHTS

By United Press:

Washington, March 27.—The resolution to be introduced in Congress, April 2, after the President concludes his address to the joint session, will declare that the time has come for the United States to vindicate its honor and its right.

It will declare that by the acts of Germany a state of war exists, and that Congress places at the disposition of the President the means for vigorously prosecuting the war, and thereby hastening the restoration of peace.

President Wilson is completing his indictment of Germany this week and the House of Foreign Affairs committee is preparing the resolution.

Anticipating the trend of the President's indictment, the committee will draw the resolution along the following lines:

That wanton violation of the rights of person and property of our citizens committed by Germany, her repeated acts of bad faith, and utter disregard of solemn treaties have constituted ample cause for war on our part.

That Germany's acts have justified the United States before the whole world in resorting to remedies, however extreme.

That with an anxious desire to avoid a rupture we forbore for months to assert our rights by force, and continued by amicable negotiation to seek redress for wrongs suffered, in the hope that Germany might yield to pacific counsel and demands for justice.

That in this hope the United States was disappointed.

That the time has come when the United States must vindicate decisively her honor, rights and interests.

That solely by the acts of Germany a state of war exists between that government and the United States, and that the Congress of the United States places at the disposition of the President, the means for prosecuting the war vigorously, and thereby hastening the restoration of peace.

DANISH KING'S FAREWELL TO ISLAND PEOPLE

By United Press:

Copenhagen, March 27.—King Christian formally bade his former subjects in the Danish West Indies farewell today, wishing them "a happy future under the United States flag." He issued a formal proclamation "thanking the residents of the islands, now sold to the United States, for their centuries of loyalty."

MAYOR MITCHEL HALED BEFORE BAR OF SENATE

By United Press:

Albany, March 27.—Mayor John Purroy Mitchel, of New York, will be summoned tomorrow before the bar of the Senate, to explain why he charged Senator Robert F. Wagner, of New York City, with working in the interest of Germany, and against the United States.

SEVEN OF FIGHTING NATIONS REPRESENTED IN THIS CLASS

By United Press:

Altoona, Pa., March 27.—Seven of the warring European nations are represented among the seventy-six adult aliens who study English nightly in the public school taught by Miss Leta E. Kephart. Miss Kephart says they all are too much interested in progressing toward Americanism to worry about native differences. The foreigners include Germans, Austrians, Russians, Italians, Poles, Greeks and Irish.

Y. M. H. A. GOT $488 LAST NIGHT

At a rousing and enthusiastic meeting of the Young Men's Hebrew Association the sum of $488 was turned in to the treasurer last evening from local donors. Those who contributed are: Morris Abrams $100; H. Taub, $40; B. E. Bronston, $25; S. Mann, $25; M. Silber, $25; Cohen & Isreskey, $25; Carl Silbert, $25. Bieder Bros., $20; Charles Klauss, $20; Cohen & Pariser, $10; Alpiren & Miller, $10; Charles Kurtzman, $10; I. K. Rothberg, $10; J. Himmelfarb, $10; Dr. H. Stein, $5; Sam Gishkin, $5; Solomon (Chk. J. Schwartz), $5; Sam Gelberg, $5; Israel Goldstein, $5; New York Lunch, $5; B. M. Bogan, $5; B. Gorkin, $5; H. Parris (Metr. Ins. Co.), $5; Goldberg, (J. Schwartz), $2; cash $50.50.

A number of appeals have gone out within the last two days and the committee sincerely hopes that there will be a generous response. The chairman, Harvey I. Rothberg, has just received the following letters from Dr. Charles A. Eaton, of the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, New York city, dated March 23rd, 1917.

My Dear Mr. Rothberg:

I am pleased to know that the campaign is on foot looking to the welfare of Jewish young men, of Plainfield and vicinity. The hope of our nation is in the quality of our manhood, and I rejoice to know that the Jewish people of Plainfield are feeling their duty in this respect, and wish you every success in your undertaking.

With sincere regards, I remain,

Faithfully yours,

CHARLES A. EATON.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN TO PROTECT THE PRESIDENT

By United Press:

Washington, March 27.—Precautionary measures of an elaborate kind will be taken to protect President Wilson, from any harm, when he delivers his war message to Congress, one week from today.

The Capitol building will be closed throughout the morning to every one except Senators, Representatives, their clerks, and others possessing special cards of admission. The cards will not be given out until just before the President appears, so that they may not fall into the hands of any but those entitled to them.

ALLIES PURSUE TEUTONS IN HARD FIGHTING

By United Press:

London, March 27.—The Allies' pursuit continued hotly today, marked by violent fighting at half a dozen points in the former front, now rapidly nearing the permanent German line.

The French were within less than a mile of the Hindenburg line, and progressing steadily in spite of determined resistance by the enemy.

The nearest approach of the British to the line was near Lagincourt, about eleven miles west of Cambrai. There was bitter fighting in this vicinity today, German massed forces desperately striving to retake the village, but the British held firm and beat off all attacks.

LANGHORNE NEGATIVES MAY BE SECURED

Since the advertisement has appeared in this paper for the sale of old negatives in the former Langhorne photographic studio, Mrs. Langhorne has been frequently asked by persons for whom Mr. Langhorne took pictures, if they could reserve the old negatives.

Mrs. Langhorne wishes to say to them, that all persons whose photographs her late husband took in the years that he was in Plainfield, may call at the studio and have them reframed in the Parisot studio for future orders by simply giving the name of the person whose picture was taken and the date it was taken. On a call or by telephone these negatives will be laid aside for them, but the request must be made at the studio, 107 East Front street, before April 1, after which time the negatives not so retained will be destroyed.

Mrs. Langhorne also has at her home a number of old daguerreotypes and photographs left with her husband long ago which the owners may prize highly, and which they may have on making themselves known.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Closed nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little, and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial. Schreiner Bros. can supply you.

before the will was executed and moved with her from a New York apartment to a farm house at Oak Tree. The court's opinion says, in the concluding paragraphs:

"We find that when Merrill met Mrs. Parker in April, 1916, the blight of senility had already seriously advanced and was progressing rapidly; that she was then in her dotage and that he knew it; that when the will was signed she was not of mental competency to make a will; that the formal requisites of the execution of the will have not been satisfactorily proved as we cannot believe Mrs. Morgan, one of the subscribing witnesses, and Prince, the other, is unreliable; that, assuming Mrs. Parker had sufficient mental competency to make a will under right conditions and supervision and advice, still this will is not her will, but the will of Victor Merrill, the result of his schemier domination, direction and illegal influence."

EDITH RUBEL TRIO HERE APRIL 9

Now that chamber music has come to be recognized as one of the vital factors in American musical fare and there has long been exquisite chamber music for instrumentalists—the recent addition of the Edith Rubel Trio to this particular class of ensemble players met with instant approval for the four reasons stated.

First and foremost the soloists of the Edith Rubel Trio are competent soloists far removed from the mass of "good players." They prefer to have the word "virtuosity" attached to their ensemble playing, however.

Secondly, they are scholars of an unusually profound musicianship, and they have a thorough understanding of the qualities, as well as the limitations of their various instruments.

Thirdly, to quote J. W. J. Henderson, of the New York Sun, they possess: "Good understanding, excellent tone, and delightful taste and finish" in their work. Excellence of tone is the rock upon which many of the finest trios, and even quartettes, of both sexes, have split. But these young ladies maintain a nearly perfect tone quality.

Fourthly, by lengthy and patient collective study they have achieved a polish in their ensemble work which will bear favorable comparison with that of any chamber music organization now existing.

The composition of this very unusual and gifted trio is: Edith Rubel, violin; Marie Roemaet, 'cello, and Brenda Putnam, piano, and unlike some of the better-known trios and quartettes, it is difficult to say which is the greater artist.

The Edith Rubel Trio and Evan Williams, the famous Welsh tenor, will appear at the High school, Easter Monday night, April 9th.

The child you love has enough to eat.

It is well, and you are happy.

You could not be happy if your child were starving.

You know that in Belgium there are little ones as dear to others as yours are to you, who cry for food day after day.

Here in comfortable Plainfield, one scarcely can imagine the distress of these Belgian children, and the anguish of their mothers.

But over there, the stern reality of it all is heart-rending.

Therefore, tonight, as you put YOUR little one in its own cozy bed, ask yourself if you have done your full duty. Have you done for others as you would have others do for you?

That is the question you must not only ASK yourself, but you must also ANSWER it.

Three cents will give one child one meal.

The supplementary meal consists of 1 biscuit, 4 inches square, and one cup of cocoa.

Unless the children receive this meal in addition to the only meal they are now receiving, consisting of soup and bread, they will die of slow starvation.

But you must act now.

Committees are now trying to get each city, town and village in America to assume the giving of one meal a day to all the children in some one Belgian town. When the committee has received our pledges, Plainfield will be assigned its town. Every cent contributed goes for food. All other expenses are provided for otherwise.

Cut out the coupon and mail it today to Mr. C. B. Tyler, Treasurer, 525 West Seventh Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Give what you can, but give SOMETHING. Make a monthly payment of a certain sum, and you will scarcely miss the amount.

W. C. T. U. NOTES ON PROGRESS OF PROHIBITION

Do our students realize that twenty-six States have outlawed the liquor traffic? That six more are to vote upon State-wide prohibition? That seventy-five per cent. of people of United States are living in prohibition territory? That prohibition States are rejoicing in the protection of the new law restricting interstate commerce? That U. S. mails are not available for liquor advertising purposes?

PARKER WILL IS SET ASIDE

Middlesex Court Scores Chief Beneficiary—Refuses to Probate Writing

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Van Orden Parker, late of Oak Tree, and known here, has been refused probate in the Orphans' Court in New Brunswick by Judge Peter Daly. The opinion was read aloud by the court and disposed of a case that has been pending for several months and in which there were over 2,200 pages of typewritten testimony.

Mrs. Parker's will was offered for probate by Victor J. Merrill, who drew the document and was named as chief beneficiary. It was contested by Howard Van Orden and Florence Cochrane, his sister, both grandchildren of the decedent. The proponent was represented by State Senator McCran, of Paterson, and also by Attorney Hinchliffe, of Paterson, and Attorney Francis Blatz, of this city, while the contestants were represented by Attorneys Howard F. Clark and Roger Hinds, of New York, and Thomas H. Hegerty, of New Brunswick.

The will disposed of an estate of $23,000, mostly in mortgages, and the estate also has a possible legacy of $50,000 coming to it under the will of a Mrs. Cutter, now under dispute in the courts of New York State. Daniel J. Wray, of New Brunswick, is the administrator pendente life, and was represented in the litigation by I. B. Glueckfield, of A. S. March's office.

Judge Daly's opinion voids the will on three grounds, lack of proper execution, lack of testamentary capacity and the exercise of undue influence, and the language of the opinion scores Mr. Merrill in severe terms, also branding as unreliable some of the testimony offered in support of the alleged will.

It was shown that Mr. Merrill had known the testatrix but a short time

PEOPLE'S FORUM

Suggests a City Flag

To the Editor of Courier-News:

Dear Sir:—I think it would be a fine thing for the city to set up a suitable flag pole of steel in the middle of the green in Crescent Square, directly in front of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, and to buy a large American flag which shall be raised at sunrise and lowered at sunset daily, the entire expense to be borne by voluntary subscriptions of the men, women and children of Plainfield. I will subscribe one dollar to start it. Who follows?

Yours truly,

The report of numerous explosions felt generally throughout this section today, and which led to many inquiries being made at the office of the Courier-News and elsewhere, was due to the testing of big guns at some point in the Metropolitan district.

The frequent explosions occasioned some alarm among the people who thought them due to the blowing up of some munition plant.

WESTFIELD

TAKING CENSUS OF WESTFIELD

Acting in accordance with what other towns in the State have been doing, a movement was started in this town last night for the purpose of taking a home census. A committee consisting of William H. Orr, chairman; George Young, Alfred J. Plack, Joseph B. Simpson and Sherman Glass met at the town hall with about eighteen of the boys of the high school and decided on a plan whereby the census will be taken. Each boy was given a certain district and a number of blanks and will visit every house in his district, and ascertain the name of all the male residents in each house, their names, ages, where they were born, whether a citizen of the United States or not, whether they have seen military service, whether they own an automobile and whether they are property owners or renters. The boys will be expected to complete the work of the census in about ten days. The members of the committee will also take a portion of the town and other citizens will help them. The colored population will be taken care of by a committee of colored men as will the Italian and other foreign citizens. The census is being taken at the request of Mayor H. W. Evans and is for police and military purposes. The census will include all males over eighteen years of age and when it is completed will give a complete list of every male citizen in the town as well as every automobile owner and driver.

Mr. Orr, the chairman of the committee, made it plain to those who were selected to take the census that they were to be polite and courteous to the citizens when they visited their houses and not to urge them to fill out the blanks if they refused. It is not compulsory that citizens fill out the blank, but the committee would like all to sign and fill them out so that a complete census may be obtained.

The boys who have been selected to do the census as well as the other citizens are: Eyre Hutson, Harold Van Doren, Harold Stevens, Henry Wright, Harry Clark, Harold Townley, Irwin Steane, Charles Urban, Robert Byrnes, Robert Hinchman, Gerald Foster, Fred Coen, Conrad Johnson, Frank Brenneokuhs, John Urban, Harry VanAuken, Kenneth Davies, Jesse Cooke, Harold Dix, Frank Hoag, Kenneth Miller, Edgar Wright, E. W. Wittke, Allen Seed, David Coulter, M. D. Littlefield, Donald Pearsall, R. W. Bradbury, Herbert Welch, H. E. Bush, R. G. Case, C. H. Lambert, Ernest Alpers, Walter L. Bunnell, Merry, R. G. Maltbie and John A. Davis.

Lectured Before Women's Club

Parker Thomas Moon, of the Department of History of Columbia University, gave an interesting lecture on "Keeping Up With the Times" at the meeting of the Women's Club held in the parish house of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. Mr. Moon paid particular attention to the daily papers, magazines and books and laid great stress on the better class of books and said that a person should read at least one of these a month. He referred to books of fiction and said that some of these were interesting and well worth reading. His lecture was greatly appreciated by the members of the club present.

The musical program was given by Mrs. Paul B. Scarff and Miss Josephine Mackenzie who played violin selections accompanied by Mrs. Harold Francis. Mrs. Charles MacQuoid, of Roselle, who is the fifth vice-president of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs, was present and made an address. Mrs. MacQuoid urged the members to keep the questions of suffrage and religion out of the club.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Monday, April 9th, and will be a musical afternoon, the program being in charge of Dr. Ion Jackson, of New York, who will have his out-of-town pupils perform.

Tryout for Special Police

Forty members of the Special Citizens' Police Force were called out on Sunday night by Captain J. J. Thomas, who is the commanding officer of the force, for a tryout. Not a man who responded had been notified before the call sounded and in a fifteen minutes after the call was received every man was out and at the post to which they were told to go. The entire town was guarded by them as well as the main thoroughfares of the town, the banks, telegraph stations and telephone stations. Each man had his night sticks and revolver.

Captain Thomas sent out word to those on duty to get C. V. Steinhart, a member of the force, and bring him to the police station. Steinhart was not to be found, but Chief of Police Rosecrans saw him on Broad street as he was coming along and brought him in. Dr. Savoye, of the First Aid squad, was sent on a hurry call to the extreme end of the town, Central avenue and Grant street, and made the trip in five minutes. Captain Thomas, as well as the rest of those who have charge of the citizens' force, were much pleased with the way the members worked.

When she got near the corner of the two streets named above, she fell to the sidewalk and died in a few minutes.

Mrs. Waters was born in Maryland and had been a resident here for thirty years. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. George R. Simmons.

No damage was done at any of them. One of the fires on the red fire apparatus blew out when coming back from the last fire and gave the firemen some extra work at the fire house.

GRANDMOTHER'S BOTANIC MEDICINE

In every pioneer home the botanic recipes of our grandmothers for the treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. Every fall she gathered her various herbs: thoroughwort, ragoonlin, sage, pennyroyal, wormwood, rue, etc. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these botanic recipes, and the demand for this famous medicine has grown until over 350,000 pounds of roots and herbs are used annually in its preparation. It will well repay any woman who suffers from female ills to give this famous medicine a trial.—Adv.

HOUSEHOLD CARES KEEP MEN OUT OF JAIL

By United Press:

Salem, Ore., March 27.—Household cares keep men out of jail, in the opinion of Charles A. Murphy, warden of Oregon State Prison. Husbands who are responsible for the wife and kiddies have less time to become criminals than unmarried men, in his belief.

"Counting widowers," said the warden, "we find that about 35 per cent of the convicts received during the last two years are married men. Sixty-two percent are bachelors.

"I believe a large number of the younger inmates would not have gotten into trouble if they had had the responsibility of caring for a family. When a man has a wife he hangs onto his job and works."

HELPS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

"... with this department Miss Lee will gladly answer any inquiry relative to domestic science, a stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

As a matter of economy, every housewife should know how to rightfully care for woolens, both clothing and household furnishings. If she uses proper methods in their cleaning, they will last twice as long and emerge from renovating, not hard and shrunken, but as light and soft as they were originally.

There is a scientific reason for having all waters which touch woolens of the same temperature. The fiber of the wool is a series of small irregular scales, which overlap each other and have jagged edges.

With heat, these minute scales expand, and with sudden exposure to a lower temperature they contract, catching and knotting and pulling on each other, thereby producing a harsh, rough surface. If they are rubbed, the edges turn under and knot, each individual fiber thus becoming shorter, until the whole length of the goods shrink.

Strong alkalies, such as soda, lye or washing powders, will weaken and dissolve those tiny fibers and should always be avoided. If an alkali is necessary to soften the water, cut grease, or neutralize any acid which may have been used to remove stains, get ammonia or borax.

Woolen blankets are not such inexpensive items of the household supplies that we can afford to handle them carelessly when we come to washing them. They would be ruined if put into the tub and washed like ordinary cotton goods.

Begin the process of washing by shaking them thoroughly, to remove every particle of dust which might form into muddy streaks when coming into contact with the water. Then look carefully for any spots and sew a white thread around any found, so that they may receive especial attention. Avoid a colored thread, as it might run.

Next measure the width and length of the blanket—half the length, if the pair is not separated. If possible, procure curtain stretchers for drying and set these the proper size. As soap rubbed directly on a blanket will cause shrinkage, have ready a soap solution. This is made by shaving one large bar of any good, neutral soap into three quarts of cold water, heating to the boiling point and, when cool, adding to it two tablespoonfuls of powdered borax and half a cupful of denatured alcohol.

The temperature of all waters into which the blankets are put should be 110 degrees Fahrenheit, or about lukewarm. Work the blankets up and down in the water and squeeze them against the side of the tub, but never rub them. Stretch very soiled places on a smooth surface and use a small brush with a little of the soap solution. Wring, if possible, with the hands, or if a wringer is used, adjust it very loosely. The blanket should be kept flat and not stretched or pulled as it goes through.

Never try to wash more than one blanket at a time. A blanket is injured by lying around wet. If you have no frames for drying, be careful to hang the blankets straight on a good, taut, clean line and secure with plenty of clothespins. Do not dry in the sun, or it will yellow them but in a bright place where there is a gentle wind. During the drying process, brush often with a whisk, giving a lengthwise stroke to rub up the nap. When perfectly dry, rub with a flannel cloth to restore the fluffiness.

Almost every one possesses a sweater these days, but half the wearers have stretched, stringy, looking garments, after they are washed. To insure their original shape after washing, before wetting take a few measurements—length of the shoulder seam, waist measure, under arm seam, middle front and inner arm—and stretch to these measurements while drying.

Use the soap solution given for blankets and be careful about having all traces of the same temperature. Wash with as little lifting up as possible, because the weight of the water stretches the fibers. If there is much dirt to be removed, a little borax in the water will not harm the wool.

Have the temperature as near as possible to that of the lukewarm water used—or 110 degrees Fahrenheit.

THE KING'S SONS AND THE PRINCESS—Part II

There was no ladder and the wall of the tower was so smooth that Tito wondered if he would be able to rescue the Princess, even if there was one to rescue, for he had seen only the white fluttering object and he thought the wind might have blown it there.

Tito dismounted and was about to look for some way to reach the tower when he heard heavy footsteps, and from the other side of the tower there came a huge man so tall that he could easily reach the little window in the top of the tower, and so broad of shoulders and chest that poor Tito looked like a tiny baby beside him.

"What are you doing here?" roared the giant.

Tito was terribly frightened, but he knew the witch would not have sent him unless he was to succeed in rescuing the Princess, so he spoke up as loudly as he could.

"I have come for the Princess," he said.

Without a word the giant shook his shaggy head and made a lunge at poor little Tito, but the horse on which he had ridden up the mountain stood on its hind legs at that moment and struck at the giant with one foot.

The giant began to tremble, although the horse did not touch him, but seemed to be waving his leg and hoof in front of the giant's face.

Smaller and smaller grew the giant, until he was smaller than Tito, and then he disappeared and only a rock stood where a minute before the huge giant had been.

The horse then went to the foot of the tower, and began to paw the earth, and soon there appeared a vine, which ran up the tower right to the window where the white object had fluttered.

When it reached the window a hand appeared, and Tito next saw a head of golden hair and then a face looked down at him.

"Have you come to take me home?" said a sweet voice.

Tito looked at the vine. It did not look very strong, but he grasped it, and, to his surprise, it was strong enough to hold him, and every little distance there were loops for his feet to help him.

When he reached the window at the top Tito saw the most beautiful girl he had ever seen, and he took her in his arms and carried her to the ground.

"Where is the giant?" asked the girl.

"He has disappeared," was all Tito could say.

"Oh, well, now we are safe then," said the girl; "you are to take me to your horse to my home, for that was what the good witch told me—that a Prince would come for me on a black horse and carry me back to my father."

Tito did not say a word, but placed the girl on the horse before him and rode down the mountain.

"You know I am a princess," said the girl, "and a wicked old witch stole me and gave me to her son, the giant; but he could only look in through the window of the tower unless I said I would marry him, for another good witch protected me.

"One night she appeared to me in the form of a bird, and told me not to be unhappy, that she would find a prince to rescue me, and, of course, you are he."

Tito said he was a prince, and told her how his brother had left him in the forest to die, and the good witch had saved him and sent him to rescue her.

When they reached the home of the Princess, Tito found that her father was a very rich king and had many soldiers, and when the Princess' father heard Tito's story he sent hundreds of soldiers to escort him to his own home.

Nardo had told everybody that his brother and his father were dead, and had himself crowned king.

When the servants saw the soldiers who were with Tito coming in the distance, they ran to Nardo and told him a regiment was coming, and they were sure they all would be slain.

Nardo was a coward, as all wicked people are, and when he saw so many soldiers he ran to one of the dungeons under the castle and hid.

When Tito came to the gate of the castle he asked for his father and was told he was dead; then he asked for his brother, but no one knew where he was.

Tito knew how that Nardo was a wicked man, and told the soldiers to hunt all through the castle and break down all doors that were locked.

When he found the dungeon under the castle, the first door that was opened was the one where the old King was held a prisoner.

The old King wept for joy when he saw Tito, and told him Nardo had brought his torn clothes and said he had been killed in the forest, and how Nardo had made him a prisoner.

"Find my wicked brother," said Tito to the soldiers. "He is hiding somewhere in the castle—tear it down if need be, but find him."

After a while the soldiers came back with the wicked Nardo, trembling and begging for his life and looking like anything but a king.

But the father heeded that Tito should not do him harm, and Tito spared his life, but told Nardo to take his wicked servant and two bags of gold and go away and never let him see him again.

Tito told his father all about the strange things that had happened since he had been away, and that he was going back to the Princess to make her his wife.

When Tito went to look for the black horse it was nowhere to be found, nor had any one seen it, and then Tito knew that it was the good old witch who had changed herself into a black horse and accompanied him to the tower and helped him to rescue the Princess.

Today the Proctor management presents three of the biggest productions ever released, featuring three of filmdom's most noted stars on the same program. Mary Pickford returns in "A Poor Little Rich Girl." William Farnum appears in "The Price or Silence," and Mrs. Vernon Castle appears in "Patria." A number of clever children take part in this production and it is rich both in realism and wonderful action.

Tomorrow "The Price of Silence" will be repeated, and "The Red Woman," a thrilling Western production in which Gail Kane is cast in the title role and is assisted by a picked cast of artists, will appear.

On Thursday and Friday, "Skinner's Dress Suit," the comedy drama, wholesome, clean and entertaining, comes

COUNTRY STORE TONIGHT AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

"Should a Woman Tell" is the title of one of the most intensely interesting and realistic sketches that has graced the feature position on a vaudeville at the Plainfield Theatre. With an excellent company and special scenery presenting it, the playlet will only fill a two days' engagement here, today being the first. As a drama it has scarcely a moment that is not intensely gripping and the problem it presents is one that offers deep thinking, dealing as it does with a woman who has lived her past and when in later years she is faced with the choice of telling everything or remaining silent the struggle she has to decide.

STATE FEDERATION TO MEET IN ATLANTIC CITY

The New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs will meet in Atlantic City, May 3, 4 and 5. The Chalfonte will be headquarters, but each club will make its own hotel reservations. Those desiring to procure rooms at headquarters are urged to send their applications at once. Names and delegates and alternates from each club are asked for not later than April 25, to be sent to Mrs. Brice Collard, corresponding secretary. The usual instructions as to credential cards and delegates' badges are also contained in the letter.

The hotels also obligated themselves to contribute a percentage of their receipts to the bureau, from which will be defrayed certain expenses of the convention. For greater convenience each of the listed hotels has been supplied with hotel certificates, which it will issue without charge.

Upon presentation of the hotel certificates at the registration booth the holder will receive either an official badge or a souvenir admission button. Either of these gives entree to the steel pier during all sessions. Those who are not stopping with friends, Atlantic City residents, as well as others who may be at hotels not listed, may secure the buttons for fifty cents each.

GREATEST CATARRH DOCTOR IN WORLD

Here Today In Plainfield

When a sufferer from Catarrh begins to breathe the pure wholesome healing air of Hyomei into the sore, inflamed membranes and tissues of his nose and throat, he usually decides then and there that he and Catarrh are through to part company forever.

It's surprising how quickly Hyomei does work. Blessed relief comes in less than five minutes.

The cloyed nostrils open, the nasty mucus discharges, spitting, clearing, etc., all stop and the head, nose and throat clear out, like magic.

Hyomei does more. It kills the germs which breed Catarrh and end the disease. Safe, clean, pleasant and harmless to use and very inexpensive. R. W. Randolph and other leading druggists sell Hyomei, back it in any case it fails. Better than stomach dosing, sprays, atomizers, etc., and bottle greasy ointments two to one. No wonder happy users call it the "greatest catarrh doctor in the world."—R. W. Randolph.

TO DISCUSS COMMUNITY PROBLEMS

This year the annual meeting of the N. J. Conference of Charities and Corrections will be held in Montclair, April 29, 30, May 1. It has taken as its theme or topic "Community Problems." In a letter being sent out it states that every city or hamlet has its especial problem that vexes it; it may be housing or health; the child, delinquent or dependent; relief, public or private; or simply indifference to the public good. Experts have been secured to give the benefit of their experience in curing some of these evils. Workers and those interested in the uplift of the State will attend, and the interchange of ideas will be helpful. The spirit of team play and co-operation, which is so important in business, will be engendered.

WILSON FILLS MARINE CORPS

Orders 17,000 Increase in Men; Calls More Militia.

REST IS UP TO CONGRESS.

Guardsmen of Many More States, 40,000 Troops In All, Mobilized to Protect Strategic Points and Government Property—Capital Patrolled by Cavalry and Infantry For First Time Since Civil War.

Washington, March 27.—The drive for man power to back up President Wilson in his struggle with Germany is under way in earnest. Under personal direction of the president extraordinary efforts to fill the ranks of the army, navy and marine corps have been started in every direction.

Determined to be ready to act immediately and aggressively as soon as congress makes the nation's attitude clear, the administration has taken every step to increase the strength of the war making branch of the service.

Approximately 39,000 men of the national guard were under orders to enter the federal service for the protection of vital points within the nation. War department orders added some twenty-five units to the militia already called out for "home guard" duty.

Marine Corps Increased.

President Wilson by an executive order increased the authorized enlisted strength of the marine corps to 17,000 men, and the navy department at once began a campaign to enlist the added personnel. The corps now has 14,981 men and 596 officers.

Naval recruiting was ordered prosecuted with renewed vigor following the action of the president in increasing the authorized enlisted strength to 87,000 men. Secretary of the Navy Daniels said the indications were that the naval enlistments would be rushing in at once.

Department commanders throughout the country began the task of assigning the army of militia called to the federal service to duty guarding important transportation and utility lines, arsenals, munition plants and other strategic points. The war department in announcing the militia call appended the following statement:

It is requested that no details of locality be carried in the press in regard to further distribution of these troops unless given out by the department.

It is expected that further militia details will be called out for similar service in order that every locality in the country may be sure of adequate protection.

Guard National Capital.

Two troops of the Second regular cavalry, the First separate battalion of the District of Columbia national guard and two companies of marines are on guard duty about the national capital.

With military preparation moving under pressure, the administration has begun making plans for the war session of congress that will convene next Monday.

The president will lay before the legislators a record of the German aggressions since the last session of congress adjourned. His recommendations will not be completed in detail, however, until just before he addresses congress.

Every event of the next week will be watched with close scrutiny.

Congress leaders conferred with Secretary of State Lansing as to the possible legislative program. Chairman Flood of the house foreign affairs committee and other members of the committee talked over with the secretary the need for legislation to deal with espionage and to establish a censorship.

The representatives also discussed the probable form of a war resolution to be prepared in order that the legislative way may be made clear for immediate action when congress is organized and ready for business.

FRANCE FLOATS NEW LOAN.

Credit Foncier Issues $30,000,000 Bonds at 5½ Per Cent.

Paris, March 27.—The Credit Foncier's new loan of $30,000,000 in 5½ per cents has closed. The loan was opened only a few days ago. The subscriptions exceed $800,000,000.

The sixty dollar bonds sold at 357. Payments can be made in eleven installments, which end in May, 1918. One American bank wanted 35,000 bonds and was promised 3,000 if possible. The response is a striking demonstration of the inexhaustibility of the French war stocking.

DETROIT OFFICIAL DEAD.

Police Say Man Found Dead at New York Hotel Is a Suicide.

STOMACH SYMPTOMS

A leading physician of Chicago says: "Merely easing the pain with narcotics to give relief is a long ways from a cure for stomach trouble. Besides the danger of neglect or inadequate treatment may lead to more serious maladies. What appear to be only minor troubles are often the symptoms of gall stones, acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, auto-intoxication, yellow jaundice, appendicitis, cancer and ulcers of the stomach and intestines, or other fatal ailments." Stomach sufferers should take warning. Do not have blind faith in treatments that are giving no results. Much suffering could be avoided, many surgical operations prevented, scores of lives saved had Mayr's Wonderful Remedy been taken in time. It is not a long drawn out treatment. It acts on the very source and foundation of stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, eliminating from the system the hard, poisonous catarrhal accretions and shows them to you. Try a dose tonight—tomorrow your days of torture will be over and another friend will be added to nearly a million grateful human beings, many who declare Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has saved their life. Get it from your druggist today—tomorrow may be too late. For sale by United Cigar Stores Co., and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

DEMOCRATS WILL ORGANIZE HOUSE

Independents Will Vote For Clark For Speaker.

Washington, March 27.—The organization of the new house of representatives will be accomplished in a single day's session. Every legislative leader in Washington is determined that partisan politics shall not hamper the nation in the international crisis.

Representative Charles H. Randall, the California Progressive, who has taken the lead of the little group of five independent members of the newly elected house, announced that enough of the five so called independents in the house would vote for a Democratic organization to break a deadlock.

Republican Leader Mann earlier had offered to relinquish his candidacy for the speakership in order to clear the way for a nonpartisan house organization.

"The next house will be organized from top to bottom by the Democrats," said Representative Randall.

"I have for several days past been in correspondence by telegraph with the four other independents of the house, and although I am not privileged yet to announce which of them have swung into line for Champ Clark and the entire organization of the house by the Democrats, I am at liberty to say that enough of us will vote that way to insure complete success for the Democratic cause.

"It is the view of the independent group that in this emergency we should stand firmly with the administration. We feel that the house should be Democratic.

"The announcement by Representative Mann of Illinois that he would withdraw from the speakership race if it insured a bipartisan organization was a straightforward and patriotic utterance. But it is not possible for the Republicans to organize the house now anyhow. The votes are against them."

Seventy-first 99 Per Cent Full.

New York, March 17.—Twenty-four hours after the mobilization order 99 per cent of the Seventy-first regiment, N. Y. N. G., was ready for service. Messages from missing members as far west as Wisconsin and as far south as Texas were received, saying the nine ones were making all haste to join the regiment.

Argentine Embargoes Wheat.

Buenos Aires, March 27.—The government of Argentine has ordered an embargo on exports of wheat and flour. The president has signed the decree, and it will be put in operation immediately.

PROMPT WORK BY JERSEY GUARD

Two Regiments Mobilized and Awaiting Orders.

FIRST AND FIFTH ALL READY.

Men Only Short Time From Border Show Benefit of Field Training and Discipline by Quickness and Efficiency With Which Mobilization Was Effected—Nature of Duty Is Not Yet Known.

Newark, March 27.—The First Infantry in its armory here and the Fifth in its armories in Paterson, the Oranges, Montclair and other stations are mobilized and awaiting further orders.

The smoothness and celerity with which the two commands responded to the call was in great contrast to the confusion and delay incident to the border mobilization of last year.

The men reported as if they had been going about their usual civil business routine, slipped into their uniforms and quietly stayed about their company rooms. The officers, benefiting by the many recent military conferences, remained about the executive quarters, each knowing what was expected of him and ready for orders.

Both regiments are awaiting the arrival of federal mustering officers from Governors Island.

So far the only orders received have been from Adjutant General Barber, directing these regiments to mobilize this morning at their armories, and while it is known that the orders have grown out of the president's executive order, no direct federal orders have been received. The troops will be mustered into federal service under the provisions of the national defense act, just as they were when called for border duty.

The calling of the First and Fifth leaves the field command with the senior officer, Colonel John D. Fraser of the First.

If the Fourth regiment of Jersey City is called out it will complete the mobilization of the First brigade, and Brigadier General Edwin W. Hine will take the field command.

76 MORE SHIPS SUNK.

Berlin, Wireless via Sayville, March 27.—Destruction by U-boats "during the last few days" of seventy-six vessels aggregating a tonnage of 50,000 tons is announced by the admiralty. The victims include twenty-five steamships, fourteen sailing vessels and thirty-seven trawlers. The largest prize was the British hospital ship Asturias of 12,000 tons. The American vessels Illinois and City of Memphis are included in the list given. The Vigilancia is not included.

The 50,000 tons announced bring the total tonnage reported by the German admiralty as having been destroyed since Feb. 1, when unrestricted U-boat warfare went into effect, up to 1,265,560 tons.

BIG FIRE AT VLADIVOSTOK.

Started in Cotton Stores and Believed to Be Incendiary.

London, March 27.—A message from Russia to the Daily Chronicle reports a serious fire at Vladivostok. The fire started among cotton stores and is believed to have been the act of an incendiary.

Part of the heavy losses incurred will fall on London underwriters and companies.

Miners Consider Wage Demand.

Dubois, Pa., March 27.—Two hundred delegates of the union miners of the central Pennsylvania field are in conference here to consider a demand for a big wage increase. Should they decide to make the demand it would probably mean a strike of 75,000 miners. It is said the operators would refuse to meet the demand, as the contract fixing the present scale has a full year to run.

Million For French Blind.

New York, March 27.—The A. B. F. R. permanent line relief war fund, supported by American contributions, has promised $280,000 yearly for five years to the French committee conducting relief work among blinded French soldiers. The guarantee was called by the finance committee, which is headed by Frank A. Vanderlip.

"More Courteous—and better business"

"Jones, I like that practice of yours of always being ready to talk when I answer telephone calls from you.

"If there is anything that does irritate me in the course of a busy day, it is to have some office boy or girl call me to the telephone and then ask me to wait one, two or five minutes, as the case may be, until some unknown telephone caller is ready to talk with me.

"It is not only more courteous, and better business practice to hold the line until she party answers, but I believe that in the long run it saves time."

MORE RHEUMATISM THAN EVER BEFORE

Clergymen, Lawyers, Brokers, Mechanics and Merchants Stricken

Our old friend Rheumatic is having his inning this year, and a few words of caution from one who knows all about it may not be amiss.

Wear rubbers in damp weather; keep your feet dry, drink plenty of lemonade, and avoid strong alcoholic drinks. If rheumatism gets you, or sciatica, and you have sharp twinges, gnawing pain or swollen joints or muscles, you can get rid of all signs in just a few days by taking one-half teaspoonful of Rheumo once a day.

All druggists know about Rheumo; it's harmless, yet powerful; cheap, yet sure, and a 50-cent bottle will last a long time. Ask Weiss' Boro Drug Store or any druggist.—Adv.

ST. LOUIS, ARMED, ARRIVES SAFELY

First Two Gun American Ship Reaches British Port.

New York, March 27.—The St. Louis, the first armed American ship to cross the Atlantic in defiance of the German submarine blockade, has arrived safely at her port in England.

News of the arrival of the American line passenger vessel was given out by Secretary of the Navy Daniels in Washington after he had held a telephone conversation with the Liverpool office here, which had received a cablegram announcing the completion of her voyage.

Among the St. Louis' thirty-one passengers were several newspaper men.

The agents of the American line announced that a cable dispatch had been received from Liverpool stating that the St. Louis had arrived safely at a British port. Further details of the incidents on the voyage across the Atlantic were communicated to the navy department at Washington.

The St. Louis, commanded by Captain Herbert Hartley, carried thirty-one passengers, a crew of 394 officers and men and 2,000 sacks of mail. She was the first American passenger vessel to leave a port in the United States for Europe after the breaking off of diplomatic relations with Germany.

HIT TRAIL AT RAHWAY.

1,800 Converted at Six Week Revival Just Ended.

Rahway, March 27.—The Welgle evangelistic campaign, held under the auspices of the Rahway Federation of Churches for the last six weeks, has closed. The evangelist, Rev. Charles F. Welgle, and his party left the city shortly after the services. They were accompanied to the Pennsylvania station by the choir of 200 and more than a thousand citizens.

The evangelistic meetings were the greatest ever held in Rahway. More than 1,800 hit the trail, and hundreds of dollars and many valuable gifts were showered on the evangelist and his party.

An offering of $1,800 was taken up for Mr. Welgle at previous meetings, collections amounting to nearly $5,000 were taken to meet the expenses of the campaign.

STEILOW CASE HANGS.

Special Grand Jury in King Inquiry Discharged.

Albion, N. Y., March 27.—The Orleans county grand jury, before which Special Attorney General George Bond of Syracuse was designated to investigate evidence against Erwin King and other suspects in the Phelps Wolcott murder case, of which Charles Steilow was convicted here, was discharged by Supreme Court Justice Wesley Dudley of Buffalo when Mr. Bond appeared and announced his investigation is not complete enough to report to the grand jury which he had discharged.

He announced, "I am carefully investigating other important evidence regarding letters written by Erwin King since the murders and statements he has made and do not know when the case will close."

MORE BONDS FOR SUSSEX

Limit Raised More Than $200,000 by Law's Revision.

Newton, March 27.—The revision in the Pierson bonding law increases the bonding capacity of Sussex county giving the county the right to bond in 1917 for $199,492 above the $192,000 which the county is already pledged for. Under the amendment this will be increased in 1919 by $28,000.

County Engineer Harrey Snook and Director William Iliff estimate that for the Ross Corner and the entrance route into the borough, which would be built of concrete, the county would have to raise $73,075 by bonds. For Sparta road from Sparta to Ordensburg the county would have to issue $40,000 in bonds.

Set $8,900 Express Thief.

Perth Amboy, March 27.—Detective J. A. Huff left for Boston to bring back John J. McDonough accused of stealing $8,900 from the American Express company. McDonough was driver on a wagon in which the money was consigned to the C. Perdee works and Bayuk Bros. local concerns. He disappeared March 15, and the money was missed the next day.

25,000 SIOUX INDIANS WANT TO FIGHT FOR U. S.

Kansas City, March 27.—Permission to organize the Sioux tribe into regiments in case of hostilities will be asked of the government by William Harrison, a Sioux Indian chief and lawyer, who passed through Kansas City, Kan., on his way to Washington.

He said he could recruit 25,000 or 50,000 Indians for service.

HINDENBURG LINE BATTLE STARTS

TEUTON DRIVE AT PETROGRAD

Russian Capital and Perhaps Moscow May Be Objectives in Most Gigantic Thrust of War Now Said to Be Developing on Dvinsk Front—Opening Attacks Repulsed, Russians Say.

London, March 27.—The battle for the "Hindenburg line" in the west is in full swing. The initiative is still with the French. The Germans are yielding with increasing reluctance, but still yielding. Teuton counter attacks are growing in number and violence, but thus far, according to the Paris war office, they have availed nothing. On the contrary, it is asserted in the Paris communique that these counter thrusts have cost the Germans heavy sacrifices.

Battering forward against the center of the La Fere-Soissons sector of the Hindenburg line, the French pushed beyond Folembray, south of the forest of Coucy, halfway between La Fere and Soissons. They are thus within reach of the forests and heights around St. Gobain. These in their hands will mean the abandonment by the Germans of La Fere and thereby the whole front called "Hindenburg line."

Must Decide Soon.

It will mean the abandonment of the valuable French coal district around Lens and the establishment of a new German front running north and south from Lason, east of Soissons, to the west of Lille.

A short time is expected to reveal whether the Teutons propose to stand on the St. Quentin-La Fere-Laon-Soissons line or are willing to retire farther to the northward. The time has come, military critics agree, when if they propose to hold their present line they cannot allow the French to advance any farther.

Wherever the Teutons endeavored to halt the French sweep by furious counter attacks they were thrown back with heavy losses, Paris asserts.

Five German aeroplanes were shot down by the French.

Hindenburg has struck on the eastern front when he generally interested me the initial blows in a drive against the heart of Russia.

Hindenburg Strikes at Russia.

Contrary to expectations, these first attacks did not come on the Riga front, but on the sector between Dvinsk and Plusk with the important strategic railway intersection, Minsk, as the evident objective.

Petrograd officially reports the repulse of both attacks. The first was launched in the region of Postavy, some fifty-six miles south of Dvinsk. It is at Postavy that the northern end of the eastern German line extends farthest into Russian territory.

The second attack, evidently a mere "feeler," was made at Parsnievitch, whence a railway runs directly to Minsk. From that city the railway extends in a straight line northeast to Moscow, 240 miles away. The advance was made by two German companies in white overalls, which shows that winter weather still prevails in the east.

Meanwhile evidences accumulate that the Teutons are collecting vast stores of ammunition and material and concentrating great forces of reserves on the front facing Riga. Some military critics believe Hindenburg's plan is to strike simultaneously against Petrograd and Moscow, Petrograd lies more than 300 miles north of the big Baltic port of Riga.

HOSIERY GIRLS STRIKE.

Walk Out at Dover When Refused Increase in Pay.

Dover, March 27.—Fifty girl employees of Paul Guenther, Inc., silk hosiery manufacturers, are on strike because their demand for a cent a dozen increase on their work had been rejected by the firm. Fifty other employees are made idle by the walkout. There are about 700 employees at the plant.

The girls made their demands Friday, and Superintendent Carl Neehe said he would give an answer the next day. Saturday Mr. Neehe told them that the firm would increase the rates on certain lines of work. The girls were particularly desirous of getting the increase on ingrained work, but Mr. Neehe said he could not see his way clear to grant this.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

For 25 cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—Adv.

THE MUSTACHE

The mustache is the movable feast of man's upper lip. There are five stages—and sometimes only five hairs—to every mustache. It is first a bold idea. That comes when the prospective grower smiles flat on palm and ejaculates: "I'll do it." In a couple of days the mustache is a suspicion. Then it develops into a rumor. Next thing we know it is a well-grounded report, and finally, if the perpetrator doesn't weaken, the mustache becomes an established fact. But in all stages, from bold idea to fact, it is (and we say this under pain of peeving Pete Yoder) an abomination.

CLIMAX TEAM WINS FROM FLEMINGTON

Some Good Work Marks Club Team Match at Up-Country Traps

The Climax Gun Club of this city won from the Flemington Gun Club in a target shoot at Flemington Saturday afternoon by two birds, Flemington scoring 233 and Plainfield 235. Eugene Wilson of the Flemington club was high, breaking 99 blue rocks out of a possible 100 in the last four single events. In the first event he broke 23 out of 25 and in the team race 49 out of 50. In the team race D. Randolph and Van Cleef of the Climax Gun Club tied for second honors, each breaking 48.

Prior to the regular events, members of the Flemington club participated in two 25-target matches. The scores were: Wilson, 24, 24; L. Mollnari, 20, 24; Walter Deats, 22, 22; Amos McPherson, 18, 19; Ira Campbell, 20, 24; J. Case, 21, 24; C. R. Parker, 22, 19; H. Taylor, 17, and Gary, 21.

INNER TRIANGLES LOST AT BRUNSWICK

Middlesex County Boys a Little Too Speedy for the Netherwood Lads

In one of the fastest games ever witnessed on the S. R. C. court in New Brunswick the Second Reformed Club quintet won a clean-cut victory over the fast Inner-Triangles of this city Saturday night. The visitors started off with a fast spurt and collected eight points before the home team got started. The S. R. C. boys got together and slowly cut down the Triangles' lead. At the end of the first half the score stood: S. R. C., 19; Inner-Triangles, 16. The second half was much faster than the first.

The feature of the second half was the flawless guarding of John Leppert for the Brunswick team.

The two teams will meet on the local court Friday evening, April 6.

BOROUGH PLAYERS IN PRACTICE GAME

Capt. Andy McDonough put his charges through the first practice game on Hyde Oval yesterday afternoon, the game going over a five-inning stretch.

Sid Dunning and Captain McDonough constituted the battery for the regulars, while Lafue served up for the rookies, with Runyon on the receiving ends. Neither pitcher got anything on the ball, with the result that there was a great deal of hitting by both sides. The regulars won 5 to 3.

The infield problem seems to be solved, as Ahern, Barry, Yates, Moraller and Marsh looked good in fielding practice yesterday.

The Bulls, who have been doing more or less of the pace setting in the T. A. B. S. house tourney during the present season, came into a setback last evening when the Leopards came in for the odd game. The tourney leaders, however, were handicapped by having two men absent from the line-up.

Lawton of the Leopards was the big man of the evening, breaking away with scores averaging 199 and dividing two double century scores with Tom O'Keeffe.

ANCHOR PINNERS WAY DOWN IN LIST

Local Masonic Bowlers Occupy Seventh Place in County Circuit

"Ted" Schmidt, of Lafayette, has displaced Clint Miller, his teammate, as individual leader in the Masonic League since the last records were compiled, moving up from third place and passing Johnny Clough, Essex, en route. In the advance, Schmidt brought his average up from 183.8 to 188.25 for twenty-seven games. Southard, of Orient, still stands as individual high score man with a 266 crack.

In the race for the Mahlon Morey high average trophy, Essex appears to be the favorite, as well as in high team score and in games won. The average mark of the leaders is now 903.9, and their big slam of the season, 1,060. Lafayette is trailing in second place, but as each has only two more series to roll the chances of the Rahwayans leveling the lead doesn't seem likely.

The Anchor Lodge team of this city is well down in the team standing, occupying seventh position. Laing leads the local bowlers with an average of 171.16 for the twenty-seven games, with the other Plainfield pinners following in this order: Cose, Van Emburgh, Morton, Dayton, Nash, Vail and Evans.

His Answer

Success depends largely on personal appearance.

Don't queer it with thin, straggly hair. A few minutes' care twice a week will put your scalp in a healthy condition. Your hair will appear full, vigorous and attractive.

Pompeian HAIR Massage

A clear amber liquid. Not oily. Not sticky.

Don't wait until too late. Dandruff if neglected chokes the life out of the hair roots and will cause scalp itching and baldness, early in life.

SOCIAL CLUB WINS OVER CHAPEL GIRLS

Here's a Game With But a Single Field Basket Scored

In a fast and interesting game on the Hope court last evening the St. Mary's Social Club aggregation defeated the Chapel girls by a score of 5 to 0. Owing to the exceptional quality of guarding, the scoring column was not used to any great extent, but one field goal being recorded during the course of the evening, that one being cooped by Miss I. Peterson. Miss Gill did all the scoring for the Saints.

What was lacking in scoring was made up in play, both teams being responsible for some fast and aggressive work.

CITY LEAGUE MEN BUSY WITH PLANS

Season's Schedule is Being Prepared—Umpires Wanted for Circuit—Notes

A short business session of the City Baseball League was held last evening at the home of Secretary Dan Randolph, at which time considerable business of a routine nature was transacted, including the arranging of the details of the opening games to be played, weather permitting, Saturday, April 28.

Secretary Randolph is now busy drawing up a schedule of games for the season, which call for at least twenty-one games, and possibly twenty-four. The latter number of games for each team would carry the local season well up into September, giving the Plainfield fans a full season of enjoyment by Plainfield talent.

When the schedule is complete a meeting of the league is to be called to adopt dates and for the appointment of umpires. The schedule as now being prepared will call for a late start of the season, as far as home games for the St. Joseph's Club is concerned, as the borough team has to wait upon the completion of the schedule of Saturday games of the N. P. H. S.

It is fully expected that umpires will be appointed at the next meeting of the circuit, although no applications for the jobs have been filed as yet. Applications for the jobs may be filed with the secretary any time before the next session.

According to reports from three different sources, some people are of the opinion that the Central New Jersey Baseball League is about to finish up the season before actual play has been started. These dissentant notes come from semi-official sources, although one or two of the prime movers of the circuit, when approached, said that there is still good prospects of maintaining the league intact.

Manager Randolph of the First Baptist team of the City League has followed Manager Martin of the Hopes in calling for a practice of his squad for Saturday afternoon next. Both the Hopes and the Baptists will do their training this spring at West End Oval, West End and Myrtle avenues. Manager Randolph states that he has plenty of new material this spring, and that there is little or no doubt in his mind as to his aggregation copping the 1917 pennant.

CLIMAX CLUB SHOOT

The Climax Gun Club has planned another of its popular merchandise shoots to be held at its grounds next Saturday afternoon. The events for the occasion will be started promptly at 2.30 o'clock. A full attendance of members is desired.

PADEREWSKI IN PLAINFIELD

and delight the ear and brain of the amateur. It is not necessary, for that to admit any second-class compositions. The intellectual subtleties of Brahms, the noble beauties of Beethoven, the romance of Schumann, the grace and poetry of Chopin, these can give pleasure to the most varied temperaments.

Not only did the audience delight in Paderewski, but one of his party declared he felt his sympathy and showed it in his playing.

After the concert Mrs. J. Kirtland Myers and Miss Maud Van Boskerck entertained Mr. and Mrs. Paderewski and their party at supper.

The Musical Club, which introduced Paderewski to Plainfield, not only has a musical triumph laid to its door, but a financial triumph as well. Paderewski, as is his custom nowadays, gives his part of the proceeds to the Polish Victims Relief Fund. Also, a sale of dolls, dressed by Mme. Paderewski, was conducted on the stage after the concert, for the benefit of this same fund. It is hoped that the Musical Club has cleared nearly $500 as its own share of the proceeds, and this is to be divided between the Mercy Committee, the Prince of Wales Society and the Belgian Relief Fund.

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

"Tiz" for sore, tired, puffed-up, aching, calloused feet or corns

You can be happy-footed in a moment. Use "Tiz" and never suffer with tender, raw, burning, blistered, swollen, tired, aching feet. "Tiz" and only "Tiz" takes the pain and soreness out of corns, callouses and bunions.

As soon as you put your feet in a "Tiz" bath, you just feel the happiness soaking in. How good your poor, old feet feel. They want to dance for joy. "Tiz" is grand. "Tiz" instantly draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause sore, inflamed, aching, sweaty feet.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug store or department store. Get instant foot relief. Laugh at foot sufferers who complain. Because your feet are never, never going to bother or make you limp any more. —Adv.

ENTERTAINED SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Miss Ariadne Becknell entertained her Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian Church, at her home on South avenue, Saturday afternoon. Games and refreshments were enjoyed. The following were the scholars who were present: Elizabeth Price, Margret DeMeza, Elizabeth Palmer, Gladys Williams, Eleanor Keenan, Margaret Keenan, Delma Stephens, Margaret Vail and Winifred Palmer.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body, which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood, causing headache, biliousness, attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.—Adv.

CHARGED WITH INSULTING LOCAL MILITIAMAN

Charged with insulting the uniform of the United States which clothed Private Adam Miller, of Company K, Michael McCarthy, of North Plainfield, was arraigned in the city court before Judge DeMeza this morning and was sentenced to pay a fine of $5.

According to Miller, McCarthy is alleged to have said something uncomplimentary about his uniform last night. McCarthy stated that he knew Miller and in a joking way said that Miller was a disgrace to the uniform. McCarthy had been drinking.

Recently there have been a number of incidents reported where members of the local military company have been sneered at by street loafers, and since McCarthy was brought in on a charge of giving similar offense Judge DeMeza imposed the fine.

ACTIVITIES OF NETHERWOOD CLUB

Last night about twenty-five men gathered at the parsonage of the Netherwood Reformed Church for the regular monthly meeting of the Netherwood Dutch Arms Club. The meeting was called to order by President Hughes, and turned over to the devotional committee under Claude Goned. Rev. Edward S. Ralston gave a brief talk on the thirteenth chapter of Corinthians, taking for his subject "Love."

The enthusiasm shown at the meeting was most gratifying and it will be only a short time before this club will be doing things again under its old slogan of "Netherwood First."

A motion was made that the Club give an illustrated lecture for the benefit of the younger people of the community on Saturday afternoon, April 14. Mr. Ralston was instructed to go ahead in the matter, and see that the proper facilities are provided for this lecture. It was also voted that the club give a large flag to the church. Various other matters of importance were discussed, awaiting definite information, before they are made public.

After the meeting had adjourned, Mr. Enoch, as chairman of the Entertainment Committee, with the able assistance of Mrs. Ralston, served refreshments to the members in a delightful manner.

Among those present at the meeting last night were Jas. C. Hansen, Peter Hansen, President Hughes, Claude Goned, O. P. Wahlig, John Ried, James Breslin, Arthur Keinzle, Mr. Enoch, Carl Hansen, J. R. Wooster, Albert Macquigan, Rev. Edward S. Ralston, Walter Morris and James S. Carson.

The next meeting of the club will be held on April 30.

All men of the community are most cordially invited to attend and become members of this flourishing organization.

Kidney Trouble May Cause Dropsical Swellings

Foley Kidney Pills Highly Recommended For This Condition

Dropsy, with all its signs and symptoms, including weak heart, general debility, swollen joints, ankles and limbs, headache, sleeplessness and nervousness, are all evidence of a certain kind of kidney trouble. Irregular bladder action, too frequent passage of water, and rising time after time at night, are also proof that the kidneys are not in a healthy state.

Foley Kidney Pills have handled just such cases with absolute success. They have cleared away the dropsical condition, have restored the kidneys to normal activity, and brought the sufferer to a state of sound health.

Mrs. Hattie Graham, Box 473, Battle Creek, Mich., has written fully in regard to her case. We quote only part of her letter in which she says: "I was troubled with kidney and bladder trouble that finally developed into dropsy. I had a dull pain in my back, first my ankles swelled up, and then the whole lower part of my body became bloated and swollen. I used Foley Kidney Pills and the relief was immediate, and after using them for sometime, I feel permanently cured."

Foley Kidney Pills are sold everywhere in 50c and $1.00 sizes. The $1.00 size is the more economical buy, as it contains 2½ times as many as the 50c size. Weiss' Boro Drug Store.

HOW TO LIVE WELL ON SMALL INCOME

Dr. E. L. Fisk, of New York, Gives Practical Talk on Foods at High School

Practical suggestions for a daily menu that is not expensive and at the same time valuable from a health point of view were made in an address by Dr. E. L. Fisk, a director of the Life Extension Institute, of New York, before the Parent-Teacher Association of the Plainfield high school last night.

Dr. Fisk explained the menu he used in his experiment with the "rookies" of the New York police department recently, showing that there are many inexpensive dishes which can be prepared, and a family can live economically on a small income. He emphasized the importance of onions, cabbage, mush, spinach, beans, peas, carrots and oatmeal in the daily diet. He explained that oatmeal is the richest of cereals, containing many things that are necessary for health and strength.

Regarding meat Dr. Fisk said that it is not absolutely necessary for one's existence, and he would not advise the use more than once a day under ordinary conditions. Considerable stress was laid on the use of whole wheat flour and bread. Dr. Fisk said that it was a pity that so much time and expense should be expended in separating the whole wheat flour, when in reality the discarded part of the wheat was the most nutritious, containing an almost perfect food. He said that with whole wheat bread, butter and milk a child could be made strong and would enjoy the best of health. This he said was also true regarding rice. Before it is polished the grain contains a greater amount of nutriment than after the process.

Dr. Fisk urged a reasonable amount of exercise as necessary to health, adding that a person always enjoys his meals better after exercising and is in better condition to digest his food. Following the interesting talk, many of those present questioned Dr. Fisk as to particular menus and their nutritive value.

TOUR OF INSPECTION MADE BY OFFICIALS

Leaving the Courthouse at Elizabeth yesterday morning in a high-powered automobile, Lieutenant-Colonel William B. Martin, of the Second Regiment New Jersey National Guard, and Sheriff George C. Otto started on a trip of inspection of the waterfront and properties adjacent there to preliminary to the adoption of defensive measures.

It is said that Colonel Martin will be in charge of the territory between the Newark line and Perth Amboy.

None of those in authority would divulge the details of the probable extent of the defensive operations to be put in effect.

Sheriff Otto accompanied Colonel Martin for the purpose of visiting the big industrial plants within the county and swearing in some of the employes as deputy sheriffs to preserve order and to guard against any plots of alien enemies. Extra precautions will be taken at the big plant of the Standard Oil Company in Linden township to prevent any attempts at the destruction of its property. Monday afternoon Sheriff Otto went to Summit and swore in special deputies at a number of factories in that vicinity. He also will go to other sections of the county for the same purpose during the course of the week.

GOVERNMENT PLANS THIRD TANZER TRIAL

On the application of Assistant United States Attorney McDonald, Judge Van Fleet of the Federal District Court, New York, yesterday ordered the release of all of the exhibits used in the trial of Max Tanzer. Two juries that tried her on a charge of perjury in connection with her suit against James W. Osborne disagreed, but the present intention of the United States District Attorney's office is to try her again. It is likely, however, that one of the other persons indicted in the same matter may be tried first.

GUARDSMEN URGE MORE "TEAM WORK"

Lively Discussion Opens National Defense Council's Three-Day Session

Captain Charles A. Peterson, representing Company K, and Acting Captain Daniel Runkle and Lieutenant James M. Charles, representing Troop D, First N. J. Squadron Cavalry, are attending this three-day national defense council of the National Guard Association of the United States, being held at the Seventy-first Regiment Armory, New York. The first session was held yesterday, when most of the time was taken up with a discussion of the question as to what should be done with the National Guard under universal military service.

There was a wide difference of opinion between the guard and regular army officers. There was an audience of about 1,000, composed chiefly of National Guardsmen and their friends and relatives. Practically all of the speakers urged "team work" between the National Guard and regular officers, believing that to be the only solution to the problem of securing a strong and well-organized army.

It was recommended that the country should have a peace force of at least 190,000 men in its regular army and that regiments should have a membership of 1,000 in peace and be recruited to 3,000 in war, or the war strength of the German regiments. Short term enlistments for the regular army was advocated.

CHAPTER OF D. A. R. WILL AID COUNTRY

Patriotic Women Met With Mrs. Charles R. Banks and Heard a Good Paper

Continental Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met at the home of the regent, Mrs. Charles R. Banks, 1308 Watchung avenue, yesterday afternoon, and the good attendance of many coming from distant parts of the city, two from Dunellen, and the special speaker of the afternoon, from Trenton, proves beyond a doubt that these loyal and patriotic women will do their part, should this country need them.

Four members of the chapter attended the annual conference, which was held in the barracks at Trenton, last Friday, and two gave brief accounts of their impressions and experiences.

Mrs. Edmund Wood, regent of the General David Forman chapter, Trenton, read a wonderfully inspiring paper, on the "History of the Flag," and our loyal devotion for all it stands for. As a mark of appreciation, and to express the chapter's thanks, the regent asked all present to stand and sing "The Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. Wood recited "Your Flag and My Flag."

A delightful social hour was spent, during the informal exchange of opinions, and pleasant greetings, much patriotic feeling was in evidence, and the hour of six o'clock arrived before the afternoon's pleasure drew to a close.

The Continental Chapter is planning to take up patriotic educational work for the Polish people in this vicinity.

DEFENSE LEAGUE IN NORTH PLAINFIELD

Commission of Four Citizens Appointed by Mayor Smalley—Organized Last Night

A commission appointed by Mayor W. L. Smalley of North Plainfield met last night and effected the organization of a Home Defense League. Already a number of citizens have joined the league and will immediately begin such preparations as will insure adequate home defense. The committee in charge of the league consists of Andrew E. Kenney, D. Fred Angust, John I. Brower and Allan Cowperthwaite.

The commissioners in accepting their appointments addressed the Mayor in a communication as follows:

"This commission understands that it is to provide all measures of home defense. We are confident that we shall give a good account of ourselves in any emergency that may arise. Its first purpose is to organize such units of defense as may be required to protect all citizens, their property and the rights that all are entitled to and will lend every effort to that end.

"We hope that the commission will act as a stabilizer against arousing unnecessary alarm in this locality. Conditions should be viewed in a sane manner.

"During the last week or so this community has heard all sorts of stories of plots and bombs and insidious acts, which, naturally enough, point the finger of suspicion against our German-American citizens. So far there has not been an atom of truth in any of these reports, but they have aroused an almost hysterical feeling among the more timid of our population.

"We believe there has not been an act of disloyalty committed by any of our German-American citizens in this community. Admitting that there has been a dangerous pro-German propaganda, those who have promoted these infractions of our laws are not to be classed with the rank and file of any of German-Americans. We believe such an action would be spurned by them. We believe that when engaged in any such enterprise as that which we are now about to undertake we should have as many on our side as it is possible to get. Instead of arousing the hatred of people against German-American citizens we should endeavor to get them with us on the ground of loyalty to the flag of the land of their adoption.

"We believe there will be a generous and patriotic response; that we will receive a renewed expression of their fealty, and that they will realize their supreme duty of citizenship. We are confident that these thoughts must not dismay us or dampen our ardor in preparing against untoward acts; that we must take all precautions to secure the protection of life and property and be ever alert in the hour of possible trouble."

The commission has arranged for enrollment of members and a place for drilling, which will be announced later, at which all members will be expected to be present. A competent drill sergeant will instruct. An appeal for funds will be made.

Blanks for membership application will be ready for distribution tonight and can be obtained from any member of the commission, or at the tax collector's office in Borough Hall, North Plainfield.

In an interview with a Courier-News reporter this morning Mr. Kenney said:

"It is a regrettable fact that all kinds of wild rumors involving German-American citizens have been going the rounds for the past week. Everyone should remember that the German-American citizens have quite as much at stake as any other citizens, that they came here to escape the military service prevailing in Germany for the past forty years, and although racial ties may have awared their sympathies to the land of their birth while she was at war with other nations, when it comes to warring against the United States it is my opinion that their loyalty will be second to none.

"I say that as one who yields to no man in devotion to this nation and its ideals, and since I have always tried to live up to the ideals of true Americanism, free from bias of any sort, I must accord to my fellow citizens of German descent credit for the same degree of loyalty and shall not take from them the credit that is their due until they have done something which no longer entitles them to that consideration.

"Those who criticise in a general way the German-Americans should bear in mind that they place condemnation upon an entire section of our population, solely upon the basis of what some paid propagandist may say or do and which I feel sure is not endorsed by German-Americans as a whole. I repeat that many German-Americans will join the Home Defense League of North Plainfield. They have a right to do so and should as an answer to those who perhaps without intending to do so have called into question the loyalty of those who have sworn allegiance to this nation."

PRESIDENT'S PLANS FOR WAR STRENGTH

By United Press:

Washington, March 28.—President Wilson has taken all the steps within his power to bring the army to its maximum man-strength for the present. He may later ask Congress that the maximum be raised to 100,000 men.

He still has several ways open wherein he can bring the land-forces to greater strength although the belief is that he will get his main increase by asking for volunteers, or by having Congress pass a compulsory training law. The means whereby a larger army could be obtained are:

Increase of the militia from $150,000 men to full strength, 450,000:

Increase of the army from 120,000 to war strength, 170,000, by bringing company units to their entire quota.

Increase of the army by adding at once all the annual increments designated by the last army bill. This would give 275,000 to all.

Call for volunteers.

Have Congress pass a universal service measure which could be shaped to furnish 500,000 men.

Military men say that as plans are now shaping the War Department is considering its enlargement measures on the idea that "the bitterest struggle this nation has ever known may be our part."

These men say the country ought not be misguided in its view that real war, and not merely police work, must sooner or later be the portion of the big force which will probably be demanded of Congress next week.

GERMAN MENACE SPEEDS RUSSIA'S REORGANIZATION

By United Press:

Petrograd, March 27.—The menace of a German drive into Russia is serving to accelerate tremendously the reorganization of democratic Russia.

Extraordinary efforts have been made to apprise troops at the front of the exact condition under which Russia slipped from the bonds of autocracy into a democracy, as well as of the provisional government plan for the future.

The minister of the interior is bending every effort to speed up the output of munitions. Supply factories and other governmental agencies are centered on the rapid transportation of these supplies to the front. Entire confidence is expressed here of Russian troops being able to withstand German assaults.

GERMAN FOOD SUPPLY IS OVER-ESTIMATED

By United Press:

Amsterdam, March 28.—German Food Dictator Adolph Batocki admitted to the Reichstag main committee that there had been an overestimate of the amount of Germany's food supply.

He was quoted in commenting on the seriousness of the food situation that the restrictions placed upon the consumption of bread were inadequate. He insisted, however, that they be the best that could be formulated under the circumstances.

The quantity of supplies for the people, he said, has been insufficient under the present regulations, and it would be necessary to draw upon the reserves of cattle. As to increasing production, he said that is impossible, on account of lack of labor, and the inefficiency of transportation facilities.

AGED RAHWAY MAN IS FOUND DEAD

Rahway, March 27.—Ernest Mintel, aged 76 years, of 217 West Grand street was found dead in his room at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning and the police are investigating as to whether the aged man met death by accident or suicide. The gas jet in the room was turned on full and the room was full of gas.

Mr. Mintel had been in poor health some time and was feeble. When the body was found Dr. J. S. Young was summoned and found that he had been dead too long to warrant the use of the pulmotor. While the police think the case may be one of suicide, there is a possibility that he accidentally turned on the gas and was unable to turn it off before he was overcome. Detective Sergeant James Thompson notified County Physician F. W. Westcott, who will view the body this afternoon.

Mr. Mintel had been a resident of Rahway many years. He is survived by one brother, Charles Mintel, of Campbell street, and four sons, Ernest Mintel, Jr., with whom he made his home, William, James and Leonard Mintel, all of this city.

Lee, of the New York School of Philanthropy, will speak on "The Essentials of a Community Program With Respect to Family Problems." Miss Ruth Taylor, director of the Department of Child Welfare of Westchester county, New York, will tell how that public agency is solving these problems. Various New Jersey workers will tell why it is necessary in the investigation that precedes the treatment of family problems to consult the family's relatives, employers and church; also with schools, medical agencies, etc.

The final session of the conference will be held on Tuesday afternoon, May 1, and there will then be a discussion of the immigrant problem. At this session the business of the conference will be transacted.

Beauty that is more than skin deep

There's a lot of beauty that is only skin deep, and a lot of beauty that will come off on your sleeve if you get too close to it, but the only beauty that counts is that which goes deeper than the surface.

The beauty of Rothberg Clothes is not alone in the lines but in the labor, not alone in the woolens but in the workmanship, not put on, but put in.

You can take a Rothberg garment and rip it apart, but you can't find fault with the way it is put together.

Fewer Eggs are required with ROYAL BAKING POWDER

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced with excellent results by using an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, for each egg omitted. The following recipe is a practical example:

Chocolate Sponge Roll

½ cups flour
½ teaspoons salt
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
2 squares melted chocolate
2 tablespoons melted shortening
½ cup hot water
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

The old method called for 4 eggs and no baking powder

DIRECTIONS—Sift flour, baking powder and salt together three times. Beat whole eggs. Add slowly sugar, then boiling water slowly; add next vanilla, melted chocolate and melted shortening, without beating. Sift in dry ingredients, and fold in as lightly as possible. Pour into large baking pan lined with oiled paper, and bake in slow oven twenty minutes. When done, turn out on a damp, hot cloth, spread with white icing and roll.

N. P. H. S. NOTES

The Sophomore Class met this noon and discussed plans for a class entertainment to be held in the near future.

Miss Elizabeth Schumacher, '18, gave the morning recitation at the chapel exercises this morning. Miss Schumacher favored with "When Her Beau Comes to Call."

Louis K. Hyde has kindly consented to allow the baseball team the use of Hyde Oval for another year. The team is very fortunate in obtaining such a good field for athletic purposes and are indebted to Mr. Hyde for this kind offer.

Principal Earley announced this morning that a Boy Scout troop will be formed in this high school if the necessary amount of boys decide to join the troop. The purpose of this troop has not been announced as yet but it will most likely be attached to the Ambulance Corps of the United States in case of war.

The Junior Play Committee have announced that ten prizes will be offered for the best posters advertising their annual play, "The Elopement of Ellen," which will be presented on the evening of May 4. The first prize for the best poster will be two reserve seats and the other nine prizes will consist of general admission tickets.

Edward Crone, P. H. S., spoke to the high school at the chapel exercises this morning about the entertainment the Boys' Athletic Association of Plainfield High school will hold on the evening of April 3. The association has secured the Colgate Glee Club to entertain that night and Mr. Crone this morning issued a special invitation to our students to be present. Tickets may be had from any of the P. H. S. students and from Miller's Drug store on Park avenue. They are selling for 50 and 75 cents. Dancing to the music furnished by Van Eps' orchestra will follow the entertainment.

N. P. H. S. NOTES

Oberlin and Dartmouth colleges have sent large framed pictures to Principal Albert Earley. They will be used to decorate the corridors. Mr. Earley has also received a bronze shield from Rennselaer Polytechnic Institute of Troy, N. Y. The shield contains the coat of arms of the institute.

At the chapel exercises this morning Miss Marion Chandler of the Senior class gave a delightful rendition of a well-known poem, "Why Not?" Wilfred Diplock of the Junior class recited "We 'Ope We Done Well." Donald Moran of the same class closed the speaking with the selection, "The High Cost of Taters."

At the exercises yesterday when Supervisor D. Fred Aungst announced the decision of the Board of Education to close the school next week, he was greeted with a prolonged applause by the happy students. Mr. Aungst also announced that the essays on "Temperance" would be required of all classes as a part of their English work with the exception of the Seniors who are at present up to their necks in work which must be finished this month.

Principal Albert Earley awarded the prizes offered by the Boys' Athletic Association for best posters describing the play that the association will present on the evening of April 12 in the Plainfield high school auditorium yesterday. In commenting on the excellent showing made by the art students of Miss Howell's class, Mr. Earley said that it was a most difficult task for the judges to select the two best posters because all the others were of a very high standard. In announcing the winners, Miss Mary Buchanan of the Junior class and Marian Blair of the same class who captured first and second prizes, respectively, Principal Earley congratulated all those who took part in the contests and expressed the desire that the enthusiasm shown would continue in future contests. The judges were: Miss Duchesne, of the English department; Mrs. Curtis, of the German department, and Principal Earley.

R. L. MEERMANS ACTING SECRETARY OF Y. M. C. A.

Robert L. Meermans, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., has been made acting general secretary of the association in the absence of A. O. Estes, who was obliged to give up his work for the present owing to a nervous breakdown. There will be a meeting of the Board of Directors of the association within the next week when future plans will be discussed.

MACHINE GUN FOR BAYONNE

Bayonne, March 28.—The Bayonne Home Guard, which has been organized with 300 volunteers, and which is expected to number 1,000 by the end of this week, has received a machine gun mounted on a motorcycle from Robert B. Jennings, one of the guard. It was one of several which were to have been shipped to South America and was purchased by Mr. Jennings.

Mayor Pierre P. Garven has been named as commander in chief of the guard. The work of drilling the "rookies" will be in charge of military men. Among the recruits are Civil War veterans, men who served in the Spanish-American war and members of the National Guard. The volunteers are to be uniformed and armed.

In St. Michael's Hall, Belleville, on Friday, April 20, Frederick W. Greene, Edwin L. Sullivan, and Joseph Gallagher, representing the St. Mary's Literary Society, will debate the "Minimum Wage" question with the debating club affiliated with St. Michael's church. Paul H. Burns, of this city, will act as chairman of the debate, and the judges, who will all come from Hudson County, will be selected by Justice McAdoo. RETURNING TO PLAINFIELD

Mrs. James Strappe and daughter Kathryn, who are being treated by a New York specialist for nervousness, are improving and expect to return to Plainfield by the end of the week.

LINCOLN QUARTET IN WASHINGTON SCHOOL

A delightful musical program is to be presented in the auditorium of Washington School on Friday evening when the Lincoln University Quartet of Oxford, Pa., is to appear under the auspices of the Dunbar Club. Lincoln University is the foremost college for colored men in this country. Many of the great leaders of the colored race have received their higher education at this famous institution.

The quartet is composed of representative young men from the student body, each one of whom possesses a voice of unusual sweetness. One member of the quartet is an accomplished pianist and another will entertain during the evening with readings from the works of Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

The young men are to be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. C. Anderson who has been instrumental in bringing the quartet to Plainfield.

Every one will be made welcome at the concert on Friday evening and it is expected that a large audience will be present to enjoy the rich, rare melody of one of the best colored quartets in this part of the country. A small fee will be charged at the door to cover expenses.

The program will be: Instrumental selection, Milton Selden; quartet, "Remember Thy Creator"; reading—from Dunbar, U. S. Young; vocal solo, W. K. Saunders; quartet, (Parks), "Old Black Joe"; reading (Dunbar), U. S. Young; quartet, "While My Lady Sleepeth"; piano selection, Milton Selden; quartet, "Over The Ocean Blue"; reading, U. S. Young; vocal solo, J. P. Young; quartet, (a) "Perfect Day," (b) "Hail Lincoln."

MARION LAWRENCE COMING TO PLAINFIELD

When in Chicago last February, one of the Sunday school workers of this city gave an invitation to Marion Lawrence, the International general secretary, to visit Plainfield. This invitation has been accepted. A committee was appointed to arrange the details and at a meeting held Monday evening the committee decided the following arrangments:

Mr. Lawrence is to be here Sunday, April 22. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a general mass meeting will be held in the Trinity Reformed Church at which Mr. Lawrence is to speak, and in the evening at 7:45 o'clock a union service of all Sunday school workers is to be held in the First Baptist Church.

The subject of Mr. Lawrence's address at that time is to be "The Challenge of the Sunday School."

Mr. Lawrence is, without doubt, the foremost Sunday school man of this country. There is probably no one in the work better known throughout the United States than he is, and probably no one who has more demands upon his time than he has.

It is an especial privilege that has thus been accorded the Plainfield people and it is expected that at both of these meetings there will be a larger audience than can be accommodated in the churches.

THROUGH THE WICKET

Unity Lodge, K. of P., will hold its anniversary session tomorrow evening. A special program has been arranged by the members.

The fourteenth anniversary of Mt. Sinai Lodge, No. 71, I. O. S. and D., of Samaria, will be held at Nonpareil Hall, St. Mary's avenue, tomorrow evening. Venable Brothers' orchestra will furnish music.

The cabaret held by Salaam, No. 3, Court of the Orient, in Elizabeth, last Saturday night was attended by many local Jr. O. U. A. M.s. It was largely attended. It is reported that the next social affair of the O. D's will be held in this city.

The three local Councils, Jr. O. U. A. M., are moving this week to their new quarters at different places about the city. The first to leave the Jr. O. U. A. M. hall was Plainfield Council, the members moving to Coward Hall on Monday night following the meeting. On Friday night Somerset Council, No. 104 will move to the K. of P. hall, Franklin Council, which is the lessee of the hall, will move to the Jr. O. U. A. M. club house, East Front street, on Saturday night at the expiration of the lease. The furniture that is left in the old lodge room will be disposed of at auction on that date.

DEVELOPING THE BRONSON TRACT

The "Bronson tract," located at corner of West Front street and Jefferson avenue, is being rapidly developed by its owner, Jacob J. Schwartz, a local realty promoter.

Already three modern six-room houses have been erected and more are contemplated. The tract is centrally located, the Union line cars passing the property.

Miss Ada B. Talbot will deliver a lecture in the Plainfield High school tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock, on "Mexico, Yesterday and Today," under the auspices of the Board of Education. PERSONAL NEEDS ARE NATIONAL NEEDS

From the cradle to the grave most of our time is spent in some protective or precautionary act. We oppose hunger with food, cold with heat, the rain with the roof, the burglar with the bolt, fire with water, and so on down the line. But while every individual daily defends himself by all these protections and precautions a large body of individuals is now protesting against the Government defending the nation against ills which threaten it. Advocates of non-defense are self-arraigned and condemned, for they deny to the nation the very protection they give to themselves.

BEETHOVEN DIED NINETY YEARS AGO

Ninety years ago, yesterday, Ludwig von Beethoven, who is to music what Shakespeare is in poetry, died during a terrible thunderstorm. He was born in Bonn, Germany, probably on December 16, 1770, but the date is uncertain as documentary evidence is wanting.

His compositions were 138 in number, and comprised all the forms of vocal and instrumental music, from the sonata to the symphony, from the simple song to the opera and oratorio. In each of these forms he displayed the depth of his feeling, the power of his genius; in some of them he is said to have reached a greatness never approached by his predecessors or followers.

PERTH AMBOY FUGITIVE CAPTURED IN BOSTON

Perth Amboy, March 28.—John J. McDonough, wanted here on a charge of stealing $8,900 intrusted to him as a driver for the American Express Company, was captured Saturday in Boston, according to a telegram received by Chief of Police P. J. Burke. McDonough has been missing ten days. The money taken belonged to Bayuk Brothers, tobacconists, and the C. Pardee Works, tile manufacturers. McDonough's home was in Sewaren. Several years ago he was implicated in a highway robbery.

MAY RESTORE THE FIRE ALARM WHISTLE

It Could be Used for Calling the Defense League Into Action

It was learned today that there is a possibility of the old fire alarm whistle being set up at one of the local industrial plants to be used in connection with the Home Defense League should an emergency arise.

The Defense League has perfected its organization and is now engaged in practice and drills twice a week. The thought has occurred to the authorities that it would be wise to have some means of signalling the members in case they are required at any time day or night.

The cost of putting up the whistle and the apparatus that goes with it, is now receiving the consideration of the Mayor and Councilmen. It is said that the cost will be in the neighborhood of $500. If it is decided to restore the whistle, this cost would probably be defrayed by popular subscriptions which are now being solicited on behalf of the league.

That there should be some definite means of calling the members of the league into action is recognized by all, but the best method of doing so has not yet been determined.

It is expected that the matter will be settled before the end of the present week. If the whistle is not restored, it is probable that one of the church bells will be used for this purpose.

FAMOUS WELSH TENOR TO SING IN PLAINFIELD

Evan Williams, the well-known Welsh tenor, will sing in the Plainfield High School Auditorium under the auspices of the Plainfield Dental Society for the benefit of dental patients in Muhlenberg Hospital. He will be assisted by the Edith Rubel Trio, with Edith Rubel, violin; Marie Roemaet, 'cello, and Brenda Putnam, piano.

W. J. Henderson, of the New York Sun, in commenting upon Evan Williams' singing last season, said: "Mr. Williams reads a song as an elocutionist would read a poem; every syllable is perfectly intelligible." Mr. Henderson is known as one of the severest critics in America, hence it is worth while to read that he says: "Williams has completely mastered the art of natural singing. In all his delivery there is a big communicative enthusiasm, wholesome and invigorating. His production of tone is a lesson in the art."

Commercial Problems Growing Out of War Conditions

A Non-Technical Explanation of the Big Questions Confronting Business Men at This Time

By SAMUEL WANT

The Sovereignty Of American Business.

Whatever else may be true in connection with the status of neutrals during war between other countries, the present war has at least settled the proposition that neutrality is no longer a guarantee of freedom of intercourse in international commercial relations not directly concerned in the war. The world sentiment in favor of the least possible interference with neutral commerce during war, expressed in many conventions and other international declarations, has proved impotent in the face of the actual or supposed necessities of the warring nations in the preservation of their national existence. The Declaration of Paris, the Hague Conventions of 1899 and 1907, and the International Naval Conference of 1909, are only some of the outstanding declarations of international purpose indicating a world recognition of the right of neutral commerce to untrammeled freedom of action except in so far as it would tend to directly assist the military or naval forces of one of the belligerents.

While these various international conventions have not been formally acceded to by all of the powers of the world, there has been a general acceptance of their fundamental principles; but throughout the present war the declarations from belligerents on both sides of the conflict have constituted a series of repudiations and rejections of all accepted safeguards in favor of neutral commerce.

The world has entered upon a period of the sovereignty of belligerent might over neutral right. It is for the American people to say whether American business is to be thus stifled, and American commercial interests crushed, as a part of the furtherance of offensive or defensive operations upon the part of nations with which we are at peace.

A point has been reached in international affairs where the business interests of neutral countries must assert themselves. A great force in this direction has been created by business men and statesmen of this country, supported by the declarations of a number of the prominent statesmen of the nations of the world, including those now engaged in the European conflict. The nature of this great movement, its relation to American business, and the thinking which American business men can lend a hand in the assertion and enforcement of their rights, will be outlined in succeeding articles.

CENTRAL POWERS' SUBJECTS MAKE RUSH TO LEAVE CHINA

By United Press:

Tokio, March 28.—Availing themselves of what may be their last opportunity to cross the Pacific until the end of the war, sixty subjects of the Central Powers took passage on the liner China, due at San Francisco. All but four boarded the vessel at Shanghai.

Since early in the war Teuton subjects have been able to leave China only aboard American steamers and the possibility that China might be the last American liner to leave Chinese ports before war between Germany and the United States and possibly war between China and Germany, caused a record number of Germans, Austrians, Turks and Bulgarians to take passage at Shanghai.

ACTIVITIES OF SPECIAL AID

Branch of National Society Has Many Industries and is Rapidly Gaining Members

The membership and activities of the Plainfield Branch of the National Special Aid Society are increasing rapidly. The society now numbers upwards of 800 members and new names are being added daily. The headquarters on East Front, are constantly busy answering questions of inquirers, supervising the sewing, receiving the materials and instructing members in the making of surgical dressings. Everything made is kept for the use of the base house of the hospital if one is established here, as the officers feel sure it will be. If not the supplies will be used for the soldiers wherever they may be.

The headquarters have been donated for two months and all the furniture and equipments have been given for the use of the society. One donator, whose name is withheld for the present, by request, has built a large house and turned it over in its entirety for the use of the society in case of emergency. Several people have offered four and five beds at their homes.

Among the departments in which citizens are asked to aid are the following: Agriculture in all its branches, clerical service, manufacturing and mechanical work, personal and domestic service, professional service, public service, transportation and trades. There are three classes in first aid, a motor squad of forty members is being taught; translators have offered their services in German, French and Italian languages; many girls of eighteen years and over have agreed to become munition makers and several women have declared themselves ready to conduct trolleys in case the men now conducting should enter the army or navy.

The expedition is a reward for the good work done by the Volunteer Aerial Coast patrol, Unit No. 1, with the "mosquito fleet" in the maneuvers last fall. This unit was organized through the aid of Mrs. H. P. Davison. John Hays Hammond, Rear Admiral Peary, Alan R. Hawley and Henry Woodhouse.

MORGAN AIDS ARMY.

Lends $1,000,000 Without Interest to Pay For Supplies.

New York, March 27.—J. P. Morgan & Co. by a timely loan of $1,000,000 without interest to satisfy the claims of government creditors has prevented the business of supplying the needs of the army from coming to a standstill.

Payment for government supplies was stopped March 5 by failure of congress to pass the army appropriation bill. One contractor for 1 a $250,000 coming to him, but the government had no funds. Another business man to whom the government already owed $20,000 wrote across the face of a requisition for flour:

"We will do no more business with the government until it pays its bills."

New York, March 27.—Seventy bodies of members of the Purdy family of Port Chester who died during the last hundred years were moved from the family burying ground in auto trucks to Greenwood Union cemetery in Rye. Thirty were reinterred.

Living members of the family tried vainly to prevent the removal of the bodies by injunction, but failed to find a judge. The removal was made by direction of George Clark of New York, who recently bought the Purdy estate.

NO TIME LOST IN MOBILIZING

The new Federal call for National Guardsmen found New Jersey prepared. Where there was confusion last June, when the summons came for Mexican border service, there was complete order today in the mobilization of two of the State's regiments, the First Infantry of Newark and the Fifth, with headquarters in Paterson and companies in Montclair, Orange, Passaic and four Bergen county communities. Things moved quickly and quietly, for plans had been made in detail. The spring was wound, the cogs were clean and in mesh, the hands were set and President Wilson's call set the pendulum swinging.

The men of the regiments responded to the call in a most matter-of-fact manner. It was merely a case of putting on their uniforms and reporting to the armory instead of at their regular place of business, and they answered the call for military service quite as casually as if they were going to their civilian task. Where swarms of toiling men covered the floors of the armories last June, tugging at tentage and hauling heavy army wagons, little groups of them tossed basketballs and indoor baseballs today, waiting for orders from commanders who were confident that an hour at most would suffice to accomplish things that required days before the guardsmen had the training they gained in the tour of duty at the border. —Newark Evening News.

YACHT CLUB FINDS WAY TO DROP KAISER AND PRINCE

New York, March 28.—The Atlantic Yacht Club has found a way to oust Emperor William of Germany and Prince Henry of Prussia, both of whom have been honorary members for several years. The club's constitution provides that before a member may be dismissed he must be given an opportunity to defend himself against charges.

The directors of the club have decided that the rule will not be broken if they notify the Emperor and the Prince by publication that they are to be dropped from the rolls. If neither of them replies within ten days they will be declared no longer members.

"DAUGHTER OF THE GODS" AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

At the Plainfield Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday

"A Daughter of the Gods," the William Fox $1,000,000 picture beautiful, featuring Annette Kellerman, will be shown at Plainfield Theatre tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, March 29, 30 and 31, matinee daily. For the colossal undertaking Mr. Fox built a city, with all modern improvements, that accommodated a resident population of about 20,000 persons, taking over an entire island at Kingston, Jamaica.

To create the effect of a mountain torrent he diverted the natural course of a river. For the war camp, a range of hills was razed to the level of a plain upon which 10,000 armed supporters of the Mad Sultan, with their tents and horses, were given shelter. These instances give a faint idea of the large and unusual undertakings found necessary in the production of this beautifully attractive and thrilling picture.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.

BEDINI'S BIG NOVELTY SHOW HERE NEXT MONDAY

What is heralded as the fastest fun show of the season, comes under the name of "Puss-Puss," a Parisian novelty, to the Plainfield Theatre next Monday. Jos. Bedini, most prominent of all English mimics, is the producer of this rollicking play.

There is Mlnni Harrison, ingenue, Pam Lawrence, dainty little soubrette; Harry Jackson, a Hebrew comic; Charlie Mac, an English eccentric, and one time partner of Charlie Chaplin; George Brooks, juvenile; Al Ricardo, a ventriloquist with modern ideas; Toots Davis and Ewd. Stafford, a team of unequaled merit, and a long list of others, who are bound to keep the audience in a roar of laughter.

The "Ignatz Pluto Troupe," burlesquing a groupe of Arabian acrobats and a travesty on the latest New York success, "Very Good Eddie," will be two of the spectacular features of the show. The famous "Kitten Chorus" is one of the most enchanting novelties.

WILLIAM FARNUM AND GAIL KANE AT PROCTOR'S

By special request from those patrons who were unable to attend the performance at Proctor's yesterday the management has retained William Farnum today in "The Price of Silence." He appears as a United States Senator in a fighting mood for what he thinks is right. A William A. Brady production "The Red Woman," also appears today with Gail Kane as the Indian Maid, a part that reveals the remarkable versatility of this popular screen artist.

Tomorrow and Friday appears the big comedy photoplay success "Skinner's Dress Suit," that scored a triumphant success at the Rialto Theatre, New York. In its film form it is more interesting and laugh-provoking. It is clean, wholesome and exceedingly funny from beginning to end and is in decided contract to the many sex photoplays now before the public. In addition tomorrow, Julius Steger appears in a soul-stirring dramatic Metro production entitled "The Stolen Triumph," and on Friday in addition to "Skinner's Dress Suit," Marie Doro is seen in her latest Paramount vehicle "The Lash." These remarkable programs are presented at the Proctor regular prices.

NOTICE TO SICK WOMEN

Positive Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Bridgeton, N.J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt a change for the better. I took it until I was in good healthy condition. I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with such good results."—Mrs. MILFORD T. CUMMINGS, 332 Harmony St., Penn's Grove, N. J.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence of the excellence of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the distressing ills of women such as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, backache, painful periods, nervousness and kindred ailments.

DR. M'CREA CHOICE FOR CONFERENCE

The selection of a successor to the late Rev. Dr. Jonathan M. Meeker, for many years president of the Centenary Collegiate Institute, Hackettstown, will be one of the most important matters to be discussed at the sixtieth annual meeting of the Newark Methodist Episcopal Conference which convened at Halsey Street Church, Newark, today. There is an impression that Rev. Dr. George G. Vogel, district superintendent of the Newark district, can get the appointment to the place if he is willing to relinquish his present duties prior to the expiration of his term of appointment.

In case Dr. Vogel is made president of the Hackensack institution, only one man is suggested as his possible successor as district superintendent and that is Rev. Dr. Abel C. McCrea, formerly pastor of the First Methodist church, this city, but now with Emory Church, Jersey City. Dr. McCrea was one of a number of men mentioned earlier as an aspirant to succeed to the presidency of the institute. It is stated, however, that Dr. Vogel has not been an aspirant for the place, yet he is known to stand high in the favor of Bishop Luther B. Wilson for his ability as an administrator.

ELIZABETH NUNS' HOME BURNS

Peter and Paul, nearby.

The nuns were attending services in the church at the time. The loss is estimated at $2,000. The building was formerly used by Lithuanians as a place of worship.

WELLS CREGAR FINED $10 FOR AUTO SPEEDING

Elizabeth, March 28.—Seven men are under arrest here on charges of stealing automobiles and three machines in which they were riding are awaiting their owners.

Early Monday morning Patrolman Cochran heard shots fired in Whitfield avenue. He found that two Hillside policemen were pursuing an automobile, so he jumped into a car nearby and joined in the chase. In Rahway avenue he perceived another automobile approaching in the opposite direction at a high rate of speed, so he gave up the chase and stopped the approaching car. It contained William Kennedy, Stephen Jablowsky and Andrew Peterson, all of Perth Amboy, and as their story aroused the suspicion of the policeman they were taken to the police station. Peterson, it is said, admitted that the machine had been stolen from Peter Krueger of 280 Smith street, Perth Amboy. The Hillside officers were successful in their pursuit, catching the autoist, Wells Cregar of Plainfield, who was fined $10 on a charge of speeding.

The other autos were recovered Friday and Saturday. Robert Thomas Ensor of New Haven was arrested Friday, and the automobile which he is said to have admitted stealing is owned by Dr. O. Lung of New Haven. The third machine, which was recovered Saturday, is owned by Miss Mary Eyer of 1200 Fifth street, Wilmington, Del. Percy T. Hall, sixteen years old; Edward A. Rush and George Weaver, all of Wilmington, have admitted stealing the car, the police say. They and Ensor are in the county jail awaiting extradition.

WILSON CONFERS WITH COL. HOUSE

President Still Undecided on War Call Form.

CONGRESS IS READY TO ACT

Leaders Have Practically Arranged Plans For Prompt Co-operation Along Any Line Administration Decides Upon—Discuss Proposal of Placing Big Money Credits at Disposal of the Allies—United States Has Huge Wealth Ready.

Washington, March 28.—Upon the events of the next few days will depend the recommendations which President Wilson will make to the war congress which convenes in extraordinary session here Monday.

After the president had threshed over the international situation with his cabinet and with Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, ranking Democrat of the foreign relations committee, it was stated that the president still has an "open mind" as to the exact course to be followed. He received all of the suggestions his advisers would offer, but did not commit himself as to what legislative proposals he would favor. He likewise discussed with the cabinet, the preparedness activities of the executive departments and the plans for mobilizing all of the resources of the nation for war purposes.

It was regarded as significant that Colonel E. M. House, Mr. Wilson's confidential adviser, should come here as the president sought to fix the attitude of the United States in the German controversy. Colonel House is expected to remain as a White House guest for a week or more.

Today it was plain that the momentous message which the president is expected to deliver to the new congress one week from today will not be prepared until just before it is delivered. He will frame the address with the full record before him and after full discussion with all of his advisers.

Congress Getting Ready.

Meantime congress leaders will form tentative plans to act promptly and effectively along any line the president may suggest. Chairman Flood and Democratic members of the foreign affairs committee have begun preparation of tentative resolutions to meet any suggested action. These included a measure declaring war against Germany without further equivocation, a resolution declaring the existence of a state of war and placing the resources of the government behind the president to meet the situation and a resolution indorsing the president's armed neutrality program and providing for complete preparedness.

The first of these resolutions is the least likely to be proposed. Both administration and congress leaders believe the responsibility for a declaration of war should be placed on Germany. Either of the other two resolutions, however, would make plain the nation's determination to protect its rights and would be accompanied by legislation placing adequate financial and military power behind the president.

Big Credit For Allies.

Congress leaders also discussed the proposal that the United States place at the disposal of the entente allies a vast credit, thus backing up the entente campaign with the enormous financial resources of this country. This proposal will undoubtedly be taken up tomorrow by the Democrats of the house ways and means committee.

In this connection it was pointed out that the foreign securities now held in the United States might be easily vastly extended in amount without danger to American financial institutions.

In a preliminary report on the call for national banks on March 5 the comptroller of the currency states the foreign bonds held by national banks were $230,000,000, or but little more than 2 per cent of the total resources." This was the first time that a bank statement has made any reference to holdings of foreign securities.

Huge Financial Resources.

The statement likewise pointed out that resources of the central reserve and reserve city banks on March 5 was more than $230,000,000 than ever before and greater by $480,000,000 than the resources at the last call, Dec. 27. The bank report ended with the significant statement that the resources of all national banks exceeded by more than $5,000,000,000 the combined resources of the Bank of England, the Bank of France, the Banks of Italy, Spain, Norway and Sweden, the Swiss National bank, the Bank of Japan, the Bank of Denmark and the German Reichsbank. Out of this vast sum will come the funds which the United States will use to prosecute its part in the impending war, whether it be used to finance the entente powers or to supply military and naval forces.

It is looked upon as significant that Senator Hitchcock discussed the senate situation with the president rather than Senator Stone of Missouri, chairman of the foreign relations committee. Senator Stone has not visited the White House since he led the fight which killed the president's armed neutrality resolution in the senate in the closing days of the last congress. Senator Hitchcock is expected to take charge of the administration foreign relations legislation in the upper branch.

No Bethlehem Steel Hotel.

Mays Landing, March 28.—Recent rumors that the Bethlehem Steel company is considering the erection of a big hotel at Somers Point for the accommodation of its guests and officials were denied by men connected with the corporation. The company, it was announced, has no intention of building hotels in connection with its operations in this county.

FRENCH MENACE GERMAN LINE

Drive Wedge Further In on Western Front.

TEUTONS DEFEAT RUSSIANS.

Hindenburg Drive to Moscow Launched With Advance on Minsk, Experts Believe—Gas Attack Drives Slavs From Trenches—British Capture Two More Villages In Face of Desperate Fighting In Their Section of France.

London, March 28.—The fate of the "Hindenburg line"—St. Quentin-La Fere-Laon—still hangs in the balance. Fresh advances by the French, however, spell a grave menace to its retention by the stubbornly counter attacking Teutons. The British also made new progress, but of less important strategic value.

To the French fell, after a furious battle, the important village of Coucy-Le Chateau, halfway between La Fere and Soissons. Thus the French wedge between these two key positions was considerably extended. Berlin admits the abandonment of this ground, saying that the German rear guards, after inflicting losses upon the French, "gave way before a threatening outflanking movement."

Hardest Test Coming.

General Nivelle's troops are now facing the supreme test in this region. In front of them lies the formidably fortified terrain protecting Laon. The German guns are emplaced on extremely high ground, which dominates all the surrounding territory.

The advance which carried Coucy-Le Chateau is described by the French war office as a "brilliant night attack," and it is added that the village was energetically defended.

The battle between St. Quentin and La Fere continues a deadlock. Here the Teutons are fighting with the utmost tenacity and have been able thus far to hold their ground.

The British have taken two additional villages, Equancourt, ten miles southeast of Bapaume, and Longatesnes, three miles northwest of Roisel. These gains went a long way toward straightening out their new front. The new progress was made in spite of bad weather conditions.

Berlin officially admitted the abandonment of Roisel village to the British, "after repeated unsuccessful advances."

Germans Break Russian Line.

Following up their "feelers," the Germans on the northern end of the battle line in Russia made their first actual attack of importance against the Russians and, according to official admission from Petrograd, succeeded.

The advance was launched from Baronovichi, on the Brest-Litovsk-Minsk-Moscow railway, in a northeasterly direction toward Minsk. After a first attempt had broken down in the Russian barrier fire the Teutons with the use of gas broke through the Muscovite positions and forced the latter to fall back, taking more than 300 prisoners and considerable booty. The positions won are on the west bank of the Shara river.

"The first attack," says the Russian official report, was "repulsed, but a second, accompanied by a discharge of asphyxiating gases, obliged our troops to fall back in an easterly direction."

Drive For Moscow.

The Teuton attack in the sector lends new strength to the theory that Hindenburg plans an offensive in the direction of Moscow with Minsk the immediate objective.

Simultaneously with the operations in the Baronovichi region the Germans are constantly putting out "feelers" farther northward around Smorgon, where another railroad leads directly to Minsk. The report speaks of successful raids here. Lively artillery activity is displayed by the Germans besides at Baronovichi in the region of Postavy, the foremost point of the German lines in Russian territory in the north.

The Russians on their part made vigorous attacks on the Teuton lines in Volhynia west of Lutzk and in Galicia near Brzezany and north of the Tarnopol railroad. All these attacks were repulsed with "heavy losses," Berlin asserts.

The Berlin official statement contains the usual mention of Field Marshal von Mackensen's front. This is taken to dispose of the unofficial report that the field marshal has gone to Turkey to undertake a complete reorganization of the sultan's armies.

IMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

MACKEYS OFFER HOSPITAL TO U. S.

Red Cross Accepts 500 Bed War Unit Gift.

New York, March 28.—The first important contribution to the United States government from a private source, to be devoted to the furtherance of war time efficiency—one of the finest gifts of the kind, in fact, ever received by the government—is announced at Roosevelt hospital. Clarence H. Mackay and his mother, Mrs. John W. Mackay, who resides in Paris, have just made a joint gift of a completely equipped hospital base unit of 500 beds for service either in this country or abroad.

The hospital, which will be known as the Mackay unit, has been accepted through the National Red Cross. Through the patriotic generosity of Mr. Mackay and his mother, provision has been made for a staff of twenty-two surgeons, seventy-five nurses, 150 orderlies and others necessary to operate such a unit.

The organization of the Mackay unit has been pushed along with so much speed and thoroughness that it can be placed at the service of the United States as soon as needed.

Dr. Charles H. Peck, one of the surgical chiefs of Roosevelt hospital, has been selected as director of the unit. Dr. James J. Russell has been made chief of surgical service and Dr. Rolfe Floyd chief of medical service. Their surgical and medical staffs also have been chosen, together with oral surgeons, pathologists, Roentgenologists, ophthalmologists and aurists, anesthetists and a staff of nurses, which will be headed by Miss Mary L. Francis as chief nurse.

INTERNED GERMANS AT FORT.

Prisoners From Liners Reach Georgia From Philadelphia.

Atlanta, Ga., March 28.—Four hundred and eleven officers and men of the Kronprinz Wilhelm arrived here late today. The interned officers and men of the Prince Eitel Frederick were sent to Fort Oglethorpe.

The sailors made no attempt to escape during the trip. The officers and men refused to give their parole, but declare that they would not try to escape. They did this, it was said, in compliance with orders received from Germany, which have not been canceled.

HIGH COST OF HEATING GETS FIRST REAL BLOW.

New York, March 28.—The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company has announced that after April 2 the price of egg, stove and nut coal will be cut 40 cents a ton.

This is the first intimation that the big companies would reduce coal prices this spring. Because of the abnormal condition of the coal trade the announcement was a surprise to the trade.

METHODISTS IN CONFERENCE

Newark Body Opens In Annual Spring Session.

GIRLS' SCHOOL BIG THEME.

Presidency of Centenary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown Likely to Go to Dr. Vogel—Need For Strong Administrator to Bring Institution to a Higher Educational Standard Recognized.

Newark, March 28.—Affairs of the Centenary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown will have a prominent place in the discussions of the sixtieth annual meeting of the Newark Methodist Episcopal conference, which convened at Halsey Street church, this city, today. Largely the discussion will have to do with the possible successor to the late Rev. Dr. Jonathan M. Meeker, for many years president of the institution.

Many of the ministers believe Rev. Dr. George G. Vogel, district superintendent of Newark, could be appointed to the place if he were willing to relinquish his present duties prior to the expiration of his term of appointment.

Rumors of the probable selection of Rev. Dr. Robert Johns Trevorrow, president of Drew Seminary For Young Women at Carmel, N. Y., were circulated some time ago. Coupled with these was the report of the possible merging of the New York institution with that at Hackettstown, the sale of the Carmel property and the transfer of the proceeds as an endowment for the Hackettstown institution.

Although it is admitted that Dr. Trevorrow was considered, the prospect of a merger of the two institutions is characterized as hardly probable. Opposition to such a move has been forcefully though unofficially stated by members of its board of trustees.

Rev. Dr. Abel C. McKee, pastor of Emory church, Jersey City, is mentioned as Dr. Vogel's successor in this district if he is made the Institute head. He is one of a number of men mentioned earlier as an aspirant to succeed to the presidency at the institute.

While it is known that Dr. Vogel has not been an aspirant for the place, he is known to stand high in the favor of Bishop Luther B. Wilson for his abilities as an administrator. The argument advanced as weighing large in the possibility of the Newark superintendent's selection is the confidence which the influential men of the conference have in him and his success in past charges in developing all of the resources of the field.

START ENGINEER COMPANY.

New Guard Unit Is Being Organized In Newark.

Newark, March 28.—By direction of Adjutant General Charles W. Barber, Lieutenant Colonel George M. Buttle of the First regiment has taken preliminary steps toward the organization of an engineering company in Newark and vicinity. County Engineer Frederic A. Reimer, formerly first lieutenant of Battery A, has begun active work of organization.

New Jersey will have to supply two companies of engineers to help make up the deficit of fifty-two companies of engineers of the national guard of the country, which is a shortage of 850 officers and 10,000 enlisted men. The officers of the engineering company must be graduate civil engineers, and the enlisted personnel will be picked on the vocational adaptability plan, because this branch of the service is possibly the most intricate and specialized in the war establishment fabric.

AUSTRIAN ENVOY LOSES HOPE.

Count Tarnowski Is Considering Return to Vienna.

Washington, March 28.—Count Tarnowski, designated Austrian ambassador to the United States, has practically given up hope of being received here in his official capacity. He is already contemplating returning to Vienna.

Baron Swiedinek, the Austrian charge, called at the state department to ascertain among other things whether there was any likelihood of German-American hostilities being averted. He did not appear encouraged when he left.

Women! Stop Corn Pain! Few Drops and Corns Lift Out

Don't hurt a bit! Cincinnati man discovers drug that works wonders—No humbug! Never let a corn ache twice.

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on your feet, but why care now a bottle of freezone?

This tiny bottle holds an almost magic fluid. A genius in Cincinnati discovered this ether compound and named it freezone. Small bottle of freezone like here shown can be had at any drug store for a few cents. Never limp or twist your face in pain again, but get a bottle of freezone and apply a few drops on your tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you can lift it off with the fingers.

Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened calluses without suffering one particle. Freezone is magic!

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

BY MRS. FAWCETT

(Copyright, 1913, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, N. Y. City)

THE CLOCK AND PUSSIE

The Kitchen Clock was so full of laugh that it almost fell off the shelf, for it knew that in another minute it would strike 12, and then it could talk, but best of all it would frighten puss.

Pussie was at that minute on the shelf in the pantry with her head in the bowl of cream, and when the clock struck the first stroke of 12 it did so with a loud bang, and off the shelf fell Puss and the bowl, too.

"Why didn't you frighten a body to death?" asked Pussie, as she came out of the pantry.

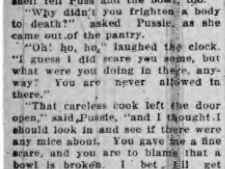
"Oh! ho, ho," laughed the clock. "I guess I did scare you some, but what were you doing in there, anyway? You are never allowed in there."

"That careless cook left the door open," said Pussie, "and I thought I should look in and see if there were any mice about. You gave me a fine scare, and you are to blame that a bowl is broken. I bet I'll get blamed for it."

"Funny it happened to be the bowl that held the cream for breakfast," said the clock. "What were you doing on the shelf looking for mice? They are usually in the closets under the shelves."

"That is all you know about it, Mr. Clock," said Pussie. "You sit up there high on the shelf and think you know it all, but you never leave this room, so you are not as smart as you think, for very little of the world can be seen from your shelf, let me tell you."

"It is better than running around, getting into trouble as you do, Miss Pussie," said the clock, "and just for that I will not tell you something you would be glad to know, for I could tell you how to keep out of trouble, but I'll just let you find out for yourself now."



"You do not need to tell me, Mr. Clock. I am much smarter than you are. I do not need a stupid old fellow like you who never gets out in the world to tell me, who sees everything and goes everywhere, anything, for I know it all."

"We'll see who hears the most, you or I," replied the clock. "I can tell you more about what is going on in this house than you know, even if you do run about. I hear a lot in this kitchen that everybody would like to know."

"Well, I'll leave you to fix it up with cook in the morning about the cream," said Pussie. "Of course, she will know you did not do it because you never leave the shelf."

Off went Puss to the cellar, where she knew there was a place she could crawl out of doors, and the next morning she came in the door; hearing cook's angry words, she ran out again, but not before the clock ticked out: "Thief; thief!"

That clock is an old tell-tale, as well as a disagreeable old thing, said Pussie, running out into the yard.

About dinner time Pussie came slyly in the kitchen and the cook called out: "Here she is!"

In came the master with a stick and showing Pussie some feathers, he gave her a smart cat with a stick across the back.

"I'll teach you to eat my chickens," he said, giving her another thinking with the stick.

"Give her one for me, she ate my cream last night, and then broke the bowl," said cook; "how she got in is more than I know."

"I'll give her one more chance," said the master, "and the next time she touches one of my chickens out she goes for good."

Pussie ran under the stove and curled herself up, but the clock ticked loudly, and Puss knew it was all meant for her to hear.

"You're a thief; I knew it I knew it!" ticked the clock, and Puss stood it as long as she could and then ran out.

That night when everything was still the clock struck 12. Puss had crawled in through the place in the cellar and was waiting for the clock to speak when the midnight hour should strike.

"What are they going to do with me if I catch another chicken?" asked Pussie.

"They said something about a box and a sponge, and putting you in the box," said the clock. "Master said it would not hurt you, you would only go to sleep, and they said they would bury the box in the yard."

"Well, they won't have to because I am never going to touch a chicken again or steal the cook's cream either; I have turned over a new leaf," said Pussie, "and I want to thank you for telling me and tell you also I am sorry I was so disagreeable the last time I talked with you, because you do know a lot about what is going on even if you never leave the shelf."

"Oh, that is all right, Puss," said the Clock. "I know you are a very wise puss or you never would have turned over a new leaf. I am glad to know you are going to be a good puss and not be put in a box."

MARIA BARRIENTOS AS "JAKME."

Name of a president.

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER

Upside down, nose at elbow.

Harrison.

MRS. D. S. BARRY HOME FROM SANTO DOMINGO

Mrs. David Sheldon Barry, Jr., formerly of Plainfield, who since her marriage several months ago to Lieutenant Barry, U. S. N., has been in Santo Domingo, where the latter was stationed, arrived in this city last night to visit her father, William Palmer Smith, for a time prior to going to Washington. Lieutenant Barry is expected to reach Washington soon, he having been delayed for a time.

Mrs. Barry came home on the steamer Algonquin, and when the report was received recently of the sinking of another boat of the same name it caused great anxiety among relatives and friends of Mrs. Barry.

She was delighted with the climate of Santo Domingo, but there were many other natural conditions there which did not appeal to her and she says that she is glad to get back to this part of the country.

Owing to the present crisis Lieutenant Barry will not know of his future plans until he reaches Washington.

NAVY OFFERS UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR MEN

Roland Story, brother of Frank Story, of this city, who after a service of twenty years in the U. S. Navy, is now working in one of the Government munition plants in Philadelphia, was in Plainfield Monday calling on friends. Mr. Story is now on reserve and is subject to call for active service in case of emergency.

During his long service in the navy he visited all parts of the world. He was a gunner's mate and was on the Battleship Brooklyn under Admiral Schley at the battle of Santiago. He also had considerable experience as a diver. Mr. Story says that the navy offers exceptional opportunities for a young man, who, beside securing good training, has a chance to see the world.

Russell Story, the son of Frank Story, went to New York yesterday to enlist in the U. S. Army. If accepted he will be assigned to one of the companies in a New York regiment.

CHICAGO FIGHTING WHITE PLAGUE

By United Press:

Chicago, Mar. 28.—This city's battle against the Great White Plague, will be won within ten years of the present decrease in deaths continues.

This announcement was made today by Dr. John Dill Robertson, city health officer. Decreased consumption of alcoholic liquors, the Sunday closing law, the activities of the city's milk supply and a general hygiene education campaign have made marked inroads against the yearly toll of tuberculosis, Dr. Robertson said.

"We are reaping the reward of persistent propaganda against the disease," said he. Insanitation, communicable methods of disease, public drinking cups, promiscuous spitting, bad housing, too much liquor and not enough out door life have been fought."

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—calomel, castor oil or cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who belong to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, you should use them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for ordinary use in almost every family." It is sold in this city by Weiss' Boro Drug Store.

Miss Mary Warren of Hillside avenue, will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Ina Alice Kissel, daughter of Rudolph H. GERMAN SOCIETY REPEATS STRANDFEST

The members of the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein repeated their "Strandfest" or seashore festival last night at Saengerbund Hall, with much success. The same decorations were used and the members carried to the strains of Scott's orchestra.

The biggest attraction was down stairs where the alleys which have just been improved were used. There was prize bowling and many took part. The new pins made it hardly impossible to roll up big scores. The lady's highest honors went to Mrs. Remmer, and the gentleman's highest award to Adam Muff.

MAKING IT PLAIN

The Pure Food and Drug Laws aim to protect the public by preventing mis-statements on the labels of preparations but some people continue to accept "extracts" of cod livers thinking they will get the benefits of an emulsion of cod liver oil.

The difference is very great. An "emulsion" contains real cod liver oil, which has had the hearty endorsement of the medical profession for many years, while an "extract" is a product which contains no oil and is highly alcoholic.

Scott's Emulsion guarantees the highest possible of real Norwegian cod liver oil, skilfully blended with glycerine and hypophosphites. Scott's is free from the false stimulation of alcohol and is endorsed by good physicians everywhere.

THIS IS SAD

A man has no time to be decent to his wife. He gets up early in the morning with a grouch and has to leave before it does. Consequently, he has no time to be decent to her in the morning. He arrives at the office feeling fine—and he continues to feel fine until long in the afternoon when his duties begin to grab and fag him. By the time he gets home at night he is disgruntled for the evening. Thus he has no time to be decent to her in the evening. On Sunday he is too worn out with the work of the week to do anything but eat and mope. The average man has plenty of good disposition, but no time to practice it on his wife.

Columbian Bowlers Do Some Good Work at Bound Brook Alleys

The Columbians, a bowling team of young women of this city, visited the Bound Brook alleys last evening, where they lined up against a similarly constructed team from Manville, the locals taking the entire set of games. Miss Doyle, of the Queen City team, took the honor members of her team by surprise, and the gallery by storm as she rolled up a score of 162 in her last game, maintaining an average of 133.

The locals did some good bowling throughout the evening, showing marked improvement over a number of their previous games.

COX, OF CRANFORD, WINS C. N. J. FIRST INDIVIDUAL HONORS

Bound Brook Team Takes First Team and High Pins for Thirty Frames Honors—Westfield and Somerville Also In On Prize List

Final official figures and averages of the Central New Jersey League were given out by Secretary Firstbrook this morning, disclosing the fact that the Bound Brook team secured a corner on the bulk of the prizes of the circuit. The Bees secured the top rung of the race ladder, just half a game ahead of Westfield aggregation, which in turn finished just a half game ahead of Somerville in third place. Each of these teams receive prizes for landing in their respective places.

The Bees also copped the prize for rolling the largest number of pins for thirty frames in the course of a single evening. The Bound Brook five waited for their last series of the season to establish this record, taking this honor in the same evening in which they defeated Somerville for the leadership in the Up until that evening Somerville was holding down second place and Westfield first place. The figure of high pins for thirty frames set out that evening by the Bees was 2,838.

During the course of the same series of games Wall of the Bees set up the same honor for the individual bowlers, taking the prize which went along with the honor. Wall set up a record of 626, just four pins ahead of the record set up by Cox of Cranford earlier in the season. Neiman of Cranford in twelve games rolled had a record of 619 for thirty frames.

The race for individual average honors was as tight as the team race for first, second and third honors. Cox, the lad who secured second scored great work with the Roselle Casino team in the Union County League, took the first honors in this title with a season average of 185.6 for twenty-four games rolled, rolling consistently throughout the season. Ehmling of the Westfields came second with an average of 184.13, and Roller of Somerville third with a season figure of 182.16.

The initial season of the Central New Jersey Bowling League may be taken as a complete success from every angle, although a number of kinks appeared in the running debate during the course of the year. Three sets of games were lost by the forfeit route, Roselle forfeited a series each to Somerville and Cranford and the latter forfeited a series to Bound Brook, all during the latter part of the season.

Officers of the league were as follows: President, H. T. Ferry, of Westfield; vice president, George Gates, of North Plainfield; secretary-treasurer, Walter L. Firstbrook, of the Courier-News.

Louis Roller, of Somerville, and George Ehinger, of Bound Brook, both close followers of the indoor sport, were largely responsible for the formation of the circuit last fall, being ably assisted by Frederick Noble, of Roselle Park; F. E. Cox, of Cranford; George Ogden, of Westfield, and George Gates, of the borough.

The following are the complete figures and averages of the league as given out this morning by Secretary Firstbrook:

THE NIMRODS ARE NOW IN TRAINING

State's Fishermen Are Preparing for the Opening of Trout Season

SUNDAY IS THE DAY

Sleepless nights and dreams of the coming trout fishing season affect many a country boy just now, and some of the city folks as well. The great metropolitan outre of the fishing game takes place next Sunday. April's fool day it might be to some, but to the angler it means a spell in the country wading a favorite stream in search of the elusive speckled trout, with a fly rod and a worm as weapons. There is no law against Sunday fishing in New Jersey. There is in Pennsylvania.

Trout fishing in New Jersey is no longer a joke. A few years ago, when the State was paying toward the maintenance of a hatchery that never existed, it was, indeed, foolish to spend time and money searching for trout that never existed. All that has been changed now and today the angler can look forward to the coming open season with more than a degree of certainty as the trout are in the streams to be caught. The only drawback that can be anticipated will come from the condition of the water, which is unusually high because of the great amount of snow and ice that accumulated in the mountainous districts.

That the coming season will be the best that has happened in years is a prognostication based on facts. Systematic stocking of the waters with matured fish has been carried on by the members of the Board of Fish and Game Commissioners for four years, and the work is now yielding. Ten millions of trout have been liberated in that time, and through efficiency in handling them, as well as knowing when and where to place them in the water, wonderful results have followed. Many streams have been visited during the past three weeks by men who usually get their bearings before the season opens. Reports from them show that the fish are searching for food. Rainbow trout measuring fourteen inches have been seen hiding behind rocks ready to dash at the first moving object that appeals to them. One party of three anglers spent an entire day along the banks of the Musconetcong river, looking for signs of trout, and they returned well satisfied with what they saw. So it has been with many others. Reports from the southern section of the State, especially Monmouth county, where the streams have been free of ice for a month, are encouraging, while as far south as Atlantic county, where the trout are new comers, the anglers are making great preparations for the coming season.

Hunterdon county boasts of what are sending out literature relating to the fact that the catching of trout in their neighborhoods is becoming an annual event, while far off Sussex, not to be outdone, is sending out word that the ice on the streams is breaking up fast and by the end of the week it will have disappeared entirely. Warren county has many fine trout streams filled with the fishiters direct from the hatchery at Hackettstown, while Morris county claims to have received more than its share of ten-inch fish this year. Passaic county, Union county, Bergen county and Middlesex county streams have been well stocked, and the work will be completed until next Friday, when the wardens will be withdrawn from the work to watch for anglers who grow impatient for a chance to wet a line and venture forth to take a chance before the season opens.

Many local anglers will go to Monmouth county on the opening day, as the streams are about down to their normal spring capacity. Brook trout have been placed in the following streams of Monmouth: Yellow brook, Pine brook, Rockhochson brook, Tintern Manor brook, Willow brook, Englishtown brook, Sunset brook, Beaver brook, Manalapan brook, Manee brook, Hornerstown brook, Pelays brook, Prospertown brook, Weigel brook, Metuchen brook, Milltown brook, Rock brook and Arrowsmith brook.

Middlesex county—Mill brook, Green, Indian Spring brook, Bashing Ridge brook, Sage brook, Silver Lake brook, Helmetta brook, Jamesburg brook, Metuchen brook, Milltown brook, Weston's brook, Parsons' brook, Beaver Dam brook, Pow-wow brook, Pigeon Swamp and Saw Mill brook.

Union county—One of the best streams in this county was polluted last fall and thousands of rainbow trout killed. It is the Rahway river at Hoodwood mills and therabouts, and new stock has been placed in there. The other streams in the county are Ash brook, Reformatory lake, Rahway water works, and Green brook.

CHECKER CHALLENGE

Thomas Timbo, erstwhile resterateur of North avenue, well known in sporting circles in Plainfield and vicinity, is now looking around for those whom he may devour at the checker board. Timmie has recently secured some well earned victories over John Sullivan and John Powers, both of North avenue, and Tommie is now desirous of meeting other opponents who may wish to pass away an evening or two at the indoor sport.

N. P. H. S. SCHEDULE WILL BE HARD ONE

Borough Boys Have Twenty-six Diamond Dates on Their Books

The North Plainfield H. S. baseball team will begin its season April 14 at Morristown, with Morristown H. S. as its opponent. Captain McDonough's players will tackle the hardest schedule the borough schools has had in several years, several new teams taking the places of a number of former opponents.

Among the new teams to be played are Pennington Prep, East Orange and Ridgewood High. Several dates are pending with New York high schools, and Manager Lowrie is almost sure of arranging a series with Horace Mann High of East Side High School.

With the present schedule, unless a recruit pitcher is unearthed in the borough, some heavy work will fall on the shoulders of Sid Dunning, who will most likely start as regular boxman for the Canaliers.

The schedule follows:

April

14—Morristown at Morristown.
15—Seton Hall Prep at South Orange.
18—Pennington Prep at Pennington.
19—Kearny H. S. at Hyde Oval.
21—Ridgewood H. S. at Ridgewood.
25—Carlton Academy at Summit.
26—Summit Prep at Hyde Oval.
28—Westfield H. S. at Hyde Oval.

May

5—Rutgers Prep at Hyde Oval.
11—West Orange H. S. at West Orange.
12—Bernardsville H. S. at Hyde Oval.
14—Horace Mann (pending).

22—Somerville H. S. at Somerville.
26—Seton Hall Prep at Hyde Oval.
26—Morristown H. S. at Hyde Oval.

BOROUGH MAIDENS IN OUTDOOR GAMES

N. P. H. S. Girls Are Planning Hiking Club and Regular Baseball Team

The Girls' Athletic Association of North Plainfield H. S., at a meeting yesterday decided to organize a hikers' club. The clubs will soon begin training and has already planned a hike through the wilds of Watchung and Warrenville for next week.

Not content with this line of endeavor, the girls have organized a baseball team and have been holding practice just above Hyde Oval during the past week. Prospects for a good team are promising, as several aspirants for places on the nine are well known for their baseball ability.

Tess McCullough was burning them across the pan Wednesday afternoon and Elsie Wyckoff showed up well on the receiving end. Marion Blair and Lillian Spencer are trying out for the keystone sack, with Nora McDonough, Helen Spencer, Marjorie Chandler and Marion Chandler going after the other infield positions. The outfield was rather sparsely settled in Wednesday's practice, but Rosana McDonough and Mary Clark showed some surprising ability in sailing down the high ones.

The girls have already received two challenges—one from a Newark high school and the other from the West Orange All-Stars, managed by Joe Byrne, well known in this city as a basketball referee.

AMERICAN LEAGUE SHOULD BE TIGHT

Race in Junior Organization Expected to be Fast From Present Indications

This season's journey down the American League schedule should be fully as productive of sensations as was last year's gruelling finish. No less than four clubs are due to be in the fight and the balance is such that the issue probably will not be decided until the season is in its closing month.

Detroit looks to be one team which will bear watching. The Chicago White Sox are strong, the Yankees, re-fitted with good arms and legs, must be counted in, and it would be folly to suppose that even a change in managership could keep the wonderful Red Sox from making an awful bid for the Ban Johnson bunting.

The Tigers have been due to win a pennant for several seasons. Just one thing has hampered them. Correct the faults in the Detroit pitching staff and there will be a baseball club that will tear its way through anything. Imagine a team making six and seven runs a day, only to see the opposition come through with just a few more. The offensive power of such a grand machine is lost in the inability of pitchers to hold the opposition to a few runs. With two good pitchers Detroit should win a pennant, for its stickmen are able to produce the runs.

The same thing might be said to hold good for the White Sox, but there are good pitchers there. The fault isn't wholly with the hurlers. The hitters are there to make the runs, and for a great part of the time the pitchers are there to do the holding. Comiskey's twirlers lost themselves last summer in the heat of the race and there is no reason why they should not return. The White Sox need a first baseman, and they need him bad. If Gandil can come through the White Sox will develop a dangerously well-balanced team.

The Yankees are dangerous, but hardly enough so to be voted a spring pennant. They need more experience as a team and a trifle more steadiness in the pitching staff.

The Red Sox will supply the entertainment for the season. The champions comprise one of the best balanced and best defensive teams thrown together for many years. If the crack doesn't come this year it will be hard to keep them out of another world's championship. A great deal depends on Jack Barry's ability, but the team is so constituted that if it holds together most any one could drive it to a flag.

TABS AND KNIGHTS TO BATTLE AT SOMERVILLE

After weeks of waiting, the long-delayed game between the Tabs of this city and the Knights of St. John of New Brunswick will be staged Saturday evening. The game has been booked for the Armory court floor at Somerville, a neutral floor. The only thing which will now prevent the contest will be the declaration of war, in which case the armory will be closed.

The Tabs have had a very successful season this year, having lost but a pair of games. The Knights have also been enjoying prosperity, being the runners-up in the Middlesex county championship race, losing out only after dropping come hard-fought games with the Riversides of Perth Amboy. In the series between the Tabs and the Knights each have one game, and something ought to break in the play Saturday evening.

In order to accommodate the large number of rooters who are expected to accompany the locals, a special car will leave the trolley station at 7 o'clock. Dancing will follow the game, music to be furnished by a five-piece orchestra from New Brunswick.

SCHOOL LEAGUE IS THE LATEST HERE

Six Teams Entered in Baseball Circuit for City's Future Stars

Plainfield is to have a Public School Baseball League this spring according to announcements made this morning by officials of the Public Recreation Committee. Six teams, representing the Irving, Evergreen Avenue, Jefferson, Grammar, Washington and Whittier schools, have entered the circuit and are now preparing for the opening games.

The league opening has been set down for Tuesday afternoon, April 10, and will be continued through to Saturday, June 9. While such a circuit as this is something of an innovation for this city, there appears to be no reason why the project should not be successful. Similar circuits are staged in other cities each spring, giving the youngsters an amount of proper outdoor exercise and creating in them a school spirit which can hardly be developed in any other way.

Crescent Oval and Hope Common, two fields which have served many years as Meccas for budding baseball stars of the Queen City, will be used for the majority of the games. While both fields have been discarded for some time by the Senior teams of the city the junior teams of various parts of the city seek the old spots for their games, evidently for the purpose of obtaining proper atmosphere for the diamond battles.

The complete schedule follows:

April—10, Irving vs. Evergreen; 12, Grammar vs. Jefferson; 14, Washington vs. Whittier; 17, Jefferson vs. Irving; 19, Grammar vs. Whittier; 21, Evergreen vs. Washington; 24, Jefferson vs. Whittier and Grammar vs. Washington; 26, Grammar vs. Evergreen and Irving vs. Whittier; 28, Washington vs. Irving and Evergreen vs. Jefferson.

May—1, Irving vs. Grammar; 3, Whittier vs. Evergreen; 5, Jefferson vs. Washington; 8, Jefferson vs. Grammar; 10, Evergreen vs. Irving; 12, Whittier vs. Washington; 15, Irving vs. Jefferson; 17, Whittier vs. Grammar; 19, Washington vs. Evergreen; 22, Evergreen vs. Grammar; 24, Whittier vs. Jefferson; 26, Irving vs. Washington; 29, Jefferson vs. Evergreen; 31, Whittier vs. Irving.

June—2, Washington vs. Grammar; 7, Grammar vs. Irving; 9, Washington vs. Jefferson and Evergreen vs. Whittier.

FARMERS PUT WARREN COUNTY ON DEER MAP

Dingman's, N. J., March 28.—Farmers in this section are preparing an appeal to the State authorities at Trenton for some relief from deer, said a son of the soil here yesterday. The animals are more plentiful than ever this spring and are so tame and bold that even kitchen gardens are not safe from them.

They eat with domestic cattle and are uncontrollable. They eat the vegetables in cold frames and hotbeds, which it is needful to leave exposed at this time of the year. They are also destructive of the winter wheat and forage on fields of this section, not only eating it but trampling it into the soft earth. They also eat the cover crops and the crops which are sowed for fertilizing.

"Dr. L. B. Smith, of Bushkill, Pa., recently went to the home of Mrs. Sarah E. Langart on a professional call and found six deer eating the crops on the place and no end about to drive them off. When one attempts to drive them they do not go far, being too tame."

PERSONAL

John T. Hazelton and family of Somerville, moved yesterday to this city.

Mrs. Bert Scott, of North avenue, Cranford, is a patient in Muhlenberg Hospital.

Mrs. J. O. McKelvey, of Grandview avenue, who recently underwent an operation, is slowly convalescing at her home in the borough.

WARNINGS BY FISKE, WOOD AND ROBERTS

Americans should weigh carefully the recent utterances of two men whom they have trained to find out and tell them what the United States needs to assure its safety, and who should be above suspicion of any other motive than a patriotic desire to see their country at all times prepared to defend itself with the least expenditure of blood and treasure. Said Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske:

It is very unfortunate that the American people do not think there is any danger at all of attack by enemies. Our trouble is ignorance. The American people do not realize their danger any more than does a baby on a railroad track.

Said Major-General Leonard Wood:

War is coming as sure as God is in heaven and the sun shines in the sky. Give our American boys a sporting chance. Don't let them be food for powder. If we prepare ourselves against any possible foreign invasion and get out of this state of unpreparedness we may never need to use the gun on our shoulder. We are now wholly unprepared, and there is not a War Office in Europe that does not know it.

For years the people of the British Empire reviled Lord Roberts and called him Jingo for preaching in their ears warnings identical with these. But they have been paying for more than two years a butcher's bill which might have been avoided had they been able to show to an aggressor whose only right is might a military machine thoroughly organized by universal military training. Certainly Belgium, Serbia and Roumania would not have been trampled under the iron heel had Britain been prepared. The American people have the opportunity to learn by observation. Will they insist on learning by experience?—New York Evening Sun.

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS FORM ORGANIZATION

The Electrical Contractors' Association was organized last night. George Graves was chosen president; Thomas Harding, secretary, and George Ord, treasurer.

The purpose of the organization is to foster the interests of the electrical trade and to participate in a "wire your house" campaign which the Public Service Corporation will launch in the very near future.

Those present at the meeting were: H. H. Apgar, William H. Pope, Edward Kyle, George Graves, A. M. Higgins, W. A. Reynolds, George Ord, A. V. Searing, Jr., Thomas C. Harding, George Andrews, John Lake, James Ellis, T. G. R. Ward, Jr., and Joseph Edgar. The association will meet again tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Atlantic City, March 28.—Word has been received here of the death at Lakewood, Fla., of Mme. Mountford, a missionary and lecturer known to thousands of church people throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and other eastern states.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease. —Adv.

AT ONCE! STOPS STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Makes Sick, Sour, Gassy Stomachs Feel Fine

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, list this down: Pape's Diapepsin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset you instantly get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so that you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Pape's Diapepsin is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder due to acid fermentation.—Adv.

M'DONOUGH IS CHARGED WITH THEFT OF $8,900

Perth Amboy, March 28.—John J. McDonough was brought here Monday night from Boston to answer to a charge of stealing $8,900 from the American Express Company of this place, which had employed him as a driver. The money had been consigned to the C. Pardee works and Bayne Brothers, local concerns. When Detective J. A. Huff found McDonough in custody of the Boston police he had made out a statement showing where and how he had spent nearly $6,500 of the stolen money. The first night after leaving Perth Amboy McDonough spent in Newark, going there by taxicab from South River.

The fugitive made his way to Boston spending money wherever he stopped after the style of "Butch" McDevitt, the Wilkes-Barre "millionaire for a day." His prodigality led to his arrest by the Boston authorities. In Boston he gave $20 tips to chauffeurs and a $60 coat to one who complained of being cold while driving McDonough.

About $2,400 was turned over to Huff with the prisoner and the money will be returned to the express company.

GLASS BOY FOUND, HE SAYS

Mrs. Charles L. Glass, of No. 13 Lienau place, Jersey City, has received the second telegram she has received from Kensett, Ark., inquiring about the reward of $500 offered for the return of her son, James Douglass Glass, who was four years old when he disappeared at Greeley, Pa., on May 12, 1915. Mrs. Glass said she expected to receive a letter and photograph on Monday or Tuesday next which H. E. Watson telegraphed that he had sent from Kensett.

Mr. Glass had not replied to the telegram, she said. It was possible, Mrs. Glass said, that the boy at Kensett was her missing son, but she feared it was another of the many false clues she had received. The telegram indicated a dispute as to whether the Sheriff or some other person at Kensett would be entitled to the reward.

Patrolman and Mrs. John Wurth, of this city, are relatives of the Glass family.

NEW IRISH CRISIS, DILLON'S WARNING

Hint of Easter Uprising Unless Home Rule Comes.

London, March 28.—Premier Lloyd George's government received a grave warning in the house of commons that the Irish question must be settled quickly or serious events will follow across the channels. John Dillon, Nationalist, demanded a statement from the government as to whether an announcement of its plans will be made before another Easter recess. He referred to the government's declaration that it had decided on its own responsibility to effect a settlement and added: "I feel bound from a deep sense of responsibility, having regard for Ireland's situation, to warn the government that if it allows Easter to pass without an indication as to whether it is in earnest regarding that declaration difficulties will arise which in all probability will make the situation worse than before."

Mr. Dillon also complained of the greatly increased stringency of the censorship during the last six months. The newspapers, he charged, were being directed how to influence the opinions of their readers and had received orders to suppress certain news.

M'ALL ASSOCIATION DOES GOOD WORK

The American McAll Association, which represents the Mission Populaire Evangelique in France, is doing a novel work for the French people in evangelistic and social service.

The new situations caused by the war have been met by relief enterprises of many kinds, chief among which are eight workrooms in Paris for women and girls; soup-kitchens at Nantes, Rouen and Desvres; organized work for women in Marseilles and other cities. In different stations the Mission's halls have been turned now into hospitals, now into soldiers' reading-rooms, and in the absence of the men, groups of women have organized civic associations for the closing of saloons and the betterment of social conditions in general. The Mission's agents are serving as chaplains at the front, both in the army and navy, and the Paris Committee has now undertaken to provide for as many war orphans as possible. Clothing and food are sent to the soldiers and prisoners and testaments, pamphlets and books to the French prisoners in Germany.

The Director-in-Chief writes, that he recently sent to over eighty Protestant Chaplains of the army boxes containing such articles as knives, electric lamps, pipes, clothing, preserves, soap, towels, etc., for distribution to the soldiers to whom they were ministering, bidding them inform each soldier that these little gifts were an expression of the sympathy of their American friends.

Contributions, needed more and more as the war continues, may be sent to Mrs. A. R. Perkins, Treasurer, at the Bureau of the Association, 1710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ROUMANIANS OFFER SERVICES TO AMERICA

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, March 28.—Governor Walter E. Edge today made public a letter which he has received from the Rev. Father D. C. Ludacu, of this city, chairman of the Executive Board of the Roumanian National Committee, in which the services of the Roumanian people in the United States are offered to the Government in the event of war with Germany.

"After a consultation with the officers of the Roumanian Commission at New York," says the writer of the letter, "I am authorized to say that in the present difficult circumstances the Roumanians residing in the United States want to co-operate with those who are inspired with the most high principles of humanity.

"The Roumanians in this country number about one hundred thousand, fifty per cent. of whom have served in the army for at least three years. These men will be organized into regiments or foreign legions which will serve the cause of the United States with the highest satisfaction."

Governor Edge has turned the communication over to Adjutant General Barber.

VALVE-IN-HEAD Buick MOTOR CARS

THE BIGGEST THING ABOUT THIS FOUR

Is the Buick "Valve in Head" Motor

Very little actual argument springs from price. The most obvious, and yet the most erroneous, way to sell these new four-cylinder model Buicks would be to call attention to their low cost. In reality, it is the last reason in the world why you should buy a Buick, although a reason that has its appeal to a great many people. The best reason in the world why you should buy it is because it has a Buick Valve-in-Head Motor.

EFFICIENCY IN DRILLS SHOWN

HALF-MILE RUN ENJOYED

Commission Announces that Owing to Large Number of Applicants Those Not Regular at Drills Will be Dropped

The Home Defense League met for its second drill at the Evergreen Avenue School last evening. The men showed the result of the first evening's drill and there was great improvement in the linement and marching last night. After going through the drill in company time, the men were taken out of doors and put through a stiff half-mile run. On coming in they were all measured for uniforms which will be ready in the course of a week or ten days.

The commission is preparing a list of fifty men from applications on file for recommendation to Mayor Calkins for appointment as a second unit. The Mayor in all probability will send the names in to the Council next Monday evening; and the appointees will be expected to appear at the Evergreen Avenue School Wednesday evening of next week at 8 o'clock for the purpose of being sworn in and measured for uniforms.

The commission wishes it understood that it is selecting applicants for appointment with the idea of choosing men from all classes and also from the various geographical districts of the city. It is deemed important to have men chosen from all parts of the city. In view of the large number of applications constantly coming in, the commission will probably find it necessary to make a rule dropping from membership in the league men who are not absolutely regular and prompt at the drill on Wednesday evenings and at target practice when assigned. As there are more applications than can be accepted, it is deemed unfair to keep men out of the league who are willing to give up all of their engagements in order to maintain strict military regularity in the organization, when places might be provided for them by requesting those who cannot be regular to withdraw. At present there has been little sign of irregularity, the members of the first unit being enthusiastic in their work, but the announcement is now made early so that it may be known before others sign the agreement promising strict regularity.

With regard to finances, a large amount of money must be raised to thoroughly equip and drill as many as two hundred men and the finance committee hopes that people of the city will appreciate this fact.

So far the contributions have been generous, but the committee is anxious that the movement will be in all respects a popular one. Nearly two thousand residents of Plainfield within a few days have subscribed their names to the National Government; and it is a part of the National defense for localities to take reasonable precaution to safeguard their local interests. The committee hopes to receive a large number of small contributions from the signers of the letter recently sent to the President of the United States. Contributions from $1.00 down to 10 cents will be acceptable. Let everybody give a little, according to his means, and have his name added to the roll of those in Plainfield who are willing to help in this work. As that is necessary is to step into the Plainfield Trust Company any day and make your contribution direct to Mr. Hubbell. Names but not amounts will be announced through the press.

GUARDSMEN GET ORDERS TO MOVE

Capt. Peterson Directed to Take Company K to Elizabeth Armory

MEN READY FOR SERVICE

Telegram Received from Department of the East Requesting Information as to Whether Company Was Mobilized

Following a telegram received from the Department of the East at Governor's Island, early this morning, requesting Captain Charles A. Peterson of Company K, to state whether his command was mobilized and ready to move, orders were received by the captain at noon directing him to prepare to move the company to the Elizabeth Armory this afternoon. Upon the arrival of the guardsmen at the county seat further instructions will be given.

It will probably be late this afternoon before the company leaves Plainfield as Captain Peterson must first arrange for the transportation of the men and this will require a little time. The orders to go to Elizabeth came from the Adjutant-General's office at Trenton. The regular members of the company are equipped and ready for service and the recruits, if accepted, will have to get their equipment later.

Nine recruits appeared last night and were listed to wait the surgeon's examination. The recruiting will go on intensively, with the expectation of adding about thirty men.

The company, except the guard, was dismissed last night at ten o'clock until eight o'clock this morning. The guard consisted of Sergeant De Camp and Privates Charles H. Bauman, Ernest S. Bird, Joseph Kirch, David Laing, Adam A. Miller, Herbert H. Reynolds and Edward H. Weaver.

The new army pack will be issued today, also three suits of underwear and two pairs of shoes to each man.

Until orders giving disposition of the company are received there will be extensive drilling in close order indoors, and in extended order out of doors.

Staats, proprietor of the Queen City Hotel, who has been making extensive repairs and improvements at the hostelry during the past few weeks, announced today that the hotel will be opened Saturday afternoon, from which time he will be glad to see his old friends and any new ones. The building has been completely overhauled and renovated and made modern in every detail.

RHODE ISLAND RED ON THE RAMPAGE

The peace and quiet of Craig place were somewhat disturbed Tuesday when the Rhode Island Red rooster of Sewer Inspector Jim Walker's flock of thoroughbreds got loose from his moorings and started on tour along West Front street. From the footprints along the highway Inspector Walker and his sleuths followed the bird through Grove street, then out to Front street, where for a time they were foiled. The bird was finally located where it sought seclusion in the vestibule of a Front street church, listening attentively to the doctrines that were being expounded.

The chase was a hard one and the incident was the cause of Walker not being able to show up at the pinochle contest that night.

SAFETY COMMITTEE DISCUSSED PLANS

At Meeting in Trenton Calkins Urged Passage of Census Law

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, March 29.—Plans looking toward the stimulation of recruiting for the National Guard, the formation of home guard organizations in the different communities in the harnessing of all the industries within the confines of the commonwealth into one big organization for the making of clothing, food and other supplies for troops, were some of the topics discussed here yesterday at the organization of the New Jersey Committee on Public Safety. The committee includes within its scope the 700 municipalities in the State, and Mayor Thomas L. Raymond, of Newark, by reason of his election as chairman of the executive committee, is virtually head of this body.

At the suggestion of Mayor Calkins, of Plainfield, the organization effected, went on record as favoring passage by the Legislature when it holds its final session here tomorrow, a bill providing for the registration of all subjects or citizens of a foreign power, should the United States go to war with that power. Mayor Calkins pointed out that a similar bill is pending in the New York Legislature. It requires the aliens affected to appear before designated city officials and register from time to time. In addition boarding house proprietors are required to report new arrivals.

MORE MEN WANTED FOR ENLISTMENT

The members of Company K are distributing circulars to able-bodied men informing them of the opportunity to enlist in the services of the country and inviting them to apply to the armory at 320 West Front street, this city, where applications will be received for recruits.

A SURPRISE PARTY FOR HIS BIRTHDAY

A surprise party was given in honor of John W. Beattie, of West Front street, last evening on the occasion of his birthday. It was a complete surprise to him, as Mrs. Beattie, who had made the necessary arrangements for the affair, took particular care that no advance information was given out. The evening was pleasantly spent, as there was an abundance of talent among the guests present.

The features were the playing of solos on an English concertina by Mr. Beattie and the selections played by Mrs. Lauritzen on the pianola.

A collation was served at a late hour and the company before going to their respective homes wished the host many happy returns of the day.

ALL READY FOR WAR RELIEF MEETING

Judge Newcorn States Many Contributions Received—Describes Conditions

Arrangements are progressing satisfactorily for the big Jewish War Relief meeting to be held in Columbus Auditorium on Tuesday night, April 3. Previous to the meeting a luncheon will be given in honor of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York, who will be the principal speaker.

Judge Newcorn, chairman of the meeting, announced this morning that the members of the committee of arrangements will be invited to attend the luncheon to Rabbi Wise. He also stated that he has received a number of sympathetic communications from local residents with donations inclosed for the relief of the Jews in the war zone.

"The appeal which we are making at this time," said Judge Newcorn, "is for the relief of people whose sufferings cannot be imagined by anyone in this land of peace and plenty. Rabbi Wise, of New York, who recently returned from the war zone, describes scenes that seem almost incredible to any but those who are actually in touch with the situation.

"When one sees old men and women famished with hunger and half clad, others with one arm or one leg missing, children with their eyes put out, others too ill to raise their heads, and no food or medical attention to relieve their suffering, it furnishes a reason for alms giving stronger than has ever been presented before.

"These people have had no part in causing the war. They have been the peaceful non-combatants driven from place to place by the hosts of war and suffering untold hardships in their flight to places of safety.

"Love thy neighbor as thyself," is one of the mandates given to Moses on Mount Sinai, and every man, woman and child who believes in the teachings of Jesus, who practices the form of worship of the Old Testament, are perforce obliged to heed that injunction, and to show their love in a practical way by giving such as they can afford from their bountiful store.

"The people of Russia and Galicia a few years ago were not in want. They had sufficient to maintain themselves comfortably, but the scourge of war has effected a complete change. The American people have been asked to do much in the way of giving relief. There is no one else to ask under the present circumstances.

"One dollar will help to feed a hungry body, to still the cry of a famished child or nourish back to strength those now weak and emaciated condition has made them the prey of sickness. We hope to get $10,000 in Plainfield and trust that this hope may be realized."

EDWARD L. MORRIS DIES IN BROOKLYN

Former Councilmen and Well Known Citizen Succumbs to Stroke of Paralysis

Edward L. Morris, aged 83 years, whose death occurred at his home, 772 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, on Tuesday, following a stroke of paralysis, was a well-known resident of Plainfield for twenty years prior to 1890, in which year he returned to Brooklyn, where he spent his early life. Mr. Morris while living here was a member of the city council, served on the board of fire commissioners, was active in fraternal organizations, especially the Royal Arcanum, and was also a member of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church.

Mr. Morris was born at Eltontown and after going to Brooklyn engaged in the coal business which he continued practically up to the time of his death. He was known as the veteran of the New York coal trade and more recently had acted in an advisory capacity in the interest of the trade in general. Prior to his fatal illness he had suffered several paralytic strokes and after a time was able to resume business.

Mr. Morris is survived by two daughters and a sister. The funeral will be held at the late home at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning and the interment will be in the family plot in Hillside cemetery where Mrs. Morris was buried a number of years ago.

PLATTSBURG MEN FORM ORGANIZATION

Plans Approved for Active Campaign, Including Illustrated Lectures

The Plattsburg men of Plainfield met in the High School building last evening at 8 o'clock and organized by electing J. Wilson Foster president and D. Fred Aungst secretary. Plans for recruiting men were laid.

Each man pledged himself to enroll at least four men. The movement embraces the Junior Camp, which will be held at Pine Island. A publicity committee was formed with D. Fred Aungst as chairman, and C. H. Frost, Alan Stevenson, Hamilton Wilmerding and C. W. T. Overton.

Evarts Tracy, a major of the Reserve Corps, gave an interesting talk on the Officers' Reserve Corps. Major Tracy offered to give a lecture on "Plattsburg," illustrated with 2,000 feet of moving picture film.

Mr. Aungst said that he had already booked several engagements to give stereopticon talks on camp life. A mass meeting will be held, giving these talks.

An army officer will be secured, if possible, to talk on the Plattsburg and Plum Island plan. Preparations are being made for 50,000 men at the camps this year. Plainfield will certainly send her quota, it is believed.

BERLIN MAY TRY TO PACIFY GERMANY BY OFFERS OF PEACE

By United Press:

London, March 29.—German Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg may strive to stave off a growing sentiment for democratizing Germany, by a new peace proffer today. At the least he is expected, according to rumors, to announce sweeping reforms in Germany's governmental structure, permitting more active participation by the people.

PRESIDENT WAITING NEXT DEVELOPMENTS

By United Press:

Washington, March 28.—President Wilson is holding up judgment on some vital details of his war message to Congress pending developments of the next few days.

The German Imperial Chancellor, von Bethmann-Hollweg, is expected to speak in the Reichstag today, giving an outline of Germany's future course in the conduct of the war and possibilities of her making peace. At the same time the effectiveness of armed neutrality as illustrated by the safe passage of armed American merchantmen to England has created a strong impression here. It is shown that not only is Germany not attacking these liners, but there is an absence of the usual Teutonic bombast about American liners "escaping only by accident."

There are some who believe that with the great preparedness movement now in full swing in the United States the President may, while presenting a bristing front to Germany, still hold out an appeal to all nations to talk reason before the United States is forced by circumstances not of her own choosing, to get into the war. The preponderance of official opinion, however, is that the President is all through exercising patience toward Germany; is convinced that a state of war exists, and will so declare to Congress, asking that every means be taken to bring the great war to a speedy and successful end.

MR. BRYAN STILL BELIEVES IN HIS GRAPE JUICE NAVY

By United Press:

New York, March 29.—"As one who expects to live up to a citizen's duties if war comes," William J. Bryan wired the United Press:

Miami, Fla.: To the Members of Senate and House, Washington, D. C.:

"Exercising a citizen's right of petition, I appeal to you the dispute with Germany has passed beyond the domain of diplomacy. The metropolitan press, which tried to prevent the re-election of the President and failed, undismayed by a popular verdict of more than half a million people, now seeks to lash the country into a fury and urges the Government to take part in the European conflict."

Bryan asked the Senators and Congressmen that before "you take blood upon your hands to consider first that the wrongs which you would punish, cruel and unjustifiable as they are, are not intended primarily against this country, but are the acts of desperation.

Second, "that our land is not threatened with invasion, but that we are asked to go 3,000 miles to fight."

Third, "that we have not the excuse to go to war that European nations had. They had no machinery for peace. We have a peace plan offered by this nation to the world and now embodied in thirty treaties with three-quarters of the population of the globe."

GREAT UNREST AMONG THE GERMAN PEOPLE

By United Press:

London, March 29.—Not only is the Franco-British advance after the retreating Germans on the western front going too fast to suit the Teutonic plans, but there is great unrest at home among the German people. Dispatches from Holland today report efforts of the leaders to quiet an undercurrent of sentiment for greater power for the people by sudden decisions at once to grant increased powers to the voters.

PLAINFIELD LEAGUE OF PEACE TO MEET

A meeting of the Plainfield League for Peace will be held in the auditorium of the Plainfield Public Library Saturday night at 8 o'clock. An officer of the league says:

"In view of the fact that the great contribution which the United States can make to civilization during the present war is the championship of neutral rights and the advocacy of an international organization of guaranties of future peace. The subjects to be considered at this meeting will be the possibility of a conference of neutrals, to clarify and unify the neutral attitude and of urging the President to appoint a joint high commission of inquiry and conciliation." The public is invited to attend the meeting.

LEGISLATURE WILL STAY OPEN

War Likely to Prevent Formal Adjournment.

MAY REMAIN TILL OCTOBER.

Work Will Be Completed by June, but National Crisis Makes It Desirable to Keep Organization Intact In Case of Necessity—Long Recess During Summer After Regular Business Is Disposed Of.

Harrisburg, March 29.—Prospects are good for a late session of the legislature. The imminence of war is the principal cause and ajournment may not be taken until October.

The actual work of the session will close between May 15 and June 1, according to present plans. One or more recesses will then be taken until about the end of October, when final adjournment will be taken.

The revenue raising measures and the general and other appropriation bills will be rushed through the legislature in the hope of a recess being taken about the middle of May. Instead of adjourning sine die, however, the legislature will simply take a recess and will be in a position to be called into active session at a moment's notice without much extra cost to the state.

The revenue raising measures will not make their appearance until after the general appropriation bill is introduced in the house Monday night.

At the same time the report of the economy and efficiency commission, which has been working for sixteen months on a program for reorganizing the departments and bureaus of the state government, is expected to be made public. The report, according to advance gossip, contains some startling recommendations.

The general appropriation bill, together with the special appropriation measures, will provide for a total of less that $71,000,000, according to Chairmen Buckman and Woodward of the appropriations committees of the senate and house respectively. Two years ago a total of $67,500,000 was appropriated.

The revenue raising bills, which will be introduced late next week at the earliest, include the following:

A tax of 5 per cent on the value of coal and coke prepared for sale.

A tax of 2 per cent on the value of oil and natural gas at the well.

A tax of 5 per cent on direct inheritance.

A tax upon the sale of tickets for all theatrical performances.

These measures in the aggregate would increase the annual revenue of the state by between $12,000,000 and $13,000,000. All of them, however, are not expected to be passed.

READING COAL CO. CUTS PRICE OF COAL

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Company, yesterday announced a reduction of fifty cents a ton on the price of coal, to become effective April 2. The reduction applies only to stove, egg and nut sizes. According to custom, ten cents a ton will be added to the price of these sizes each month until September 1.

Coal dealers say they believe all other producing companies will follow the lead of the Philadelphia & Reading, notwithstanding earlier predictions that, on account of unusual conditions this spring, the customary reduction would not be made.

VERDICT FOR THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY

In the District Court here yesterday, Judge Crane awarded judgment to the Standard Oil Company, for $95 against the Ford Taxi Company, of Fanwood. The suit against the Taxi Company involved Katie Ford, John W. Ford, Jr., and George Estelle. The evidence showed that Katie Ford was not in the partnership, but that she had loaned the money to her son and Estelle to start the business. Judge Crane decided there was no cause for action so far as she was concerned and granted a judgment against John W. Ford, Jr., and Estelle. Harvey Rothberg was counsel for the Standard Oil Company.

Caruso's

powerfully dramatic aria from Samson and Delilah in which he mighty Samson, imprisoned, beseeches the Lord to pity his wretchedness. One of the most gorgeous records in all Caruso's long list. His voice vibrant with emotion, the great tenor expends himself in the masterly music of Saint-Saens.

CONFERENCE LOYAL TO THE PRESIDENT

Methodist Ministers Send Telegram to Wilson at Opening of Annual Session

Soon after the opening of the sixtieth annual session of the Newark Methodist Conference in Halsey street church, Newark, yesterday, there was a unanimous declaration of loyalty to President Wilson and the country, the former being assured of the entire support of the conference in a telegram sent to him over the signature of Bishop Luther B. Wilson, who is presiding at the session.

There was another demonstration when Rev. Warren P. Coon, chaplain of the First New Jersey Infantry and pastor of Grace Memorial church, Kearny, appeared. This led the bishop to remark: "Newark Conference has always been at the front in all good things throughout its history."

Supplementing these outbursts, the conference, on motion of Rev. Dr. W. C. Shodgrass, formerly of this city, authorized the appointment of a committee on the state of the country. Its duty will be to keep in touch with current events and suggest action by the conference.

Organization of the conference was completed with the re-election of Rev. Dr. Bloom, as secretary; Rev. Dr. Frederick C. Mooney, of Elizabeth, statistician, and Rev. Dr. Warren R. Neff, Hoboken, treasurer. These officers appointed the following assistants: Secretaries, Rev. Austin E. Armstrong, Flemington; Berryman H. McCoy, Paterson; Geo. P. Dougherty, Newark; Mr. Coon, Charles R. Barnes, Hoboken, and J. M. Versteeg, Bayonne.

Statisticians, Rev. Whitfield C. Timbrell, Stony Point, N. Y.; Harry P. King, Califon; John H. E. Schultz, Jersey City; Norman P. Champlin, Stanhope; James K. Easley, Sussex; K. K. Quinby, Irvington; T. Stuart Molyneux, Caldwell; Levi B. McMickle, Elizabeth.

Treasurers, Rev. J. W. Ryder, Rahway; C. S. Hunt, Mountain View; David O. Cowles, Jersey City; F. W. Hindenberger, Hilton, and R. L. Leurich, Milford, Pa.

The annual memorial service for clergymen who died during the year was held. Rev. Dr. Charles R. Barnes, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Hoboken, delivered the address.

Always consult an architect

—he will save you much on materials and equipment

During these months of fluctuations in and scarcity of certain building materials, it is particularly important to get the help of an experienced architect.

As a "clearing house" of building experiences, and knowing thoroughly the markets and most practical equipment available, the architect will get the results you seek at least outlay!

"The most important sentence in your building specifications is: To be heated with IDEAL Boiler and AMERICAN Radiators."

He will save you in these times more money than ever before.

The far-sighted architect also studies the trend of building laws and future needs of house-keeping or business. He arranges the building so that it shall suit most other folks in case you later rent or sell.

An instance of his money-saving judgment—

The architect will more than earn his fee by making the radiator heating outfit cost you less than old fashioned heating devices by omitting from the plans the extra chimneys, needless mantels, useless inner doors, clumsy double window sash, weather strips, storm doors, etc. He will show you how to place your radiators and piping to do 100% heating work. He knows how to measure the volume of heat required, and will select the special pattern of IDEAL Boiler yielding utmost heat from cheapest fuel in your locality—whether mine-run soft coal, pea coal, coke, lignites, gas, oil, etc. No need to burn expensive grades of fuel!

He knows the importance of comfort, up-keep, and depreciation

There are buildings in every county of the United States which are heated by IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators. The smallest cottage as well as the largest sky-scraper, or business block, enjoys this economical, labor-saving, cleanly warmth. The architect does not have to go far to place before you a hundred testimonials as to the durability and wonderful heating service that an IDEAL outfit gives. So simple a child can run one. The outfits will last a century or so—no depreciation.

No one accepting such large responsibilities charges so little as does the architect—for his is largely a profession of public service. You should therefore take advantage of his "clearing house" of ideas and experiences by consulting him, and let him select the pattern and size of IDEAL Boiler and AMERICAN Radiators that will exactly fit your building needs.

CHARLES SEBRING RETURNS

Former Sheriff Charles Sebring, of North Plainfield, has returned home after enjoying an extended trip along the east coast of Florida, where he visited friends at St. Augustine, Jacksonville, West Palm Beach and Miami.

The North Plainfielder, in his travels along the Florida coast, sprung something of a novelty in advertising his home town by having a string of films run off in the motion picture theatres, showing views of Plainfield and the surrounding territory. Sheriff Sebring stated that he was so busy meeting of his old time friends that he had little or no time to go fishing.

"GREENBROOK PARK" IF YOU PLEASE

That is the New Name for the Sewage Disposal Plant

Hereafter when the citizens of Plainfield, North Plainfield and Dunellen have occasion to refer to the place where the sewage of these towns is disposed of, they will please refrain from saying the "disposal plant" but instead will say "Greenbrook Park." It's more euphonious, you know; at least, that is the way Councilman Hylan, of this city, one of the members of the trunk sewer operating committee, put it at a meeting of the Joint Sewer Commission, last night.

Mr. Hylan is strong for the aesthetic, even when it comes to a sewage disposal plant, and he has won the other members of the commission to view the plant from an artistic standpoint, so they all refer to the place on the Darling farm as "Greenbrook Park."

That name, said Mr. Hylan, conveys the impression of a pleasant place. A report which Mr. Hylan read later covering the activities of the operating committee disclosed the fact that $225 has been appropriated for shrubbery and aromatic plants, whose sweet fragrance will play upon the olfactory senses of those who find themselves within the zone occupied by the disposal plant.

It is the aim of the operating committee to remove the impression that the disposal plant is in any sense a nuisance. As a matter of fact, it is a highly organized chemical laboratory, where scientific disposition is made of the waste of three communities. It is a very interesting place to visit, but only those who have business there can obtain admittance.

The operating committee's report showed that the plant has been operated for three months and that no odors have arisen. Considerable difficulty was experienced with meters at various points on the trunk line during the winter months, but this has been remedied and no further trouble is anticipated.

The cost of operating the plant for the past three months, exclusive of salaries, which are a fixed charge, was $797.66. This cost is apportioned between the three municipalities upon the following basis: Plainfield, 94 per cent., and Dunellen, 2 per cent. The cost falls the heaviest upon Plainfield at this time because the other towns have only a few house connections. As soon as all connections have been made the cost to Plainfield will be decreased.

At the present time Plainfield has 4,432 connections; North Plainfield, 236, and Dunellen, 88.

The commission will meet in the future on the fourth Tuesday in June, September and December. For the purpose of relieving the members of the operating committee alternate members of that committee were appointed last night. They are: Levis M. Booth, Plainfield; Marston Buttfield, North Plainfield; Robert Craig, Dunellen.

P. H. S. NOTES

A meeting of the senior class of the City High School was held this afternoon in the lecture room.

The High School Cadet Corps will hold their weekly drill tomorrow afternoon under the command of Captain John Brandeth, of the U. S. Reserve Corps. Further elementary drilling will occupy some of the two and a half hours of military training. Last Friday the corps was divided up into squads with temporary corporals in charge of each squad.

Easter vacation will commence tomorrow, Friday, March 30, and continue throughout Holy Week. In former years Easter vacation has started on the Monday after Holy Week, but will begin a week sooner this year.

The heavy firing of the big guns on Sandy Hook has been felt in the High School for the past few days. Two days ago the windows in the building rattled considerably, causing the attendants to think that an explosion occurred near the school.

Strong odors of something disagreeable floated about the school yesterday, and those who have not studied chemistry thought probably that bad eggs had been stored in the building somewhere. Chemistry students, on the other hand, had been preparing hydrogen sulphide gas which escaped about the school, which has an offensive odor.

Economizing, by substituting the cheaper grades of meat and vegetables in place of the more costly ones, can be accomplished by the housewife, if she knows how, so that the family will be none the wiser.

One of the reasons why food bills are so much higher now than they were in our mother's time, is because many of the present day housewives are not willing to take the time to prepare and "dress up" the simpler foods, so that they will be both appetizing and palatable.

The use of fireproof ramekin dishes, casserole preparations and individual molds and compote dishes will often present the plainest ingredients in attractive form, and if it has been carefully cooked and delicately seasoned, these less expensive foods will quickly become popular favorites.

In the following tested recipes will be found formulas for making several of these dishes and the prudent housewife will find them all worthy of a trial:

Poached Eggs With Spinach

This is sufficiently hearty to serve as the main course for luncheon or supper. Boil two quarts of well washed spinach in just sufficient water to prevent scorching. Then drain and press through a ricer. Put it into a saucepan with one tablespoonful of cream, pepper and salt to taste and one teaspoonful of butter. Reheat and divide the vegetable puree into small, buttered baking dishes. Make a depression in the center of each, place in this a poached egg, dust the yolks of the eggs with black pepper and serve immediately with hot buttered toast.

Hot Hamburg Roast

Chop finely one pound of round steak and add two or three rounded of beef marrow (taken from the hind leg bone), a small slice of minced green pepper, one teaspoonful of grated onion, half a teaspoonful of salt, the beaten yolk of one egg and one-quarter of a cupful of soft bread crumbs, that have been soaked in cold water and then wrung dry in a piece of cheesecloth. With the hand, mix all the ingredients together very thoroughly, and care must be taken to mix the bread and marrow evenly through the meat. Press the whole into a compact roll of equal thickness through out. Put a slice of salt pork on the meat rack, set the roast on this, put a second slice over the meat and set to cook in a very hot oven. After six minutes, reduce the heat and let cook about fifteen minutes longer. The roast should be brown on the outside and pink at the center. Serve with a rich, brown gravy.

Peanut Scrapple

Sift together a cupful of cornmeal, half a cupful of fine grits and a scant teaspoonful of salt. Then scatter gradually into one quart of fast boiling water. Stir until smooth and turn into the upper part of the double boiler to cook for two hours. (The fireless cooker is also excellent for this purpose). Now add three quarters of a pint of shelled and chopped peanuts, pour the mixture into a greased mold and mold in an oblong pan. When firm, unmold, slice and fry in hot bacon dripping until crisp and brown. This forms an excellent meat substitute.

Canned Corn Pudding, Nantucket Style

Beat one egg lightly. Add one cupful of drained canned corn, half a cupful of rolled cracker crumbs, half a teaspoonful of salt, a tablespoonful of sugar and two cupfuls of milk. Turn into a buttered pudding dish, mix well and bake nearly an hour in a slow oven.

Scalloped Cheese

Use a shallow, wide baking dish for preparing this dish. Remove the crusts from four slices of bread, spread with butter and place in the buttered baking dish. Sprinkle with one cupful of grated cheese. Beat two eggs lightly, add a quarter of a teaspoonful of mustard, salt and paprika to taste and two cupfuls of milk. Pour this over the cheese and bread. Let it stand for half an hour and bake in a rather hot oven for twenty minutes.

MR. FOX IN TROUBLE

Mr. Fox knew where there were some fat hens, and he did not let the grass grow under his feet getting there, for he knew that old Reddy Fox knew about them, too, for old Reddy was the one that told Mr. Fox where they were. The moon was shining, but every little while he would hide his face behind a cloud, and Mr. Fox looked and thought how much more accommodating he was than usual, for when Mr. Moon hid Mr. Fox could creep nearer to the place where the fat hens were roosting.

He was just running around the barn when out came Mr. Moon very brightly, and Mr. Fox dodged behind a barrel.

While he was waiting for Mr. Moon to hide again he smelled something that pleased him and poked his nose close to a bucket that stood near. He had just decided that there was meat in the bucket and pushed the cover off with his nose when the moon went behind the cloud again, but Mr. Fox decided that he would have meat and get the hens later, so he pushed his head into the bucket.

When he tried to take his head out Mr. Fox found he was held fast, but he ate the meat and didn't worry for he felt sure he could rid himself of the bucket by shaking it off.

But he shook and shook, and then he banged his head about; still the bucket held him fast and Mr. Fox forgot all about the fat hens and started to run for home.

But of course he could not see, and bang he went into the barn. He ran on a little farther, and bang he went against a big rock which knocked poor Mr. Fox over, and he rolled down the hill bumpety, bump, bump.

He picked himself up. He was very much frightened now, for he was having a hard time to breathe, but he ran on in the direction for home, as he thought, but instead he was going toward Reddy Fox's house.

Now, Reddy Fox was a pretty wise fellow, and he waited until he thought the moon would not be shining so brightly. He didn't think Mr. Fox would think of going out before either, but there were enough hens for both, and Reddy thought he would get Mr. Fox to go ahead, and so if there happened to be a trap or anything unpleasant, Mr. Fox could get it and Reddy would have a chance to escape.

Just as Mr. Fox picked himself up after rolling down the hill Reddy Fox came along the road, and when Mr. Fox ran he ran right into Reddy Fox coming around a turn in the road.

Bang he went into Reddy, and over went Reddy and Mr. Fox, too, and Reddy Fox, thinking some horrible animal had attacked him, began to scratch and kick and bite, as they rolled over on the ground.

The bucket by this time had been bumped about so much that it broke just as Reddy Fox gave an extra hard kick at Mr. Fox, and in a second up sat Mr. Fox, rubbing his head and looking around in a wild manner.

"Was that you?" asked Reddy, looking at Mr. Fox in the greatest surprise.

"What in the world did you have on your head? I thought you were some horrible wild beast. Where have you been?"

But to all these questions Mr. Fox made no reply. He only stared straight ahead and held on to his head.

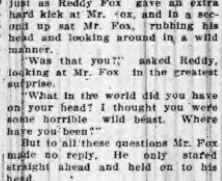
The rim of the bucket was still about his neck, and Reddy Fox jumped up and tried to pull it off.

"Where did you get this?" he asked. "It looks as if you would have to wear this for a collar for some time."

Mr. Fox took hold of the rim and looked up at Reddy. "I can breathe with this, but I was almost suffocated with that thing over my head. Where is it? Did you take it off?"

"Why, you broke it hanging about," said Reddy Fox, "but where did you get into this trouble."

Mr. Fox was feeling better by this time, and his thoughts came more readily.



"Oh! I had a terrible adventure," he said, for he did not want Reddy to think he had been after the fat hens without waiting for him.

"I was just walking along the road thinking you might come out early when something big and furry and with a mouth full of fire and teeth as long as spikes came up behind me and banged that dreadful thing over my head. Oh! it was terrible. I could not see, I could not breathe and I bumped into things as I ran, and I have been almost killed, Reddy, that is what has happened to me. I am going home."

Reddy Fox scratched his head and thought for a minute. "If this dreadful creature came up behind him how did he see how it looked?" thought Reddy. Then he looked at Mr. Fox and saw that his face was all smeared with something that looked like fat meat.

"Aren't you hungry?" he asked Mr. Fox.

"Not very, I feel so tired I guess I won't go with you tonight," answered Mr. Fox. "I am going home."

Reddy Fox watched him out of sight and then he looked at the remains of the bucket. "I think Mr. Fox ate his supper under difficulties," he said. "I am afraid he tried to butwit me and got caught.

"Next time I think he will wait for me and not be so greedy."

SUFFRAGISTS NOT TO SEEK VOTE AT PRESENT

Passage of a constitutional suffrage amendment will not be urged on Congress in its special session by the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association, it was announced by the association's president, Mrs. Edward F. Feickert, of this place, in addressing a meeting of the Equal Suffrage League, of Elizabeth on Tuesday. She added that the league would not, however, attempt to retard the efforts of other suffrage organizations.

One of Mrs. Feickert's hearers objected that suffrage for women was important enough to be considered no matter what other questions arose. The speaker said she would gladly go without the vote forever if it was in the best interest of the country. She said the suffrage organizations of the State would willingly do Red Cross and other relief work to prove they do not wish the right of suffrage without being willing to share in its responsibilities.

The Legislature's defeat of the suffrage measure was the main theme of Mrs. Feickert's talk. She condemned Speaker Schoen for his "steam roller" tactics, dwelling particularly on his refusal to hear the plea of Assemblyman Dolan, of Hudson, at the hearing given the measure.

ENGLISH WOMEN SMOKE IN OFFICES SINCE WAR BEGAN

London, March 29.—Women in England who smoke outnumber their American sisters possessed of the same weakness. One sees in the restaurants as many who smoke as who do not. It remained for the war to remove the next to last restriction. They are now smoking while at work in at least one London office. The last restriction will go when they are seen smoking in the streets.

Male army clerks always have been permitted to smoke while at work. Falling heir to many of the clerks' jobs, the women have fallen heir to the habit also. The only regulation prescribed is that they must not smoke before 11 o'clock or after 3 p. m.

COMMUNITY MOURNS VIRGINIA GUNIARDO

The funeral of Virginia Guniardo, the little girl of eleven years of age who was killed on the tracks of Central Railroad of New Jersey on Monday, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents, on Cottage place. The funeral was unusually large and the flowers attested the love in which the child was held. The interment was made in St. Mary's Cemetery. An Italian band from Newark accompanied the funeral from the house to the grave.

Miss M. A. Phillips, of the Charity Organization, has sent the following kindly appreciation of the child:

Virginia

To the Editor of the Courier-News:

This community is infinitely poorer through the loss of the little girl whose life ended so tragically on the railroad tracks Monday. Virginia Guniardo, with lovely eyes and such eager sympathies, was the "Little Mother of Cottage place." Her quick hands and feet, her nimble tongue, equally rapid in Italian or English, were at the service of every one who was in need. Was there a new baby to be entered at the clinic? Virginia knew the way to the Charity Organization Society office and was there before school hours. Was there shoeless, coatless children on the block home from school because of clothing needed? Virginia knew where coats and shoes, old to be sure, but fit for one last service, might be borrowed. The little naked ones, so clothed, were marched in broken ranks under Virginia's generalship to the Babcock building where still better shoes and coats might be obtained and the little army marshalled home again, the general, triumphant, bearing bundles.

How could it have happened? Why was this dear little girl in that place of peril and how could her bright eyes have failed to see the approaching train? She must have been on some high errand bent, intent upon her goal and, as ever, regardless of herself. Either she sought to rescue some child whose danger alone she saw or else absorbed in some service for others, picking up coal, perhaps, for her particular friends, a fatherless family of seven, she was sacrificed. Everyone who knew her feels the loss.

MAYOR CALKINS URGES ENLISTMENTS

Troop D and Company K Need Large Number of Men

At a meeting of the Mayors of the State held in Trenton yesterday Mayor Calkins was appointed a member of the sub-committee on National Guard. The Mayor presented a resolution calling on the President and Congress for legislation on the general principle of universal training and service. It was unanimously adopted and forwarded to Washington.

As requested by the Governor, the Mayor stated this morning that he wishes to urge men of serviceable age help on the recruiting of the National Guard up to full strength. This is one of the vital needs of the hour. Men are needed for Troop D and Company K. The Mayor believes they can be found willing and eager to serve their country, provided the means is found to guarantee dependent families against want and suffering while bread-winners are serving their country. To that end he will, at the proper time, request the Volunteers' Auxiliary of Plainfield and North Plainfield, which was organized last summer, to continue its organization and work for the purpose of looking after the families of men from this community who go to the colors.

WILLIAM HARDWICK DIED IN ERIE, PA.

Special to the Courier-News:

Buffalo, March 29.—William Hardwick, aged 69, president of Erie, Pa., Engine and Union Iron Works, and former Mayor of Erie, and whose only child, Mrs. Albert MacDonald, resides in Plainfield, N. J., died yesterday of hemorrhage of the stomach, at his home, 301 West Ninth street, Erie, Pa. He had been ill for several months, but not until recently had he been confined to his bed. His wife, and brothers and sisters were at his bedside when the end came, and his daughter in Plainfield was immediately summoned to Erie.

He was born December 1, 1847, in England, coming with his parents to Erie when five years old, and since then residing in Erie. When eleven years old he left school, becoming machinist's apprentice, and rose rapidly to foremanship, then to superintendency.

In 1879 he commenced a career as manufacturer, being partner with Frank F. Cleveland, in the organization of the engine and boiler manufacturing firm of Cleveland & Hardwick which fourteen years later was incorporated as the Erie Engine Works, with the deceased as president and general manager.

In 1890 the Union Iron Works was established by the Erie Engine Works, to provide boiler departments for two other concerns.

In 1878 he entered politics, and was elected to the Common Council. He served on the select council seven years.

Later he was chosen a member of the School Board and in 1891 was appointed a member of the Board of Water Commissioners, and was president during four of his seven years on that board. In 1902 he was elected mayor of Erie, serving one term. In 1900 he was selected as McKinley and Roosevelt's Presidential elector. He was a member of various lodges and associations.

On October 13, 1866, he married Mary Fuller, who survives. The funeral arrangements are not completed.

MISSIONARY FIGHTS JAP STUDENTS

By United Press:

Tokio, March 29.—The Rev. J. M. McCaleb, an American missionary from Boston, is in the midst of the quarrel with his Japanese students here today over the divinity of Christ.

When one of the students declared that Jimmu Tenno, Japan's first emperor, was even greater than Jesus Christ, Dr. McCaleb took issue with him.

The students, angered, passed a resolution demanding that the missionary leave the country.

Dr. McCaleb, who came here 25 years ago and has operated independently of any mission, refused to go; and also objected to the students raising their national flag over the school on Kigensetsu Day, explaining that it contained the element of ancestor worship.

"Why should my consist?" said Dr. McCaleb today, "the students went ahead and raised the Rising Sun. One student openly told me the occasion was not only ancestor worship, but that Jimmu Tenno, who is supposed to have ascended the throne 660 years before Christ was even greater than Christ.

"This put me, a Christian, in a very embarrassing position and I took issue with him. The government is back of me and I stand pat."

WILL SUSPEND RATE INCREASES

Railroads Must Justify Them to Commerce Board.

Washington, March 29—Suspension pending investigation of all increases in freight rates proposed by the railroads in their forthcoming applications for a general advance appears to be the course which the Interstate Commerce Commission will follow when the various railroad groups file their proposals.

Such suspension, it was indicated, would be for a period not to exceed sixty days, during which the commission will undertake a comprehensive inquiry into the reasonableness of the railroad's demands. Hearings will be held and shippers, commercial and civic organizations, state and utilities commissions and others interested will be heard.

Eastern railroads, it is understood, virtually have abandoned their plan to have the proposed increase of 15 per cent go into effect without investigation by the commission and will content themselves with period of suspension limited to thirty days.

The commission is understood to have been prepared for an application to advance rates sufficiently to reimburse the roads for additional wages paid under the Adamson law, but almost totally unprepared for petitions asking for a sweeping advance in all rates based on other grounds as well.

Before a general advance could be authorized, it was said authoritatively, the railroads must show in unmistakable manner the justification for such action.

TUBERCULOSIS IN ARMY.

National Association to Combat Situation Which Europe Faces.

New York, March 29—To ascertain the country's equipment to combat tuberculosis among the soldiers in case of war the council of National Defense has requested the National Association For the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis to make a complete survey of the situation.

The survey will endeavor to list facilities of the country for the treatment and care of soldiers, prisoners and interned civilians who may become victims of the disease and to insure the use of such precautionary and preventive measures as may save American troops from a disastrous spread of tuberculosis.

Dr. Herman M. Biggs, New York state commissioner of health, chairman of the committee carrying on the survey, has just returned from France, where at the request of the French government he has made a study of the conditions in the army which have arisen as a result of the spread of tuberculosis. The other members of the committee are Dr. George M. Kober of Washington, a former army surgeon, and Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, executive secretary of the National Association For the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

LEGISLATURE DECIDES NOT TO ADJOURN

Special to the Courier-News:

Trenton, March 29.—The new prospect of war with Germany will likely result in the New Jersey Legislature not adjourning sine die to-morrow evening, thus interfering with the plan of the Republican leaders to have this session end in March. The Senate and House of Assembly will return tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock to receive and act on the appropriation bills and to consider any messages that Governor Edge may send to them.

RESCUE MISSION NOTE

The Young People's Society of the First Baptist church of New Market will lead the service in the Rescue Mission Hall, on Madison avenue, this evening. There will be good singing and everybody will be heartily welcomed.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Sale of Used Pianos & Players

The Annual Spring Sale of Used Player-Pianos and Pianos is Spurring Buyers to Activity.

Pianos, player pianos, grand pianos arrive in numbers every day. We take them off the hands of people who prefer the high grade pianos we carry in regular stock.

Naturally we must get rid of these used pianos. We do so by means of this annual spring sale.

Thereby we clear out our floors and our warerooms, at the same time opening to many people an opportunity by which they receive excellent playing pianos at very advantageous prices.

You can get Pianos in excellent playing condition for as little as $50; Player-Pianos for $250; Grands for $100.

Each one of these pianos has been turned over to our capable mechanics and tuners.

These craftsmen have overhauled, repaired, tuned, reconstructed and provided every needed thing.

When these pianos leave our hands, therefore, they are practically as good as new. And we guarantee their condition.

You can obtain one of these Pianos for a cash payment of only $5.00 and $5.00 monthly, depending upon your selection, if you wish.

Remember that the prices on these pianos are very low, in spite of their excellent quality and condition.

For we must unburden ourselves of them at any price. They take up valuable space needed by us.

Many have already availed themselves of this Spring sale.

However, our accumulations of used, demonstration and rebuilt pianos have been so large that many excellent pianos still remain for you.

New Pianos, $210 and up.

New Players, $375 and up.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Fashion experts of Paris and London, whose slightest whim can distort the waists and shapes the hips of the weaker sex of the British Isles, Europe and points west, have made a momentous announcement for the coming springtide. Ladies' waists are going to be worn as natural. Busts are coming down. Steep effects and steam roller fronts are going into the discard. No longer need milady ape the hour glass or sigh with envy at the very sight of a figure 8. For the first time in many moons the well-dressed woman can be fashionable and comfortable at the same time. Nature and fashion are reconciled.

It is claimed that the army has many guns for which there is no ammunition, but it is considered that this is offset by the large quantities of ammunition for which there are no guns.

The gloom that prevails in a college at the lack of battery talent is not at all relieved by any scholastic triumphs that may have been achieved during the winter.

It is surprising how enthusiastic the audience becomes about the star's acting when she displays the latest Paris clothes.

Do you know what CERTIFIED milk is?

The rigid requirements of the medical milk commission fill a book—but the gist of it is simply this:

Certified milk is milk produced in a strictly sanitary way, free from disease germs and containing all the elements good milk should. The commission—a board of responsible physicians—certified such milk as SAFE for children to drink.

Is there anything more important to you than your children's safety?

Wood Brook Milk is CERTIFIED milk.

Price—14 cents a quart.

Use "Gets-It," Lift Corn Right Off

Shrivels, Loosens—and It's Gone!

"Just like taking the lid off—that's how easy you can lift a corn off your toe after it has been treated with the wonderful discovery, 'Gets-It.' Hunt the wide world over, and you'll find nothing so magic, simple and easy as 'Gets-It.' You folks who have wrapped your toes in bandages to look like bolls, or who have used salves that turned your toes raw and sore, and used plasters that would chafe, pinch and blister, and never 'get the corn, and who have dug and picked at your corns with knives and scissors and perhaps made them bleed—just quit those old and painful ways and try 'Gets-It' just once. You put 2 or 3 drops on, and it dries at once. There's nothing to stick. You can put your shoe and stocking right on again. The pain is all gone. Then the corn dies a painless, shriveling death, it loosens from your toe, and off it comes. 'Gets-It' is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world today. There's nothing other as good.

Hats Off to McSorley

Editor Courier-News:

Commenting on Policeman John Kelly's marksmanship with a pistol, while it is fair shooting, I beg to inform you that we have a man named McSorley in our borough that breaks with a pistol clay targets thrown from a trap. This man does not measure by feet, but by yards. He is a direct descendant of "Rain-In-The-Face," the noted Sioux Indian warrior.

WILL SPEAK ON MEXICO IN HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT

Miss Ada B. Talbot will deliver a lecture in the Plainfield High School this evening, under the auspices of the Board of Education, on "Mexico, yesterday and today as an inside view of our difficult neighbor." The lecture will be free.

SAYS BODY IS A POISON FACTORY

Urges everyone to drink glass of hot water before breakfast.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day into the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Adv.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Encouraging reports of the past year's work together with the election of officers and discussion of plans for the future, comprised the principal business at the annual meeting of the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church held in the chapel last night. The reports showed a total membership of 615, which includes the cradle roll, beginners, primary, junior, intermediate and home departments, as well as fifteen officers and thirty-five teachers. During the year there was an average attendance of 265 and twenty members united with the church. Miss Jessie L. Holt, the Sunday school visitor, reported that she had made 660 calls in the interest of the school.

It was stated that following an experiment with the graded school plan it was decided to continue it up to the intermediate department, including the juniors, in which it has proved satisfactory. Jesse Lounsbury, who was assistant treasurer last year, resigned to become teacher of a Bible class and this office will be abolished. The officers chosen for the coming year are as follows:

Superintendent, F. O. Dunning; assistants, Robert H. Radford and Miss Jessie L. Holt; secretary, Frederick L. Palmer; assistant, William Sexdeni; treasurer, William G. Smith; superintendent beginners' department, Mrs. George A. Ballantyne; superintendent primary department, Mrs. Leslie Bond; superintendent junior department, Mrs. George N. Karner; superintendent intermediate department, Miss Jessie L. Holt; superintendent home department, Rev. Lewis Bond. Following the business of the evening there was an informal social time with an exchange of ideas regarding Sunday school and church work.

SETTLEMENT OF CLARK ESTATE RECOMMENDED

In accordance with the recommendations of a report filed by Herbert W. Knight, special master, with Vice-Chancellor John H. Backes, Mrs. Maria S. Clark and William M. Clark, widow and son of William A. Clark, who was a resident of Plainfield, will have the latter and the other heirs of the late Amos Clark, for many years a New Jersey Congressman, because of the failure of William A. Clark to account in full for his father's holdings.

The special master found that for a period of six years prior to the death of Amos Clark in 1912 the younger Clark, who died a year after his father, failed to account for money and property to the extent of $16,342 up to the time of his death, and his heirs, complainants in the Chancery action, will receive that amount, plus interest, or $66,013.45. The defendants were executors for William A. Clark and they filed an answer, saying that the latter had given a complete accounting of the estate.

Amos Clark was prominent in Union county and had large holdings in Elizabeth, Cranford and Westfield. He built the Rahway Road in Elizabeth. His death occurred in Boston. His estate was valued at approximately $200,000. Those who will benefit under the ruling in Chancery are Mrs. Elizabeth L. Webb, of Boston; Samuel A. Clark and Alfred H. Clark, who live in this vicinity.

LOCAL HARDWARE CO. GOES INTO BANKRUPTCY

The standard Hardware Store, of East Front street, of which Isidore Walevelsky, formerly of Elizabeth, was the proprietor, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy yesterday and Alfred E. De Costa, referee in bankruptcy, named Harvey Rothberg, of this city, receiver for the concern. The assets are reported to be $4,000 and the liabilities $1,500.

The bankruptcy proceedings were instituted following a judgment obtained by Goldenbloom, of New York, who later brought a suit on the judgment in this State.

Mr. Walevelsky has been ill in a sanatorium for some time and it is said that the family has been under heavy expense by reason of this fact. The bankruptcy proceedings will prevent Goldenbloom & Co., from being preferred creditors and the concern will have to come in for a pro rata division of profits from the sale of the business.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING AT BETHEL

The officers and members of Bethel Chapel met last evening in annual business session and following a brief devotional service, heard reports from the various departments of work.

The pastor reported a roll of 146 members. During the year there were 22 additions to the church, five removals and four deaths. Various auxiliaries all reported substantial increase in membership. Features of the chapel work were the better systematization of reports from departments, creation of new committees, and the pastoral week-day instruction for children of the church, in the catechism and poetical Christian service. The prospects for the new church year include raising funds for the proposed new addition, and methodical missionary work, both for the church boards and for local charitable purposes.

The voluntary offerings of church and Sabbath school were $635, and the amounts raised by the auxiliaries, $508, making a total of $1,143 raised for the present fiscal year ending March 31. This includes the following special gifts to the church:

The Circle of Earnest Workers, $100 to the current church expenses, and $100 to the new building fund; The Men's Club, $60 toward the new seating of the church; The Christian Endeavor Society, $50; The Adult Guild, $11.23 toward the new choir platform; The Knights of Pythias, $12.

Following this initial report of the year's work, the complete report of income and expenditure with balance will be made public after the annual church meeting of the Crescent Avenue church, of which Bethel Chapel is a branch. The officers and members of the chapel are greatly encouraged over the past year's work and are hopeful for a yet brighter future.

OUCH! MY BACK! RUB LUMBAGO PAIN AWAY

Rub Backache Away With Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacob's Oil"

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiff and sore, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, back ache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!—Adv.

TUBERCULOSIS THINNING RANKS OF AMERICAN INDIAN

By United Press:

Washington, March 29.—The fast thinning ranks of the Indian are seriously threatened with the scourge of tuberculosis, according to the office for Indian affairs—official guardian for more than 300,000 members of the red race today.

Prevention of the spread of this dread disease, which is more prevalent among the Indians than any other race, is occupying most of the office's time. Trachoma, an eye disease, is the next most serious affection among Indians. Uncleanliness and alcohol are blamed. A campaign of education to curb the two evils has been started.

PRINCETON NEGROES OFFER THEIR SERVICES

Princeton, March 29.—Colored inhabitants of the town have sent a message to President Wilson pledging their support to the country in any national emergency which may arise. There are about 400 negroes of fighting age here. A request has been made to the War Department by these negroes to send an officer to Princeton to drill them.

President Hibben of Princeton University will address a mass meeting of colored men in the First Presbyterian Church tonight.

The message sent to the President reads: "We, the undersigned negro citizens of Princeton, conscious of the impending danger that threatens our country, pledge and offer you our services to be used to assist and maintain the honor of our country. If, in your judgement, the detailing of an officer here to better prepare us for the same should be warranted, we pledge him our hearty support."

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Hair stops coming out and every particle of dandruff disappears.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first —yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine, from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.—Adv.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE FOR ENGLAND

Premier and Ex-Premier Urge Plan In House.

London, March 29.—Premier Lloyd George and ex-Premier Asquith made declarations in the house of commons in favor of woman suffrage. Mr. Asquith moved the adoption of a plan for the reform of the parliamentary franchise, in which the following program was recommended:

"A certain measure of woman suffrage, six months residence or the occupation of business premises to be the only qualification for voting; redistribution of seats, proportional representation in large urban areas, all elections to be held on one day."

Premier Lloyd George said he welcomed the recommendation in favor of woman suffrage. Other reform measures also were approved by the premier, who said that in the opinion of the government it would be a national waste if the results of the recent conference at which the reforms were outlined should be thrown away. He favored a generous extension of the electoral franchise by reducing to three months the period for qualifying for voting and by assuming the qualification of every soldier and sailor.

The premier, paying a very warm tribute to woman's work during the war, especially the devotion, courage and zeal of women munition makers, said that when after the war the nation came to recast the whole industrial fabric to give women no voice therein would be an outrage.

FUND FOR RED CROSS.

Milwaukee Club Will Give 10 Per Cent of Season's Profits.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 29.—President A. F. Timme of the Milwaukee association baseball team announced that he would give 10 per cent of the profits of his club this season to the Milwaukee Red Cross to assist in equipping a base hospital of 500 beds, the donation being contingent on the event of actual warfare.

He asked President Hickey of the American association to suggest that other owners in the association take similar steps.

FRENCH BATTER GERMAN FLANK

Teutons Counter With Attack In Champagne.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM SUCCESSES

Spring Thaws Reported to Be Blocking Proposed German Drive Into Russia, as Roads Are Seas of Mud, Making Military Movements Impossible For Several Weeks—French Deepen Their Wedge Into Hindenburg Line.

London, March 29.—The French hit hard on the left flank of the Hindenburg line and succeeded in considerably deepening their wedge, taking important positions south of the formidable St. Gobain forest, where the Teutons are expected to make their stand.

The Germans on their part struck sudden blows in the Champagne, which, according to Berlin, were successful. Three hundred French soldiers were taken prisoners.

The German war office report records "lively firing activity" in the Champagne and on the west bank of the Meuse, Verdun front. It announces a success on the Anglo-German front near Croiselles and northeast of Bapaume, giving no details, however.

Claims Heavy Allied Losses.

The center of the Hindenburg line fronting St. Quentin still holds firm. Berlin asserts that heavy losses were inflicted both on the British and French.

In a violent engagement on March 20, when the British took the battered village of Lagnicourt, the British losses, according to the German war office, were particularly heavy.

"The successful manner in which our troops there are accomplishing their task," says the statement, "is illustrated by the fact that between Lagnicourt and Morchies about 1,000 British dead were counted."

On the same day a belated German official report says eleven entente aeroplanes were shot down by the German fliers. Dunkirk was again bombarded from the air, fires being observed by the raiders.

"Between the sea and the Carpathians," says the Berlin war office report, "the spring thaw has begun, which makes the more important military activities impossible."

Mud Halts Drive.

Thus an official dampner has been placed on the enthusiastic expectations of a wide section of the German press that has been heralding a drive to Petrograd or Moscow or both. For the present, at least, no offensive in the east is to be looked for. The earliest date that farreaching operation can be undertaken is set for the middle of next month, and the thaws may not allow them until the beginning of May.

Capture by the Teutons of a strongly intrenched place in the Ural valley on the Mojlavian front was announced by Berlin, as were minor raiding enterprises. One hundred prisoners and some booty were netted by the attack. Russian counter thrusts failed.

SMITH FOR CONGRESS.

Tammany Secretary Named to Succeed M. F. Conry.

New York, March 29.—Thomas F. Smith, secretary of Tammany Hall since 1895, was nominated by the Democratic county committee from the Fifteenth congress district as the Democratic candidate in the special election which will be held April 12 to select a successor to the late Representative Michael F. Conry.

Mr. Smith has been prominent in politics since he became connected with Tammany Hall and was referred to by Richard Croker as "Tammany's indispensable man." The Fifteenth is the district in which Mr. Smith resided when he first entered politics, and as it is overwhelmingly Democratic his election is regarded as certain.

Toronto, March 29.—A head tax of $8 on all travelers entering the United States from Canada said to be under consideration by the Dominion government, was discussed at a meeting of Canadian railway officials at Niagara Falls.

The tax will become effective after May 1, it is understood. The money is to be refunded on the traveler's return to Canada.

Note how the soft hair brush is operated by a belt from the motor. No other vacuum cleaner has this feature.

There's One Certain Way to Clean Your Home Properly, Thoroughly

Look closely at the X-ray view of the Hoover Suction Sweeper shown here and you will see that its motor-driven brush is spiral shaped.

—And it has two rows of soft hair.

As this spiral shaped brush swiftly revolves, your rug, drawn up from the floor by suction, is manipulated or shaken in a wave-like motion. This spreads the meshes apart. At the same time the double row of brushes produce a patting or vibrating motion which releases the deeply embedded dirt.

Therein rests one of the great reasons for Hoover superiority—gentle but thorough vibration.

As soon as the dirt is loosened the current of air passing upward through the rug quickly carries away every particle of dirt, hair, lint, etc., to the tightly woven dust bag.

See How Thoroughly the Hoover Works

You can easily see that the Hoover actually does all this by having it demonstrated at our showroom any time you may call.

Or if you will write or telephone our demonstrator will gladly call at your home with the proof.

Insist upon having a vacuum cleaner that really cleans.

There's a Hoover for every need. Prices range from $47.50 to $160. Easy monthly payments or 5 per cent. discount for spot cash.

DECLARATION OF WAR DRAFTED

Congress Leaders Ready For Action of President.

WILL RUSH MONEY FOR ARMY

Wilson and Advisers Now Deciding on Exact Form Recommendation to National Legislature Will Take—Joint Resolution Reciting Germany's Hostile Acts Against United States Expected to Follow Address by the President.

Washington, March 29.—With every agency of government rolling toward preparedness for impending war President Wilson and his advisers today devoted themselves to the task of fixing the administration policy to be submitted to congress in extraordinary session next week.

While the White House was shrouded in secrecy and the president made no announcement, administration officials said immediate and decisive action has been decided upon. The sole question now remaining is, what form that action shall take and how it shall be taken.

The exact form of the recommendations which the president will make to congress in his war address were considered as Colonel E. M. House, the president's closest adviser, went over th international situation in detail with the chief executive.

There is a general feeling in administration circles that the German crisis will be disposed of by a joint resolution of congress reciting German violations of American rights and declaring that the nations have brought about the existence of a state of war between the two nations.

Thereafter the activities of the congress will be devoted to placing at the president's disposal all of the means and authority necessary to successful prosecution of hostilities.

War Declaration Drafted.

Active steps to meet the president's recommendations when they are made were taken by conferences of congress leaders. Chairman Flood of the house foreign affairs committee and other Democratic members of the committee made an exhaustive digest of former war declarations and framed a tentative resolution declaring the existence of a state of war.

They took up in conferences the problem of furnishing the "sinews of war." The first routine business to be taken up will be the passage of the army appropriation bill, which failed in the closing days of the last session. It would provide $270,000,000 as then framed, but emergency additions now necessary will bring the total up to probably double that amount.

The mobilization of the financial resources of the nation will be taken up by the house ways and means committee as soon as the house is organized. President Wilson and his advisers are at work on a financial program which may include the extension of American credit to the entente allies, while the United States is making ready for actual participation in the war.

Labor to Be Mobilized.

The tremendous power of organized labor in the United States has been placed solidly back of the government by the authorized spokesmen of millions of American men and women workers to aid in the speedy execution of the military and naval program.

Unreserved support of the American Federation of Labor is pledged through its executive heads, and farreaching plans were initiated for the mobilization of labor to meet a state of war. Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, and other labor leaders in conference with department chiefs laid plans to muster all the additional labor strength that may be needed to augment the forces at work in navy yards, arsenals and other factories of the government as well as in private plants engaged in turning out supplies for the government. Steps were taken to immediately ascertain the nation's labor resources through the thousands of local labor unions of the federation.

Secretary of Labor Wilson called the conference. He said after it adjourned:

The purposes of the conference were to find ways and means to prevent overlapping of efforts in mobilizing the resources of industry for the support of the government. We are planning to work together so that where help, male and female, can be quickly located for the navy yards, arsenals and other factories of the government and for any private plants working on supplies for the use of the government; second, to ascertain the fitness of skilled workers and where they best can be employed, and third, to smooth their way to the work where they are needed.

Pressing need has developed especially for workmen in the mechanical trades, and it is proposed that the Civil Service Commission shall abandon the tests for such applicants and examine them only for physical and mechanical fitness.

The Civil Service Commission, through its 3,000 boards of examiners in twelve districts, will conduct special examinations for available field forces of the bureaus of immigration, naturalization, labor statistics and other subordinate branches will not as examiners in the absence of regular officials of the commission.

TO TRACE "PARROT FEVER."

Health Officer of Reading Asked to Investigate Deaths.

Reading, March 29.—Dr. Charles Roland, city health officer, was asked by state health officials to investigate reports of numerous cases of the "parrot fever" from Williamsburg and Scranton.

Dr. Roland learned that the first three cases reported here have been increased by the breaking out of many others. Mexican parrots sold here several weeks ago are supposed to have spread the germs of what are first described as typhoid, but now seems to be a severe form of influenza.

Tonight, Tomorrow and Saturday at the Plainfield Theatre

"A Daughter of the Gods" will be shown here at Plainfield Theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday, matinee daily, featuring Annette Kellerman, who grew from a puny child to an athlete a young woman by swimming in the sea on the coast of California. She will appear in scenes showing mermaid life, interior of the sultan's palace, the bath of beauties of the harem, and the multi-colored battle scene before the burning of the Moorish capitol.

It is sincerely hoped that an invention shall be made which shall serve to perpetuate such valuable ribbons of film as go to make up "A Daughter of the Gods." Imagine our own delight if we were given to see the original models of the Venus de Milo, the Apollo Belvedere, the Winged Victory and other standard examples of antique art, in natural out-of-door action in, and about the ancient groves, the temples of old Greece.

If one or two thousand years from today the descendants of what are now American school children could be shown the film that was produced simultaneously with a year of the great European war, it would throw considerable intimate light on the progress attained in the twentieth century. Who can say but what in two thousand years America will be the Greece of antiquity?

"SKINNER'S DRESS SUIT" AT PROCTOR'S TODAY

"Skinner's Dress Suit," appears at Proctor's today and to morrow. It is a picturization of Henry Irving Dodge's story, a clean, wholesome comedy drama entirely different from the many sex and problem plays now before the public. It is the kind of a picture that one member of a family will see and upon coming home will urge the rest of the family to see it. It abounds with laugh-provoking situations. Attend today and avoid last minute crowds tomorrow.

In addition today, Metro offers Julius Steger, the famous dramatic star, in "The Stolen Triumph." In addition to "Skinner's Dress Suit," Monroe Marie Doro appears in "The Lash," one of her most successful of her many photo-play vehicles.

On Saturday Blanche Sweet appears in "The Storm," Emmy Wehlen in "Vanity," and The "Katzenjammer Kids" in a cartoon comedy.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of the coming week Norma Talmadge appears at Proctor's in "Panthea," the huge Rialto Theatre, New York success.

BIG NOVELTY SHOW COMES HERE MONDAY

Jean Bedini's Big Novelty Show, and better than the attraction which "Puss-Puss," will be seen at the Plainfield Theatre, Monday, April 2, big ...ered such a big hit last season. ...e's never a dull moment in a Be...dini production. From the start it is life, laughter, pep, speed and kaleidoscope of pretty girls, clever comedians, dances and pretty costumes; it is said to be the most expensive show on the road in this particular field of amusement.

Al Ricardo, burlesque's premier ventriloquist, who plays the character of a Jew; Davis and Stafford, are without doubt the best blackface singers and dancers on the American stage today; they will be remembered from their last season's many song, "In The Jail House Now," which they will sing again, besides some new ones, while the chorus called "Kittens" are the pick of the show world.

Jean Bedini always has a surprise for his patrons in the way of special features. This season he has a double header, the "Ignatz Photo Troupe" and a travesty on the New York latest success, "Very Good Eddie."

The Rev. William W. Coe, of Northfield, Mass., who has been filling the pulpit of the Congregational church since January as a supply, was at a meeting of the Congregational church and society held last night in the parish house extended a unanimous call to become the regular pastor of the church. The call came as a surprise to the Rev. Mr. Coe, as he had not been a candidate, but was simply acting as a supply until a pastor could be secured. Before the meeting a committee of the church had walked on him and got his consent to accept the call.

The Rev. Mr. Coe was born in Middleport, O., and was graduated from the McCormick Theological Seminary in 1895. He was pastor of the Second Presbyterian church in Seattle, Wash., for several years. The church has been without a regular pastor since May 1 of last year, when the Rev. Dr. Samuel Lane Loomis, who had been pastor for several years, resigned.

cannot be too strongly impressed upon the children. This done there need be no fear but the teeth be neglected in later life.

The Government recognizes the importance of one's having good teeth, and pays particular attention to the teeth of those who would enlist in the army or navy. A would-be recruit is not accepted unless he has at least twenty good teeth in his mouth. The importance of visiting a dentist at least twice a year should not be neglected.

"They Fit Well Around the Neck"

Now that Spring has come with all its wonderful golden sunshine and desire to cast all work aside and take a nice, long tramp out into the country where leaves are green and flowers are beginning to bud forth, the eye has turned to dislike everything that reminds us of the cruel pangs of Winter, and to blossom forth ourselves in our new Spring garb. And Easter is but ten short days ahead, or hardly that! It is a little bit too cold yet, however, to go out in dresses without coats, and of course the Winter coats have been duffed. So this season—like every other Spring season—will be primarily one of suits! Suits plain, suits fancy, suits sport and suits dressy—but suits.

Neckwear, therefore, will be better this season than it has been in a long time, because a Spring suit will not be complete without that little needed finishing touch to collar and cuff, to soften and relieve.

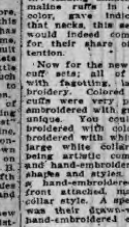
For the benefit of those who are seeking the latest and best in the neckwear line, I might reveal the wonders that were shown to me in advance, on the first floor of the Altman & Co. Fifth and Madison Avenues building, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Streets.

First of all, the new Jersey Cloth coats with large sailor collars. I had never seen them before. But I knew that they would be in excellent taste this Spring, for was not Jersey Cloth the very popular black and white cloth in taffeta, with cuffs to match. Another style could be worn plain or low, finished off with tiny pockets. Separate collars and cuffs will be striped affairs, and some of them with hand-work, could be worn by those who did not like the coat effect. The prettiest style for a blue serge suit was a black and stripe combination.

Another new feature of Spring will be the fancy girdles, and Altman's offer two distinctive styles; one the shaped girdle of soft silk, hand-made, and the other a straight style which slips two or three times around the waist and ties where ever you wish.

All sorts of wonderful guimpes in batiste and net were shown us the latest importation from Paris; to dress up a suit when one did not intend to take off one's coat at a luncheon or afternoon "tea dansant," some were monk collars (with the collar front and back), some had plaitings, and an odd style was made of hand-embroidered net with a triple collar.

One unusual model even had a square yoke neck with a collar covering the back, which could be worn high by itself or with a black moire ribbon, or else could simply fall loose. A pretty flesh-color net lawn was hand-embroidered and bruided. You could find plaiting, tucks and malines ruffs in every color, gave indication that necks this season, would indeed come in for their share of attention.



Now for the new French collar and cuff sets; all of them hand-made and hand-embroidered. Dots were unique. You could get white embroidered with colors, or colors embroidered with white, in batiste. The large white collars were exquisite, being artistic combinations of ties and French knots, with all kinds of shapes and styles. A new piece was a hand-embroidered collar with a front attachment made in the shawl collar style. A specialty of Altman's was hand-work collars with hand-embroidered edge.

Very popular, of course, will be the Georgette collars. Very pretty ones were seen; hand embroidered and fringed with a real lace edge, while there was no endless variety of embroidered real filet. Very stylish will be Georgettes embroidered with dots of all colors. Net and Georgette combinations are good, too, with embroidered borders.

Altman's have a variety of "mesh" collars, in colors and in white, in fine and in two-toned valies in all shades. As for separate cuffs to match in colors to match your hose; blazers, hats or whatever you wish, for a short wear. The so-called broad "student's tie" of Crepe de chine was shown in thirty-six different colors, so you could match almost anything.

In fact, at Altman's I found every style and every color made in collars, fronts, guimpes, waistcoats and collar and cuff sets. What more could you wish?

AMATEUR WIRELESS ORDERED SILENCED

Secretary Redfield Puts Ban on All Outfits.

Washington, March 29.—Suspension of all permits for the operation of amateur wireless outfits, with or without sending equipment, has been ordered by Secretary of Commerce Redfield as a precautionary measure in view of the present crisis.

In addition, secret service agents, neutrality agents and agents of the department of commerce are keeping the strictest kind of watch upon outfits already licensed and in searching for unlicensed apparatus.

While the few known wireless outfits with sending equipment are carefully censored, there has been constant danger that without the knowledge of the officers of government information might be picked up by wireless operators and utilized in unfriendly quarters.

The possibility of a chain of small wireless installations with small radius sending equipment with which groups of hostile aliens in various parts of the country could be kept in touch with each other and act in concert also has been considered. In the event of a declaration of war it is probable all sending apparatus licensed by the government will be shut down and prohibited.

HAIRCUTS

A haircut is one of the few indignities that bald-headed men don't have to suffer. It's a habit, the haircut is, among men (with densely populated heads. But it is no ordinary habit. It's a habit a man has to hire another man to practice to him. There are fashions in haircuts as in everything else. The old-fashioned haircut circled the base of a man's brain and stopped. But today it goes on down the back of his neck to see what his collarbone's doing. Generally speaking, the haircut is a misfortune. If it wasn't for haircuts we could abolish barbers.

WHY KILBANE IS NOT POPULAR IN THE EAST

A short time ago Johnny Kilbane came East to fight. He was matched with a young lightweight before a Syracuse, N. Y., club, and he agreed to allow this man to enter the ring weighing 133 pounds, but when it came weighing time and the young opponent of the featherweight champion hopped on the scales weighing 137 pounds Kilbane refused to fight. The crowd went wild when it got this news and a young riot was in progress in a very short time. The club officials waxed indignant. In fact, everyone had a brick, and he aimed at Kilbane's head.

A few days later a well-known fight fan came out with the statement that Kilbane had gone wrong in his declaration not to meet a man who weighed almost ten pounds more than himself. "Any man," he said, "featherweight or no featherweight, who challenges Freddie Welsh for the world's lightweight title and agrees to let that champion come into the ring weighing 135 pounds should not be afraid to meet a comparatively unknown man who weighs 137 pounds."

Now this flash fan may have been at the ringside during the should-have-been Syracuse fight, and he may not. If he was there was an excuse for his complaint, although it was a lame one. But it is a certainty that he didn't take into consideration the fact that this youth may have been a very hard hitter, one capable of putting over the sleep wallop on Kilbane's chin. Welsh, as is well known, long ago lost the habit of knocking out his opponents. He never even bruises most of the men he meets.

Whether Kilbane was right or wrong it is a brass-riveted cinch that he did the best thing to protect what little reputation is left him in a New York ring. Criticisms of the kind the fight fan made are the very things which have discounted Kilbane's ability here. Whenever New York gets to the point of accepting Kilbane at his real worth, which is almost his weight in gold, it will see some good fights—something it does not see when Freddie Welsh and some of the other high-priced lads get into action.

SCOTCH PLANS TO HAVE A BALL TEAM

Joe Alberts Behind Movement to Revive National Pastime at Suburb

Spring is here and Scotch Plains is now talking of the baseball prospects for the coming season. Joe Alberts, one of the old-timers from the hamlet in the baseball line, is leading the various gabfests on the subject, and Joe is of the opinion that the Plains can again produce a team of a worth-while make-up.

Alberts has already managed to interest a number of those who were back of the team a few years ago, and it is now thoroughly believed that the revival of the national pastime in the nearby suburb will have a full-fledged team on the field again. From present indications, the Park avenue field, just opposite the schoolhouse, will be used for all home games, although no lease has been secured on the field as yet.

It is expected that a meeting of all interested in the project will be called by Mr. Alberts in the course of the next week or ten days, at which time the whole question will be taken up. The date for the meeting will be announced later.

Scotch Plains was a thriving baseball burg up to about three or four years ago, when the "big show" gave way to the junior teams of the village. The Plains had a strong team in the days when the old rivalry between Westfield, Scotch Plains and this city was at its zenith. After that spell, however, interest waned in all the three towns, Westfield being the first to drop its representative team. For several years Sunday ball prevailed at the Plains, but as to whether this feature will be developed this year, or whether the proposed team will limit itself to Saturday ball, is still somewhat of an open question.

RIFLE CLUB SHOOTS TO BE CONTINUED HERE

President D. G. Atwood of the Plainfield Rifle Club, announced this afternoon, that the team shooting under the auspices of the organization will be continued at Company K Armory on the regular nights, despite the mobilization of the local militia boys. The going away of Company K will mean the re-organization of one or two of the teams, but it is not expected that this will not hold up the work to any great degree.

The arrangements for an outdoor range is progressing favorably, and it is expected that a site will be secured in the course of the next week or ten days. The team shoots on the indoor range, however, will be continued until further notice, as members will have to qualify in order to be able to shoot on the outdoor range.

WESTFIELD BOYS HAD GOOD SEASON

Suburban Basketball Aggregation Splits About Even on Victories and Defeats

The Westfield High School basketball team completed its season by scoring 506 points, the same number as scored by its opponents. Seventeen games were played, of which the Westfielders won eight and lost nine. The season opened with Roselle Park December 1, the Westfielders losing by a score of 35 to 23. Westfield lost seven games before luck changed. With each defeat the individual work of the players and of the team became better and a winning streak started, during which Perth Amboy, Cranford, Linden, Roselle Park, North Plainfield and West Orange were defeated.

The locals had the distinction of scoring more points against Horace Mann than any other team during the entire season. The team started its season with no place to practice and had only one man who played in the previous season. The new material, however, developed into a fast team. Many of the teams met by the locals were heavier and more experienced. H. A. Stein, of Plainfield, the popular coach, did admirable work with the boys and has laid the foundation for a very fast team next season.

In the scoring department, Stevens, at forward, was the leader, amassing a total of 174 points, of which eighty-eight came via the 15-foot mark, and the rest from the floor. Barry, also a forward, was runner-up with sixty-two field goals and twenty-three fouls, which gave him a sum of 147. Coen, at guard, dropped in thirty baskets. Others who played this season were Johnston, guard; Riley, forward; Hauman, centre; Jesperson, centre; Davies, forward; Wright, guard; Townley, guard; Dix, guard, and Sisserson, guard.

Among the teams which took the measure of the locals were Battin High School of Elizabeth, Alumni, South Side H. S. of Newark, Plainfield H. S. (twice), Horace Mann H. S. and North Plainfield H. S. The faculty was defeated and the West Orange team conquered Westfield in two other games played.

GIRLS' LAST GAME

The Hope Chapel girls' basketball team will close its season tonight when it will line up against the Comrade Club on the court of the Netherwood Reformed church. The Chapelites took the first game between these two teams several weeks ago and expect to duplicate this evening.

WESTERN UNION GRANTS EIGHT HOUR DAY

New York, March 29.—The Western Union Telegraph Company, at a meeting of the executive committee at 195 Broadway, yesterday, decided to put the basic eight-hour day into effect in its service after May 1, wherever practicable. Of the 45,000 employes in the country, about 25,000 working in what are exclusively Western Union offices will benefit by the order and receive the same pay they now get for nine hours' work. Overtime will be paid for at one-eighth of a day's pay an hour.

His Answer

Success depends largely on personal appearance.

Don't queer it with thin, straggly hair. A few minutes' care twice a week will put your scalp in a healthy condition. Your hair will appear full, vigorous and attractive.

Pompeian HAIR Massage

Don't wait until too late. Dandruff if neglected chokes the life out of the hair roots and will cause scalp itching and baldness, early in life.

What Others Say

Every remedy I have tried for years failed to relieve my Dandruff. A barber in Columbia applied Pompeian HAIR Massage. The relief was so quick and great that I bought a bottle.

H. W. M., Cincinnati, Ohio

Complete satisfaction is the verdict of all customers on behalf of Pompeian HAIR Massage.

A. B. Hoel, El Paso de Robles Barber Shop, Cal.

I have used Pompeian HAIR Massage with excellent results. It is far superior to any other hair tonic I ever used.

Camel CIGARETTES

come to you as a cigarette creation worthy of comparison with any cigarette in the world, no matter what its price!

Blended choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos in Camels provide a flavor that is as delightful as it is refreshing. And Camels are pure and wholesome and leave no unpleasant cigarette after-taste.

Camel cigarettes are worthy of your confidence because they'll stand any test for satisfaction and for quality! Do not look for or expect coupons or premiums. The value is in the cigarettes!

And the more Camels you smoke the more you'll realize you prefer this blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

Camels are sold everywhere. In scientifically sealed packages, 20 for 10c; or 10 packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton for $1.00. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

The stamp placed over and seals the package, which keeps out air, thereby preserving the quality of the blended tobaccos. By inserting the finger as illustrated, the stamp easily breaks without tearing the tin foil, which folds back into its place.

ARCHITECTS FILE A PROTEST

Say Adoption of Anti-Shingle Ordinance Will Retard Building

MUST USE SHINGLES IN THE HIGH SCHOOL

Without Them Colonial Design Cannot be Carried Out in the Construction of Houses and Bungalows

A communication signed by a large number of architects, builders and real estate agents has been filed with the Common Council protesting against the adoption of a shingle roof ordinance. The communication is as follows:

"Understanding that a resolution is about to be introduced to your honorable body recommending the passing of an ordinance prohibiting the use of shingles on the roofs of dwellings hereafter erected in the city of Plainfield; we, the undersigned architects, builders, real estate operators and property holders, firmly believing that such an ordinance would be detrimental to the growth and beauty of our city would respectfully ask that, if you deem such an ordinance necessary, which we do not, it shall at least be restricted to cover only that portion of the town lying within a reasonable distance of the railroad and if necessary extend the fire zone for the following reasons:

"1. That shingles and slate are the only two standard materials used for dwelling roofs and it would be practically impossible to use slate on dwellings of the bungalow, rambrel roof, Colonial and other types of the low effect type and carry out the necessary architectural effect required to make houses of this class attractive and desirable. Therefore, many people who desire to use this design of architecture would be unable to do so and in many cases not build at all if they were unable to carry their ideas.

"2. If the houses of the above architecture could not be erected it will necessitate the building of unattractive, stereotype class of houses which will soon detract greatly from the beauty and attractiveness of our city.

"3. Try to imagine how some of the beautiful residences in this city would appear with slate roofs on them. Take, for example, the handsome residence of Mr. Hodi, on Stelle avenue; Mr. Dumont's home, on Stelle avenue; the thatched roof effect on the residence of George A. Bowman, Evergreen avenue, and a hundred other handsome residences throughout the city that would be absolutely ruined from an artistic as well as an architectural viewpoint.

"4. A slate roof is naturally a conductor of heat and is therefore very undesirable for this reason and practically unbearable to live under.

"5. Slate or other non-combustible materials are more expensive than shingles, thus raising the cost of building which is now almost prohibitive.

"6. Absolutely no better fire insurance rate is obtainable for private frame dwellings with non-combustible roofs as dwellings in all cities in the State of New Jersey are rated as a class and the rate is determined by the equipment and size of the fire department and the water supply.

"7. We do not recall during the past fifteen years where any private dwelling located on lots restricted to a frontage of fifty feet or more were ever seriously damaged by a fire burning on adjoining property.

"Furthermore, you will agree with us that an unattractive house can't command the rental nor will it sell as readily as an attractive one. Therefore, values of real estate would be decreased and the tax valuations would be reduced accordingly. With the resolution as proposed, every property owner in this city who has a shingle roof will be forced at the end of fifteen years, even though the roof be in good condition, to absolutely rebuild the entire roof of the house, because to carry the additional weight of slate roof, heavier rafters will be required. Besides this, a roof will have to be entirely boarded before slate can be applied. In other words, a large majority of the home owners in the city would be required to spend not less than $600 to comply with the ordinance.

"We feel confident that upon consideration of the proposed resolution you will see the disastrous effects it would have on the entire community, from a monetary, an artistic, an architectural and a taxable standpoint, and we feel confident you will give this letter your favorable attention and support our appeal."

OFFENSIVE OR DEFENSIVE WAR

Miss Janet E. Richards, of Washington, D. C., Discusses Question

She Strongly Advocates National Preparation Against Attacks From Within or From Without

Miss Janet E. Richards, of Washington, D. C., gave the tenth of her "talks on current events" in the High school auditorium yesterday afternoon before a large and representative audience. She said that she was delighted at the opportunity of speaking in the auditorium of a public school for she had long advocated the use of such buildings as civic centres, and this was the only city in which she had seen her idea carried out so far as to have been invited to make use of a public school for the purpose of giving one of her addresses on current events.

Miss Richards asked her audience to clearly understand that she was no advocate of war, but her attitude throughout her address was that she advocated full preparation against all attacks from within and from without. She did not believe for a moment that it was the policy of this Government to send troops to Europe to engage with the entente allies against the Central Powers. The ententes had specifically said that they did not desire our troops on the field, they would be more in the way than an asset to the entente armies. What they did hope was that this country would give them the far better help of arms, munitions, food and loans. This would amount to scores of real and bloodless contribution.

If ours is to be a defensive war then this country must defend herself against shelling and bombardment; the coast must be defended and the navy be brought up to full strength. To defend ourselves will prove a big task. According to the information she had received, our airplanes are not up-to-date, the batteries are poor and she had heard them termed "junk," and our submarines were unsafe. Washington feared conditions in Mexico more than elsewhere. The border was practically undefended. The forts were built a thousand miles from everywhere and the unpreparedness is so general that everyone she had spoken to had shown disgust. There was absolutely no excuse for the condition of things in this country. There is here all the wealth and all the true patriotism that a country could hope for or desire.

BANDAGES WERE NOT MADE HERE, SAYS MRS. WALLACE

Report that has been given considerable publicity in New York and Philadelphia newspapers to the effect that Red Cross bandages sent to Philadelphia had been found to contain ground glass, and that they were sent from some New Jersey town, possibly Plainfield, Mrs. F. W. Wallace of the National Special Aid Society, upon learning of the report, made a personal investigation and she stated today that she could say with a great deal of confidence that the bandages were not made in Plainfield.

Mrs. Wallace explained that at a recent meeting of the National Special Aid Society, a report of the above-named character was heard and frequently afterward she continued to hear the rumor which led to her investigation.

PHONE EMPLOYES IN SIGNAL CORPS

Local men employed by the New York Telephone Company as well as elsewhere are being organized into Reserve Signal Corps units. Applications for enlistment are included in folders describing the plan and guaranteeing certain considerations to be shown by the company to those who enlist which are being distributed.

It is said that one company will be recruited from employes of this State, but just what geographical divisions could be made had not been decided. All applications for enlistment must be entered in the New York office of the company by April 5.

Judge Newcorn Requests Them to Hear Rabbi Wise at Columbus Club

An invitation has been extended to the ministers of all religious denominations in this city, North Plainfield, Dunellen and surrounding towns, to attend the Jewish War Relief meeting in Columbus auditorium on Tuesday night, when Rabbi Wise will be the principal speaker.

The ministers of all denominations are also requested to extend the invitation to the members of their congregation.

Rabbi Wise is one of the most prominent lecturers in the country and his presence is sought for wherever an effort is being made for the political, civic, or social well-being of the people.

Judge Newcorn this morning announced the following list of contributors to the war sufferers fund which were erroneously omitted from the list published yesterday: Alvah W. Ten Eyck, Elizabeth B. Forster, Eugene M. Cave, F. W. Iredell, Duncan W. Taylor, Mrs. W. R. Faber, A. B. Jones, Thomas L. DeMeza, H. A. Vroom, Milton Knapp, Nathan S. Wardner, H. M. Case, Frank S. Martin, A. J. VERDICT FOR $5,276 GIVEN JAS. NASH, JR

Vice Chancellor Backes Decides Important Suit as Outcome of Deal

Vice-Chancellor Backes in the Chancery Court, Trenton, on Wednesday rendered a verdict of $5,276 to James Nash, Jr., of West Front street, this city, in the matter of Samuel Polkowitz against James J. Nash, Jr. The suit was the outcome of a real estate transaction made by James J. Nash in 1905, conveying a large tract of land in Perth Amboy.

In October, 1902, one Daniel Hallahan, grandfather of James Nash, Jr., made a deed of property to James J. Nash in trust for the latter's son, which property was to be held by him for the benefit of the son. In 1905, Samuel Polkowitz purchased this property from the trustee, but failed to obtain the consent of James Nash, Jr., for such sale. Last October Samuel Polkowitz filed a bill in Chancery to quiet his title and to terminate any interest which James Nash, Jr., might have in the property, claiming that the sale by the trustee to him gave him a good title to the property.

James Nash, Jr., through his counsel, Martin B. Stutsman, filed a counter-suit claiming that he was still the owner of the property regardless of the sale by the trustee.

Vice-Chancellor Backes in filing his conclusions sustains the contention of Mr. Stutsman that title was still in James Nash, Jr., and ordering Polkowitz to pay the sum of $5,276 to the latter within thirty days for interest in the property.

So far as known this is the only case on record in the State covering this novel situation and it is said Mr. Stutsman has established a precedent for future guidance for which he was commended by the court.

Polkowitz was represented by Counsellors Leo Goldberger, of Perth Amboy; John P. Kirkpatrick, of New Brunswick, and Prosecutor Joseph Stricker, of Middlesex county.

PIONEERS OF PLAINFIELD

26th Chapter on Early Settlers in This Vicinity From Date of Land Purchase

FROM 1684 TO 1784

This Article, Written by O. B. Leonard, of This City, Gives Interesting Details of Laing Family

This is the twenty-sixth article on the early settlers in Plainfield, written by Oliver B. Leonard, of this city. It gives some interesting details of the Laing family and of the quest of the Von Ohls after long-forgotten treasure:

1703—Survivors of William Laing—1733

A full list of the descendants of William Laing, the second son of John Laing, Sr., 1670-1698, is not in possession of the writer. William's older brother, John Laing, Jr., 1675-1725, had by far the larger following. The marriages of William's children, as noticed before, was among promiscuous families, and

ANNUAL FAIR FOR CHILDREN'S WARD

Tomorrow afternoon the annual fair for the Children's Ward of the Muhlenberg Hospital will be held in the Hartridge School auditorium from three o'clock until half after six.

It is the ambition of the pupils and teachers of the school to feel that they can assure the ward each year $400, which they know is the equivalent of the income at 5 per cent. of $8,000. This is spent for the support of two beds. All that is made in excess of the $400 is spent on the ward in various ways, as each need is presented to the pupils for their consideration. This year they are especially eager to make all that they possibly can, and are working with even more enthusiasm than usual.

The Seniors and Juniors who usually have the candy and flower table have divided, the Seniors taking the candy and the Juniors the flowers. The third grade academic will serve refreshments on the stage of the auditorium. The first and second grades academic will sell handkerchiefs and stockings and school peasants. The sixth and seventh grades elementary are exceedingly ambitious. At their joint table will be found all sorts of lovely things for wear; fancy work, and gardening outfits that they have themselves painted. The fourth and fifth grades are prepared to supply dolls and their belongings to children of all ages. As imported dolls are found with great difficulty, they will sell American babies of great charm and fascinating costumes. The first and third grades are rather secretive about their plans, but bird houses and Easter toys and grab bags and balloons have been mentioned. Miss Shaw and the boys are planning a Midway downstairs, with bowling and games and many surprises.

Those who have visited the fairs in the past know that Miss Tennant has an Oriental booth, the making of which involves numerous visits to Japanese stores and consequently and much labor, and that she makes wonderful purchases and can offer exceptional bargains in lovely articles.

The pupils thank all their mothers and fathers and all the former girls and the mothers and fathers, and all the good friends who have been helping them for the past two weeks, and also all the new friends who will come tomorrow and help to increase the fund for the sick babies of Plainfield.

SCHOOLS CLOSE TODAY

The public schools of this city and borough closed this afternoon for the Easter vacation and will be reopened on Monday, April 9.

THE NEW YORK SUNDAY AMERICAN

next Sunday (April 1st) will contain a feature article of great interest to all residents of Plainfield and vicinity. To make certain of getting your paper, please give your order in advance to your newsdealer.—Adv. 3-29-3t

UNITY LODGE CELEBRATES

Music, Addresses and Dancing Marks Completion of 34th Year of Lodge

The attractive program of vocal and instrumental music, addresses and dancing marked the thirty-fourth anniversary of Unity Lodge, No. 102, Knights of Pythias, held in the lodge rooms last night. The affair was largely attended by members and friends of the lodge. The program of the evening was in charge of Frank Putnam as master of ceremonies.

The address of welcome was given by William Newcorn, of this city, at the conclusion of which he introduced William D. Quick, of Somerville, supreme representative of the order, who gave an excellent address on the principles of the organization.

The balance of the program was presented by the musical Stewarts, George B. Charlton, who sang several popular selections, and athletic "stunts" by Englar and Van Orden, all of which was greatly enjoyed by the audience. Then followed dancing, music for which was furnished by Squires' orchestra. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Unity Lodge was organized March 22, 1883, with twenty charter members, ten of whom have died since that time. Seven of the charter members are still living: L. B. Woolston, Allen Buckle, Joseph F. Sheppard, John Coty, Thomas Colleen, Horace S. Martin and Edward N. Sebring; all members of Unity Lodge, except Mr. Colleen, who joined Perseverance Lodge, No. 74.

The first chancellor commander was Horace J. Martin and the present one, Henry C. Gudebus. The lodge prospered from the beginning with a good class of members, as the roster will show. It will show many who have served the public efficiently, past and present, as mayors, councilmen, city judges, district court judges, assemblymen, sheriffs and also in North Plainfield as borough officers, as councilmen and volunteer firemen.

The lodge is now enjoying much prosperity after an existence of thirty-four years. The gain in membership during the past year was twenty-two. The lodge has also had one grand chancellor, Eugene V. Cornish, who served many years. At the time of his death he was grand keeper of records and seals, which office he conducted in an efficient manner. His son, Victor Lorton, is now a member of the lodge.

BERLIN MEMBER SAYS PRUSSIAN SYSTEM MUST BE ABOLISHED

By United Press:

Amsterdam, March 30.—For the first time since the war began a note of doubt about Germany's future has crept into Reichstag speeches, according to dispatches today from Berlin.

Member Spahn was quoted as saying in debate after Hollweg's speech yesterday, that he "hoped Germany was prepared to fight a new and powerful foe." The Socialist member, Noske, bitterly censured Foreign Secretary Zimmermann's Mexican-Japanese scheme against the United States and declared the "Prussian system of government must be abolished."

HOLLWEG CLINCHES WAR QUESTION FOR U.S.

By United Press:

Washington, March 30.—Only active war was talked here generally today. German Chancellor von Bethman Hollweg in the Reichstag yesterday clinched the idea.

President Wilson and his cabinet booked for a late afternoon session were expected to shape the last details for entry of the United States into the world-conflict in some form to be decided by Congress.

Hollweg, considered defiant, weak, and misleading in his argument, yesterday, swept aside all doubt in the minds of international experts, that President Wilson will make a forceful demand on Congress for America to play a full part in the war. That Hollweg had made a poor case for himself and his nation was the view on every hand.

President Wilson today passed up his usual morning golf game and worked all the morning in his study. It is understood he is putting into tentative form a rather complete draft of the message he will deliver to Congress on Monday. He excluded himself to all callers today. (Other details on another page.)

FOOD SHORTAGE IS THE CRY IN CHICAGO MARKETS

By United Press:

Chicago, March 30.—The food supply of the nation is in danger was the cry in the Chicago meat and grain markets today. Alarming reports poured into the market from the great winter wheat field of Kansas and Nebraska. They told of drought and of the plowing up of thousands of acres of winter wheat in consequence.

Live hogs at the stock yards today sold as high as $15.50 per hundred, a jump of 25 cents over yesterday, and an advance of 40 cents in the past two days, a record for all time.

Another grave menace to the nation's food supply is the labor shortage, already acute, and now made critical by calling out the National Guard in the agricultural States. The high price of all feeds also threatens.

State agricultural societies and officials are co-operating on the feed question, and advancing seed to farmers who are unable to buy on the market. The demand still is greater than the visible supply.

CONTRACTS GIVEN FOR ANTI-SUBMARINE NETS

By United Press:

Washington, March 30.—A contract for one hundred steel cable anti-submarine nets was awarded by the Navy Department today to a Philadelphia company. The nets are to be of 12 foot mesh, 1,500 feet long and 34 feet deep. The deliveries will begin in three weeks with ten nets a week thereafter.

GERMANY HAS COUNTED ON WAR WITH U. S.

By United Press:

Berlin, March 30.—"We would not be surprised at such developments, because we have counted on the possibility for months, but we are prepared to be pleasantly surprised," declared the Lokal Anzeiger, today, in commenting on the possibility of war with the United States. (Other details on another page).

Y. W. C. A. FASHION SHOW WELL ATTENDED

The "Fashion Show," which was held at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association last night, proved to be a great success. The association orchestra added interest to the occasion by presenting a program of popular selections, and later in the evening refreshments were served. The association plans to give another "Fashion Show" in the near future.

BULLET GOES THROUGH P. R. R. CAR WINDOW

New Brunswick, March 30.—The Philadelphia and New York express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, due here at 11:51 o'clock Wednesday night, was fired upon by an unidentified person, between Trenton and Princeton. The train was speeding along at fifty miles an hour, when a bullet crashed through one of the car windows directly over the top of the heads of two men sitting in the seat beside the window. The right ear of the man immediately next to the window was filled with pieces of glass.

The train did not stop. The railroad authorities are investigating.

ANNIVERSARY OF BIRTH OF TYLER

Yesterday was the 127th anniversary of the birth of John Tyler, tenth President of the United States. The earliest of his American ancestry was Henry Tyler, of Shropshire, England, who came to this country and settled in Middle Plantation, Va., in 1652. John Tyler was the son of Judge John Tyler, some time Governor of Virginia. He was vice president with William Henry Harrison.

On the death of President Harrison, in 1841, Tyler succeeded him. In 1845 he was succeeded by Polk and spent the remainder of his life in retirement. He died January 18, 1861.

BLISS HOME NOT YET OFFERED

Bernardsville, March 30.—Mrs. Walter P. Bliss denies that she has offered the use of her big country home here to the Government for convalescent hospital in case of war with Germany. Mrs. Bliss says she thought the Government was not ready to receive such offers. A persistent rumor to that effect was in Bernardsville yesterday. Mrs. Bliss said it must have started from the fact that she had said that in case of war she would offer her home. She said that people of Bernardsville would undoubtedly do something, but at the time, was unable to say in which direction they would lend their energies.

MAY ESCAPE HANGING; THERE'S NO PLACE TO HANG

(By United Press)

Spokane, Wash., March 30.—Because there is no place in which to hang him, Edward Mayberry, half breed Indian, probably will escape the death sentence imposed for the murder of Alice Vivian on the Colville reservation last August.

President Wilson granted Mayberry a 30-day respite so his lawyers could appeal from the sentence, on the ground that it could not be legally carried out in the State of Washington, where capital punishment is barred. This respite will expire a week from Sunday.

The woman killed by Mayberry was alleged to be his wife. He said the shooting was accidental. As it occurred upon federal government property, United States Judge Rudkin went ahead and condemned Mayberry to death, in spite of Washington's law against executions. The original hanging date was Jan. 19.

Mayberry obtained a postponement until March. Then it was necessary to find a place inside the State boundaries and yet not under State jurisdiction where a gallows could be legally erected. The federal building was deemed United States territory and plans were made to hang Mayberry on the roof. His lawyers objected and demanded a ruling by the treasury department. Mayberry remained calm and carpenters began measuring off a place to build the scaffold.

The treasury department ruled that the plan was illegal. President Wilson granted Mayberry a reprieve to April 13, at which time he will be imprisoned for life, likely.

JAPAN PREPARES TO GAIN CONCESSIONS AT TSINGTAU

By United Press:

Tokio, March 30.—Much conjecture is being made here today as to how much Japan will add to her already large interests in China as a result of the war, but Baron Hayashi, Japanese Minister to Peking, here to confer with his government, does not hesitate to make it plain Japan is preparing to ask China for a large concession at Tsingtau, the colony seized from Germany.

"Japan can dispose of the Shangtung railway without waiting for the peace conference, and it is absurd to doubt that this railway line will not come under Japanese influence," Baron Hayashi told the newspaper men.

"Japan will also ask China to agree to the establishment of a Japanese concession at Tsingtau," he continued. "But whether other foreign countries will be permitted to establish settlements at Tsingtau, as in other Chinese ports, is a question which I cannot discuss now."

E. P. GASTON TO SPEAK ON WAR ADVENTURES

The committee of the Literature Department of the Monday Afternoon Clubehas made arrangements for a lecture of unusual interest, to be delivered in the Congregational Church, Monday, April 2, at 3:45 o'clock.

The lecturer is Edward Page Gaston, Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, who will describe his experiences on the battlefields, and in the prison camps. His subject will be "My War Adventures in Germany and Belgium."

Mr. Gaston is an American, who, at the outbreak of the war, tendered his personal services as a neutral in the countries involved. Equipped with his passports as an American citizen and in the face of great personal danger in the first mad clash of arms, he carried out personally four extended war relief expeditions into Germany and Belgium. He personally visited about sixty thousand Allied prisoners and reported upon their treatment by the Germans, and by request of the German government he likewise visited German prisoners of war held by the British. He was repeatedly arrested and imprisoned as a spy.

Hear Mr. Gaston himself tell of his adventures. Friends of Monday Afternoon Club members are cordially welcome, but a nominal charge of admission is asked, as noted in the advertisement.

SYNAGOGUE RECEIVES CONDITIONAL BEQUEST

A conditional bequest of $10,000 is made to B'nai Israel Synagogue in East Jersey street, Elizabeth, under the will of Edward G. Cohen, a pawnbroker, who died there several months ago, leaving an estate estimated to be worth $30,000. The will stipulates that in the event of Nathan Cohen, a son, dying before his wife, the sum mentioned shall revert to the synagogue. It also is given $250 outright, $150 of which is to go for the purchase of a "scroll of law written in parchment."

The income from $10,000 is left to Nathan Cohen, but in event that his wife predeceases him, he will receive the money outright. Philip Cohen, another son, is the executor, and one of the principal heirs, receiving realty and half a share in the Cohen business at 37 Broad street.

INTERSCHOLASTIC CONTEST AT BAYONNE TONIGHT

An interscholastic contest in extemporaneous speech, promoted by the department of public speaking of Colgate University, open to all schools of New Jersey, will be held at Bayonne in the auditorium of the high school this evening. Gardner Colby, of East Orange, will act as presiding officer for the evening.

Fourteen high schools, including this city and the borough will send students. Those from here are Victor Levitz, of North Plainfield, and Caryl Dunavan, of this city.

NAVY RULES FOR DISPLAY OF FLAG

Official Data From Capitol Settles This Mooted Question

Rules governing the hanging or display of the United States flag have been compiled by Colonel Robert L. Patterson in behalf of Boudinot Chapter, D. A. R., of Elizabeth, after considerable correspondence with the war and navy departments. This brought out that neither has any rule of regulation prescribing the manner in which the American flag may be used for decorative purposes, custom only fixing the rules.

Colonel Patterson corresponded with Adjutant General R. P. McCain, U. S. A., who referred him to the Navy and Records Department, where most of the information was obtained. The following synopsis of the customs shows how the flag should be displayed properly:

"To any one who can afford to do so, I would suggest the purchase of a flag staff. The field of blue and the stars go at the top of the pole; this is the only proper way to hang it. Those who cannot afford to have a pole or staff and use a rope to suspend the flag from the house to a tree or pole, should always run the field of blue at the top and out from the building.

"When the flag is to be hung out as a banner from a building, the blue field and stars must always be hung toward the north or east, as follows:

"In a street running north and south, the right-hand, or east side of it, the field of blue would be in the upper left-hand corner as you face it from the street; on the left, or west side of the street, the field of blue would be on the right upper corner as you look at it from the street.

"In streets running east and west the same rule applies, the field of blue and the stars should fly on the upper right-hand corner on the north side of the street; on the upper left-hand corner on the south side of the street.

"This does not always apply unless the streets run, approximately, as the compass shows east and west, north and south; their personal judgment must show them that the stars are to go toward the north or east."

MUST GO BACK TO THE SOIL

Henry Rogers of Highland Farm, who several years ago attracted attention by urging a return to the soil, as the best means of keeping down the high cost of living, says that the people must go back to the soil this spring and summer, or the American citizen will find himself in dire want next winter.

Mr. Rogers has been living on a farm ever since he was five years old. He was for several years a member of the State Board of Agriculture, representing Somerset county, and knows something about the production of crops.

This is what he had to say in an interview with a Courier-News representative yesterday afternoon.

"There is only one way to keep down the high cost of living, or rather to prevent it from going higher, and that is for every man who has a plot of ground to cultivate it intensively, and produce a portion of what he and his family consume.

"The fact that too many men have been leaving the farms within the past dozen years and there has been no one to take their place has now fully manifested itself. This has resulted in a curtailment of production resulting in a scarcity of food stuffs, and this scarcity causes high prices.

"We are a great nation industrially, but we are becoming less great as an agricultural country. So long as we were able to balance industry and agriculture, things were not so bad, but the time has arrived when, notwithstanding the best efforts of the Government, national and State, to encourage farming, the farms are become depleted of the men who once filled the soil, and they have flocked to the industrial centers under the false impression that industrial life is less of a drudgery than that of the farm, but alas there is little difference, except that when the industrial worker has completed his task there are theatres and other diversions to furnish relaxation, while these things are not available to the farmer who lives miles away from town, except he have an automobile, but autos, are being manufactured now at a figure that places them within the reach of most men.

"There must, however, be a return to the farm, because that is where the backbone and sinew of the nation gets its sustenance.

"It is my opinion that every city man with a plot of ground twenty feet square could plant potatoes, onions, cabbage and beans this spring.

"He will be delighted when he sees them grow; he will appreciate the wonderful works of nature and of God, as he sees the vegetables spring up from the ground.

"It will give him healthful recreation in the open air, and when he sits down to his meal of vegetables, which he has produced himself, he may enjoy, the exquisite happiness of knowing that he is a producing consumer, and that he has produced what he consumes, in addition to contributing to the production of other commodities, which are furnished by the particular industry in which he is employed.

"A man who does that for one summer will continue it thereafter. It will mean money in the bank for him at the end of the year, and he will only be utilizing a minimum of his energy.

"The farmers should raise large quantities of wheat, oats, corn, potatoes, cabbage, beans, etc.

"All fruit should be picked and marketed and housewives should buy it and can it for winter use. Such means help to curtail the butter bills.

"There should be more extensive hog raising this year. If every farmer in New Jersey will raise one or two more hogs, it will mean a great deal to the producer, as well as to the consumer.

"Farmers have been handicapped by lack of help during the past few or six years, but the farmers have now devised a plan for overcoming this shortage.

"In different sections of the State they have banded together and have planned to hire groups of eight and ten men to be paid $1.50 per day and their board.

"These groups will be employed on three or four farms, and will find steady employment the year round, rain or shine. This plan will enable each one of four farmers to have two or more men according to his requirements for as many days as he may want them, or in case of emergency, all the men not being required on other farms, they can all go to one farm for a day or two, then distribute themselves on the four farms again.

"They will have plenty to eat, and a good place to sleep. Italians are being employed in this work, because the Italian makes a good farmer and it is well to get them used to farm work. In this way the farmers of New Jersey hope to overcome the labor shortage, and raise and harvest their crops with greater ease than heretofore.

The World War a Year Ago Today—March 30.

Germans captured Malancourt, in the Verdun area, but were repulsed at Dead Man's hill, according to French report.

Asserted in the United States senate that 200 Norwegian, Swedish, Dutch and Danish ships had been sunk by German submarines or warships since the war began.

British orders in council applied the doctrine of continuous voyage to conditional as well as absolute contraband and declared that being on the way to a nonblockaded (neutral) port shall not in itself gain immunity from capture, for vessel or cargo, for a breach of blockade.

Two Years Ago Today.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Competitive examinations will soon be required by all postmaster candidates and the most important questions will be asked out in the lobby about the progress made at rounding up the doubtful voters of the district.

Under the new rules in the Senate a man may be able to get elected who can talk only ten hours without stopping.

Sixty-four coal men now indicted for alleged violation of the anti-trust act. Better hurry up and buy more coal before the cost of all this litigation is added to the price.

From the rate at which her merchant marine is being destroyed it looks as if England would be thoroughly starved out and very hungry about the year 1956.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

McSorley Keep Away

To the Editor of the Courier-News:

Answering the query of Critic "Whom did Owen Roe O'Neill ever lick?" would say that he met and defeated all comers in his day and generation. He distinguished himself at the battle of Clontarf, the details of which are known to those familiar with the history of Erin's struggle for the rights of man.

As for McSorley, the man who breaks clay pigeons thrown from a trap, being a better shot than that of Patroiman Kelly, there is great doubt. Kelly at one time shot at a flock of wild geese that took flight as he approached, and he brought down six of them with a repeating rifle.

General Rehearsal

"LAND OF MYSTERY"

FRIDAY NIGHT

Children's Rehearsal Every Day at 3.30 Until Further Notice.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Adv.

LEANS FROM CAR, HIT BY ANOTHER, DIES

New Brunswick, March 30.—Fred Baurer of Lindenau, a Public Service Railway conductor, was fatally injured in an accident at Albany and Neilson streets Wednesday.

He was in charge of a Middlesex line trolley car running from this city to Highland Park, which was on its way down Albany street. At Neilson street a Raritan line car coming in from Bound Brook approached and Bauer leaned out of the window in the vestibule of his car directly in front of the Raritan car. He was struck in the head and knocked unconscious upon the rear platform of his own car.

The injured man was carried into a store nearby, but before a doctor could reach him he was dead. His skull had been fractured. Bauer was thirty years old and leaves a wife and child.

LECTURES AT THE BOROUGH SCHOOL

Well-Known College Instructors Talk on Timely Topics Before Students

Two lectures on higher institutions of learning and the benefits derived, were delivered to the students of the North Plainfield High School yesterday. The first address, made by Prof. O. M. Graves, of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., was scheduled for March 22, but the death of the Professor's father necessitated the change.

In his opening remarks, Doctor Graves touched on the activity of war preparedness that is now sweeping over the country and the result and the effect on what could be termed educational preparedness. The speaker gave a vivid example of the progress made in educational lines during the past twenty-five years in which time the old obsolete methods have been literally torn away and the need for higher education asserting itself. The high school, Mr. Graves said, has proved a great factor in this progress, but the people of the whole world are beginning to realize more and more the necessity of the broadening effect only obtained by a college course. The college equips the student for his life work in three distinct ways, moral, mental and physical.

In Lafayette College the first is carried on by a thorough study of the Bible in a special four-year course, in which is contained only a general survey of all religions. The second, that of the mental capacity, is rigidly tested by any one of the seven-course now existing in the Pennsylvania Institution.

Later in the morning Dean James C. Dunham, of Temple University, Philadelphia, entertained the students with another interesting lecture. Mr. Dunham said that at the present time some four thousand students are registered in the Temple University and emphasized the need of young men for the course in physical culture. In a bill passed by the New York State Senate recently, physical training in the school was made compulsory and the demand for competent instructors now far exceeds the supply. Mr. Dunham also touched on the splendid advantage for young men in the various business courses. Both speakers were enthusiastically received by the high school students.

GREAT REJOICING BY RHEUMATIC CRIPPLES

If So Crippled You Can't Use Arms or Legs, Rheuma Will Help You or Nothing to Pay.

If you want relief in two days, swift, certain and gratifying relief, take one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma once a day.

If you want to dissolve every particle of uric acid poison in your body and drive it out through the natural channels so that you will be forever free from rheumatism, get a 50-cent bottle of Rheuma from Weiss' Boro Drug Store or any druggist today.

Rheumatism is a powerful disease strongly entrenched in joints and muscles. In order to conquer it a powerful enemy must be sent against it. Rheuma is the enemy of rheumatism—an enemy that conquers it every time.

Judge John Barhorst, of Ft. Loramie, Ohio, knows it. He was walking with crutches, today he is well. It should do as much for you; it seldom fails.—Adv.

OVERWORKED MINISTER

Tells How Vinol Restored Strength and Vitality.

Plainfield people will realize that we could not publish such letters as the following if they were not genuine and truthful statements of facts. The Rev. Mr. Hughes, Holly Springs, Ark., says:—

"I am a Methodist Minister, and suffered from broken-down nerves, loss of appetite and sleeplessness. I was weak, my circulation was very poor, and I was not able to do my duty in my Parish as I felt I should. I had tried various remedies but did not seem to get any better. Through Mr. Gatlin, of Bearden, Ark., I learned of Vinol, and it built me up. I regained my appetite, can sleep better and do more work."

There is no secret about Vinol. It derives its power to build up the overworked, brokendown, nervous system from beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates, and glycerophosphates, etc., which it contains.

Anyone in Plainfield who wishes to try Vinol can do so with the understanding that we will return their money if they are not satisfied.

A MESSAGE FROM THE
Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) in America

To Our Fellow Citizens:

In this time of crisis when our country's highest good is the common aim of all, we voice this deep conviction of patriotic duty.

We rejoice that even at this time, when the world is crazed by war, so many men are judging war by moral and spiritual standards, and by ideals of sacrifice. The causes for which men fight—liberty, justice and peace—are noble and Christian causes. But the method of war is unchristian and immoral. War itself violates law, justice, liberty and peace, the very ends for which alone its tragic cost might be justified.

Further, the method of war is ineffective to these ends. Might does not decide the right, ideals cannot be maintained by force, nor can evil overcome evil. True national honor is a nation's own integrity and unselfish service. Only unswerving honesty and self-control maintain it. Rights, the rights of all, are securely defended between nations as between individuals by mutual confidence, not suspicion; by universal co-operation and law, not by private armed defense.

The alternative to war is not inactivity and cowardice. It is the irresistible and constructive power of good-will. True patriotism at this time calls not for a resort to the futile methods of war, but for the invention and practice on a gigantic scale of new methods of conciliation and altruistic service. The present intolerable situation among nations demands an unprecedented expression of organized national good-will.

Unpractical though such ideals may seem, experience has taught that ideals can be realized if we have faith to practice now what all men hope for in the future. The American Nation, as a more perfect union of States, as a melting pot of races, as a repeated victor through peace, has proved practical the methods of generosity and patience. Throughout many years of an adventurous belief in the Christian principle of human brotherhood, the Society of Friends has seen the triumph of goodwill in all forms of human crisis.

The peoples of every land are longing for the time when love shall conquer hate, when co-operation shall replace conflict, when war shall be no more. This time will come only when the people of some great nation dare to abandon the outworn traditions of international dealing and to stake all upon persistent good-will.

We are the nation and now is the time. This is America's supreme opportunity.

Unflinching good-will, no less than war, demands courage patriotism, and self-sacrifice. To such a victory over itself, to such a leadership of the world, to such an embodiment of the matchless, invincible power of good-will, this otherwise tragic hour challenges our country.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING OF INTEREST TO THE BOYS

Many people of Plainfield have shown their interest in the new Y. M. C. A. building by contributing to the fund for its erection during the campaign held last November.

The boys of the association did splendid work during the campaign by raising some $1,500 in small subscriptions, but their interest is still keen and they are all anxiously awaiting the time when they will enjoy life in the new building, with all its modern equipment, which will make it possible to extend the work among the boys of the city in a more far-reaching way than ever before.

Some thirty boys of the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A. will give their time Monday morning to delivering to the contributors their second installment blanks. These boys will completely cover the city, which will be districted, and two boys will travel together, covering their particular district.

PUPILS TO MEET IN SPEAKING CONTEST

Victor Levitz and Caryl Dunavan Will Represent Local High Schools at Bayonne

An interscholastic contest in extemporaneous speech, promoted by the Department of Public Speaking of Colgate University, open to all schools of New Jersey, will be held in the auditorium of the high school, Bayonne, this evening. Gardiner Colby, of East Orange, will act as presiding officer for the evening.

The names of the fourteen high schools and their representatives are as follows: Bayonne high school, Patrick Morolino; Atlantic City high school, Chester L. Morrison; Butler high school, Vernon B. Hampton; Elizabeth (Battin) high school, Philip Wheelwright; Englewood high school, H. Sturve Henach; Glen Ridge high school, Walter H. Karig; Harrison high school, George Sacks; Long Branch high school, ——; Newark Central high school, Fred Goodman; Newark South side high school, Alexander Avidon; North Plainfield high school, Victor Levitz; Plainfield high school, Caryl Donavan; Rahway high school, John Reitmeyer; South Amboy high school, Edward P. Fisher.

The plan of the contest is unique. One month before the contest is held, a general statement is sent to the schools signifying their intention of sending a contestant, upon which the speakers are to obtain as much information as possible. One hour before the contest, a specific topic, drawn from the general topic, will be announced to the competitors and each speaker will be furnished a quiet room where without further consultation of authorities, he shall arrange his material for presentation.

The contest is to be in the form of a debate, and each speaker will be expected to defend either the affirmative or the negative. Each contestant will be allowed six minutes in which to present his argument.

This is a contest which places a premium on mental alertness and originality, as well as the power to think before an audience, and the ability to effectually present one's thoughts.

The prizes shall be awarded for the extent of accuracy of information, its relevence to the specific topic, and effectiveness in organization and presentation. The winner of the contest is entitled to represent the schools of New Jersey in the interstate contest, to be held at Colgate University in May.

Music for the evening will be furnished by the students of the Bayonne high school. The admission is free. The contest promises to be an interesting and instructive one.

SALT

Salt is a white, bull-headed seasoning that has to be put in a shaker and handled roughly before it will mind. It has an awful crust at times and must be pulverized into submission. It will balk and stall around its retreat at long as it can, coming out in the open only when you threaten it with the blunt end of a fork. Then it has spells of melancholy. You might as well let it alone when it gets one of these. It grows soggy and dull. There is nothing more morose than a soggy shakerful of salt. When our salt gets stubborn and mulish we just say to ourselves, but not so our wife can hear: "Well, perhaps we are now dealing with a chunk of the salt Lot's wife turned to."

HAPPENINGS ON HYDE OVAL

The problem just at present which confronts Captain McDonough of the N. P. H. S. baseball team is who will fill the vacancy at the second sack. Marsh, Barry, Force and a score of others have been given a chance to perform and the rivalry for the job is becoming spirited. Billy Ahern appears to be the logical candidate.

In the short six-inning game yesterday afternoon the regulars again downed the rookies, this time to the tune of 6 to 3. Al Willett was on the mound for the scrubs, and his fielders were given plenty of exercise.

Zeller is developing into some fielder and surprised some of the spectators by pulling down some high ones yesterday during the practice game. "Ted" is only 14 years old and tips the scales at about 109 pounds.

The candidates are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the new suits, which are expected early next week.

LUCKY STRIKE

LUCKY STRIKE the real Burley cigarette

It's toasted

FOR the beginning of a perfect day no one has invented anything more encouraging than a slice of brown, crisp toast; buttered, piping hot—right from the glowing fire. It smells delicious, and tastes more so.

Toasting—that's the fine, simple idea we finally applied to produce the equally "appetizing" Lucky Strike Cigarette. The tobacco—it's toasted, to hold the flavor.

So here it is, ready for you: Lucky Strike—the real Burley cigarette, and the delicious flavor of toasted tobacco.

RAMBLER BOWLING SEASON PROLONGED

The bowling season of the Ramblers will not be brought to a close tonight as previously planned, but will continue on until the second week in April.

Tonight the Ramblers will take another fling at the Spicer No. 1 team on the Eagles' alleys, and as the Plainfielders won two games of the previous series they are "all set" for three straight wins this evening.

The third series between the Rams and Eagle Seconds for Wednesday night of next week is pending.

The concluding match of the Ramblers will be sort of a novel affair and will take place on the Y. M. C. A. alleys Tuesday night, April 10, coming out at the conclusion of the Arrangements have been made with the St. Mary's Social Club ladies' team, whereby the Ramblers will allow the lady bowlers 100 plus per game, or a total of 900 for the series, and as the S. C. Bowlers rarely hit below 600, it means the Rams must graduate from the 800 class in order to win. Some heartless creature has suggested the awarding of the handicap be reversed.

HOPE GIRLS FOST

The girl basketball players of the Netherwood Reformed church defeated the Hope Chapel Seconds last evening by the score of 10 to 9 on the Inner-Triangle court. In the first half's closing moments the Hope Enders secured a lead of a single point. The second period saw some extra speed put on by both teams, the East Enders overcoming the slight lead of the opposition and coming out at the conclusion of the game with an advantage the same as the Hope girls enjoyed in the opening half.

The Westfield Athletic Club five went down to defeat last evening at the Scotch Plains alleys when the Parish House aggregation of that place took the large end of a 31 to 25 score. The game was a battle for points from one end to the other, the score being kept close throughout the entire forty minutes of play.

The first half concluded with a one-point advantage favoring the visiting team, but this was soon swept away after the resumption of play in the second period. Nine of the ten players participating in the contest took part in the scoring.

LONG HILL RIFLE CLUB ENROLLS MANY MEMBERS

The Long Hill Rifle Club of Passaic Township was organized Wednesday at the office of Recorder Raymond A. Alland. A membership of fifty was enrolled at the first meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Gilbert M. Corbish; vice president, August Arata; secretary, Dr. T. W. Bebout; treasurer, Charles Kutcher; executive officer, Mr. Alland.

For the time being the club will bend its efforts toward getting members. The officers believe they can obtain a membership of 150 in a few weeks' Because a similar organization might be started in the Millington section, the Long Hill club has embraced as its constituency only Gillette, Stirling and Meyersville.

As soon as the membership permits an infantry company will be organized within the club. Efforts will be made to locate rifle ranges and to encourage rifle practice. The dues were fixed at $1 a year. Dr. Bebout is now receiving applications for membership.

CLIMAX CLUB SHOOT

A merchandise shoot will be held at the Climax Gun Club grounds tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. A similar shoot a week or two ago proved popular and the officers decided to hold another. The club grounds are located on Plainfield avenue.

WHEN THINKING OF EASTER CLOTHES
Think of S-T-A-D-L-E-R'S

And you will have done your best, whether it is for yourself or your boys. Give us a chance to compete for your clothes custom this spring, for we are bound to win it in fair competition. If you only knew how hard we tried for many months to make this, our fifth season in Plainfield, the most successful one; how we wrestled with the problem of advancing prices that we might give the people of Plainfield a strictly all wool suit in up-to-the-minute style for $15.00, the results will astonish you. Of course, our margin of profit is much smaller, but we hope to double our sales and make many new customers and friends, and a new customer in this store means a permanent customer, and a "Booster" as well.

We have no cuts of Olympian giants of impossible stature to put in with our ads in the papers; they really do not add to nor rather subtract from the value of clothes. But we have the clothes, the style, the fabrics—in a word, we "deliver the goods."

MISS ADA B. TALBOT SPEAKS IN HIGH SCHOOL

A large and patriotic audience greeted Miss Ada B. Talbot at the high school auditorium last evening. Miss Talbot's subject was "Mexico—Yesterday and Today," and the speaker gave a most concise description of the political history of the country up to the time of apparent hostilities with the United States, and then dwelt with some emphasis on the fact that, irrespective of the attitude of the State Department of this country, there appears to have been an underlying desire to protect Mexico from herself.

In reviewing the situation as it exists today Miss Talbot inferred that there is every possibility that with the introduction of a general educational system in the country a different Mexico will be the neighbor of the United States in the years to come. Miss Talbot also spoke briefly regarding her recent trip to the Panama Canal for the purpose of observing fortification conditions, and the spirit of patriotism as expressed by the splendid "can do feel" keenly throughout the assembly.

Miss Talbot is a woman of striking personality and has mastered her subject, having a keen analytical mind and is particularly effective manner of expressing her ideas.

The Board of Education has endeavored during the past winter to present entertainments which shall be of educational value, and the effort made last evening was no exception to the general rule. The efforts of the board during this past winter have met with a gratifying increase in attendance on the part of the general public, and it is hoped to introduce during the coming year features which shall make these free public entertainments worthy of very general support.

MUSICAL SERVICE AT GRACE CHURCH

The special services at Grace Church have met with such success that they are to be prolonged into April. On Sunday evening next, the Sacred Cantata, a consoling feature of Holy Week observance in the church will be sung by the choir. The work for this year is to be Macfarlane's musical setting of "The Message from the Cross." It is a composition entirely devotional in character, provides a vehicle for the religious thought of the hour, and undoubtedly creates a suitable spiritual atmosphere for the solemn events of this holy season. As usual the service is at 4 o'clock.

On Easter Day at the same hour the grand Easter festival service of the church will be held. The best Easter music will be provided and the rector will preach. On April 15 the closing service of the series will be the presentation by the choir of an Easter Cantata.

PATROLMAN DUNLAP QUITS

Patrolman Joseph Dunlap has tendered his resignation as a member of the police force and will take a position as chauffeur next week.

Dunlap has quit the police force twice before and then came back. His reason for quitting now, he says, is that he cannot maintain himself and his family on the salary he receives. He is a machinist and served several years in the United States Navy aboard the battleship Wisconsin.

AUGUSTUS FISK IN TOWN

Augustus R. Fisk, son of former Mayor and Mrs. Charles E. Fisk, is spending a few days in town. He recently returned from the West, following several months spent on the Mexican border with Troop D. He is at present living in New York.

The Ash Can Tells the Story

There's no need for your spending so much money for coal and having to put out so many ashes. Install a Boynton Square Pot Boiler and you'll save much unnecessary expense and worry.

Here's the reason: Square Pot Boilers burn less coal and give more heat. This is made possible by the quick fire pot that eliminates all waste of heat and coal. It gives as much heat from a small amount of coal as a round fire pot gives from a large amount. And ashes don't cling to the square corners like they do to round corners.

Fire always "just right"—enough heat in the morning to keep the house warm like inside on the coldest days.

Ask your dealer to explain the Square Pot Boiler idea. He can also show you Boynton Furnaces and Newport Ranges. See him today or write us.

COMPANY K ENTRAINS FOR ELIZABETH

Company K left for Elizabeth this morning to mobilize and be ready for the service of the country.

The company marching through the streets of Plainfield this morning on its way to entrain for Elizabeth, there to await any orders that may be sent by the Government, of the United States, reminded local people of the scene of fifty-five years ago when Plainfield sent its first contingent of volunteers to the service of the country in the Southland. Company K boys will however be stationed for the present in Elizabeth for guard duty.

As the boys marched through the streets in soldierly order this morning, the sight caused a thrill among the spectators, and they viewed with pride the young and able-bodied men who had donned the uniform through sentiments of patriotism, to serve in any way the needs of their country should suggest. They are a determined company of young men prompted by the best ideals of human nature, the first of which, namely, patriotism, should thrill every citizen who has a love of country and of humanity in his heart.

GRANDCHILDREN SEEK TO BREAK AUNT'S WILL

Dissatisfied with the verdict of the jury which admitted to probate the will and codicil of Mrs. Lucy Dudley Sheafe, aunt of Dr. Edward S. Krans, of this city, which disposed of her $40,000 estate, not a cent of which was left to them, George Stanley St. Amant and his sister, Marguerite St. Amant, grandchildren, of France, have taken an appeal to the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court in the hope of getting a new trial.

Mrs. Sheafe, who was eighty-eight years old, died on May 25 last, at her home in New York. Mrs Florence March Turner, of Pana, Ill., and Louise March Allen, of Oconee, Ill., grandnieces, were also left out of the will. Dr. Krans was left $5,000, but this was revoked in the codicil because he did not name one of his children after her late husband, Marion Chitty, of Glen Falls, N. Y., school teacher and companion, received the bulk of the estate.

JURY FINDS NO CAUSE FOR ACTION

In the District Court here yesterday a jury that heard the case of the Plainfield Milk and Cream Company against Harry C. Huff, to recover payment for a horse that was killed when it was struck by a taxi cab belonging to Huff at Watchung and Jackson avenues, North Plainfield, two months ago, returned a verdict of no cause for action.

This is the second time the case has been tried. The jury disagreed at the other trial.

Robert Newton Crane appeared for Mr. Huff.

PANHANDLER GETS 60 DAYS

William Wilhelm, of Westfield, was arrested here yesterday afternoon charged with vagrancy. Judge DeMeza in the city court this morning gave him sixty days in the county jail. Wilhelm is a cripple. He went through West Front street yesterday soliciting alms and when a woman gave him ten cents he threw it back at her and used abusive language.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While a few applications will show your youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

DISCUSSES MOVING PICTURE PROBLEMS

Miss Mary G. Peck, of National Review Board, Speaks Here

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Evergreen school met at the school yesterday afternoon to hear an address by Miss Mary G. Peck, of the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures. She gave a most delightful and thoroughly encouraging talk on the "Better Films Movement."

"Motion Pictures are the latest art, and they are an art," Miss Peck said. "This new art only eight years old and in process of formation, deserves our consideration even more than the older arts for we may help to mould it."

Miss Peck then described the development of the art, mentioning the flexible film innovation that first appeared at the World's Fair in Chicago. The flexible films were thought to be of value chiefly in the class-room, but soon spread out to the theatres and now there are 15,000 moving picture theatres in the United States alone, patronized by numbers equal to the number of the entire adult population of the country. By actual count eight million to eighteen million people go daily to the movies. The movie picture industry is the fifth in the land, $600,000,000 is invested in it and one million people are employed in making films.

Miss Peck said that it is worthy of attention and men and women everywhere are studying to make it of value to the people and especially to the young people. In three or four hundred towns in the United States children's programs are given on regular days and family programs will be the next step, the speaker said. These selected programs prove profitable.

"Those who try to please everybody displease everybody," concluded Miss Peck, referring to the programs that try to suit young and old, modest and vicious alike. Miss Peck then gave some practical suggestions for the work of the Parent-Teacher Association.

FUNERAL OF E. L. MORRIS HELD AT BROOKLYN

The funeral of Edward L. Morris, formerly of Plainfield, whose death occurred on Tuesday, was held at 3 o'clock this morning at the late home, 777 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, Rev. Dr. James Clarence Jones, his personal friend and rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, officiating. The burial took place this afternoon in Evergreen cemetery, this city.

MRS. HENRY CORSA DIED THIS MORNING

She and Mr. Corsa Celebrated Their Golden Wedding Last April

Mrs. Henry C. Corsa, of 1340 Putnam avenue, died this morning after an illness of eight months of heart trouble and complications. She would have reached the seventy-second year of her age April 27. She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Traub, who were well-to-do and prominent residents of New York.

Mrs. Corsa leaves her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Lillian C. Kelly, and a grand-daughter, Mrs. Leslie R. Stewart, both of this city.

On April 4 of last year Mr. and Mrs. Corsa celebrated their golden wedding, surrounded by relatives and numerous friends. One of the features of the decorations was an artificial cherry tree with 2,000 blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Corsa were married April 4, 1866, in the Dutch Reformed church of West Farms, N. Y., by the Rev. Polhemus Van Wyck. Mr. Corsa's grandfather, Andrew Corsa, was one of Washington's scouts during the Revolution, and the latter's grandfather, Fletcher Corsa, was the first white child born in the Bronx section of New York. In recognition of this fact he was given a large tract of land, including the present site of St. John's College, by the Colonial Governor.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Corsa lived in New York, but later, for several years, lived in Milford, Del. They came to Plainfield twenty-six years ago and have resided here ever since. They have grown to an advanced age happy in the association of each other and of their only daughter and grand-daughter, and enjoying the high esteem of many friends, which has given an added enjoyment in their declining years. Many will mourn the death of Mrs. Corsa, and her husband and family have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the interment will be made in Hillside Cemetery, Dr. C. E. Herring officiating.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to healthy activity. It also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

KELLY AND WELSH MAKE GOOD SCORE

Patrolman Kelly, the dead shot of the police force, who hit the "bulls eye" 44 times in succession on Tuesday last, made a good showing again yesterday when he scored 21.

Patrolman Martin Welsh tied Kelly in the shooting, making a score of 21 also.

The other members of the force are showing greater accuracy of aim as the practice continues. Kelly has received a number of compliments upon his score of Tuesday.

WOMAN'S PRIVILEGE TO SERVE COUNTRY

Mrs. E. Yarde Breese Expresses Positive Views on Lloyd George's Action

Declaring that the position of the English Suffragists should not in any degree affect the American suffrage question, especially in view of Premier Lloyd George's recognition of the English Suffragists, Mrs. E. Yarde Breese, of this city, State president of the New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, today gave her views on the question in an interview with a representative of the Courier-News. She said:

"In the first place I feel strongly that the position of the English Suffragists should not in any degree affect the American suffrage question. The whole status of English women is different from that of the American woman.

"Secondly, the idea of the suffrage being granted to women as a reward for their single-minded devotion to their country's interests in time of war is as preposterous as it is insulting womanhood. Where is the woman who needs a reward, political or otherwise, for her allegiance and devotion to her country? What higher privilege can be accorded her than that she be permitted to serve her country to the best of her ability and to the limit of her strength? Any other interpretation of the nobility and sacrifice of women in war is a slur cast upon the highest ideals of a nation.

"Thirdly, what of the horde of women working and sacrificing for their country, who are not suffragists? In this country the anti-suffragists greatly outnumber the suffragists; how is it possible to ignore their claim to recognition if any question of recognition is to arise? There must be no confusion of the issue; politics for women is simply politics, as illustrated in the last election, but never must patriotism and loyalty be confounded with politics.

"The question 'should not women who sacrifice so much, have some voice in whether or not war is to be declared?' To this my answer is she has her say in the decision of the men of the nation; the two are one. American men when they decide for war, have first of all before them the honor of their nation and the welfare of their women and children. Who is there to gainsay the sacrifice of men in war? How about the millions who have fought and died in the trenches of Europe? The woman's part is no longer the harder part in warfare as it is waged today.

"This is no time for political issues. Woman Suffrage should be laid aside by its leaders and followers alike and with the hope of no ultimate "reward" other than the honor and security of their country, American women must stand shoulder to shoulder, cool of head and strong of heart and purpose in support of the Manhood of the Nation. Personally I feel that every woman's prayer today should be 'Peace, if it be possible to have peace with honor, but never peace at any price.'"

ENGLISH RECRUITS SLIGHTLY BELOW EXPECTATIONS

FRECKLES

March Worst Month For This Trouble—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.

Simply get an ounce of othine, double strength, from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all Summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if othine fails.—Adv.

HINDENBURG'S RETREAT HALTS

Germans Reach New Line and Turn on Enemies.

FIERCE ENCOUNTERS RAGING.

Teutons Settle Down For Another Period of Trench Warfare, While Allies Are Handicapped by Having to Establish New Front and Traverse Devastated Ground to Bring Up Men, Guns and Supplies.

London, March 30.—The German retirement in the west line has come to a standstill. Mobile warfare is rapidly yielding to trench fighting. But along the entire line British and French attacks are being kept up with bitter tenacity.

Hindenburg is playing a waiting game on a new formidably intrenched line. Here and there he is launching counter attacks, but on the whole he is contenting himself with repelling the ceaseless onslaughts of the opponents. Meanwhile vigorous seesaw fighting goes on daily in the Champagne and on the Verdun front.

Allies Must Wait.

The allies admittedly must mark time now until they have brought up their heavy artillery to try to reduce the new German trench line. For the British the task is a difficult one since the big guns must be moved over almost impassable terrain.

Military critics frankly concede that in this respect the Teutons are now reaping considerable advantage from the devastation they left in the wake of their retreat.

An added difficulty for the British is that of feeding and supplying their men, a thorough reorganization of the communications being necessary.

Unless Hindenburg decides to launch an offensive of his own to take advantage of these difficulties on the part of his adversaries a lengthy lull is looked for.

There were no operations on a large scale during the last twenty-four hours. Paris reports the capture of important German depots of material and ammunition. "Our troops," says the statement, "every where maintained contact with the enemy's line." A successful French surprise attack near Rheims, repulse of Teuton assaults in the Champagne and recapture of the last elements of trenches taken by the Germans on March 18 on the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) also were reported.

Berlin Claims Gains.

Berlin asserts French attacks in the Champagne were repulsed with heavy losses, and all the ground recently gained remained in Teuton hands. Attacks on the left bank of the Meuse were stifled in the German barrage fire, it is further stated.

The German bulletin reports a successful raid on the British lines northeast of Bapaume. In that region the Teutons are battling desperately to prevent the capture by Sir Douglas Haig's men of the strategically important village of Croisilles.

The British are now five miles west of St. Quentin, but the battle in that region continues a deadlock.

FOR CENTRAL DEAL PROBE.

Favorable Report to Assembly Voted by Committee.

Albany, N. Y., March 30.—The ways and means committee of the assembly voted unanimously to report the Green resolution providing for a searching legislative investigation of the deal between the board of estimate of New York city and the New York Central railroad whereby the road was granted contracts for the use of ground for trackage along Riverside park and in certain New York streets.

The resolution will be sent to the assembly Tuesday. It will provide for an investigating committee composed of three senators and four assemblymen. It is claimed by the friends of the measure that a canvass has shown it is assured of passage.

SHORT POTATO CROP.

South Jersey Farmers to Plant Less This Year.

Woodstown, March 30.—A million baskets less of white potatoes will be harvested in South Jersey this year as compared with the average crops of other years, according to estimates based upon the number of acres prepared at the opening of the planting season this week. The average crop in past years has run anywhere from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 baskets.

At the office of the South Jersey Farmers' exchange it was said that the acreage in potatoes this year will be from 15 to 20 per cent below normal.

It's Wonderful How Resinol Stops Itching

To those who have endured for years the itching torments of eczema or other such skin eruptions, the relief that the first use of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap usually gives is incredible. After all the suffering they have endured and all the useless treatments they have spent good money for, they cannot believe anything so simple could and inexpensive can stop the itching and burning INSTANTLY! And they find it still more wonderful that the improvement is permanent and that Resinol really drives away the eruption completely in a very short time. Perhaps there is a pleasant surprise like this in store for you. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

A Good Soap For Baby Skin

A good baby soap should contain soothing, healing properties to prevent the rashes and chafings to which babies are liable. That is why so many physicians recommend Resinol Soap.

CHARLES OF AUSTRIA.

Emperor and King In Conference at Berlin.

It is reported from Switzerland that Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary is in Berlin to confer with the kaiser on whether the submarine warfare shall be modified or continued in its present ruthlessness. Another dispatch says this conference may be connected with new peace proposals from the central powers to the entente.

U. S. EXPORTS NOT HALTED BY U-BOATS

Increase of $66,000,000 Over February, 1916.

Washington, March 30.—Germany's ruthless submarine campaign on shipping has failed to halt American foreign trade. American goods shipped to foreign countries in February, the first month of Germany's new campaign, aggregated $363,000,000 more in value than exports for the same month last year. But the month showed, according to the monthly report of the department of commerce, that trade with Great Britain, the Netherlands, Denmark and Greece had been seriously diminished.

Total exports for the month were $407,683,406 against $401,782,974 in February of last year. The imports for the month were $276,470,000 against $193,325,117 last year.

The greatest export increase was shown to Russia, where $23,819,880 worth of goods was sent in February of this year as against $10,890,981 last year. Exports to France and Canada also showed material increases. The exports to the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, Denmark and Greece were about $20,000,000 less than the exports to those countries in February last year.

TARNOWSKI CASE DOUBTFUL.

Austrian Envoy's Status to Be Settled Soon.

Washington, March 30.—It is generally expected that the status of Count Tarnowski, the Austrian ambassador designate, will be definitely established soon after the delivery of President Wilson's speech to congress. The count has been in this country about six weeks without any status whatever, and while he has presumably directed the Austrian end of negotiations with the United States, Baron Zwiedinek, the Austrian chargé d'affaires, has been Austria's official representative at the state department.

As far as Count Tarnowski knows, the question whether he will be permitted to present his diplomatic credentials is as far from settled as ever. It is said that even the Austrian embassy is without advices from Vienna on the subject.

LAST PEACE HOPE HAS VANISHED

Administration So Views Hollweg Speech.

WAR PREPARATIONS RUSHED.

President Busy In Preparing His Address to Congress on Monday, While State Department Continues Efforts to Avert Break With Austria—War and Navy Departments Move For Closer Co-operation With Council of National Defense.

Washington, March 30.—Only the cessation of Germany's campaign against American shipping can alter the course which President Wilson and his advisers have laid down for the United States.

This is the determination of the administration following the receipt of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's discussion of the German-American crisis before the German reichstag.

The German chancellor, while he declared that Germany has never desired and does not now desire war with the United States, made no announcement as to any change in Germany's campaign of devastation at sea. His statement that if the United States considers the submarine campaign a cause for a declaration of war Germany will not "have to bear the burden of responsibility for it" and that the German nation "shall also bear and overcome this" was accepted in Washington as voicing Germany's determination to maintain the war against American shipping in the face of the obvious preparations of the United States for impending war.

Germany to Stand Pat.

Neither the White House nor the state department would discuss the unofficial reports of the chancellor's speech. Secretary Lansing said he would await the formal official statement of the chancellor before commenting.

Before the reports were received, however, the state department chief made it clear that nothing but a complete change of the German submarine campaign could alter or amend in any way the policy which the president has determined to follow. He said no suggestion of negotiations for peace, no proposals for compromise could be considered until unrestricted submarine warfare is stopped.

Diplomatic Washington looked upon the Bethmann-Hollweg speech as Germany's last word before congress meets next week to make clear and unmistakable the position of the people of the United States.

The chancellor's speech reached Washington as the climax of a series of reports and rumors of possible peace negotiations. Various reports that Germany had made tentative offers to modify in some form her submarine campaign or had offered concrete proposals for peace for the consideration of the American government came from several sources.

May Avert Austrian Break.

These were given some credence in diplomatic circles in view of the continued authentic advices that Austria had steadfastly opposed action by the Teutonic allies that would force war with the United States. The Bethmann-Hollweg utterance, however, put an end to the peace talk, although administration officials were plainly anxious to ascertain how far Austria was prepared to back up her ally in the face of the latest preparations in the United States.

There was still some hope in official circles that the long delayed break with Austria might be averted. Ambassador Penfield at Vienna has exerted every influence to keep the relations between the two countries intact, and there has been a growing feeling in Washington that Germany's continued determination to press the submarine campaign had met with objection from Austria. The apparently final decision voiced by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, however, made the likelihood of a continuance of relations with Austria dubious.

Rushing War Plans.

Meantime preparations for war go on space. The president is at work on the preliminary draft of the address which he will deliver to congress next week. The chiefs of the war making departments, through the Council of National Defense, formed a closer organization for co-operation in preparedness along all lines. Arrangements were made for preparing a program of impermitive preparedness legislation to be submitted to congress. Both war and navy departments rushed work on their individual preparedness plans, and it was stated that by the time congress is ready to make known the fateful decision the country will be ready to move at once so far as it can move without immediate and broad financial and authorization legislation.

New steps to tighten up governmental machinery in order that work in all branches may be co-ordinated and the highest possible efficiency brought to bear in speeding national defense plans to completion were taken by the Council of National Defense when it named an interdepartmental committee composed of a representative from each of the executive departments. Through this special committee the council announced greatest success would be attained in the perfection of prepared-ness plans. Red tape will be eliminated and duplication of effort avoided.

HILLIS WANTS TO SEE BERLIN BUNCH HUNG

War sermons—the kind that stirred up visions of Dewey, Farragut, Grant and "Stonewall" Jackson, and sent the blood of churchgoers ringing—were delivered Sunday throughout New York. Almost all the sermons were calculated to send men to the recruiting stations.

The denunciation of Germany by the Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis at the Bronx Union Young Men's Christian Association waved so bitter at times that more than once a few pro-German hisses mingled with the cheers which greeted his remarks.

"I am willing to forgive Germans for their atrocities just as soon as they are all shot," he said. "If you would give me happiness, just give me the sight of the Kaiser, von Tirpitz and von Hindenburg hanging by a rope. If we forgive Germany after this war, I think the universe will have gone wrong.

"Specialists should be chosen for Cabinet work in Washington—men like Goethals and Roosevelt," he continued, getting down to the national crisis. "We don't want mollycoddles or pacifists to rule our destiny. We want warriors. Daniels already is as bad as Bryan, and so is Baker. The young men of the country have ceased to be spontaneous in coming to the aid of the flag. That is so because, on account of the dilly-dallying at Washington, we have lost our capacity to get angry. Things have come to such a pass that for the eagle we should substitute a tortoise, and under it inscribe the words: 'God made every creeping thing.'"

Equally stirring was the address delivered by the Rev. Malcolm J. MacLeod, at the Collegiate Church of St. Nicholas, Fifth avenue and Forty-ninth street.

"I cannot believe that if the Master were living today He would be a pacifist," he said. "I believe He would stand up and ask aid of us, His followers, to stand up, too, for the weak, the helpless and the downtrodden. I believe that a nation ought to be willing to defend its virtue and its integrity from robbery. The sacrifice of my home is too dear a price to pay for peace.

"And I would go further. I believe there are times when to be a pacifist is to be perilously near being a traitor. You cannot meditate with murderers."

ITALIAN SHIPS DO NOT GREATLY SUFFER

Special to Courier-News:

Rome, March 30.—A statement issued by the Italian Admiralty declares that during the week ending March 25, 317 vessels arrived at Italian ports while 489 vessels departed. Submarines sunk four Italian vessels under 2,000 tons and one sailing vessel. Submarines made attacks upon ten steamers that were able to avoid being blown up or captured.

MORRIS BUYS EQUIPMENT FOR COUNTY PROTECTION

Morristown, March 30.—Authority to purchase equipment for the protection of public utilities in Morris County was given by the Board of Freeholders yesterday, to the court house and jail committee. The board will take over supplies which Richard G. Foote, president of the National Iron Bank, bought with his private funds, for $7,500.

Mr. Foote was a member of a committee on which were also Judge Salmon, Prosecutor Reed, County Collector McLean and Fred R. Kellogg. The committee was to devise means of safeguarding the county in case of war. The authority given by the board was contained in a resolution permitting the sheriff to provide for the security of the county in such ways as he saw fit. Further expenditures may be made.

TO RESUME WORK ON PA. & N. J.

Bernardsville, March 30.—Work on the completion of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Railroad, which was discontinued last winter, will be resumed next month. It is not known when trains will be in operation on the road. Rolling stock has not been obtained, and Frank B. Allen, the owner of the road, is uncertain when it will be purchased.

Annual Sale of Corsets

$1.95 for $4 grade; $2.45 for $5 and $6 grades

Women know the Silphin corset, its serviceable materials, its thorough making, its specially good lines. The corsets in this Sale are copies of three of the best Spring Silphin styles—(1) for large women, (2) for medium-sized women, (3) for slender figures. They were made for us for this Sale by the makers of the Silphin corsets. Every pair is new, fresh from the workrooms, daintily laced trimmed, in white or pink coutil and batiste.

The makers laughed at us when we first approached them on the subject of the Sale. "At the same prices as last year," they said, as though we had asked them to bring us the moon. "It is at the same prices," we repeated. And spite of the scarcity of materials and higher costs, we got the corsets. We had to pay a little more; and we could get only half as many as we wanted. And we had to sacrifice some of our regular profit. BUT—the corsets are here, about 2,000 pairs, in time for Easter, and at the same prices as last year.

Women's Low Shoes, $5

Here's a beauty of white Sea Island duck with graceful tongue, shaped band and button, a picture of slim, graceful lines. Smartness shines from this other mode of dull calfskin with high, shaped tongue, oblong buckle, pretty perforation to give graceful side lines; moderately low heel. Then there is a dainty little beauty of patent leather, with just a mere point for tongue, that seems made for all sorts of smart affairs.

But There Are Eight Styles of Uncommonly Fine Low Shoes at $5—one of them being a wonderfully good-looking oxford with pretty perforations giving a dressy air, and a low military heel for comfortable walking. And—it is well to repeat—every shoe in our stock, because ordered months ago, is better value than we could buy now for the same price, and is in every detail up to our conscientious standards of making and serviceable wear. Main floor, Old Building.

PERFECTION OF THE REAL SELF

Synopsis of Lecture by W. N. Weston, Delivered Yesterday Afternoon

The following is a synopsis of a lecture by Walter Newell Weston of the Society of the Inner Life of New York, given at the residence of Howard A. Colby, 1405 Evergreen avenue, yesterday afternoon:

The secret convictions of every man play an important part in what happens to him. The college graduate who became a tramp was dominated by his secret convictions. Grant and Farragut, whose training and abilities were for a long time ignored, each had a secret conviction that he could win battles. We fail or rise by our ultimate individual judgments.

The starting point of every manifestation is an idea. The genius in art or invention gets into the deep

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quick

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

through all realm where art or Invention exists as as inexhaustible idea. Man is an inlet and outlet of ideas, substance, intelligence, life. The vine does not create the fruit, but from the Source expresses the substance into visible form.

God is thinking the universe into manifestation all the time. We are individually thinking our little world into manifestation, imperfectly or perfectly, according as we identify ourselves with the ideas of Divine Mind. We are not "worms of the dust" or "poor miserable sinners," but our true state, cause or being is perfection. By false beliefs we have created a mental realm that separates in consciousness from the Divine Mind. All imperfections are expressions of belief in separation from God. Man's ideas are weak, narrow, petty, imperfect. By consciously identifying ourselves with divine ideas we think into reality the wholeness which always was. Nothing is ever really wrong but our way of thinking. The perfecting of our consciousness constitutes healing in mind, body and affairs. The Divine Self of us does not have to become perfect; it is perfection. Potentially, there is nothing God-mind cannot do, but by omitting to be loyal to it man separates himself in consciousness from it. If the individual would be still enough interiorly he would habitually identify himself with the divine idea and express perfection only. The truth of these principles is not apparent at first, but by practice their efficacy becomes evident.

Do not by disloyalty cut yourself off from the inflow of health, peace, power, prosperity or life from the divine mind. Get behind the thing desired into the thought realm where it exists as an inexhaustible idea. Identify with the Divine Idea develops superhuman powers. Think of your self as "God thinks of you—perfect. "Be ye therefore perfect even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." Ask for guidance. Self-condemnation is the great negative. Praise of the Divine Self is the great positive. In consciousness, be with your whole mind all you do as good and eliminate from your life everything which you cannot so see. Put the joy of soul into all doing. By consciously becoming a part of the Divine mind all other parts recognize you as a fellow-worker. Raise yourself to its thought-standards. Whatsoever is of faith is not sin.

MILITARY IMPORTANCE OF JERSEY ROADS

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, Mar. 30.—New Jersey is the only State that has made any study of the military problem with respect to its roads, in connection with the present critical international situation, according to information just obtained from Washington by State Road Commissioner Edwin A. Stevens and reported by him to Governor Edge today. A census of highway conditions in this other States in connection with preparedness measures is to be taken at once, based upon the work in this State, with Commissioner Stevens assisting the Federal Government in the work.

NO STOMACH PAIN, GAS, INDIGESTION IN FIVE MINUTES

"Pape's Diapepsin" is the best antacid and stomach regulator known.

"Really does" put upset stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness due to acid fermentation in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach antacid and regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments and turns sour, you belch gas and eructate undigested food or water; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; insides filled with indigestible waste. remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin is worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or, at night. It's the quickest, surest antacid for the stomach in the world.—Adv.

their matrimonial affiliations were not always recorded. Few of his heirs united with Quakers, who uniformly made mention in their Meeting Minutes of marriages, births and deaths.

Of the seven children of William and Mary Blackford Laing we begin with the second son, John:

John Laing (of William and Mary) was born 1705; married Hannah Webster, and had Samuel, John, Jr., Elizabeth and Joseph Laing, who married Anna Smith and had a descendant, Smith Laing, born November 18, 1793; Hannah, b. February 23, 1815, Abby Shotwell, born January 25, 1795 (of Richard and Mary). Their eight children were:

GEORGE LAING (of William and Mary) was born in 1709; married, 1730, Hannah Drake, and had a numerous offspring. He died at advanced age, and she followed soon after. Their three granddaughters were Hannah, Mary and Elizabeth, and a son Simeon. Elizabeth Laing married in 1798 Samuel Estil, parents of William, the father of H. M. Estil and Sarah Ann, who married David F. Gardner, father of William E. Gardner. Simeon Laing, son of George, married Hulda Laing, daughter of Captain Benjamin Laing and had Huldah, born 1802, married 1826 Daniel P. Randolph. She died 1843. Her sister Gertrude, who married Abram Laing, was the mother of the late William Benjamin Tunis Laing, whose daughter Caroline became the wife of Percy C. Von Ohl.

BENJAMIN LAING (of William and Mary) was born 1710; married May 19, 1746, Mary Blackford. Among their descendants was Benjamin Laing, born January 26, 1745; died January 6, 1819. He married twice, Mary Jenkins and Mrs. Zeruah Fitz Randolph Manning. By the first marriage there were born eleven children. He was known as Captain Ben. Laing, and was a member of the First Baptist Church, Plainfield, in 1818.

The family of Captain Benjamin and Mary Laing consisted of one son, John, who married Rhoda Lyon. There were seven daughters, Sarah, born 1764, married Theophilar Pierson; Mary married Elijah Stites; Rachel, married John Shotwell; Nancy, married Cornelius Thomas; Margaret, married John Blackford and Ezekiel F. Randolph; Huldah, married Simeon Laing; Gertrude, born 1786, married Abram Laing. There were four other children, all dying young.

Born 1796—Benj. S. Laing, died 1877, May 19, married Elizabeth Sopher, born 1797, died 1848, May 21; their issue was: William V. L., married Harriet Frazee; issue, Ira Laing, Anna, John, Sarah, married Wm. Dutcher, Benj. Laing; Harriet L., married Mat. Frazee; Eliza, married Furman Dayton; issue Elizabeth, married Harvey Crane; John Dayton married Jennie.

Born 1827-8—Benj. L. Sopher, married Eleanor C. Beice; issue Anna, Laura, Harriet, Mary Eliza married Charles Terrell; Mary L., married Stephen Bloomfield, no children; John Henry married Emaline Miller, had Wallace, married Elizabeth McCandlass, Jennie, married Thomas Haviland; Rhoda, married Benj. Hand and Eph. Drake, had Mary E., Laura, Benj. Hand, married Ella Boice; Ellen, married Andrew J. Stewart, issue, Eugene, Annie, William, Judson, Charles and Mary E. Stewart; Henrietta, married Henry Bittle, issue, Osro, married Minnie Boice, Nellis Bittle.

Born 1834—Isaac Soger, married Emaline Case, issue Ella Rachel, married Henry Gallaudet, and had issue, P. Wallace Gallaudet, Ralph Laing Gallaudet, Alice C. Gallaudet, Ada B. Gallaudet; Bertha C., married Wm. H. Hildebrant, and had issue, Walter L. Hildebrant, Harold W. Hildebrant, Mildred Laing Hildebrant, John Wesley Hildebrant; Susie C., married Wm. R. Littell, Isaac Judson, Hobart Laing Littell.

JOHN LAING (of Capt. Benjamin) Born 1767, married Rhoda Lyon, had William; Daniel; Sarah, married Timothy Ross (of Samuel and Huldah); Harriet, m. Isaac Sopher, Benjamin S. Laing, born 1796 married Elizabeth Sopher and had ten children.

Probably the most public distinction of these was reached by Mary Laing, born September 22, 1795, who married Elijah Stites, born 1790, died 1811. Their children were: Benj. Laing Stites, Theophilus Stites, Sally Stites, Polly, who was born 1793, married Henry Smith; Lockey Stites married Hall Holton; Katy Ann Stites married Jesse Dayton, Gertrude Stites married Ephraim Holton.

Tradition prevails that in 1790 Mary Laing, the daughter of John Laing, first, and great aunt of Benjamin Laing, died in Aberdeen, Scotland, leaving a very large estate. Mrs. Von Ohl claims that "Captain" Laing never made any serious effort to establish his claim to a share of the property left by his great aunt, "because he was a man of wealth himself, and also because a trip to England was a big undertaking in those days." She says that in 1832 a man named Preston came from England or Scotland to look up the American heirs of "Captain" Laing, and that Preston was in communication with certain heirs of the "Captain," particularly Elijah Stites and William Sickles, who were made aware of an advertisement printed in the Scotland newspapers, which read as follows:

"Cause No. 93,617, the family—Elizabeth, Hester and Mary Laing, the three sisters of William Laing, Southampton, Gasport County; Gentlemen—Wanted for something to their advantage."

As a result of Preston's visit and the Scotland newspaper advertisement the petitioner says that a number of "Captain" Laing's American heirs contributed to a fund to investigate the question of their rights in the money held by the Scotland Court of Chancery, and that in the early seventies three representatives of the family went abroad to investigate the status of the case, but for some reason or other the matter was not prosecuted. As a direct descendant of "Captain" Laing, Mrs. Von Ohl finally became interested in the fortune alleged to be tied up in the Scotland courts, and engaged a Newark lawyer to initiate an action to obtain her portion of the estate. She recites that owing to the long time that has elapsed since the death of "Captain" Laing, and also because of the many points of practice in the Scotch courts for estates of such long standing, it will probably be several years before the case in which she will be the plaintiff and the estate of Laing, Court of Claims and Chancery, Edinburgh, Scotland, will be the defendant, can be begun as a stated suit.

This Polly Stites and Henry Smith were married in 1812. This Henry Smith, born 1790, was son of Simeon Smith, born 1762, married, 1782, Elizabeth Corbeal.

POISON BANDAGE YARN IS DENIED

RED CROSS REPUDIATES IT.

Like Story of Newark Pupils Refusing to Sing "Star Spangled Banner," Newest Canard Rests on Vague Rumors With Slim if Any Foundation. Denied in Oranges, Montclair and by Alleged Author.

Newark, March 30.—For the second time within a month New Jersey is suffering from a war "fake" affecting the patriotism of the state. The newest one was killed, however, much sooner than the one that pupils in a Newark school refused to sing the "Star Spangled Banner."

Prompt denial from the office of the American Red Cross in New York followed closely the publication of statements purporting to have been made at a meeting in Philadelphia by Albert W. Staub, director of the Red Cross, in which he was quoted as having said that bandages prepared in a New Jersey town had been found to have been treated with poisonous chemicals and ground glass.

Philadelphia informants got in touch with Mr. Staub and learned the account of the speech was much exaggerated.

Investigation of rumors that the incident occurred in Orange brought out the fact that some persons there have hearsay but no actual knowledge of the case. Mrs. Herbert Barry, chairman of the Orange branch of the American Red Cross, said she had heard the story, but understood the incident had occurred in New York.

Montclair residents had also heard the story. The version circulated there was that the small town referred to was not in New Jersey, but Illinois.

Officially Mr. Staub was quoted as having said, "Bandages prepared at Red Cross headquarters in a New Jersey town had been soaked in poisonous chemicals and then dried, so that when they were put to use they would kill the man on whom they were used."

"More than this," the original account went on to say, "some of the dressings had been filled with ground glass so that when they were used on open wounds they would cut and cause suppurating sores that would increase the sufferings of the patients." Mr. Staub was quoted as having said further that investigation had followed the discovery and that the department of justice had been informed of the case and "is about to institute prosecutions."

SHELL PLANT BLAST FATAL.

Four of Nine Employees Burned at Bridgeport Will Die.

Bridgeport, Conn., March 30.—Mystery and secrecy shroud an explosion at the Housatonic avenue branch of the Bridgeport Brass company, in which nine men were injured, four of them fatally. At the hospital to which the injured men were taken the authorities refused to give any information as to the condition of the victims.

The company makes bronze rifle bullets and shells. William R. Webster, vice president of the company, asked if it was suspected that the explosion was the result of a plot, replied that the cause was not known. He said he did not think any strangers had been seen about the plant; that, however, would be investigated.

ORDUNA ARRIVES SAFE.

Big Cunarder Was Three Days Overdue From England.

New York, March 30.—The Cunard liner Orduna arrived here today, relieving fears which had been entertained for her due to the fact that she was three days overdue. What had added to the apprehension was the report from London that inquiries had been made in the house of commons regarding a Cunard liner reported lost. All of the Cunarders were accounted for except the Orduna.

The Orduna brought about 130 passengers.

Road Patrol For Warren.

Belvidere, March 30.—Recommendation that the patrol system of keeping roads in repair be started in Warren county has been made to the board of freeholders by Joseph M. Rosenberry of the county courts. The board took the subject under advisement, and the indications are that it will probably be adopted.

Bid For Peace With Russia Seen In Hollweg's Speech.

Berlin, March 30.—If war comes between the United States and Germany the blame will not be Germany's.

This was the burden of a statement made in the reichstag by the imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann Hollweg, in the course of a lengthy speech on the international situation dealing chiefly with Germany's relations with the United States and with Russia.

There was nothing conciliatory in his remarks regarding America, nothing which in any way could be interpreted as the remotest "feeler" for modification, arbitration or mediation.

He asserted that Germany never did nor does now desire war with America and that she never had nor has now the "slightest intention to attack the United States."

He reiterated that unrestricted U-boat warfare was forced upon Germany by the British blockade. He pointed out using the English words, that President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing themselves had called the British blockade "illegal and indefensible." Germany, he said, waited eight months for the United States to make England observe the laws of humanity and international agreements.

"Then," he continued, "we took unrestricted submarine warfare into our own hands. Then we had to do so for our own defense."

With regard to Russia the chancellor told the reichstag that Germany does not propose to lend her assistance to any movement that might exist to bring czardom back to power.

BARS PACIFIST PARADE.

Washington Police Chief Also Refuses Loyalty March Permit.

Washington, March 30.—Major Raymond W. Pullman, superintendent of the Washington police force, has refused permits either for the pacifist or the loyalty parades projected for the opening day of congress. Thereupon the would be paraders consoled themselves with the mutual assurance that if one side did not get a chance to demonstrate the other was also denied the privilege of making sentiment through marching maybe something cheering.

The loyalty parade promoters at once relinquished all idea of a demonstration, but the pacifists announced that although they could not formally march to the capitol to express their opposition to America entering the war, they at least could go thither in little groups of tens and dozens, not marching, but calmly walking.

EQUIP MILLION MEN FOR FRANCE

Sen. Saulsbury Would Thus Have U. S. Enter War.

Washington, March 30.—Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, president pro tempore of the senate, has come out strongly in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war with Germany as soon as congress should declare a state of war to exist.

Mr. Saulsbury thought that for some months the United States could play only an economic part in the struggle. But this part should be played, in his opinion, to the utmost, while every effort in other directions was bent to equipping an American army for service in the fields of Europe. He suggested that a good form for this aid would be for the United States to take over the burden of feeding, clothing and maintaining 1,000,000 French soldiers.

"This country should declare that the treaties existing between the United States and Germany have been abrogated by the repeated gross violations of these treaties, as evidenced by the sinking of American ships and the taking of American lives, as well as by the refusal to permit the commerce of this country safely to use the high seas in the express way provided in the treaties of 1785 and 1799 and reaffirmed by the treaty of 1828 and all of which have been recognized by both countries, and notably by our own supreme court, as existent and in force," he said.

SEES EIGHT CENT MILK.

Commissioner Dillon Urges Support of Towner-Smith Bill.

New York, March 30.—John J. Dillon, commissioner of the state department of foods and markets, has issued a circular in which he appealed to the public for support of the Towner-Smith bill, now before the legislature, on the ground that its passage would mean milk for city consumers at 8 and 9 cents a quart. The circular said in part:

Farmers are getting about 4½ cents a quart for milk. Consumers pay 11 cents a quart to the dealers. The cost of delivery is 6½ cents a quart. The dealers have recently threatened to increase again the cost to the consumers unless the farmers consent to sell milk for less than the cost of production.

To sell milk at 8 cents a quart we must have a pasteurizing and bottling plant in the city. If the Towner-Smith bill becomes a law the department of foods and markets will establish a plant at once and deliver milk to your door at 8 cents a quart.

GOETHALS ACCEPTS PLACE.

Canal Builder to Take Charge of New Jersey Highways.

Trenton, N. J., March 30.—Major General George W. Goethals has accepted the newly created post of state engineer of New Jersey. His appointment was confirmed by the senate.

This set at rest all rumors as to the likelihood of General Goethals either entering President Wilson's cabinet or returning to Panama to take charge of the fortifications about the canal.

New Jersey is about to expend $15,000,000 on a new highway system, whose construction will be directly under General Goethals' supervision. The possibility of additional tunnels beneath the Hudson river are being seriously considered, and this work also will come under the supervision of the canal builder.

MAYORS ARE SIX TO ONE FOR UNIVERSAL TRAINING

New York, March 30.—In ratio of six to one, Mayors of cities throughout the United States record themselves in favor of universal military training. Ten cities in New Jersey reported in favor of the enactment of a universal training law, five were non-committal and one, Salem, was opposed, its position being based on the scruples of Quakers, who are in the majority.

These facts have been made public by the National Security League which recently canvassed the Mayors of 5,000 cities. Three hundred and seventy-eight replies were received; 200 were unreservedly in favor of the proposed law, thirty-four were opposed and 144 either were indifferent or reported a divided opinion.

In every part of the country the trend of opinion was found to be in favor of the project. New York is one of the States where no replies were unfavorable. Nebraska has the distinction of being the only State from which no favorable replies were received.

SINGS, WIFE WINS DIVORCE

Jersey City, March 30.—Chancellor Walker has granted an absolute divorce on the ground of desertion to Mrs. Alice Albes, of 60 Second street, Weehawken, former secretary to the late Elbert Hubbard, from Charles F. Albes, a New York cotton broker. Mrs. Albes testified before Special Master William Barricklo that her husband's belief that he was a second Caruso caused seven separations, including the final parting April 6, 1911. She stated that Albes neglected his business to take singing lessons.

ANARCHIST PLAYS BOMB JOKE ON CUBAN REBELS.

New York, March 30.—Why the rebels failed to destroy the city waterworks when they evacuated Santiago was explained in advices received at Cuban government offices here. The rebels, it was told, had engaged an anarchist to make bombs at so much a bomb. He made 1,000 words.

But when the bombs were lighted they proved to be defective in one particular. There was no explosive in them. When the rebels sought the manufacturer of the stage bombs he had fled.

FANWOOD

MAY ORGANIZE P.-T ASSOCIATION

There is a probability that a Parent-Teacher Association of the Fanwood township schools will be organized in a similar way that such organizations have been formed in neighboring towns and with the same intent, namely, that of giving parents an opportunity to converse with teachers concering their children's work in school.

After such an association is organized here it is also probable that a manual training course will be taught in school No. 1 for the boys, while the girls will be given the opportunity to take up sewing and cooking. All this upon consideration, seems to be a wise plan as it will prepare local students to some exient for their future work at high schools to which they may be sent. All neighboring high schools now have a home arts course and a manual training course for girls and boys respectively. These courses are greatly instructive and often directly prepare a student for his or her future life.

FIRE DESTROYS BOROUGH RESIDENCE

The Kean House on Prospect avenue, was destroyed by fire about five o'clock this morning. The place was occupied by Walter Williams and the fire started in the kitchen through the explosion of a kerosene oil lamp. The Defender Fire Company was quick to respond to the alarm, but the blaze had gotten under such a headway when the firemen arrived that it was impossible to save the building. The firemen were also badly handicap by the lack of water pressure.

Care of the Teeth

cannot be too strongly impressed upon the children. The done there need be no fear less the teeth be neglected in later life.

The Government recognizes the importance of one's having good teeth, and pays particular attention to the teeth of those who would enlist in the army or navy. A would-be recruit is not accepted unless he has at least twenty good teeth in his mouth. The importance of visiting a dentist at least twice a year should not be neglected.

WESTFIELD

BUSINESS MEN ON THE RANGE

Westfield's business men like most all of Westfield's good citizens are showing the calibre of their patriotism and desire to be prepared in their interest in learning to shoot. This section of the Westfield Rifle Club inaugurated by the activities of the Westfield Branch of the National Security League was organized last week and had their first tryout with the Springfields at the indoor range on Wednesday morning and afternoon of last week.

The result of the shooting as shown by the targets was mighty good evidence of the need of the practice. On Wednesday of this week fifty per cent of the men were on the job and the twenty-five members present went through the practice in splendid shape, showing wonderful improvement on the work of last week, evidencing a keen interest in the proper way to handle a rifle and to shoot well.

Every man present was kept busy either at loading, cleaning, scoring or shooting. The range officers had their hands full teaching and altogether it was a very busy day.

Health Inspector Barney developed into a good shot as also did Dr. Savoye and Dr. Laird—that augurs well for our Health Board. Now is the time for the rest of our good medicos to get in the running. Ed. Randolph found he could do better shooting with the battle sight than with the peep sight.

The bank men were very much in evidence, too, coming out in good numbers and doing pretty well in the shooting. The grocers, butchers, haberdashers, statioiners, druggists, dentists and other trades were represented, but there is room for more of them.

There was considerable trouble with the guns but that was not the fault of the men and it is expected that will be remedied very soon. The old ones, by reason of the great number of times the guns have been fired have become worn and do not always discharge the cartridge.

Dr. Savoye was of great assistance to the range officers in charge, helping them show the rookies how to do it and his frequent presence no doubt was an encouragement to them.

To Open Chapter of Red Cross

The special work committee of the Woman's Club composed of Mrs. E. H. Oswald, Mrs. T. H. Ludwig, Mrs. Douglas Smyth, Mrs. William Bachmann, Mrs. R. E. Perry, Mrs. R. R. Sweney, Mrs. P. W. Ellsworth, Mrs. H. L. Zabriskie and Mrs. Harold Francis are busily at work in canvassing for members for the local chapter of the Red Cross which is soon to be organized. This committee of ladies has so far met with great success and they are not every day looking for members. The people of the town who are already members will automatically become members of the local branch.

There are no active duties involved by enrolling: it only means supporting the American Red Cross. Every member of the family can join it. It is planned to have a campaign week beginning on Monday, April 9, during which time the ladies will have their temporary headquarters at Fritchey's Pharmacy, corner of Broad and Elm streets.

Toward the end of the campaign it is planned to have a mass meeting at which time the local chapter will be formally organized. Half of the membership fees will remain in the treasury of the local organization to take care of the local chapter.

Auto Runs Into Boy

While driving an automobile west on Broad street last night at 8:20 o'clock, Mrs. S. A. Emery, of 540 Highland avenue, ran into George Grant, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grant, of 134 East Broad street. Mrs. Emery was driving the car on Broad street and when near the Westfield Bakery the Grant boy stepped off the sidewalk in the street and before Mrs. Emery could stop the car it had hit the boy. Mrs. Emery picked the boy up and put him in the car and after getting his mother took them to the office of Dr. Charles Decker, who on investigation found that the boy was only slightly bruised. After being examined by the doctor Mrs. Emery took the boy and his mother to their home.

RECRUITS WANTED FOR UNITED STATES NAVY

The following is from the United States Marine Corps, Easter Recruiting Division, whose offices are at 26 East Twenty-third street, New York:

Sir: While it is not possible for the United States Marine Corps to open a recruiting office in your city, no recruits need hold back from enlisting because of expense. Under the law the postmaster is authorized to receive applications for the Marine Corps and to have them examined by a reputable physician without cost to the applicant. If he passes this examination I will forward at once his full transportation to New York. On his arrival here I will have him re-examined. If he fails to pass here he will be given full transportation home and not be under the slightest expense. If he passes he will be sent to the Recruit Depot at Charlestown, S. C., for training. From the moment the applicant leaves your city until he is either returned, or finally enlisted, the Government pays all railroad fares, boiling and meals.

The main qualifications are that he be between 18 and 35, with a minimum height of 65 inches and weight of 130 pounds when stripped, be either native-born or fully naturalized, and of sound physique. Candidates slightly underfeight may be accepted if otherwise desirable.

As the marines serve in the fleet, at the navy yards, as guards at Government radio stations and on foreign service, their opportunities for active service in time of war cannot be surpassed. They are almost invariably the first armed troops that are called into active service. It is worthy of note that for the last two years the record scores of the Navy with the 5-inch guns have been made by the marines of the New York and the Pennsylvania. These guns are the battleships, main reliance against sub-marine attack. With the rifle and machine gun the Marine National matches won twice and lost the third time by only six points to the Army. Our battleships, cruisers and gunboats have marine detachments varying from 18 to 100 men. The relations on board ship between the blue jackets and marines are of the best, for their duties aboard ship are much alike, and ever since the Spanish War they have fought side by side, a condition that has encouraged mutual respect.

I will be glad to give any further information that may be asked by an applicant, and am sure that the Postmaster will be of valuable aid to the Government in its crisis.

Very sincerely,
F. B. EVANS,
Captain, U. S. M. C., retired,
Recruiting Officer.

VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

Miss Lee will gladly answer any inquiry relative to domestic science, a stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

Both parfaits and mousses are particularly practical desserts, as they need no stirring during the freezing process. These simple and nourishing concoctions are, in general, light ice creams, having as their basis, custards, cream, whipped eggs reinforced with fruits, syrup and gelatine or combinations of these.

The most frequent base is whipped cream. The cream must be beaten until very stiff, flavored as desired and placed in a mold, which is then set in ice and rock salt for three or four hours. All ingredients must be carefully folded into the cream to preserve the moss-like texture of the frozen product. Gelatine can often be used with thin cream and the whip from thin cream as well.

When using fruits, it is generally better to use the juice or pulp, as solid bits of fruit become too much like small lumps of ice to be pleasant eating.

How to Mold These Desserts

While preparing the mixture, place the mold on ice, so that it will become thoroughly chilled. Then put in the mixture by spoonfuls, being careful that there is not a drop of liquid. Fill so that when the cover is put on some of the mixture will be forced out, otherwise to over-flowing, and cover the top of the mold with buttered paper (before putting on the lid) a little larger than the surface to be covered. If these directions are carefully followed, no salt can possibly enter the mold.

To Freeze

The ordinary proportions for freezing are three parts of ice to one of rock salt, but with these desserts two parts ice to one of salt will be better. Chop the ice finely, so that it is not much larger than the salt. When rock salt and ice about the same size are mixed, the salt melts the ice in order to unite with it. In this way the salt also dissolves, so that both solids are liquified. The heat that causes this to happen is drawn from the ice cream which is to be frozen, as it is by the extraction of heat that the freezing process takes place.

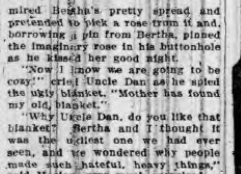
The following are a few recipes that will be found well-worthy of a trial:

Angel Parfait.

Boil three-quarters of a cupful of sugar and one-third of a cupful of water to 240 degrees F. Pour the syrup in a fine stream on the whites of two eggs, beaten light and dry and beat constantly meanwhile. Then beat occasionally until cold. Whip one cupful of chilled double cream and one cupful of thin cream until firm. Fold the cream and three-quarters of a tablespoonful of vanilla extract into the meringue, beat again and turn into a chilled mold. Cover so that it will be watertight and bury in ice and rock salt for three hours and a half. This is delicious served with a maple or chocolate sauce. If desired, chopped nut meats or powdered macaroon crumbs may be added to the parfait.

Caramel Parfait

Cook half a cupful of granulated sugar in a caramel, add half a cupful of boiling water and let cook until the caramel is dissolved and thickened slightly. At last when it was long past the usual bedtime upstairs they marched. Bertha high upon Uncle Dan's shoulder. He had not been to visit them since they moved into the country, so had to go all around and see the rooms. He admired Bertha's pretty spread, and pretended to pick a rose from it and, borrowing a pin from Bertha, pinned the imaginary rose in his buttonhole as he kissed her good night.



"Now I know we are going to be cozy," cried Uncle Dan as he spied the ugly blanket. "Mother has found my old blanket."

"Why, Uncle Dan, do you like that blanket?" Bertha and I thought it was the ugliest one we had ever seen, and we wondered why people made such hateful, heavy things," said Marion, very much surprised.

"If you had to sleep night after night out on the hard ground, which would you choose, this old blanket or Bertha's pretty one, sonny?" asked Uncle Dan.

"Well, that's what that blanket is for," said Uncle Dan. "I used to sleep under that blanket, sometimes all rolled up in it, when I was a soldier, in the civil war."

So after that Marion was quite content with the ugly blue and gray blanket that Uncle Dan had told him was the kind brave soldiers used.

THE UGLY BLANKET

If there was going to be a Hallowe'en party or the chestnuts were larger than you had ever seen and just begging to be picked up, or if for any other very good reason you let Jack-Frost catch you in the country last fall, you know how cold country houses are in the winter. Little boys and girls who have lived in great big windy country houses all their lives do not mind it so much as the city children, who are used to houses heated with bubbly steam pipes. Marion Lefarge and his sister had been living in town since they were baby things, and when Marion got sick and the doctor said they must stay out in the country all winter the children were very much disappointed. The first night they slept in the great roomy, old-fashioned beds it seemed the country was far colder than the North Pole. Long before morning the children met in the hall on their way to their parents' room. When they crawled, shivering, into their parents' bed Mrs. Lefrage felt of their cold bare feet and scolded.

"I just knew this drafty house will be the death of the children. They must have more covers over their beds."

In the morning she bought a pretty new comforter for the little girl's bed. It was light and fluffy and warm, with great pink roses and green buds all over it. The little girl (whose name was Bertha, by the way) was pleased as pleased could be with it, and almost cried to go to bed right away and sleep under her pretty new comforter. In high glee they ran to Marion's room to see what his could be like. Bertha shouting all the way.

"I just know mine's prettiest." There neatly folded across the white spread was the very ugliest old blue and gray blanket you can imagine. It was short and thick and heavy and rough. Marion was too much of a man to cry about a blanket but he was very much disappointed that his new cover was not so pretty as Bertha's.

While they stood looking at it, father's voice called up to them, "Come quick, children, Uncle Dan is here!" And the old blanket was quite forgotten as they flew downstairs to greet the cheeriest uncle that ever children had. He was not much older than Marion himself, or did not seem so when with the children. Uncle Dan never came without many nice things for the boys and girls in his pockets. He knew the best games, could fly a kite, and make whistles, or tell a story; he was, indeed, quite all that an uncle should be. So you cannot wonder that the children fell over one another trying to get to the bottom of the staircase. When they all came romping into dinner late that evening father looked at Marion's bright eyes and rosy cheeks and said, "Dan, you do the boy more good than all the doctors." But Uncle Dan only laughed his big, jolly laugh and shook his head. He always gave the first evening of his visit to the children, even slept in Marion's room, and a fine romp they had until sleepy time. At last when it was long past the usual bedtime upstairs they marched. Bertha high upon Uncle Dan's shoulder. He had not been to visit them since they moved into the country, so had to go all around and see the rooms. He admired Bertha's pretty spread, and pretended to pick a rose from it and, borrowing a pin from Bertha, pinned the imaginary rose in his buttonhole as he kissed her good night.

COLLEGE WOMEN PLAN BETTER FILMS CAMPAIGN

By United Press:

Long Beach, Cal., March 30.—Believing that the motion picture is the greatest factor in the education of the masses, the National Federation of College Women today decided upon "Better Films" as its chief work for the ensuing year. A vigorous campaign in behalf of better films is planned, and the plans also include formation of a bulletin service to advise women's clubs throughout the nation regarding the various films as they are released.

Mrs. Myra Kingman Miller, president of the Federation, named Mrs. Harriet H. Barry, of Monrovia, California, as national chairman of the "Better Films" department. Her plans for the project will be one of the important features presented at the Biennial National session of the Federation in Portland, Oregon, July 10-13, inclusive.

WASH DAY ITEMS

Colored things washed for the first time should always have either a little salt or vinegar put into the water. These help to keep the dye fast. But some things, notably children's white drill sailor jumpers, which have blue collars and cuffs attached, shed their dye till the end of the cleaner. Many of us doubtless have been horrified with these little garments getting streaked with blue, no matter how careful you have been to put salt in the water. If the jumpers are washed very quickly, then hung up "dripping," by their tails, this allowing any fugitive dye to run off the collars and cuffs without coming in contact with the white portions, this will not happen.

A little alum in the rinsing water used for children's clothes makes all materials slightly smoother instead of bigger, should they catch fire.

A HINT TO MOTHERS

Keep the children from wanting to run and play in the street all the time by giving them something to do that will interest them, such as a little plot of ground where they may raise flowers or vegetables, either for pleasure or profit. The child will work as well again as one that is forced to labor simply from interest. Let the children have things of their very own, and if these things can be sold and they want to sell them, let them do so and have the profit thus derived. Encourage them to take up new plants and each year add to their stock in hand. Lend them along interest by interest, and keep their thoughts on right things, and they will not go astray when they are older.

NEEDLEWORK NOTES

If the drawn part of linen is worn, sew a piece of insertion over the worn drawnwork and cut out the drawnwork underneath.

If a spool unwinds too rapidly as the sewing machine is used, rub a piece of soap across the surface of the spool of silk or thread. This will regulate the unwinding.

If baby's undershirts shrink you can enlarge them, and at the same time improve their appearance by crocheting pieces to the sleeves, necks and down the fronts. The shirts should be bound first, and the crocheting done with a fine hook and Saxony yarn and the edges finished with tiny scallops.

This simple idea is a great help with wash dresses, and especially with the children's dresses. Before you hem the bottom of a skirt that is likely to shrink, run a tuck in the hem on the wrong side, with a long stitch nearly at the top of the hem, then run hem in usual way. Be sure not to take stitches of tuck with the hemming. If it shrinks the tuck can easily rip the long stitches and let down without undoing the hem.

RED CROSS HAS 150,000 NEW MEMBERS

Since the break in relations between the United States and Germany, more than 150,000 new members have been enrolled in the Atlantic Division of the American Red Cross. During the last two months the total membership of this division, which includes the States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Delaware, has been increased to more than 310,000. These States now have more than half the entire Red Cross enrollment in the United States.

Thirty-four new Red Cross chapters have also just been organized in the Atlantic Division as a result of the war stimulus. Seven of these have been formed in New York, thirteen in New Jersey, six in Pennsylvania and four in Connecticut. The new chapters in New York State are in Ithaca, Auburn, Little Falls, Gloversville, Newburgh, Suffern, Saranac Lake, Brockport, Elizabethtown and Olean.

The purpose of the renewed effort to obtain additional members is to give to the American Red Cross an organization equal to the great tasks soon to be put upon it. Only through a large membership and an adequate income can the American Red Cross prepare for military duties in addition to administering civilian relief both in Europe and America. In Russia, Germany, England and Japan there are more than a million members in the Red Cross. The American Red Cross is seeking a membership equally as large.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Dry flour applied with a newspaper is an excellent and easy way to clean tinware.

New tinware will not rust if greased with a little fresh lard and baked in the oven before it is used.

When dropping muffin dough into the tins first dip the spoon into boiling water and the dough will not stick to the spoon.

A pad of thick paper laid over the edge of each step under the carpet will prevent it from wearing and it will last much longer.

ISABELLA DAUGHTERS TO MEET

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the ether discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shrivelled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.—Adv.

COST OF LIVING HIGHER IN FOURTEENTH CENTURY

By United Press:

Seattle, Wash., March 30.—A carpenter in the fourteenth century received a wage of only 12 cents a day against $4.50 today. Yet the cost of living was relatively higher than it is today.

The statement is that of Prof. R. M. Garrett of the University of Washington, who also recites a list of food costs taken from the accounts of the expenditures of the Earl of Derby, later King Henry IV of England, as he was about to embark in 1390 on a campaign against the Lithuanians.

A carpenter in those days for his daily wage of 12 cents could buy one pound of butter, two pounds of cheese, a pound of salt, two pounds of flour, one dozen and a half eggs, a chicken and a pound of rice. A carpenter of today would have to pay $2.60 for this bill of goods, but it wouldn't eat up his entire daily wage, as it would that of the carpenter of 1390. The latter per carpenter would still have $1.90 left. So, argues Professor Garrett, while the worker of today pays more for necessities, he gets much more, comparatively, for his labor. So the times are better.

In 1390 eggs were nine cents a gross. The Earl of Derby paid 30 cents for 300 eggs that today would cost him from $12.50 to $14. For 14 pounds of butter that would now cost him $7 he paid a shilling, or 25 cents. Rice brought by way of Venice from the East cost a shilling for 10 pounds. It costs a dollar today.

The one shilling exception to the general rise in prices that has occurred since that time is sugar. In 1390 it cost 36 cents a pound, and now it retails at 8 cents. Here are some other prices taken from the Earl Derby's accounts:

A fine white horse, $25; ale, 2 to 4 cents a gallon; best wine, 5 cents a quart; mutton, 65 cents a carcass; beef, $8.75 to $7.50 a carcass; vinegar, 10 cents a gallon; dates, 7 cents a pound; blankets, 32 cents a yard.

PARISIAN NOVELTY SHOW HERE MONDAY

Jean Bedini's Parisian Novelty, entitled "Puss-Puss," will race along the lane of fun at the Plainfield Theatre, Monday matinee and night, April 2. Jean Bedini is an experienced hand in producing and creating novelties, and has earned for himself, the sobriquet, "The Ziegfeld of Burlesque," in constructing "Puss-Puss," he emphatically barred everything that of merriment.

The "Kitten Chorus," will be a genuine hit and there will be so many specialties in the offering that the spectator will sit in utter amazement throughout the gala carnival

In addition today Marie Doro, the dainty Paramount star, appears in a comedy drama, "The Lash," a story of Jewish folk, their trials and their joys.

"DAUGHTER OF THE GODS" TODAY AND TOMORROW

POETIC NOCTURNE DANCE OF THE SEA NYMPHS IN WILLIAM FOX'S MILLION DOLLAR PICTURE BEAUTIFUL, "A DAUGHTER OF THE GODS."

At the Plainfield Theatre today and tomorrow, matinee daily

"A Daughter of the Gods," opened at the Plainfield Theatre yesterday for a three-days engagement. Every human passion that has part in the spectacle, the conservation of every white virtue and black hatred; the pure beauty of scene and person, and neolian song, of the winds and the impressive sweep and diapason of the snow-ridged seas; the whimsical calm movement and song of the ever-busy gnomes, the sheer appeal of the glad, triumphant spirit of the good that conquers and endures—the inspiration of the song and story—all these vividly are given by the magic of the music. It, therefore, may be accepted, that William Fox's million dollar film has an attraction in both a supremely arrayed art exhibit and a grand opera featuring the "most perfect woman in the world."

Gifted with an inherent musical ability and an attractive personality, Louise Soreidses, the talented pianist at Proctor's Theatre, adds much to the enjoyment of the patrons of this popular amusement center. She was born in Boston, Mass., and her early schooling was greatly influenced by the cultured and musical atmosphere of that city. Her musical education was gained under the leadership of the skilled teachers in the Boston Conservatory of Music.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

At the Strand

The ever popular portrayer of Latin characters, George Beban, will be seen at the Strand Theatre in "The Bond Between," a photo-drama of which he is the glorious well as the star. In this new play he enacts the role of Papa Duval, a Frenchman living with four cronies in a French restaurant in New York City. Mr. Beban has carried throughout the picture a true Bohemian atmosphere of the real artist's section of New York. One of the unusual scenes is the entire basement and first floor of a typical New York boarding house, included in the cast are: Colin Chase, Vola Vale, Mrs. Buehler, John Burton, Nigel de Brulier, Paul Weigel, Eugene Pallette, W. H. Bainbridge and Signor Buzzi. Some thrilling and interesting pictures of the Pendleton (Oregon) Round-Up will also be presented. Victor Moore will be seen for the first time in his latest and funniest comedy entitled "His Military Figure." Another new picture of interest is an educational study showing the evolution of agricultural machinery. The Topical Review contains the very latest news pictures edited daily.

PATRIOTISM SHOWN BY PUBLIC SERVICE

Will Put National Welfare Above Any Personal Interest, Says McCarter

President Thomas N. McCarter, of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, today issued the following statement:

The directors of the Public Service gas, electric and railway companies at their monthly meeting held yesterday afternoon, gave consideration to the effect a call to arms in defense of the nation would have upon the company by virtue of the probability of a large number of its 13,000 employes offering themselves for war service. Because of the activities of the New Jersey National Guard, two regiments of which have already been ordered out, the board voted a leave of absence for one year, with full pay, to Brigadier-General Edwin W. Hine, assistant to the President, so that he will be in readiness, on notice, to assume whatever obligations his position in the giant might bring to him in the development of the present crisis. How many other men of the rank and file may be affected by a general call to arms there is, of course, no way of estimating at the present time.

Last summer when the national guard was sent to the Mexican border about one hundred Public Service men responded and the operating companies by which they were employed carried those men on their payrolls during the period of their federal service and reserved their jobs for them during their absence.

Since last summer conditions have been materially changed. Not only have operating costs been greatly increased due to higher prices for materials and labor, but the corporation's contribution to the expenses of the government has been substantially enhanced through the operation of the federal corporation tax laws, so that the amount it now pays through this channel is largely in excess of the sum it expended last year for the wages of its soldier employes.

Public service is engaged in serving the people of the State—about four-fifths of the population. It's activities are of a character that must be carried on in war time as well as in times of peace. The industries of the State are to a large extent dependent upon the companies for power, for fuel, for transportation of employes and at least a portion of these industries will be drawn upon to the full measure of their resources to furnish the government with munitions and other supplies in case war is declared. It is essential that these industries shall be kept going.

Public Service stands ready to perform whatever duty, patriotism or loyalty to the Government may demand. It will bear its share of whatever burdens war may bring, always putting country before self-interest.

A Correction

In yesterday's advertisement of the Van Dyk Tea Store which appeared in the Courier-News it stated that sugar sales must be accompanied by at least a $1.00 purchase of spices, extracts, cocoa or baking powder. This was an error. It should have read that sugar sales must be accompanied by a 10c purchase of any of the above mentioned articles.—Adv.

BILLIKOFF HERE ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Will Address Meeting in Columbus Club With Rabbi Wise of New York

Jacob Billikoff, of Kansas City, who has offered to give $10,000 for every $10,000 contributed to the Jewish War Sufferers Fund, will come here with Rabbi Wise on Tuesday night, Judge Newcorn announced this morning.

"The circumstances of the Jewish people for whom we ask relief are the most harrowing imaginable, Judge Newcorn declared.

A proper description of the suffering of the Jews cannot adequately be conveyed in a word picture. All one need do, however, is to consider people starving and unable to get food of any kind, to realize that the cry of the war sufferers should compel the action of all, who can alleviate their sufferings.

"Jews throughout the United States are giving generously to the relief fund, but they cannot give as much as is needed, therefore it is necessary to ask everyone for a contribution.

"I hope that our effort to raise $10,000 here will be successful, and I am sure that those who aid this worthy charity will in the wisdom of Divine Providence, receive a generous return for what they give.

"Dave" stated this morning that he has about completed his studies in law school, which he took up while working for this paper, and in order to give more time to preparation for the coming examination he has felt that in justice to himself and the Courier-News he should give up his position rather than neglect his duty to this paper.

QUEEN CITY HOTEL REOPENS TONIGHT

Remodeled, Renovated and Refurnished in Modern Style

The Queen City Hotel, which changed hands a few weeks ago and has been closed since March 1st to be remodeled, repaired and refurnished will be opened to the public tonight.

Plainfielders and the public in general were very much pleased with the Queen City Hotel as it was before the change in management, but there has been a great change made by John A. Staats, the owner and present manager. Hot and cold running water has been installed in all rooms and many new bath rooms have been added. The house has been entirely repapered and painted throughout. New woodwork and mirrors in the dining room and office, new furniture and carpets in every room, new dishes and glassware of the latest designs, the finest and best linen and silverware, new draperies, curtains and chandliers, are features of the newly remodeled house.

Mr. Staats takes a great deal of pleasure in announcing that all work and furnishings were supplied by Plainfield firms. The entire hotel furnishings were supplied by A. E. Force & Co., except the furniture.

C. W. Dickey was the architect and Miss Myrtel C. Mink the interior decorator.

Plainfielders should take a great deal of pride in having a strictly first-class hotel here and should support and boost it all they can. It is very essential as well as convenient to have a hotel and restaurant of this high standard here for the convenience of ourselves and the community at large.

SPECIAL MUSIC BY GRACE CHURCH CHOIR

It is a composition entirely devotional in character, provides a vehicle for the religious thought of the hour, and undoubtedly created a suitable spiritual atmosphere for the solemn events of this holy season. As usual the service is at 8 o'clock.

On Easter Day at the same hour the grand Easter festival service of the church will be held. The best Easter music will be provided and the rector will preach. On April 15 the closing service of the series will be the presentation by the choir of an Easter cantata.

Representatives for fourteen State big schools competed for the honors, which are given each year by Colgate University.

Mr. Dunavan is the consistent winner of high place in every oratorical or public speaking contest for the last two years. He started his success with second place in the alumni prize speaking contest last year. His training in public speaking was with Harold Fraser Biddle, who is head of the Department of History in the high school.

The contemporaneous subject last night was: "Resolved, That the army war college plan for universal military service should be adopted." The order of speaking was determined by lot, each speech six minutes.

In providing this contest in extemporaneous speech for high school students of New Jersey, the Department of public speaking of Colgate University is but giving larger scope to traditions of half a century. In addition to fostering the highest type of Christian moral and physical culture, Colgate has long afforded opportunity for the cultivation of the art of expression. The department offers seven courses in public speaking, ranging from the "fundamentals" of elocution to intercollegiate debate; holds annually six contests in debate and oratory, with prizes aggregating $400; is a member of the Intercollegiate Peace Association, and Cleric Oratorical League.

AMERICANS DISPLAY THE FLAG MONDAY

In view of the fact that Congress will convene Monday, at which time President Wilson is expected to address that body on what will probably be one of the most important sessions in the history of the country, it is suggested that every loyal American display the flag at his home and place of business as a declaration of loyalty to the country and as an indication that he stands behind the President in defense of the nation.

President Wilson is expected to address Congress at noon Monday, when he will set forth his views as to the attitude this country should take in the impending crisis with Germany. There are at present many American flags displayed throughout the city and borough, but a general compliance with the suggestion, it is believed will meet with hearty response on the part of every true American.

BUSINESS MEN'S MEETING NEXT MONDAY EVENING

The Plainfield Business Men's Association will hold the regular meeting next Monday evening, April 2, at eight o'clock sharp, in Exempt Firemen's Hall, 109 Park avenue. J. D. Loiseaux, a member of the association, will make an address on "Local Co-operation in Business."

RECRUITS WANTED FOR COMPANY K

Local Military Organization Also Needs Motor Truck for Active Service

Although Company K has left the city, the work of recruiting for the organization will continue and every effort will be made to bring the company up to its full war strength. The recruiting will be in charge of Lieut. A. R. Phillips and Private Willard. They will be at the armory every day to meet and confer with prospective members. Now is the time for young men to show their love of country and patriotism and at the same time get the benefit of good training.

The veterans of the company will meet at the armory Monday night to consider and devise ways and means for helping recruits and otherwise stimulating interest in the organization. Company K will need a motor truck and any movement started in the interest of securing such a machine will be greatly appreciated.

It has been suggested that some method be adopted to relieve the families of soldiers in Company K who have been called away. With the head of the family absent there will no doubt be a number of families who will need some assistance and it is expected that steps looking to that end will be taken promptly. All of the members of the local company were mustered into the Federal service yesterday and they are still at Elizabeth expecting orders at any minute which will bring them into active service in some part of the county or State.

After going over the ground the Freeholders committee decided that a bridge should be built. The Common Council will be so advised at its meeting on Monday night.

MORE AMERICANS IMPERILLED OR LOST ON SUBMARINED SHIPS

By United Press:

Washington, March 31.—More Americans were imperilled, and some perhaps lost, in an unwarned torpedoing of the British Booth freight liner Crispin, and the British steamer Snowden Range. Many of the Americans aboard the two vessels were from Baltimore and Philadelphia.

PACIFISTS TURN ABOUT TO FINANCE WAR

By United Press:

New York, March 31.—The strongest pacifist influence in America today suddenly turned from efforts to prevent war to means of financing it. At once it became known that a plan put forward by the American Committee on War Finance, headed by Amos Pinchot, to place the whole financial burden of the war on persons whose incomes of more than $5,000 per year has been endorsed in high Government circles.

The greatest significance was placed on the sudden action of leading pacifists because of belief that they are in close communication with Washington leaders. While they insisted they still "hope for peace" their action indicates that their "hope is practically dead."

The committee has called for signatures to a pledge to demand legislation for a special war income tax, on all incomes over $5,000. The schedule calls for a tax of 2½ per cent. on all incomes of $5,000 to $10,000 a year. It calls for legislation limiting net profits on all war supplies to 2½ per cent., and provides that no wholesale or retail dealers shall sell foodstuffs or other necessities at a greater profit than 6 per cent. during the war.

GERMANY MAY HAVE RECOGNIZED STATE OF WAR

By United Press:

Washington, March 31.—Germany may have recognized that a state of war exists between her and the United States, according to an interpretation today by the State Department, of Count Foreign Minister Zimmerman's speech. This was based on the published quotation of Zimmerman's remark, saying: "It (the United States) cannot deny us the right to seek allies when it has itself practically declared war on us."

The State Department would not interpret the remark as full official recognition of a state of war, but said the remark "might be" so interpreted.

This angle of the international situation probably will be injected into President Wilson's speech to Congress Monday. He can argue that Germany already holds that a state of war exists, basing it on the Zimmerman statement, and that hence there need be little argument as to the fact of the situation.

The State Department pointed out in answer to Zimmerman that Count von Bernstorff must have known in the middle of January that a break in relations between the two countries was inevitable, in view of Germany's submarine campaign; that he tried to avoid a break, but though Germany had a three-day period between her submarine war declaration and the actual break, he made no move to avoid the apparent coming rupture.

ANOTHER GERMAN RAIDER IN ATLANTIC SINKS SHIPS

By United Press:

Rio de Janeiro, March 31.—Two hundred and sixty-five men and two women survivors of eleven steamships and sailing vessels sunk in the Atlantic brought into port today another amazing German raider story. They arrived on the French bark Cambronne.

The new German raider, called the Sea Adder, they said, is a sailing vessel with auxiliary gasoline engines flying the Norwegian flag and heavily armed.

The survivors said many of those aboard the eleven ships destroyed had been drowned or killed in the sinking of the vessels.

The raider left Germany December 22. Most of her victims were overhauled and sunk in the vicinity of Trinidad. Her present whereabouts are unknown.

BRITISH TAKE FIVE CITIES IN FRANCE

(By Wm. Phillips Simms, with the British army in France), March 31.—British troops today swept forward in a mile advance over a seven-mile front in the Hendicourt region, seriously menacing the important German base city, San Quentin.

Five cities were captured in this sweep toward the Hindenburg line. The ground gained constitutes an advance of a mile and a half over the recently-won line of battle against the Prussians.

The towns occupied by the British in the advance today were Hendicourt, St., Emilie, Vermand, Marteville, and Soyecourt.

TIMELY VISIT UPSETS PLANS OF BURGLARS

When George H. Beiser, of this city, visited his hotel, the Everett House, at Sparta, on Thursday, he could not have selected a more opportune time, for if he had delayed the trip until yesterday he would have found all his silverware, table linen and canned goods had been stolen. Upon his arrival at the hotel he was startled to find canned goods peciced up in the kitchen ready to be moved. A lighted lamp was on the floor.

Going into the dining room he found silverware and linen piled up on a table all ready to be taken away. Mr. Beiser then concluded that thieves had been at work. This belief was confirmed when he found a stranger in the office of the hotel. In answer to a question as to why he was there the man said he was looking for something to eat. While explaining to Mr. Beiser how he effected an entrance to the hotel, the burglar made his escape, but the owner is still shaking hands with himself when he thinks how fortunately he timed his visit to Sparta.

APPEAL FOR FLAG FUND FINDS READY RESPONSE

Impressed by the appeal of Francis L. Montgomery for a fund with which to erect a city flag pole opposite the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, Miss Mary Gerken, in a letter to Mr. Montgomery, says she will be willing to contribute $1 to the fund and also gives the name of Henry Covey, of this city, as another contributor.

QUARTET CHOIR WILL SING "THE CRUCIFIXION"

A special Lenten musical service will be held in the First Methodist Church tomorrow evening. The oratorio "The Crucifixion" by Stainer will be sung by a double quartet, and a male quartet will sing the offertory. This oratorio is one of the oldest of the Lenten oratorios, and while it may have been sung many times still its message is always refreshing and inspiring especially at this season of the year.

The following comprise the membership of the double quartet: Laura Gustafson and Lella Watson, sopranos; Grace Hornby and Esther Hofer, contraltos; Alexander MacGowan and Elmer Cutting, tenors; Edgar Cole and William Smith, baritones. These special services are given under the direction of Clifford A. Brasher, organist and director. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

We are hoping that everybody will help the boys in this work and encourage them in their effort to raise $50.00 to support the Y. M. C. A. work in the country, State, and especially special work done for the soldiers on the foreign field, and for what special effort might be put forth for our own soldiers who have been called to duty in case of need.

Whatever you have on hand that you know can be sold as junk please be ready to give to the boys as they call at your house; or if we are notified in advance, either by 'phone or postal card, we will make special effort to call at any time you may suggest.

The boys will appreciate your co-operation and you will be glad to have had a share in the work which is benefiting large numbers of boys and men in the country and State as well as in our own city. Start to gather all the old rubber you have about and give it to the boys on Saturday, April 7.

This is the Formal Announcement of the Spring Season In

Rothberg's Suits and Topcoats

But there is nothing formal about the Clothes.

They embrace every size, shape, style and point of view that Plainfield men demand and Rothberg initiative can supply.

There was an inebriate in a New York bar who said he could whip any man in the room. Nobody disputed it. Then he said he could whip anybody in New York City. Nobody questioned that. Then he extended the challenge to New York State, and got away with it. Finally he said he could whip any man in the U. S. A., and a little fellow from New Jersey knocked him down. Then the man got up and admitted he had made a mistake in trying to cover too much territory. This is the hardest advertisement for us to write because we have so much territory to cover. But we also have a whole season ahead of us. So we'll just cut it short with this single statement:

"That in spite of a world-wide shortage of woolens, we have assembled for this Spring the greatest line of fabrics ever shown in the Rothberg Store, and a collection of models in both Topcoats and Suits which no other store in Plainfield can beat, for variety or style—that's a modest statement and not covering any more territory than we know we can handle."

THE BIGGEST THING ABOUT THIS FOUR
Is the Buick "Valve in Head" Motor

Very little actual argument springs from price. The most obvious, and yet the most erroneous, way to sell these new four-cylinder model Buicks would be to call attention to their low cost. In reality, it is the last reason in the world why you should buy a Buick, although a reason that has its appeal to a great many people. The best reason in the world why you should buy it is because it has a Buick Valve-in-Head Motor.

ALL IN THE VIEWPOINT

All the quarrels, disputes, hostilities and even the war between nations may be directly traceable to some misunderstanding between two individuals, which spreads until it involves a few or many others depending upon its importance. Then after awhile the real cause of the difference is lost to sight, but the fight goes on, and sometimes the belligerents do not really know what they are fighting about. This general observation may apply to affairs in the home circle, as well as to war among nations. It all depends upon the viewpoint. For nearly three years all Europe has been in the maelstrom of war which threatens to involve the whole world, and yet not a soldier in either army knows the slightest reason why he should be hurling deadly missiles at his opponent. He only knows that to do so is the order of his commander. This fact has much to do with opening the eyes of the rank and file of people so they will begin to ask why some one man who differs with one of another country for a real or imaginary cause should possess the power to order all the people of his domain under arms, and to stand up for targets to be shot at by others with whom they have no quarrel. This question has found its way among the Russian people and the result has been to depose the autocrat who could order them, under arms, with or without their consent, and a new form of government is under way in that country. The present war has progressed beyond the point where human life is regarded for a moment and human beings are moved about the field of battle the wooden pawns on a chess board and with as little feeling on the part of the commanders as they would have in a game of chess, regardless of human life and the flesh that feels hurts as sensitively as their own. Viewed from each opposing faction in the narrow sense, the other side is regarded as in the wrong by those in authority, regardless of the selfish, unwarranted motives of those who promoted the war. At that stage of the conflict the carnage must go on to a finish in order to justify the loss of blood and treasure. The present conflict has developed into a war between the classes and the masses—the autocratic rule of despots and their subjects, and is the penalty that the world has to pay for permitting the existence of militarism. It shows that each nation in order to be safe, must be as strong in military equipment and prepared-ness as every other one, for militarism is no respecter of persons. It is a relic of barbarism when uncivilized peoples took anything they wanted from their weaker neighbors. It necessitated preparedness of all peoples who would save their own from incursions of greedy or envious highway robbers. The advance of civilization has not eliminated warfare or highway robbery among nations but, on the contrary, has developed the most satanic engines of destruction of human life, against which no argument can prevail, except equal preparedness in the highly-refined art of war. It is truly said that we must fight the devil with fire and have a little better fire than he has in order to win the cause for the right.

WOMEN IN PREPAREDNESS

One feature of the present history of this country that is not fully appreciated, is the activity and the genuine service done by the women in making the United States ready for the emergency which will be very apparent with the outbreak of war, which now seems imminent. Plainfield women have been particularly active in marshalling their forces for activity of one sort or another to take the places of men needed. For two years past Plainfield women have devoted time and effort to providing raiment and comfort bags for soldiers in hospitals in war-stricken Europe, and now that the call has come for a continuation of these efforts, but for use at home they are still the loyal, self-sacrificing ones whose sympathies are always touched by the note of sorrow or suffering. There is hardly any community of the size of Plainfield which enlists the interest and energies of women more thoroughly in the cause of humanity more than this city. One touch of sorrow makes the whole world kin and Plainfield women have responded to the call of the suffering in a noble way that must commend itself to all people. But for them many of the deserving which have been provided for the war sufferers would have been lacking and many a poor fellow would have gone to the grave without realising that someone thought of him as one of the great mass of humanity that has been poured into the vortex of death for a principle, for home and country. It has in some cases been the only recognition that he was aware of for giving his life for his country. His country has not been unmindful of his service, but too often the chapters of appreciation are placed on the head of the homebstone, rather than on the head of the hero while he was living. Now that the interest in humanity has centered itself upon the needs nearer home the Plainfield women are renewing their devotion to the cause of humanity by preparing for emergencies nearer home. Father, brother and sons are thinking of the call that may be made on them and the women are training for national service in its broadest meaning through all the activities open to them. They cannot bear arms, but they can exercise a maternal devotion that is inherent in their nature in the alleviation of suffering. The thing that is most apparent to the observer is that the women, not only of Plainfield, but all over this great country, have been preparing for emergency, in stimulation of patriotism and in efficiency. The woman was last at the crucifixion of the Saviour and the first at His resurrection, and so through all the ages the boulder has been pertinent:

"Blessings on the hand of woman."

HE KEPT US OUT OF WAR

President Wilson owes his re election to the Presidency in no small measure to the people who, regardless of politics, voted for him under the slogan "He kept us out of war." President Wilson has kept us out of war and in doing so has been criticized harshly by the war people, and in some measure has been criticized by those who do not want war—for being too patient as he has. Now, however, President Wilson is confronted with only one alternative, and that is to lay down the law to that country which has tempted a peaceful nation beyond the limits of patience by wantonness, ruthlessness, defiance of all humane instincts, and taunted us into the attitude for war. When President Wilson has stood all he can of this sort of thing, after keeping us out of war for two years, it is time for those who voted for him on that ground to get behind him and give him all possible support. He will say some things next Monday to Congress which will make the whole world sit up and listen. This is not the time to listen to pacifists, nor for them to take the time of listeners to reel off their plaints which urge a cowardly submission to the continuation of the crime of the seas, so long as an inexcusable autocracy which is responsible for this crime feels disposed to keep it up. Pacificism savors very strongly of pro-Prussianism, and whether all the pacifists are pro-Prussian or not the sympathies of those who may not be in sympathy with it are counted by that class to help oppose what the real Americans are doing for the patriotism of their country. This is the time to think of the words of a patriot of the Revolution, who said: "We must hang together or we shall hang separately."

EDITORIAL NOTES

Some men believe in the model town movement so strongly that they are willing to serve on a committee that never meets.

The cooks and waiters of Washington have no doubt had a hard time through the inauguration season, but they should reflect on how much more overworked the barkeepers were.

Intense enthusiasm is manifested for the home vegetable garden this year, of course on the understanding that the wives will do the weeding.

The public would view with some calmness the burning up of shipments of potatoes provided they were owned by food speculators and weren't insured.

It is still permitted to speak the English language in Congress without asking permission of any European king.

The Pacifists would highly approve of the army if it practised Delsarte and was armed with popguns.

Anyway the "leak" investigation has given would be speculators a more intelligent idea of where they can set at leaks and take advantage of them.

It is pointed out that $40,500,000 in gold bars that J. P. Morgan imported would be nearly half a dollar a piece should he decide to dispose of it by a general distribution. Our chance at a share is hereby offered for about one millionth of a mill.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

New Jersey to the Bar

To the Editor of the Courier-News:

A few days ago while awaiting in the smoking room of one of our hotels the arrival of a person with whom I had a business appointment I heard a statement made that, it is to be hoped, has no foundation in fact:

At a nearby table a party of four men were seated, enjoying, apparently, their after-dinner cigars. After a short interval of silence, during which strict attention was given to the serious business of getting their cigars properly under way, one of them said, addressing his neighbor on the right: "Well, Frank, what do you think of the war situation today? I don't mean its European aspect, for that concerns us not at all, but how it looms up in regards to American intervention. What do you think of your President's stand in the matter?"

The man addressed as Frank—a big man, gray of hair and shrewd of eye, apparently a successful business man—did not at once reply; instead, he began to turn his cigar slowly around between his fingers; all his attention seemed to be fixed on the little mound of silvery ash above its red rim of fire. After a few contemplative whiffs he answered his friend's question, saying: 'George, these are mighty serious days, and from personal experience I will say that it is a wee bit dangerous for any person holding pro-German opinions or sympathies to give audible expression to them anywhere within the boundary lines of this State. Maybe I am wrong, but if history speaks with the tongue of truth and the voice of the 'man on the street' speaks the language of his heart, then I am constrained to believe that the hand of Americanism prevailing in this State today is much the same as that which predominated during the days of the American Revolution.

"Then, if I have read the story of those days aright, that Honorable King of England, George III, found far, far more sympathy and aid here in his efforts to keep his rebellious 'colonies of North America' beneath the bondage of his despotic will than did General Washington in his heroic struggle to set them free. The well-armed, well-fed, well-clothed Hessian troopers of the King found a warmer welcome there than did Washington's ill-armed, half-starved ragged 'Legions of Liberty.'

"Then, as now, the secret, open warfare of the 'talking treachery' the power of an European King was used to humiliate us. They, as now, our ships were sunk, our citizens imprisoned or murdered, and our property destroyed. And it seems to me that today, William Hughes from New Jersey no greater measure of sympathy in his defense of the American principles of mercy, justice and freedom than was doled out to Washington one hundred and forty-one years ago."

The arrival of my party and the taking up of the business in hand prevented me from hearing any answer to his statement.

What should have been the answer, oh, ye wise men and sachems of New Jersey?

Answers W. Delarobe Anderson

To the Editor of the Courier-News:

I beg to take exception to remarks of W. Delarobe Anderson regarding the proposed State police that have appeared twice in these columns. Mr. Anderson's premises are as incorrect as his conclusions are inconsidered. Permit me briefly to review the history of such organizations in other States.

The most notable example is the State constabulary of Pennsylvania. The rural districts of that State as well as certain of the manufacturing centres, were in a state of terrorism, due, perhaps, to the introduction of large numbers of "foreigners," who were both ignorant and regardless of the law. Shootings, knife affrays and hold-ups flourished in the country; riots and disorder increased in the cities. The constables and deputies, by which Mr. Anderson sets so much store, were jeered at and disregarded. Some remedy had to be found.

Into this confusion of unchecked crime and license four mounted troops were introduced in 1906. Arrests were made in large numbers the first years, decreasing finally as the lawless elements appreciated the earnestness and efficiency of the police. Arrests were made without the use of firearms, as a rule, but the officer invariably "got" his man.

The State police took charge of such situations as, one, to cite but one instance, in which the Philadelphia City Reserves, the crack infantry organization, had been ingloriously put to rout by the street car rioters. They never interfere in labor troubles unless there is disorder. The disorderly fear them; the law-abiding citizen respects them and calls upon them in his need.

The only other instances of such an organization in this country are the Texas Rangers, so glorious memory, and the New York watershed police; in Canada, the Northwest mounted police. Can any thinking person at all familiar with the operations and politics of these doubt for one moment their value to the State?

It seems to me that we have plenty of instances before us in New Jersey of the tremendous need for such a trained and non-political body of State police. Think I need cite only the Roosevelt killings and the Bayonne disorders. Both would have been prevented by such an organization, and aside from the lives saved and the guilty brought to the bar, property many times exceeding the amount Mr. Anderson grudges to establish such a force, would have been saved and the name of the State of New Jersey would never have suffered the disgrace of confessed inability to deal with such situations.

Departure of Company K

To the Editor of Courier-News:

The leaving of Company K yesterday, without the appreciative send off that all their friends and admirers in Plainfield wanted to give them is indeed to be regretted.

The hour of their going was not known in time for publicity to be given, and many who saw them passing through the streets thought they were drilling preparatory to a later departure, and so the public was deprived of a chance to evidence its good will.

May I, for one, apologize through your paper, to these brave young men and wish them God-speed.

I know there are many others who regret this matter as much as I do.

Thanking you for your attention,

Very truly yours,

MARY DE P. CHARLES.
(Mrs. J. M. Charles)

[The Courier-News also regrets the fact that the order for Company K to go to Elizabeth was not known in time for a notice so that friends of the members could have seen them off. The order to the military men came by telegraph, and often on such short notice that no opportunity is given for advance publicity. The promptness with which the boys respond to the orders, however, shows that they are always ready.—Ed.]

WESTFIELD

A SUCCESSFUL POVERTY DANCE

One of the most enjoyable and successful dances held in this town in some time was the Poverty Dance which was held in the assembly room of the McKinley school last night under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association of that school. More than 300 persons attended the affair and for the most part they were attired in poverty rags and clothes and tripped the light fantastic to their hearts content until a late hour in the evening. The assembly room presented a veritable poor house appearance and the American flag was much in evidence, the walls and ceiling being draped with them and thus showing that patriotism was not forgotten even if evening clothes were. Nearly everyone present enjoyed the dancing and those who did not sat on benches or boards and talked with their neighbors.

During the evening there was a grand march, which was led by G. M. Grove and Mrs. W. R. V. Howell and this was participated in by nearly everyone. Several of the men were attired in overalls and jumpers and straw hats while others wore old clothes which were patched and darned. The ladies were not far behind the men when it came to the costume and many of them had old dresses on and shirtwaists which were ragged, as well as aprons which had seen better days.

Home-made candy was offered for sale by a committee of ladies from the association consisting of Mrs. Paul E. Johnson and Mrs. L. H. Lewis. Before the dance broke up refreshments consisting of frankfurters and coffee were served by Mrs. A. J. Platz, Mrs. E. W. Wilcox, Mrs. E. R. Wilcox, Mrs. J. S. Purdy, Mrs. T. A. Pope, Mrs. R. D. Arguibau, and Mrs. W. A. Thorn. The music for the dancing was furnished by the McKinley orchestra and was excellent and consisted of Miss Elia Platz, piano; Q. V. Nicewonger and C. A. Pope, cornet; E. D. Teets, trombone; Alfred Wilcox, Mrs. Chamberlin and Charles Simpson, violin, and John DeHart, clarinet.

The committee in charge of the dance was composed of Mrs. William Steuernagel and Mrs. J. S. Purdy. From everyone present there was nothing but praise in which the dance was conducted and the members of the committee as well as the association are to be congratulated on the success of the affair.

Both the songs and the play were sold and brought forth much applause. A neat sum was realized which will go into the treasury of the society. Those who posed and sung in the illustrated pictures and the members of the society in the cast and the parts that they took were as follows:

Music Supervisor Resigns

Miss Mabel E. Bier, who has been the supervisor of music in the public schools for the past seven years, has resigned her position. During the time that Miss Bray has been in charge of the music in the schools many new ideas have been worked out and added to the department. In 1910 there were twenty-two members in the High School Glee Club. There are now 197. The Glee Club has presented a number of works and has taken part in three contests and this spring will present Gaul's "Joan of Arc" and Stainer's "The Daughter of Jairus," on May 19th. A course in musical appreciation has been given in the grades and High school. Songs by great composers was followed up by a study of the composers which was correlated with the English work. The after school music classes were started last year also.

After considering the matter several years Miss Bier has decided to give up the actual supervision of any schools and has taken a position with an educational and musical firm to do original work for them in the line of music education for children which she feels will give a more lasting result to the work that she has done for the past fifteen years.

Miss Bray will still continue to make her home in this town and will direct the Supervisors' School of Music which she organized in 1914.

Two Ranges of Power at Your Command

More truly than any other car, the Peerless Eight is ready to serve your social or sporting requirements with equal success.

The Loafing Range

In its Loafing Range the Peerless gives you that quiet, smooth, flexible, distinctive performance that you would expect in a car of real class. But in this Loafing Range you are using about half rations, consuming fuel with rare economy.

The Sporting Range

You have only to open the throttle wider, thus release the double poppets and feed your motor full rations, to change the whole character of your car. Now she shows her Sporting class. She becomes a brute of a car, with super power and thundering speed, made to vie with any contender no matter what its class.

Let us demonstrate this "dual personality" of the Peerless Eight which makes it a car of almost unbelievable contrasts.

M. E. CONFERENCE TO ORDAIN DEACONS

Six Young Men Pass Final Examination at Executive Session Held Today

A. T. Logan, M. J. Newberry, Roy Manne, Horace E. Dewey, Arthur Knudson and S. S. Custard, candidates for ordination, appeared for final examination at an executive session of the Newark Conference in Halsey street church, Newark, this morning. They will be ordained as deacons tomorrow morning.

The report of the treasurer shows the following receipts from the four districts for the pension fund for the past year: Elizabeth, $3,421; Jersey City, $3,534; Newark, $6,186; Paterson, $4,312.

At a meeting of the Laymen's Association yesterday a resolution offered by Dr. James R. Joy, of this city, was adopted, increasing the fund for preacher's aid from $123,000 to $500,000.

Bishop Luther Wilson, speaking at a banquet held at the Robert Treat Hotel last night, said that this is the time for men and women to declare their loyalty to the American flag, not as a mere piece of bunting, but with true patriotic spirit. He also urged that the conference amply provide for good ministers and pay them dollar for dollar, the same as one would pay his butcher or baker.

There was considerable criticism expressed at the Laymen's Association meeting regarding the temperance legislation at Trenton, and a resolution was adopted recommending that in case of war there be national prohibition of the sale of liquor. Several political leaders were attacked for their opposition to local option.

THE PASSION PLAY TO BE AT HOPE CHAPEL

Plans for the special week of evangelistic services, to be started tomorrow morning at Hope Chapel, and continuing every evening next week, with the exception of Saturday, have been completed. The series of addresses on the Passion Play, to be illustrated with stereopticon slides. Special music will feature all of the services. The Riederwolf meeting at the High School auditorium will not interfere with the services at the chapel, as they are to be carried out according to the original program as announced early in January.

At the evening service tomorrow, the service will be especially appropriate to Palm Sunday, "The Holy City" and "The Palms," to be rendered by the choir and illustrated with stereopticon slides, thus giving the spirit of the words alike in song and pictures. Rev. Dr. D. W. Skellenger, pastor, is also to give a brief evangelistic address, also to be illustrated by slides. The service tomorrow morning will be the regular Palm Sunday service, with a sermon subject, "The Exaltation of Christ."

GERMANS RETIRE BEFORE PERONNE

Special to Courier-News:

Berlin, March 31.—Another German retirement east of Perrone was admitted by the German war office today. The retreat was carried out along the Perrone Fins road after an engagement between the Germans and superior forces of British. The Germans gave up their positions on the Ruyaulcourt, Soral line, northeast of Soissons, sas the report. The French tried in vain to gain ground near Neuville and Margival, being repulsed with heavy losses by German cotinents. In Ariola, on the northern edge of the new battle line, the Canadians attacked the German line four times, but were repulsed.

STATE'S HOTEL MEN AROUSED

Plan Organization to Protect Huge Industry.

SHORE MEN INDORSE MOVE.

Meet at Atlantic City to Further Alliances to Fight Inimical Legislation, Labor Demands and Other Adverse Influences—Get Assurances of Co-operation From Pennsylvania Brethren.

Atlantic City, March 31.—A movement to band the legitimate hotel interests of the state, representing many millions of dollars, in a common cause for the better protection of the industry against inimical legislation, labor troubles and other detrimental conditions was indorsed by afore bonifaces at a meeting of the Hotel Men's Association of New Jersey here.

John C. Benson, secretary of the Atlantic City Hotel Men's association, was made secretary of the state organization as a preliminary step to a campaign to enroll all the leading hotel men here and in the other shore resorts under one banner.

Colonel Thomas C. Leslie, secretary of the Philadelphia Hotel association; Mahlon W. Newton, treasurer of the Philadelphia association and proprietor of Green's hotel, and A. H. Butterworth of the Ridgway House came from Philadelphia to attend the meeting.

Colonel Leslie cited as a concrete evidence of the importance of co-operation the fight shortly to be made at Harrisburg by the organized hotel interests of Pennsylvania for a law which will make it a misdemeanor to use the word hotel in connection with any property not adequately equipped for the housing and feeding of legitimate guests. Another contemplated bill is designed to provide for the service of liquors in hotels as an adjunct of the bill of fare.

Charles J. Furey of Trenton, president of the New Jersey association, told of the rapid growth of the body in numbers and influence since it cut loose from the liquor interests more than a year ago. Under the reorganization membership is confined absolutely to the owners of fully equipped hotels.

"AMERICA" FROM MEMORY.

Cape May County Teachers Set Good Example in Patriotism.

Ocean City, March 31.—Nearly 200 teachers attended the opening session of the Cape May County institute in the Ocean City high school, at which the county superintendent, Aaron W. Hand, presided.

The teachers demonstrated that they differ from many persons in that all sang "America" without once glancing at their song books.

Lee L. Driver, superintendent of schools in Randolph county, Ind., gave an illustrated lecture on "Better Rural Schools." The sectional meetings were addressed by Dr. Cornelia MacMurtan and Miss Florence E. Stryker of the Montclair State Normal school and Miss Susan A. Reilly of the Trenton State Normal school.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to aid in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, dizzy spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.—Adv.

YOU'RE BILIOUS! CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS TONIGHT

Enjoy life! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive, and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store and eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or sicken like salts, pills and calomel. They act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a cathartic. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascaret any time—they act thoroughly and are harmless.—Adv.

BRITISH CAPTURE TOWN IN FRANCE

Dislodge Germans From Ruvaulcourt In Fierce Attack.

London, March 31.—Further progress by the British east of Bapaume and a comparative lull on the Franco-German front marks the situation on the western front.

The British captured the town of Ruvaulcourt, thus pushing their lines to a point eight miles east of Bapaume. On the entire front from Arras to a point six miles southeast of St. Quentin British and German infantry are in contact. The British heavy guns twice launched a terrific drumfire on the northern end of the battle line, indicating infantry assaults. These were frustrated by vigorous counter bombardment by the British.

Abandonment of Ruvaulcourt was indirectly admitted by the Berlin war office.

Berlin also reported the repulse with heavy losses at four successive attacks by Canadian units east of Neuville-St. Vaast.

On the Franco-German front both sides claim the repulse of hostile attacks, principally in the Champagne and northeast of Soissons.

In the east there were operations on a minor scale. Petrograd reports a Russian attack on the German lines southeast of Baranovichi, where the Germans have put out repeated "feelers" of late, with the use of asphyxiating gas. Nothing is said as to the result. The Russian war office admits a temporary penetration of Russian trenches near the Oginski canal, but says the Teutons were dislodged in a counter attack.

Calm prevailed on the Macedonian and Roumanian fronts.

Red Cross For Collingswood.

CHAMP CLARK RENOMINATED

House Democrats Unanimous In Vote For Speaker.

ONE BAY STATE INSURGENT.

Gallivan of Massachusetts Will Absent Himself From All Party Councils, Claiming South Is Favored Too Much by Leaders—Illness of New Jersey Representative Cuts the Republican Forces Down.

Washington, March 31.—The Democratic membership of the house of representatives renominated Champ Clark for the speakership by acclimation. Then they renominated the entire list of Democratic officers who served in the Sixty-fourth congress and amid great enthusiasm and with wild cheers for the bluff old Missourian who has piloted them through the last six years of strenuous sessions adjourned.

One Democratic Insurgent.

In the Democratic caucus Speaker Clark was placed in nomination by Representative Dorsey W. Shackleford of Missouri, senior member of the delegation from Clark's own state. There were many seconding speeches, and then from the middle of the hall the burly form of the leader was seen making its way to the rostrum. Clark's appearance was the occasion for a riot of enthusiasm. He accepted the nomination in a brief speech, in which he prophesied his certain election.

Representative Gallivan of Massachusetts, true to his promise, absented himself from the Democratic caucus. Gallivan will vote for Clark for the speakership, but at that point his participation in the councils of the Democratic will end.

He is opposed to what he charges is the sectionalism of the house Democrats, and his recalcitrancy is his protest against the allotment of virtually every desirable committee chairmanship in the house to southern members.

The Democratic caucus delegated to the Democratic members of the ways and means committee the function of selecting all the committees of the house. The committee found itself, however, with three vacancies to be filled from among the legislators who will down to defeat in the general election last fall. These selections have been made, but Chairman Kitchin refuses to disclose the identity of the men chosen.

Illness Hits Republicans.

The Republicans of the house were thrown into a quandary by the report that another of their number, Representative Capstick of New Jersey, was confined to his bed by illness and under no circumstances would be able to come here for the opening session Monday. This leaves the status of the parties of the house as follows: Republicans, 213; Democrats, 214.

It was generally believed in Washington that the re-election of Clark to the speakership was a foregone conclusion. The control of the house is still in doubt, with the chances favoring a deadlock for a few hours at least, probably for a sufficient time to work out some sort of a bipartisan compromise with regard to committee allotments.

SPY DRAGNET SPREAD.

Espionage Agent In Every City, Town or Hamlet In Nation.

Washington, March 31.—A great net of spy catchers has been spread over the entire country from New York to the smallest desert hamlet in New Mexico by the federal government. The plan, organized under the direction of Attorney General Gregory, will give the government an espionage agent in every city, town, village or countryside throughout the nation ready to transmit to the federal authorities information as to threatened disloyalty or plots against the welfare of the country.

The plan will make every government employee in the field forces of the government departments a spy catcher. It will thus place a government agent in touch with every line of activity in all sections of the country.

31 Extra Features

The latest Mitchells show 31 features which nearly all cars omit. Things like a power tire pump, dashboard engine primer, reversible headlights, etc.

They show many added luxuries. We have added 24 per cent to the beauty cost this year, out of savings in our new body plant.

They show eight styles of bodies, including a Club Roadster. All are our own designs, exclusive to Mitchells, built in our own body plant.

And now there are two sizes—Mitchell and Mitchell Junior. So you can get the size, the style, the price you want in Mitchells.

100% Over-Strength

But our greatest new announcement is 100 per cent over-strength. In the past three years we have doubled our margins of safety.

Over 440 parts are built of toughened steel. All safety parts are vastly oversize. All parts which get a major strain are built of Chrome-Vanadium.

All Extras Free

All these extras—hundreds of them—come free in Mitchell cars. They are paid for by factory savings. Yet, on this year's output, they will cost us $1,000,000.

They are here because John W. Bate, the great efficiency expert, has cut our factory cost in two. He has built and equipped this model plant for building this single type. And nowhere else could a car like this be built at our factory cost.

You'll Want Them

Come see what Mitchell offers more than other cars. See the extra features, the added luxury, the over-strength. After that, cars without them will seem incomplete.

WILSON'S WAR MESSAGE READY

Framed In Strong Language For Congress.

REGITES GERMAN AGGRESSION

President In Call to Both Houses Tuesday Will Refute Bethmann-Hollweg's Claim That United States Will Be Responsible For War—All Departments of Government Busy at Work of Preparing For Conflict.

Washington, March 31.—The final form of President Wilson's war message to the extraordinary session of congress has been agreed upon after the president had made a complete review of the German crisis with his cabinet.

Following the cabinet meeting it was learned that the president's address will be "direct and to the point" and will leave no doubt as to the conviction of the administration that a state of war exists between the United States and Germany.

The war message will be framed in vigorous language and will recite the German aggressions which have forced the issue between the two countries.

It will serve to empress the duty of determining what steps shall be taken to meet the war conditions which the president and his advisers say have been forced upon this country by continued and inexcusable violations of American rights and premeditated killings of American men and women.

Denies U. S. Blame For War.

The message will detail the steps taken by the executive branch of the government to meet the situation and point out that immediate and effective legislative action is imperative if the honor and dignity of the nation are to be properly safeguarded.

It was stated today that the address, which the president expects to deliver on Tuesday, will be a complete and effective refutation of the declaration made in the German reichstag by Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg that the United States would be responsible for war if war comes. The responsibility will be placed squarely on Germany for the consecutive steps which led to the break between the two nations.

The exact form of the address will be closely guarded up to the moment that he arises to address the congress in joint session. The president will be prepared to take advantage of any change in the situation which may occur up to that time. But based on conditions today, without a drastic change in the German submarine campaign, the address will make it plain that the continued destruction of American lives and American ships in violation of the laws of nations and of humanity cannot be tolerated.

Confers With War Heads.

After the cabinet meeting President Wilson held a lengthy conference with Secretary of War Baker and Secretary of the Navy Daniels on the prepared ness activity in their departments. The steps taken to bring the nation's war machinery to the highest possible point of efficiency and the extra funds for preparations for war were laid before the chief executive. The department heads likewise submitted their views as to the legislation that will be needed immediately to further the war plans.

The cabinet approved of a plan under which minor officials of the various departments will take over the work of preparedness organization in the fields of industry, commerce and business in connection with the Council of National Defense Advisory Commission.

This will leave the cabinet members free to handle the preparedness work directly before their various departments and will practically turn over the mobilization of the resources of the nation to the civilian organization of the defense council.

Now Up to Congress.

It was stated that the president and his advisers were satisfied that every possible step toward preparedness that can be taken without legislative action has been ordered by the executive branch of the government and that only congress can secure further progress toward placing the nation in readiness for impending war. A complete program for war legislation will be ready for the legislators as soon as they get down to business after the organization of the new congress and the delivery of the president's address.

Conferences of leaders and the rank and file of both houses arriving by every train caught the spirit of activity and at scores of informal conferences discussed war legislation. Meantime the formal series of conferences to plan the organization of the house got under way, and by Sunday the leaders will be ready for the tap of the gavel.

To Investigate Russian Trade.

Washington, March 31.—Investigation of the financial and commercial conditions in Russia and the far east is to be made immediately by the department of commerce. A. W. Ferrin, editor of a financial magazine, will undertake the work.

M'ADOO FAMILY ANSWERS U. S. CALL TO COLORS.

Washington, March 31.—The three sons of William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, have volunteered for service with the naval reserves and are waiting to be called to the colors.

Francis H. McAdoo, the oldest, a lawyer in New York and a Princeton graduate, already has offered the government his fast motorboat as a submarine chaser.

William G. McAdoo, Jr., a senior at Princeton, will go into the aviation section. Robert G. McAdoo, youngest of the brothers, is a student of St. Paul's school, Concord, N. H., and is too young for service, providing the war does not last.

Wiring Your House Is Really a Simple Matter

It will surprise you to know how little disturbance is made in wiring your house for electric service.

Your friends will tell you that the wiremen leave the house in as good a condition as when the work started.

—That there will be no re-papering, no mutilation of the plaster.

Expert wiremen will astonish you by the ease in which they "fish" the wires between the walls.

It sounds like a big job, but it isn't. These expert wiremen are rapid workers, and in just a few days—sometimes only two—they are gone, and you are left with an electrically lighted house—a genuine convenience and delight.

—The advantage of being able to eliminate much drudgery from your home through the use of an electric iron, a vacuum cleaner, a washing machine.

—The satisfaction which can be had through the use of an electric chafing dish, a percolator, tea pot, toaster, heating pad, and so on.

—Cheerful lights just where you have long wanted and needed them—on the side wall at either side of a dressing table or bureau, at the head of the bed, in some cozy corner and at such points where nothing but the right combination of lights can give the soft, restful effect that is so essential in creating an atmosphere of repose and refinement.

RELIGION OF SOUTH AMERICA DESCRIBED

Rev. T. B. Penfield Gives Last of Series of Talks at the Y. W. C. A.

"The Religion of the People" was the subject of the last of a series of four talks on "South America" by Rev. Thornton B. Penfield, of Englewood, given at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday afternoon. As on the other three occasions there was a large and appreciative audience. The speaker said that most of the religious life of the country was to be found in the large cities. Very little attention is given to religion in the country or rural districts.

Mr. Penfield told of the marked progress now being made by the Protestant missionaries working in South America, adding that the opportunities seemed to be unlimited. He traced the religious life of that country from the time of the Indians, the first settlers, until the arrival of the Spaniards and the various other races. He told how the Indians worshipped their gods, describing some of the interesting customs.

Mr. Penfield said that while much drunkenness was to be found in South America, there was an absence of excessive drinking of intoxicants near the equator, which fact he was unable to explain. In Chile there is one saloon for every twenty-seven inhabitants. The speaker emphasized the fact that it was the white man who had taken this liquor to the natives.

There is one section of South America where no estimate of the population can be made, said Mr. Penfield. So far as known there are three hundred tribes there, but it is a remarkable fact that no person who has ever penetrated this section has ever returned.

Mr. Penfield spoke of the early work of the Franciscan and Dominican Monks and the Order of Jesuits which was founded by Ignatius Loyola, who had a much higher conception of religion, and who really instituted the first missionary work in the country. He then gave a brief history of the work being done by the missionaries of the Protestant denominations to the present time. He said that some of the natives who had heard of conditions in North America, had said that the missionaries ought to first "clean their own house" before trying to go into foreign lands.

THROUGH THE WICKET

The Ladies' Nest of Owls will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock for important business.

NOTES FROM P. H. S.

The Easter vacation began yesterday. High school students will resume their studies again on Monday morning, April 9.

Howard Stelle, the recently elected editor-in-chief of the Oracle, announced to the school yesterday morning during chapel exercises that it was necessary to create a new office, namely, the office of assistant literary editor. Howard Bloomfield, of the Junior Class, has been appointed to fill that new office.

A business meeting of the Senior Class was held Thursday afternoon, Horace Hunker, Jr., president of the class, presided. The secretary's and treasurer's report were read. The treasurer's report was as follows: Balance on hand, January, $49; expense January 20 for play books, $1.25, leaving $47.75 in the treasury.

The presentation of gold rings, as basketball awards, was made to the members of the High School Basketball team yesterday. The rings show a model of a basketball with '17, H. S., 1917, thereon inscribed. Those who are possessors of such awards are: Captain Arthur Kyle, Manager Everett Case, Philip Sidle, Theodore Snyder, Morris Kyle, Chester Alpaugh, George Kyle and Sheldon Candray.

The aim of the class is to make the play, "Monsieur Perchoux's Journey" a financial and dramatic success, and to attain those aims the willful cooperation of every Senior is required. Tickets were distributed among the members of the class, which may be exchanged by purchasers at Miller's drug store, when reserved seats go on sale there. The business success of the play will depend on the business manager, De Witt Swackhamer, and the assistant business managers, S. Wright McAneny, Jr., and F. Smith. The stage manager is Colen Millard, who will be assisted by Maxwell Richards.

Easter exercises were observed yesterday morning in the High School auditorium. A selection of Easter hymns was sung by the entire school and the High School Glee Club sang the "Finale," of "The Road of Calvary," an Easter cantata. Those who sang with the glee club were: The Misses Agnes Griffith, Irma Dobbins, Marjorie Thiers, Irene Moy, Hazel Codrington, Lola Lofteomir, Cora Satterly, Anna Sherwin, Clara Hadley, Elsie Montgomery, Lillian Mercreary and Carol Avery. Among the boys were: Fred Van Orden, Juan Babcock, Charles Ward, Fred Rose, Edward Crone, Everett Case, Leonard Lewis, Charles T. Todd, S. Wright McAneny, Jr.

Clarence L. Woodman, of the faculty and graduate of Colgate University, spoke to the student body yesterday during chapel exercises, and urged the school to support the boys' Athletic Association next Tuesday evening. The Colgate University is sending its renowned glee and instrumental clubs to the Plainfield High School. They will give their concert next Tuesday evening in the High School auditorium, after which dancing to music furnished by Van Epps' orchestra will serve as a gaeities. Mr. Woodman called for the support of the school financially as well as socially. The tickets cost about one-quarter of the price that New York people paid a short time ago at a similar concert in that city. All tickets must be exchanged at Miller's drug store for reserved seats.

LINCOLN QUARTET DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

The Lincoln University Quartet, of Oxford, Pa., appeared in the Washington school, last evening, under the auspices of the Dunbar Club, and delighted the large audience. The readings by U. S. Young were greatly enjoyed and the fine melodies and solos were unusually pleasing.

The University is one of the foremost colleges for colored men in this country and many great leaders of the colored race have received their education there.

At the close of the musical entertainment a dance was held, which added to the enjoyment of the evening.

ALASKA WAS BOUGHT FIFTY YEARS AGO

Treaty Was Signed by Which This Country Bought It From Russia

Fifty years ago yesterday the treaty was signed which closed the purchase of Alaska from Russia, for $7,200,000, and in June following the treaty was ratified, and Alaska officially become the property of the United States, October 9, 1867.

The purchase of Alaska, which was then known as Russian America, was accomplished through the efforts of William H. Seward, of Auburn, N. Y., grandfather of Miss Anne H. Seward, of the Hartridge School, this city. Mr. Seward was then serving his second term as Secretary of State, having served his first term in that capacity in the cabinet of President Lincoln, and being continued in the cabinet in Lincoln's second term, and through the term of the latter's successor, Andrew Johnson.

Mr. Seward saw great possibilities in Alaska as a possession of the United States, and his purchase a means of removing a foreign landed interest from the Western Continent. The amount paid was the cause of some criticism, and the distance from the United States in those days of limited transportation facilities, made the purchase seem to some people unwise. In the light of later days it has been proved a valuable acquisition, and showed Secretary Seward to have been far in advance of the men of his day. Since that day Alaska has yielded over sixty-six times the amount of its purchase price, an average of its purchase price every year, although for the first seventeen years Congress paid no attention to this possession.

The population is about 10,000 whites and 15,000 Indians and Esquimaux. The first settlers were devoted to fish and fur industries, but the minerals have been found and developed by the more recent inhabitants, who have discovered untold wealth in them.

Alaska was first explored by Russians, under Behring, looking for fur-bearing animals, in 1741. They came across from Siberia, where Asia and North America approach each other within a score of miles, and where it is thought the aborigines of this country crossed from Asia in small boats, before the days of the mound-builders, and started the race of Indians who were here when Columbus discovered America.

Steel Corporation Head Favors Votes For Women.

Judge Gary has announced himself to be unequivocally in favor of enfranchising women of this country. Using as a basis the principles proposed by David Lloyd George, Premier Lloyd and Sir Edward Minister of Munitions to give the vote to women in England, he asserted the women of this country have been denied a status much entitled to the vote as English women.

TRADE COUNCIL WOULD SAVE SHIPS

Urges Care In Impressment In Event of War.

New York, March 31.—The National Foreign Trade Council at a meeting here adopted resolutions urging the government to protect as far as possible, in event of war the trade resources of the country. Twenty-five members, all actively in foreign trade, attended, and members at a distance, many on the Pacific coast, telegraphed their approval of the action.

It was argued that great difficulties were experienced by the European belligerents through unsystematic impressment of merchant ships, which militated against economic resources of the war. A resolution was adopted calling on the government and semi-official trade organizations to "devise a method of co-operation with those engaged in foreign trade and shipping whereby the tonnage available for established trades may be conserved in the interest of economy as well as military defense and necessary impressments may be effected with the least withdrawal of tonnage for the shortest period of time consistent with national security."

The council urged also that the Webb bill, which the senate failed to pass, be passed by the Sixty-fifth congress in order to place American exporters on an equal footing with combinations of foreign buyers equipped to depress the price of American products. The council also voted for a nonpartisan recommendation that the United States tariff system, "whatever its underlying principle," be provided with resources for the encouragement of foreign trade by commercial treaties, agreements of executive authorizations to have defined limits and for its safeguarding from undue discrimination in the markets of the world.

Besides the automobile ambulances Mr. Wimpheimer will give the organization $1,000. He is interested in hospital and sanitary work and is on the board of governors for the Monmouth Memorial hospital of Long Branch.

MORE TROOPS MOBILIZED:

New York Infantry and Connecticut Artillery Called to Colors.

Washington, March 31.—Three thousand more national guardsmen have been called out by the war department in pursuance of its plan to give "police protection" to public works and buildings. Under the department's orders these militiamen are mustered into the federal service to perform the same duties as the 65,000 members of the militia already out in a score of states.

The additional troops ordered out are New York's Forty-seventh and Twenty-third Infantry and Squadron A; Battery A, Georgia field artillery, and Companies B and F, Tenth field artillery, Connecticut.

KING GEORGE OF BRITAIN GOES ON WATER WAGON.

London, March 31.—It is no longer according to etiquette to place any wine glasses on the table wherever King George is a guest at military messes or with the fleet, says the Spectator, which is conducting an active campaign for prohibition. The King's orders barring the use of alcoholic beverages in his palaces during the war is adhered to strictly, and no wine is served even at dinner parties at Buckingham palace or Windsor.

LIGHT

Light is a priceless illumination the Lord arranged to send on the world twelve hours a day. But He might have known we couldn't be satisfied with it. Judging by the actions of birds and chickens and other close-to-nature animals, we have always thought that dusk was a suggestion and darkness a broad hint to folks that it's time to go to bed. But do we do it? Not on your incandescent bulb! We turn Mr. Edison's juice loose and let the motre run races with our pocketbooks while we sit around till midnight and wreck our disposition for the next day. And if we go out on the street we run chances of being winked at by a beer sign or a movie ad.

CHIPS FROM THE CLAYS

There is some talk of a telegraphic trapshooting match between the Elks teams of Alameda, Cal., and Wilmington, Del.

During the past month 23 clubs have become affiliated with the American Amateur Trapshooters' Association. The membership of this organization now exceeds 1,300 clubs.

Mrs. B. G. Earle, who is now giving instruction in the art of trapshooting at Lakewood, N. J., will give instructions to the fair sex at the Atlantic City, N. J., trapshooting school this summer.

The Gaillard Sporting Club of Natchez, Miss., which club is conducting the Mississippi State shoot, is one of the oldest trap clubs in America. It was formed October 13, 1877, at the time of the glass ball period. A gold medal was shot for at the time of the organization and this is still shot for annually. Capt. J. F. Jenkins is the only survivor of the original charter members.

New additions to the trapshooting fraternity are R. C. Folwell, football coach at the University of Pennsylvania, and Howard Berry, the brilliant all-around athletic star of that institution. They participated in a shoot of the Philadelphia Electric Company the other days Folwell broke 36 of 50 and Berry 16 to 50. It was the first appearance of either at the traps. Now they have the fever.

TROUT SEASON TO OPEN TOMORROW

Fishermen to be in Their Glory From Then Until July 15

New Jersey's trout and salmon season, which opens tomorrow, will bring promise of the best sport the present generation of anglers ever has enjoyed in this State. There'll be no restricting of the sport to the mountain streams, which are the natural habitat of the brook trout, but the opening of the season this year will mean as much to the central and southern parts of the State as it does to the northern tier of counties, thanks to the State's work in planting rainbow and brown trout in these warmer waters where the brook trout does not thrive.

The rainbow and brown trout are certain to figure prominently in the future of angling in New Jersey. While the brook trout will continue to hold its popularity undoubted in the cold water streams these newer trout flourish in a larger percentage of the streams and ponds in other parts of the State. Both the rainbow and brown trout make rapid and large growth in Jersey waters. Rainbows distributed in public waters three years ago are likely to be taken this year weighing five to six pounds each. When a Jersey angler with light tackle hooks into one of these big fellows he will get a thrilling introduction to trout fishing such as only some of the northwestern States have heretofore enjoyed.

For the first time salmon fishing will this year become, in some of the northern New Jersey counties, a real rival to trout fishing. Thousands of the Chinook or Pacific salmon have been planted in land-locked lakes of the State during the last year. Salmon of this species were put in New England lakes a few years ago and Yankee anglers are now catching specimens weighing from twelve to fifteen pounds. These lake salmon, as in the case of lake trout, are usually caught by trolling.

With the increase in stocking streams with fish there has been a corresponding increase of public interest in angling and municipal clerks and game wardens are said to be establishing new records this spring in the sale of fishing licenses. No citizen need travel far from his home town to find good trout fishing. Even in the suburbs of some of the largest cities of the State the brooks are well stocked with fish. In practically every county of New Jersey there are streams or lakes containing trout, which the knowing angler can discover.

The trout and salmon season will extend from April 1 to July 15. It is illegal to keep trout or salmon under six inches in length, and 25 trout is the limit allowed to any one angler in one day's fishing, while ten is the day's bag limit for land-locked salmon.

TABS-KNIGHTS GAME OFF

Owing to the fact that Company M armory at Somerville has been closed to sporting events because of military activities in the State, the game scheduled for that court between the St. Mary's T. A. B. Society of this city and the Knights of St. Peter for this evening has been called off. Many of the fans who have been following the destinies of the teams during the course of the past season will be sorely disappointed, but the managers did their utmost to bring the teams together.

By the Way—

RECREATION FIVE FINISHES SEASON

Defeated New Brunswick Team in a Fast Game Last Night, 55 to 39

The Recreation Five played its last game of the season last evening on the P. H. S. court when it defeated a team playing under the name of New Brunswick, the locals taking the best end of a 55 to 39 score. The game was a fast one throughout, accurate passing and shooting being the two big features.

Berse, playing forward for the locals, put up a wonderful game and was largely responsible for the victory of his team, scoring some twenty-eight of the Queen City's points of the evening. Gram and Stewart, forward and centre respectively, for New Brunswick, also did some good work.

KILBANE READY FOR LOTS OF ACTION NOW

Johnny Kilbane, champion featherweight, having taken all the featherweights they can dig up for him, has been trying for a long time to get a crack at the top-notch lightweights with but little success. So, just to show what a good fellow he is and when in shape of a super boxer, today insisted a deal to the three best who claim lightweight class, and offered to meet them all the same night. He began with Freddie Welsh and went right down to Benny Leonard and Richie Mitchell, the latter of whom has been so persistent in telling what they would do to Kilbane if the opportunity ever offered. However, there is the cutest little joker imaginable in Johnny's challenge that tempers his boldness to a considerable extent. He specified in his death-defying edict that he wanted each of these men to weigh-in at 133 pounds ringside, which long has been recognized as the legitimate lightweight poundage.

"They aren't lightweights," Johnny announces, "and they won't take my offer. However, I'm willing to fight any of the three or all of them at any old weight they name; one a night. And I'll do the best job of housecleaning in the lightweight division this country has been for many a long day."

The champion featherweight is a most awful lonesome boxer. Instead of all the big stars in his class following him around the country and clamoring for matches, an experience most of the scrappers of high rank have, they all get out of his way when he starts traveling. A great many of them have felt the full force of that deadly right and more of them have heard tales of it that fill them with respect.

So Johnny is rather forced into it if he can ever get Welsh's consent to meet him in a ring, the fight fans in this nation will wear out the railroad ties getting to the scene of the mill.

Three straight games meant a tie for second place for the Bears in the T. A. B. S. house tourney last evening, and they just went and did it. They took three from the Tigers, the latter dropping into fifth place. Both aggregations managed to cop two scores of the double century type, Ryle going the highest for a 212 mark in his first tilt. Guinee of the Bears, however, took possession of the high average of the evening at 194.2.

SPORT BRIEFS

San Francisco—Chick Evans, premier golfer of the United States, will retire from tournament play after this season. Evans made this announcement just before he departed for his home in Chicago.

Cincinnati—Charles Schmaltzle, former confidential man for Charles P. Taft, yesterday won a verdict in full in his suit against Taft for $57,559. The suit, which attracted attentions because it revealed the enormous profits of the Chicago National League Baseball Club, grew out of a transaction attending the sale of the Cubs by Mr. Taft. He had given Schmaltzle stock upon which the dividends alone amounted to $60,000. Schmaltzle, however, claimed $75,555 due him after the sale of the club.

Cleveland, O.—Les Darcy, the Australian middleweight, announced today that he had wired the New Orleans promoters asking that his match with Jeff Smith, scheduled for May 4, be changed to a date in April. Darcy also called off his proposed bout with George Chip, scheduled for April 19, claiming that the club operated by Matt Hinkel is too small.

NEW BRUNSWICK DATES

The baseball schedule of the New Brunswick baseball team was announced yesterday afternoon. It discloses the fact that the P. H. S. nine is to appear at the New Brunswick field May 2, while the Middlesex county lads will come to this city on the June 4.

EAGLE'S SECONDS IN TWO VICTORIES

Spotted 100 Pins, Junior Team Walops First String Men

Having been given a handicap of 100 pins, the Eagle Seconds managed to take the sandwich and night cap tilts from the first string men of the local lodge Wednesday evening, the latter going by the small margin of six maples.

The Seniors secured three double century scores and a team score of 934 in their first tilt and therein spent the bulk of their strength. Radin secured the high score of 219 and top average of 193, thereby cornering the honors of the evening.

RAM BOWLERS TASTE SWEETS OF VICTORY

Six games over the 800 mark was the aftermath of the Rambler-Spicer No. 1 bowling match on the Eagles' alleys last night, but the Ramblers' margin in the first two sets was more than their opponents, which consequently won the series for the former team.

Only two double century scores were recorded, each team getting one. Taylor, Ryan, "Soldier" Gordon and Reinle improved with each succeeding game, while Worrall, Betzenberger, Francisco and Mannis hit the scraped runway.

SERIES COMPLETED

Koechlein and Snyder, Bound Brook's combination of star maple smashers, last evening took six of ten tilts rolled on Ebinger's alleys from Somerville's pair of pinners, Mathews and Roller. The results give to Somerville the advantage of 11 to 9 on the series. Mathews did the best bowling last evening, securing an average of 195.

Negotiations are under way between George Gates and "Quaker" Vail, of this city, for a series with Bound Brookers similar to the one just finished.

COST OF SPORTS IS ON INCREASE

Enjoyment in the Open, Like Other Lines of Living, Going Up

That the high cost of living is not by any means confined to food, clothing, paper or gasoline is known only to the millions who are active participants in various outdoor pastimes.

With everything on, or near, the market hitched to airships we must expect to pay more for our sport—and we will. The fellows who keep a close tab on statistics tell us that one dollar today goes no farther than 60 cents did three years ago in the purchase of food or clothing, and if potatoes and onions continue to soar one dollar will look like 30 cents.

There has been increases in the cost of all articles used in the various branches of sport—excepting smokeless powder, and everything that goes with powder has advanced.

It makes no difference whether you are a trapshooter, fisherman, golfer, yachtsman, polo-ist or a tennis, squash, handball, racquet or baseball player, you will have to help foot the bill.

The increase in the price of all goods, as a rule, has been from 10 to 50 per cent. The reason given for the increase in cost is the scarcity of raw material and the ever-increasing cost of labor.

More Followers Despite Cost

Prices have been mounting up for more than a year, and every sport has more followers today than it had a year ago, with the possible exception of baseball. While the 25-cent seat has been tabooed in polite baseball society this has not injured the sport. The magnates and players by their continued wrangling and their willingness to wash their dirty linen in the newspapers, have caused many persons to turn to other avenues for recreation.

That more persons are actively engaged in sports than one year ago is proof that Americans are not only open-handed, but are willing to pay for their sport. Cost appears to be a secondary consideration.

Materials that enter into the manufacture of baseballs have increased 60 to 100 per cent., and the balls have advanced from 10 to 50 per cent. Indoor baseballs have advanced 25 per cent. and golf balls about 50 per cent. Baseball uniforms have advanced about 30 per cent. because of the scarcity of wool, dye and the high cost of cloth. Shoes made especially for use in sporting events are high and going higher, and gloves are almost out of sight as far as price is concerned.

The fisherman pays about 15 per cent. more for lead sinkers and steel hooks and about 5 per cent. more for the smaller accidentals that he needs.

Big Year for Trapshooting

The hunter and trapshooter pay about 25 per cent. more for their shells than last year, very much increase when one bears in mind that copper, brass, spelter, mercury and lead have advanced from 200 to 400 per cent. during the past two years. A box of 25 shells that formerly cost 65 cents now retails at 90 cents. Firearms have advanced, too. Rifles bring 50 per cent. more and shotguns 25 per cent. more than they did a year or so ago. Trapshooting had its best year in 1916, despite the increase in its cost, and gives every indication of doing even better in 1917.

Football players will have their innins next fall. They will be compelled to pay more for leather head harness, leather and felt knee, elbow and shoulder pads and for shoes than ever before.

The increase in the cost of articles of leather, of course, is directly ascribed to the war; the tremendous export trade in shoes, leather and raw and canned beef, which has cut down the supply of cattle to an almost alarming degree.

However, it is not the war that has brought about the increased cost of shafts for golf clubs—that is, the type known as "extra selected," always used for the best clubs. The scarcity of the best grade of second growth hickory has brought about this condition.

Golf Clubs Are Scarce

In selecting club shafts an average of seventy in every one hundred first grade sticks will be discarded as of poor grain, too "whippy" or not "whippy" enough. The shafts go through three inspections by experts before being passed. This and the increasing scarcity of good materials have brought about an increased cost of 50 per cent. for the rough, unfinished shafts.

Persimmon and dogwood are also becoming scarcer, and as the majority of drivers, brassies, spoon and bulldog heads are made from these woods, the clubs are twenty-five per cent. higher than a year ago.

The "listing" cloth used under the leather grip on a club shaft has increased 100 per cent.; the glue used in "setting" shafts and in many other ways in golf club construction has increased nearly 20 per cent.; the brass soles for brassies cost 25 per cent. more, while the "pitched" string which the whipping on the shaft is done has increased 50 per cent.

Americans who live in the great outdoors do not consider the cost of their recreation. They go into it because they feel that no matter what the pastime, it induces health—and having health, they are well satisfied.

FIGHT FOR BATTING AVERAGES POSSIBLE

Tris Speaker's sudden elevation to the heights of batting championship sought many years by Joe Jackson is likely to precipitate one of the hottest scraps in the American League dash for the top of the average list this year that Ban Johnson's or any other man's circuit ever saw.

Joe struggled along for years cracking the leather on lots of wasballs and attaining dizzy batting heights, but Ty Cobb always was just good enough to pull out in the lead. Speaker came along, got set with a new club and hit 'em so fast and often that Cobb was forced to look on from a rear seat, while Jackson merely hooked on in third place.

Joe has issued his challenge for this year. He says the same one boasted by a President of the United States is going to be right at the top when Ban B. promulgates next summer's most important list in the line of batters. Cobb, he says, may be second, or even Speaker may get that far, but he has served warnin' that Joe is going to ride the winning horse.

Cobb also has made some passing remarks in which he intimated that there isn't going to be glory without a few sprints in the summer. He has set his eyes on that batting championship and wants it badly enough to stretch his legs hard for every blow.

Cobb, so one story has it, was a very much disappointed peach when the last season was over and the customary Cobb was lacking at the head of the American League averages. He had acquired such a Ben Athen habit that it was hard to let go. He was grieved and somewhat astonished to observe that it wasn't Jackson who challenged him, but Speaker, whose cop in a machine world shouldn't have placed him that high. And just to keep competition from growing stagnant and carrying all interest to the younger league, the National League probably will stage a little dust around in staging Rogers Hornsby for leadership. Jack Barry, long recognized as king, didn't live it a bit when he was nosed out a year ago. He likes his hits perhaps better than any other star in the game, so he promises to give Hal Chase, Roger Hornsby, Lew Wendell and some others a merry time in the climb of their young lives for John K. Tener's heaviest batting average.

All around, it should be a hot little season for the average fiend.

GRACE CHURCH BOYS WIN CLOSING CONTEST

Playing on the Parish House court Thursday night the Grace church Sunday School won its last game of the season when it annexed the large end of a 36 to 16 score. With Vail at guard the Sunday School outfit had little trouble with the P. H. S. College League five. He was all over the floor with the ball, was the pivot of the Grace church team work and was largely responsible for his team's victory.

Western and Faucett played a good game for the losers, Faucett caging all of his team's field goals. Angleman shot them from all over the floor, caging 11 baskets for Grace church.

CENSUS OF EXPERTS ON.

Government Plans to Utilize Services of Technical Men.

Washington, March 31.—A preparedness census of thousands of the nation's expert technical men has been started by the bureau of mines at the request of the Council of National Defense. As a result of this step the government's military authorities will mobilize at once the most eminent scientists, chemists, engineers and metallurgists for service in industrial plants engaged in the manufacture of war materials.

Twenty-five thousand letters went out to mining engineers, chemists, metal mining and coal mining companies requesting the recipients as a matter of patriotism to state their qualifications and experience. They were asked also to give full information as to where in case of emergency they could be of the most service to the country and in what branches of industry they are most proficient. Dr. Victor Vaw. Mueller said that in taking this census the government is profiting by the experience of European combatants, who have seen large numbers of their best technical talent killed in the trenches before realizing their value behind the lines or in munition shops.

WAR OR PEACE BATTLE.

Pacifists and War Forces to Move on Washington Monday.

New York, March 31.—Pro-war and anti-war forces have made their final plans for their attack on congress Monday. Both will send delegations to Washington by special trains.

Neither camp was daunted by the refusal of Washington police to allow them to parade to the capitol building. Both said they could make their demonstration just as effective by walking down Pennsylvania avenue informally as by marching.

Several hundred persons from each faction will go to Washington Monday. The pro-war forces claim they will have 25,000 people in the capital from all points within striking distance of Washington. The committee in charge of the movement said each of the pilgrims would pay his own fare. The anti-war workers sent out an automobile flying squadron to try and raise $100,000 for the Emergency Peace Federation to be used in an advertising campaign to influence congress against any warlike step.

ELGIN SIX BREAKS WORLD'S BROAD JUMP RECORD

Not long ago, a stock Elgin Six made a spectacular exhibition in Grant Park, Chicago, by jumping 36 feet from an incline hurdle. This record has been smashed pathetically by one of the most dare-devil stunts ever pulled off in motor history.

During the big automobile show of Kansas City, the Elgin Motor Car Sales Company, of that city, advertised in the newspapers, and also by handcirculating literature, that on February 15 they would make an Elgin Six perform one of the most sensational stunts ever attempted. More than 2,000 people gathered on the afternoon of the big stunt. At 2:45, Chas E. Shiddell, of Kansas City, jumped into his Elgin six; police officers backed up the crowd, and the signal was given that everything was ready. The driver sped on the throttle, and started from about five blocks beyond the incline hurdle. The hurdle measured 12 feet on the slant, rose to a height of 14 inches, and was built of 2x8 planks. When one block from the hurdle the driver looked at his speedometer. It registered a speed of 57 miles per hour. He hit the incline at this tremendous speed, it forced the Elgin 8 feet into the air, and caused it to leap through space for a distance of 70 feet, and landed before striking the ground. This feat was performed at 23rd and McKee Trafficway, Kansas City.

Sworn affidavits to the above measurements from one lawyer, one policeofficer, one automobile dealer, and one ordinary bystander are in the hands of the Elgin Motor Car Corporation in Chicago.

After the performance the car was carefully examined and found to be in perfect condition. The driver immediately drove his car to the outskirts of the city to prove beyond question the unusual stamina of the Elgin Six. When the car made the leap it was stripped of top, lamps, windshield, and every superfluous trimming that would at all hamper speed.

What to Do When Backache Comes On

"Foley Kidney Pills have done me more good than $1,000 worth of other medicine." Chas. N. Fox, Himrod, N. Y.

When backache comes on and it seems as if you can't stand the pain and pressure across the small of your back, hurry to your druggist and get relief through a box of Foley Kidney Pills. Don't let the cause of that pain very quickly spur the sluggish kidneys to throw the poisons out of the blood. They will rid of pain and rheumatism, backache, headache, sleeplessness, nasty kidney ills and sore muscles.

Frank W. Sherman, Laconia, N. Y., writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble, had a tired feeling in my back, did not rest well at night and was all tired out. I used Foley Kidney Pills and in a few days began to feel better, and now I have entirely recovered."

BRAKEMAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Charles Hill, aged 22 years, of Union Hill, Weissport, Pa., a brakeman on a freight train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, had a miraculous escape from death late last night when he stepped into space from his train, which had been wrecked between Hillside and Townley, near Elizabeth, and landed a distance of seventy feet below in a pile of debris. He was soon found by another member of the train crew and hurried to Muhlenberg Hospital. An examination showed that Hill's only injuries were a contused wound of the left foot and a fractured left arm.

Hill said that in leaving his train he expected to step on the embankment beside the train and not on the afterward learned, that part of his train was on a bridge which he could not see in the dark, and he dropped off into space. There were no casualties to members of the crew. The cause of the wreck is not known, but a number of freight cars were derailed and traffic was blocked for several hours.

CAPSTICK REPORTED SERIOUSLY ILL

Congressman is Confined in Hospital at Morristown With Pneumonia

Congressman John H. Capstick, is in the Memorial Hospital at Morristown, in a critical condition, suffering from bronchial pneumonia. It was learned today.

He will not be able to go to Washington for the opening of Congress on Monday. His absence will give the Democrats a majority of one vote in the organization of the house. With Mr. Capstick absent the party line-up is: Republicans 213—Democrats 214. It seems to have been agreed, however, that the Democrats shall organize the House re-electing Speaker Clark, who it is understood will recognize the members of other parties in the committee appointments, thereby bringing about a coalition government of Congress.

John E. Nicol, of this city, secretary to Congressman Capstick, has just returned to Washington from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where he attended the funeral of his brother Robert, who died following an operation. HELPS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

In connection with this department Miss Lee will gladly answer any inquiry relative to domestic science, a stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

Some very crude ideas have existed, and still receive some credence, in certain quarters, relative to the process of "hardening the constitution," as it is called. Unfortunately, many persons are not cognizant to the fact that the constitution is never "hardened" by undue exposure to the summer sun, the winter's wind, or the indulgence in strains or over-exertion.

Ill-informed mothers sometimes dip their infants into cold water with this same fallacious idea of manufacturing "hardness" to order. It is a constantly weakening, enervating process, and when the child succumbs to some acute malady, for want of stamina to stand it, and is said to have been taken away under the "mysterious dispensation of Providence" theory, it ought to be known through the land that undue exposure does not toughen and that nine times out of ten it materially lowers the vitality.

The best way to harden the constitution is to take the best possible care of it. Study its needs and see that proper food is provided, regular hours set apart for the feeding, immaculate cleanliness maintained in regard to the person and the surroundings, the rooms for living and sleeping purposes well-ventilated and plenty of sun and fresh air obtained on pleasant days.

Attention to these important details will do more to develop a robust constitution than anything else and it should always be remembered that the exposure idea doesn't show the human body the consideration and courtesy we show a hat or a garment, which are never made better, and frequently ruined, by being left out for hours on a damp, raw day, with a strong wind blowing.

Good care, however, of the body does not mean coddling or overswathing, which is quite as bad as undue exposure. It means the happy medium in this as in all things, and if little children play outdoors on a damp, chilly day, be sure that they are constantly exercising and that their feet are well protected against wet and dampness.

Weak children are greatly strengthened by both sun and oil baths and it would be well if every dwelling were so constructed that one room could be set apart for "sun baths"—a room on the sunniest side of the house, having a broad side of glass and so arranged that a uniform temperature could be maintained.

In this room, very young children will derive much benefit from playing in the sunlight. Like little plants, they need plenty of sun to grow and develop. Care, however, should be observed if the eyes are weak and the sun very strong, and if this is the case, it will be better to supply smoked spectacles to protect the eyes, rather than forego the daily sun bath.

Oil baths, if they are given properly, will convey considerable nourishment through the absorption of the oil and the "sun bath room" is just the place to give them. Sweet oil is best to use for this purpose and after the bath has been given by gentle rubbing with the lubricant, all superfluous oil should be wiped gently off.

When salt baths are given, and these occasionally are very bracing, the sea salt should be used in the proportion of one heaping teaspoonful to every three quarts of water. Hot salt water baths should never be given unless under a doctor's orders, as they are apt to be very weakening. A little above tepid heat is best and they should be followed by a brisk, yet gentle, rubbing.

Of course, a bath of any kind should never be given directly after the child has been fed, but after the bath a little warm milk (if it does not conflict with the regular feeding) will be found to act as a gentle stimulant and prevent even the possibility of taking cold.

Let nothing said in this article be construed to mean that the little ones should be deprived of outdoor air and exercise, even in the cooler seasons, but simply a plea for protected exposure—an exposure stopping short of allowing a child to actually suffer from the elements.

HOW FRED FOUGHT THE FIRE

Fred and his mother lived in a small house just on the edge of the great Edmonds estate. The father, who died six months before Fred became a newsboy, left the little home only half paid for, and now there was not enough money on hand to finish the purchase.

Mrs. Gordon had taken in sewing and Fred had sold papers to try to raise the amount, but now it was almost the middle of May and they still lacked several hundred dollars of the sum needed.

"I am going down town to sell papers this evening," said Fred as he finished his supper. "Maybe there will be an extra out and I can earn perhaps a dollar more than usual."

So he ran down the lane as fast as his legs would carry him. Mrs. Gordon sat by the window looking out across the handsome park and at the big stone house hidden in oaks in the distance. As she sat with tears in her eyes, Mr. Edmonds' car drew up before her door.

"I have called, madam," said Mr. Edmonds, "to tell you that if the last payment is not made on this property by May 15 I will have to claim it."

"But, Mr. Edmonds," exclaimed the widow, "we have worked so hard and so long to raise the money. Can you not wait at least two months longer? Think how faithfully my husband served you for years."

"That is true," returned the rich merchant. "But I paid him. I want this land to build on and you will be glad to get it. Be ready to move by the middle of May if the money is not ready," and his car rolled away up the handsome driveway.

Fred was away till late. The news of war had caused many extra papers to be sold, and when he did get home he was glad to find a hot lunch and his mother waiting for him. The night was a dark one, for the moon did not rise till about 2 o'clock. But suddenly the boy noticed a glare shining in the kitchen window. He opened the door.

"Look, mother," he exclaimed. "Mr. Edmonds' stables are on fire. The blaze is right in the loft wing, where he has Duroc's stall. I will go down and see what I can do." And without waiting to say another word he grabbed his coat and dashed toward the burning buildings.

Now, the stables on the Edmonds estate were some distance from the house, but near Mrs. Gordon's cottage. Besides, a grove of trees stood between them and the mansion, so a blaze might not be seen by the servants at the big house. Fred knew he must act at once, for in this stable was the beautiful Duroc, Mr. Edmonds' favorite horse and an animal of which Fred himself was very fond.

By the time the breathless boy reached the stable the left above the stall was a sheet of flame. He tore open the door and seized a hose, quickly turning on the water. With a swish, swish a shot into the blazing hay, but it only seemed to make the flames leap higher. Duroc was kicking in his stall, as the cinders fell on his glossy back. So Fred dragged the hose out and tried to throw on enough water to put out the red tongues of fire which darted out of the great loft of hay. But it was useless. Higher and higher they leaped, the hay burned up, and down the blazing timbers began to tumble into the stable around the stalls.

Throwing down the hose, the lad seized Duroc's halter and tried to lead the horse out, but the maddened animal refused to go. He fought and struggled, but not an inch would he budge. Then Fred remembered something that horses would not leave a burning building unless they were blindfolded. It was but the work of a moment to jerk off his jacket and wrap it about the animal's head, and as he did so the flames darted up to the stall and scorched his back. Fred shut his eyes, gathered up the rope to the halter, struck the horse with his hand and started out of the flaming doorway. Duroc quietly followed. Out of the flames and smoke they came and right into a crowd of people who were rushing to the rescue. And foremost among the men Fred recognized Mr. Edmonds himself.

"Here is Duroc! I saved him!" cried Fred as he fell unconscious on the ground. Duroc, when he opened his eyes he was not lying on the earth outside the stables, but on a bed in a beautiful room and his mother was bending over him, while Mr. Edmonds stood walking at the footboard.

"I guess you're all right now, my boy," said Mr. Edmonds. "And I have some news to tell you. I need a housekeeper for this place right now, so you and your mother will make this your home while you attend college in the city. After that it may be you can help me a bit in the management of my business as my confidential clerk."

So, happy, Fred turned over for a nap and slept soundly, while his mother sat by the bed dreaming about her boy's rosy future.

HEALTH NOTES

Plenty of water taken both externally and internally is good for the complexion. A glass of hot water taken before breakfast is good for the digestion. Fruits and green vegetables are also excellent.

Trouble brings on heart conditions and lung difficulties, it is said, because there is then a lack of iron and oxygen into the lungs and the breathing is never deep enough. Therefore, to make it a habit to breathe deeply, whether one feels like it or not, is one of the best remedies for the difficulty in hand, whatever it may be. Again, not only must plans be made for inventories, but a hope must be held out, which will give one a goal to work for. No one man or woman can live without the aim in life. The joys or favors in hand must be remembered, to be sure, but there must also be found the thing ahead in view, or there is a retarded state of mind which is unhealthy.

The unpleasant taste of castor oil can be avoided by putting orange juice in the bottom of the glass, then very gently pouring the oil down the side of the glass and adding orange juice on top.

When the eyes begin to settle back in the head it is due to a wasting away of the fatty cushion back of the eyes. Massage will not help this condition. You must build up the general health. Eat nutritious food, drink milk or cream between meals, take a brisk walk every morning and sleep in a well-ventilated room.

A camphorated bath is refreshing and leaves a pleasant color on the skin. Pour slowly into a basin of water, enough cream to make the water look milky and sponge the body with it. Tincture or benzoin, one-half ounce; tincture of camphor, one ounce; cologne, two ounces. Shake well and it is ready for use. The cleansing bath with soap and water should, of course, be taken first.

IS YOUR BABY UP TO NORMAL?

Mothers always like to know whether their children compare favorably with others in their development and to have some standard by which to measure growth. Some of these rules are simple and easily remembered.

The average weight of girl babies at birth is 7 pounds, that of boys 7½. Healthy babies usually double their weight by the sixth month and treble it by the end of the first year. Therefore if the baby weighs 21 pounds at one year of age it is up to normal.

The first tooth is usually cut from the sixth to the eighth month. The full set of 20 milk teeth should be in place when the baby is two years old. The "sixth year molar," as it is called, is the first of the permanent teeth to appear, but as it does not replace one of the first teeth mothers allow it to decay because they believe it is to be a temporary tooth.

The baby begins to laugh aloud in the third to the fifth month and speaks a few words by the end of the first year. He usually frames short sentences by the time he is two years old.

Baby should sit up unsupported a little while in the seventh or eighth month, stand at 10 or 11 months and walk alone by the 15th or 16th. The soft spot on the top of the head should be entirely closed by the end of the second year.—Written for the United Press by Mrs. Max West, of the Federal Children's Bureau.

FASHION NOTES

The demand for dainty underwear keeps pace with the universal tendency towards sumptuousness in outer apparel, and the lingerie of today is wonderfully beautiful. Perhaps the most noticeable tendency at the present time is the liking for colored underwear, for white, perhaps because of its paleness, has almost vanished like a wraith before the lovely flesh tints that are now the choice of fashionable women.

NEW SCHEDULE OF VACATIONS FOR BAMBERGER EMPLOYES

A new vacation schedule, "in recognition and reward for employes' services," has been announced by L. Bamberger & Co. It is based upon length of service.

During the first year, the company states, employes will be given one days vacation for every two months of employment prior to July 1. Those who have been on the pay roll one year will get a week's vacation in summer, and those who have been employed two years will receive two weeks' vacation in summer.

To those who have seen five years' service or more two weeks in summer and three days in winter will be granted. Ten-year employes will get two weeks in summer and one week in winter.

Fifteen years' service or more also will bring two weeks in summer and one in winter. On the completion of fifteen years, however, employes will receive $100. This continues in force, a gift plan of several years' standing. Twenty-year employes are to get two weeks in summer and two in winter.

It is the belief of firm members, states the announcement, that "health is a vital essential to efficiency," and that "change and rest are important factors in the general well-being of members of the 'store family.'"

UNUSUAL ATTRACTIONS AT PROCTOR'S THEATRE

Tuesday and Wednesday at Proctor's Theatre

The program at Proctor's on Monday consists of Virginia Pearson, the talented emotional star in "Sister Against Sister," portraying two sisters of widely varying temperament. Mrs. Vernon Castle also appears on Monday in "Patria," and a "Lonesome Luke" Comedy and a special scenic production are offered.

Tuesday and Wednesday the famous Selznick production "Panthea" appears, starring Norma Talmadge, and in addition the management includes the regular program releases. "Panthea" is a seven-part picturization of Menckton Hoffe's famous novel and recently appeared at the renowned Rialto Theatre, N. Y., for an entire week at prices ranging from 25c to 75c. The added attractions include the following: On Tuesday only, the five-part comedy drama, "Back of the Man," starring Dorothy Dalton, and Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria." The added feature Wednesday is a five-part William A. Brady play entitled "A Square Deal," starring Carlyle Blackwell.

On Thursday, Constance Talmadge is starred in a five-part Triangle play entitled "Betsy's Burglar."

Bargain prices prevail at Proctor's these two days. Patrons are urged to come early in order to secure choice seats for this wonderful collection of entertaining productions.

NOVELTY SHOW MONDAY AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Jean Bedini's Big Novelty Show, "Puss-Puss," claimed to be the liveliest production in burlesque, will play the Plainfield Theatre Monday matinee and night, April 2.

In the big production will be Minni (Buddie) Harrison, the girl with the melodious voice and a clever ingenue, Pam (Smiles) Lawrence, the little soubrette who scored a hit last year with this same show; Harry Jackson, a Hebrew comedian, who will be remembered from last season as Kabibble Potash, a designer of ladies' suits; Charlie Mac, as Cuti, a Hokem of the movies and English eccentric comedian, who formerly played with Charlie Chaplin, when he was last in vaudeville.

The beautiful "Kitten Chorus" that was the talk of the country last year is repeating it this season.

Bedini always has a surprise in the way of features; this year it will be a double header in the "Ignatz Pluto Troupe," and a travesty on the New York latest success, "Very Good Eddie."

Pam Lawrence, with "Puss-Puss," at the Plainfield Theatre Monday, matinee and night

DAUGHTER OF THE GODS AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

At the Plainfield Theatre tonight

"A Daughter of the Gods," hailed as the last word in magnificent moving picture sensations, closes its engagement tonight at the Plainfield Theatre. Some of the sea pictures in which Miss Kellermann figures, with 200 mermaids, for beauty of composition, lighting and general artistry, have never been equalled either on the screen or the painted canvas.

Some idea of the magnitude of the undertaking may be gained from the knowledge that 20,000 persons, 5,000 horses, a fleet of steamships and an entire island were needed to properly stage this titan of classics.

No area in the United States proved large enough, or suitable, for the purpose of proper production so Mr. Fox leased from the British Government an entire island at Kingston, Jamaica, in order that no detail might be left out of this perfect film.

NEWARK AMUSEMENT

Broad Street Theatre

"Pollyanna"—the glad play—will be seen at the Broad street Theatre, Newark, N. J., for one week only, beginning Monday, April 2, with usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

In the world of letters "Pollyanna" quickly found popular favor, and as a play it has been speeding under the same lucky star. "Gladness" is the logic quality of the story of book and stage. In brief, "Pollyanna" is one of those rare plays that serve the world by putting glow into living instead of gloom. Her unfailing "gladness," under any and all circumstances, puts light and laughter into the hearts of all around her, and sponges out the lines of yesterday. The witching "Pollyanna" is personified by Patricia Collinge, and her quaint ways friends who serve this purpose of the story bring into review the honored names of the theatre.

Joseph Jefferson, Selma Herald Yorke, Nanette Comstock, Rose Weathersby, Maud Monford, Mary Barfoot, Maud Granger, Stephen Derr and Henry Duffey are of these. It has been proclaimed that one out of every ten readers in the country here read "Pollyanna" with this as a basis of figuring; the play, with its advantage of flesh and blood, ought to find a higher percentage within the field of the theatre.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENT

At the Columbia

A new two-act burlesque called "The Aviator" will be presented by the Big Century Maids at the Columbia Theatre the week beginning Monday afternoon, April 2. "The piece is said to be a humorous satire of the efforts of an inventor to make aviation supplant all other forms of transit. Many laughable amusing scenes and situations are said to have been developed upon this idea and in which the comedians of the organization and the large chorus of girls are provided with the best of material that is intended to keep the spectators agreeably entertained. One of the special features of the entertainment, although a distinct departure from the gayeties of burlesque, is described as thrilling in its details and in the manner of its presentation. It is a pantomime drama called "The Mysteries of Paris" in which Miss Jessie Reynolds and Miss Eva Burke will appear supported by some of the principals in the cast and a number of the chorus. During the action of the playlet, the French pantomimists will introduce a sensational dance called "La Valse Rouge" which they are said to have performed with success in whole year at one of the leading cafes in Paris.

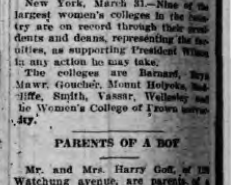
PARENTS OF A BOY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goff, of 138 Watchung avenue, are parents of a boy, born to them Thursday.



Nobody looking out of the windows these days; everybody's looking in at Hearn's windows.

Mothers, fathers, daughters, sons, girls, boys and babies; aunts and uncles, cousins, grandmothers, great-fathers—it doesn't make any difference who it is, Hearn's window is something that fascinates them all.

Mother sees that stunning Easter Suit. Father takes an unusual interest in Easter styles when he sees the shirts catch his eye. Daughter sees an adorable Taffeta Frock for herself just exactly like the one at which she's looking. Grandmother knows that Elmy, dedicate while Georgette Blouse, like the pretty colored one at the side would set off her snowy hair to its very best advantage. Grandfather hopes that surely someone will give him one of those handsome silk umbrellas for Easter. The girls want new white Dresses, the boys want new Suits, new Shoes, new Hats, new Shoes. And the whole family unanimously agrees that they should have all the pretty, perfectly sweet, cute things they can see.

There's one way to satisfy that eye peep in enough—that is unless you are tall enough to see over other folks' heads—that's where the Easter hill are.

But then, nobody stays outside Hearn's windows. They push open the swinging doors and go right in to Hearn's. Inside they know there will be enormous assortments, marvelous varieties, enormous stocks from which to choose. And every style is correct, attractive, as good value, as up-to-the-minute in fashion and as reasonable in price as that displayed outside.

Hearn's on the main floor—Easter gifts galore—Jewelry, Handkerchiefs, Bags, Easter Stockings, Easter Gloves, Easter Veils, Easter Ribbons, Easter Collars and Cuffs, Corsets, Easter Neckwear, Easter Silks, Easter Dress Goods.

Then comes the second floor—Easter Coats, Easter Suits, Easter Blouses, Easter Skirts, Easter Lingerie of Dainty Underwear. A great big department for the girls and then one for mother. Remember next week is Vacation Week so she can go herself to Hearn's to pick out the Easter Suit or Coat that first coat like the little girl above, or that Evening Dress or Dressy Real Silk Dress.

A great big department for the babies, everything in it a fascinator. For instance, the Bonnet pictured in medium weight Caps and Hoods for Easter Sunday. A great big Department.

Then the third floor. There you can buy surplus Army goods for women, because that's where all the irresistible millinery is sold.

On the other side of the building are tables and tables heaped high with spring clothes for the boys and young men. Not one style at one of the famously low prices, but a dozen different models. An equally great display of girls' clothes for the same at styles for your selection.

The boys have vacation, too, next week and how much more satisfactory will be your purchase if you bring him along.

Ever so many other departments where there are things worth your while, but for the Easter bride-to-be, Hearn's have made special preparations in Silverware, Cutlery and Linen Cabinets, Art Novelties, Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Goods and beautiful Shoes.

So don't stay outside, but play "follow the leader" and go into Hearn's. You won't be disappointed.

From China Come Colorful Suggestions that are Used with Rare Effect

By May Manton

WITHOUT doubt one of the all-important features to be noted in the newest models is the tendency toward Oriental effects, notably Chinese, although the Turkish influence also is apparent. As usually is the case the reason for the influence easily can be traced. This time it seems due to the fact that, while the Atlantic Ocean has proven a difficult highway, ships can come across the Pacific with ease and safety, and we are receiving materials and suggestions from China while it is difficult to get them from France. In many instances, the Chinese effects are good for there is an infinite variety of design to be obtained from the Chinese source. The colors are exceedingly rich and beautiful, and the designers of the better sort handle them with great success. One of the notable plays of the season shows the leading woman with gowns giving very marked evidence of the Chinese influence both in the coloring and in treatment. On the stage, the somewhat extreme Chinese effect is good, but for everyday use it certainly is to be looked upon askance and accepted with reserve. The Chinese embroideries are beautiful. Nothing could be lovelier than some of the flower motifs that are familiar and there are wonderful conventional designs that can be used with great success, while the possibilities of Chinese coloring scarcely can be too earnestly extolled. Again, the simplicity of the Chinese sleeves is lovely and the kimono model is apparent in a great many costumes. Women of fashion are utilizing genuine Mandarin coats for evening wraps and Mandarin models are employed for the making of lesser materials for those whose purses are of smaller size. What we know as the Turkish skirt or the full skirt that is turned up underneath and caught to a lining to give a hint of the Turkish trousers or the Souave effect, is much shown and especially liked. Frequently one sees a Turkish skirt combined with a blouse, giving evidence of the Chinese suggestion in the sleeves and in the general form. Evidently the designers are seeking suggestion and inspiration from all the sources open to them. It is the part of the buyer to discriminate, to use the good and forswear the extreme.

The Turkish effects are, as a matter of course, largely confined to evening and to dinner costumes. A very beautiful gown seen today is of silver gauze over a callot blue silk. The skirt is simple and full, gathered at the belt, turned under and caught to a foundation. There is absolutely no trimming, for the designer knows well that trimming would spoil the wonderful material and color effect. The bodice is one of the very new ones closed at the back. There, it forms a V and is simply full. At the front it is laid in tucks across the center that provide fullness and is draped into short sleeves to be most charming. A novel feature is the collar-like band of white satin which stands away a little from the neck at the front. There is a straight band or belt of the gauze with a flat bow of the pump sort, making a finish at the waist line. A dinner gown is of the soft beautiful satin that is so much liked in a very wonderful shade of red that matches the American Beauty Rose. Again, the skirt is perfectly plain but very full and turned under in Turkish style. The bodice is of embroidered crêpe in exactly matching color with a half low, round neck and long close fitting sleeves of the kimono sort. The neck and sleeve edges are finished in the simplest possible manner, and beneath the bodice is to be seen a foundation or lining of the satin that is simply straight under the arm. The girdle in this instance is of velvet ribbon two inches in width, passed flat around the waist, finished again with a flat bow, but falling in loops over the skirt at the left side and with one end caught up to the shoulder. These costumes do not show exaggeratedly short length, but there is something of a tendency to make the Turkish skirt very short, so short in fact that it fails to be beautiful. At a notable dance of the week was seen such a costume in cerise with silk stockings and slippers to match, but the expanse between the edge of the skirt and the top of the slippers was altogether too exaggerated to be really attractive or really beautiful. Frills of lace attached under the skirts and falling to give something of the pabastelle suggestion are to be noted in many of these extremely short skirts, but so far as the writer's observation goes, the best style calls for moderate length here as it does elsewhere. The skirts are worn by the smartest women and put forth by designers of the greatest repute are not the skirts that cause a sense of shock or suggest criticism as to the display of hosiery.

Chinese coloring is always rich and you can use it in bits with wonderful success. If you have the artists eye for color you can make combinations that are a real delight. A costume completed this week is made of one of the lovely rangee-like silks in an exquisite shade of lavender or wisteria color, and accompanying it is a stock collar and four-in-hand scarf of Chinese yellow crêpe. Until you have seen that combination you would scarcely realize how lovely it is, but, as a matter of course, both colors must be well chosen. The danger in all sash fashions lies in the fact that so many women are color blind or approximately color blind. They do not differentiate shades, and if they see a perfect costume of this sort they will copy it with variations of color that absolutely spoil the effect. It is not any lavender and any yellow that can be put together, it is only the correct shades that will produce the result. A second handsome costume that gives evidence of the Chinese inspiration is of oyster white silk with a plain plaited skirt and a loose showing embroidery in discs approximately two inches in diameter in distinctly Chinese style and coloring. The design is not woven. It is embroidered onto the material for that special costume, and, as a matter of course, that treatment means distinction. The Chinese embroidery does not cover the entire disc, but shows an irregular border, so to speak, of wonderfully combined colors that are really superb.

Chemise Gowns and Russian Blouses Make a Feature of the Coming Season

By May Manton

COSTUMES of silk or of jersey made in simple styles and designed for morning wear, and costumes of dainty lingerie materials of Georgette crêpe and of fine net for the afternoon, make the salient features of warm weather styles. We shall be rich in materials, we are colorful in the extreme when we go forth to watch the game of golf or perhaps participate therein, but we shall be daintily womanlike and cool in effect when we array ourselves for the afternoon visit, for the piazza tea or for any similar function of social life. On the street, we are to wear a great deal of beige and of tan and of grey and of other soft tones relieved perhaps but bright color, but, nevertheless, charmingly restful and pleasant to look upon. For the lingerie gowns of the afternoon, filet lace makes the favorite trimming and there are also wonderful embroidered trimmings that are very fascinating, and if you are so minded you can embroider the gown itself to get a really French effect and produce for a little money what would cost a fabulous sum if you buy it after it is passed from the designer to the agent and from the agent to the wholesaler and from the wholesaler to the retailer. When all these profits are paid, it is very nearly worth its weight in gold, albeit that weight is not extreme. Net is really wonderful for Summer gowns. It washes as perfectly as a pocket handkerchief, it is durable and it is the daintiest possible fabric. Organdie, however, is a close rival. Organdie gowns also are embroidered and sometimes trimmed with the filet lace. Organdie is essentially a dainty material, but if you are of an economical mind and desirous of obtaining a gown that will really see service, be careful that you purchase a good sort. To the untrained eye and to the casual observer, organdie may be all alike, but the fine French sorts, for which the big prices are charged, are given that peculiar crispness that remains after laundering by a treatment of the threads before the weaving is done. The cheapest sorts are treated after the weaving and after the first washing, are apt to lose the essential crispness. Fine cotton voiles are being used, too, and let it be whispered that both voiles and organdie and also handkerchief lawn will be worn in colors as well as in white, and not infrequently, in the two combined. If you want to get the bright bit of color that owes its influence to a great many different causes you can wear a girdle or a necktie or you can tuck a brilliant flower in the girdle of quieter tone.

With the Summer gowns hats are to be large and simply trimmed, and one of the very pretty fancies of the season is for the hat and parasol to match, that is to say, with the hat made with the brim of fine straw and the crown covered with material to match the parasol. Also, you may like to add a bag, for the wrist bag is a very important little accessory just now and if you have one for every costume you will have none too many to please La Mode.

What we know as the chemise gowns or those that are literally in one piece from shoulder to lower edge and held by girdles are greatly liked, and they are used for lingerie and fine materials as well as for soft silk. There is a very pretty example in the illustration to the left. The plaits give extremely soft and becoming lines and since soft materials are the universal ones they do not give any sense of flare while at the same time they provide comfortable width. The bell-shaped sleeves and the round neck with the draped collar are important features for they are conspicuous in many of the newest models and many of the best ones.

What is known as the tunic blouse or the over long blouse that is worn with a belt makes another favorite. It is very charming of Georgette crêpe over silk or for the crêpe de chine gown, and you can, of course, use such a one as is shown here for cotton voile or for net. Net embroidred and worn over a full skirt of the same material would make a very dainty and charming costume. You do not need to make very elaborate embroidery.

The All Important Accessory

THAT the accessory often makes or mars the costume is a fact well understood by the well-dressed woman. This season it is, perhaps, exceptionally important and here are good designs that will prove a real help. The parasol would be especially pretty for the linen or lingerie costume and if you like you can make a bag to match, using a panel design for each side. The little bag is in what is known as a modified saddle bag form and the design can be utilized for beads or for French knots or for running stitch combined with belts. It is absolutely simple and at the same time most effective. Beads would be pretty on satin, but on linen material you could use a highly mercerized thread to get a good effect. Every smart costume calls for a sash or a girdle, and with the simple ones neck girdles will be much worn.

866

"I Might Have Had A Hudson Super-Six"

Last spring many thousands of car buyers delayed their choice too long. They found our output two or three months oversold.

Don't wait as they did. It means long regret to say, "I might have had a Hudson Super-Six."

No Car Like It

The Super-Six motor is patented. No other car offers anything like it.

The difference is enormous. This one invention added 80 per cent. to motor efficiency. It almost doubled endurance.

The Super-Six holds all the worthwhile records. In speed, in hill-climbing, in long distance performance, nothing has ever matched it.

But it excels above all in endurance. It broke the 24-hour record by 52 per cent. It twice broke the ocean-to-ocean record in one continuous 7000-mile round trip.

Why It Endures

The thing we fight is friction. That wastes the power, and it causes wear. It is friction that destroys machinery.

In the Super-Six motor friction is almost ended. After thousands of miles under top-speed strain, this motor has shown no evidence of wear.

Again and again it has performed feats which would break other motors to pieces. Yet not a part or bearing was affected.

That's its supreme advantage. The Hudson Super-Six will outlive, probably, any man who drives it.

New Economies

This year we add a new gasoline saver in the form of radiator shutters that control in part the heat of the motor. We add a motormeter. We put a primer at the driver's hand. We use a patent pneumatic carburetor which adjusts itself to every engine speed.

We are using bodies which, in beauty and luxury, excel anything you've seen. We use plaited upholstery made of rare-grade leather. We have a finish which is wonderfully enduring.

But the Super-Six motor means more than all. It means performance such as no other car can match. It means endurance such as other cars can't hope for. It means pride in your car.

Last year, because of this motor, Hudson outsold any car in the world with a price above $1100.
